[Order No. 96]

AN ORDER ESTABLISHING MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER EIGHT IN CONFORMITY WITH SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTIONS (A) AND (B) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having established in each of the districts under its jurisdiction, as an agency of the Commission, a statistical bureau, and having directed by its Order Number 15 producers of bituminous coal to file therewith cost data for the calendar year 1936; the district boards having been organized pursuant to Section 4, Part I, (a), of the Act and such district boards having, from cost data submitted by the statistical bureaus for their respective districts, determined, pursuant to Order Number 55 of the Commission, the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in their respective districts in the calendar year 1936 and having adjusted the average costs so determined, as was necessary to give effect to any changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors substantially affecting costs, exclusive of seasonal changes, so as to reflect as accurately as possible any change or changes which had been established since January 1, 1936, and having submitted to the Commission such determinations and the computations upon which they were based; the Commission having thereupon determined by its Order Number 62 the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for Minimum Price Area One in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as aforesaid, and having transmitted the same to the several district boards in such minimum price area; each district board in a minimum price area having proposed minimum prices free on board transportation facilities at the mines for the kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced in their respective districts, and classifications of coals and price variations as to mines, consuming market areas, values as to uses and seasonal demand, said prices having been proposed so as to yield a return per net ton for each district, equal as nearly as may be to the weighted average of the total costs, per net ton, of the tonnage of such minimum price area, such total costs computed as provided by subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, the minimum prices having been proposed on tentative weighted average costs, with later adjustments thereof to reflect the actual adjusted weighted average costs; the Commission having by its Order Number 83 determined and established the initial classifications of coals of code members within said District Eight; the District Board for District Number Eight having failed to coordinate in common consuming market areas with other districts upon a fair competitive basis the said proposed minimum prices as found by Commission Order Number 60, and the Commission having acted in lieu of said District Board under the authority of Section 6 (a) of the Act in coordinating the said proposed minimum prices upon a fair competitive basis in common consuming market areas as determined by the Commission and set forth in the attached Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members within District Number Eight, hereinafter referred to; and

The Commission, in coordinating and establishing the prices, having taken into account, among other factors, the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal, and transportation charges upon coal, and having conformed to the standards that such prices (a) be just and equitable as between producers within each district, (b) do not permit dumping, (c) be just and equitable and not unduly prejudicial or preferential, as between and among districts, (d) reflect, as nearly as possible, the relative market values, at points of delivery in each common consuming market area, of the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coals produced in the various districts, taking into account values as to uses, seasonal demand, transportation methods and charges and their effect upon a reasonable opportunity to compete on a fair basis, and the competitive relationships between coal and other forms of fuel and energy, (e) preserve, as nearly as may be, existing fair competitive opportunities, and (f) have due regard for the interests of the consuming public; and

The Commission having accepted the proposed minimum prices as submitted by the District Board of District Number Eight, and having modified same so as to conform to the standards set forth in the Act, and having used said proposed prices as modified as a basis for coordination with other districts, has coordinated same in conformity with the provisions of the Act and in the manner aforesaid, and having determined that the minimum prices so coordinated do not, as to District Number Eight or any other district with which prices were so coordinated, reduce or increase the return per net ton upon all the coal produced within any of such districts below or above the minimum return as provided in subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, by an amount greater than necessary to accomplish such coordination, and that the return per net ton upon the entire tonnage of the minimum price area in which any such district is located, at such prices as coordinated, will approximate the weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of such minimum price area.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the minimum prices of coals of code members produced within District Number Eight, set opposite the names of code members and their respective mines, as the same appear in the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Eight, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Eight and such minimum prices shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That any code member or district board or member thereof, or any State or political subdivision of a State, or the Consumers' Counsel who shall be dissatisfied with the coordination of prices or by any minimum price established, may at any time after this date make complaint by petition to the Commission, pursuant to Section 4, Part II (d), and in conformity with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Commission shall after notice and hearing make such further order as may be required to effectuate the purpose of subsection (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act. Pending final disposition of such petition and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission may at any time make such preliminary or temporary order as in its judgment may be appropriate, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Eight to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for the districts within Minimum Price Area One and to code members within District Number Eight, shall cause copies of this order and said Schedule and copies of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all statistical bureaus of the Commission, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 30th day of November, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1—DISTRICT NO. 8

Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 8, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective: 12:01 a. m., December 16, 1937.

Issued: November 30, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

1. The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is submitted to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10 cents per net ton shall be made.

7. Crushed coal.—Where any coal is crushed the minimum price therefor shall be the minimum price established for the original size, before crushing, plus five cents per net ton.

8. Modified 2" Nut and Slack.—2" Nut and Slack from which a portion of the 3/8", or smaller, top size by 0" has been removed, shall be sold at the following prices:

(a) When removing a portion of 3/8 to 1/8 (inclusive) by 0" slack, not exceeding 40%, the price at the modified nut and slack shall be not less than 5¢ per nut ton higher than the 2" nut and slack price.

(b) When removing a portion of 3/8 to 1/8 (inclusive) by 0" slack, exceeding 40 percent and not exceeding 80 percent, the price of the modified nut and slack shall be not less than 10¢ per net ton higher than the 2" nut and slack price.

(c) When intermediate sizes, double screened, exceeding 30% and not exceeding 40%, are removed from 2" Nut and Slack, the remaining product, when re-assembled shall take Group 13 price.

(d) When intermediate sizes, double screened, exceeding 40% and not exceeding 80%, are removed from 2" Nut and Slack, the remaining product, when re-assembled, shall take a price 10 cents below Group 12 price.

(e) When intermediate sizes, double screened, exceeding 80%, are removed from 2" Nut and Slack, the remaining product, when re-assembled, shall take Group 14 price.

The above price basis for modified 2" Nut and Slack will remain in effect for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, after their effective date, subject to the District Board substantiating the necessity for such modification and prices.

9. Cannel Coal Prices.—

|---|---|
| Block, Chunks, and Lumps | 4.00 |
| Egg | 3.25 |
| Ships | 2.50 |
| Machine Cuttings | 1.60 |

10. Domestic Mine Run.—Includes all mine run coal either straight or modified that has a maximum coarse coal content of 60% or less and that has a minimum coarse coal content of more than 40%.

Coarse Coal Content is defined as such sizes of coal as would pass over a 3/4" round hole screen at the time it leaves the loading boom or chute at the tipple to enter the rail road car or truck.

The definition of Domestic Run of Mine Coal and Prices thereon as designated herein, will remain in effect for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, after their effective date, subject to the District Board substantiating the necessity for and the legality of such designation for these grades.

SUBSTITUTION CLAUSE

The substitution on any order of a grade or size of coal taking a minimum price higher than the grade or size ordered is not authorized or permitted.

[Order No. 97]

AN ORDER ESTABLISHING MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER NINE IN CONFORMITY WITH SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTIONS (A) AND (B) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having established in each of the districts under its jurisdiction, as an agency of the Commission, a statistical bureau, and having directed by its Order Number 15 producers of bituminous coal to file therewith cost data for the calendar year 1936; the district boards having been organized pursuant to Section 4, Part I, (a), of the Act and such district boards having, from cost data submitted by the statistical bureaus for their respective districts, determined, pursuant to Order Number 55 of the Commission, the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in their respective districts in the calendar year 1936 and having adjusted the average costs so determined, as was necessary to give effect to any changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors substantially affecting costs, exclusive of seasonal changes, so as to reflect as accurately as possible any change or changes which had been established since January 1, 1936, and having submitted to the Commission such determinations and the computations upon which they were based; the Commission having thereupon determined by its Order Number 63 the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for Minimum Price Area Two in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as aforesaid, and having transmitted the same to the several district boards in such minimum price area; each district board in a minimum price area having proposed minimum prices free on board transportation facilities at the mines for the kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced in their respective districts, and classifications of coals and price variations as to mines, consuming market areas, values as to uses and seasonal demand, said prices having been proposed so as to yield a return per net ton for each district, equal as nearly as may be to the weighted average of the total costs, per net ton, of the tonnage of such minimum price area, such total costs computed as provided by subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, the minimum prices having been proposed on tentative weighted average costs, with later adjustments thereof to reflect the actual adjusted weighted average costs; the Commission having by its Order Number 79 determined and established the initial classifications of coals of code members within said District Nine; the District Board for District Number Nine having failed to coordinate in common consuming market areas with other districts upon a fair competitive basis the said proposed minimum prices as found by Commission Order Number 60, and the Commission having acted in lieu of said District Board under the authority of Section 6 (a) of the Act in coordinating the said proposed minimum prices upon a fair competitive basis in common consuming market areas as determined by the Commission and set forth in the attached Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members within District Number Nine, hereinafter referred to; and

The Commission, in coordinating and establishing the prices, having taken into account, among other factors, the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal, and transportation charges upon coal, and having conformed to the standards that such prices (a) be just and equitable as between producers within each district (b) do not permit dumping, (c) be just and equitable and not unduly prejudicial or preferential, as between and among districts, (d) reflect, as nearly as possible, the relative market values, at points of delivery in each common consuming market area, of the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coals produced in the various districts, taking into account values as to uses, seasonal demand, transportation methods and charges and their effect upon a reasonable opportunity to compete on a fair basis, and the competitive relationships between coal and other forms of fuel and energy, (e) preserve, as nearly as may be, existing fair competitive opportunities, and (f) have due regard for the interests of the consuming public; and

The Commission having accepted the proposed minimum prices as submitted by the District Board of District Number Nine, and having modified same so as to conform to the standards set forth in the Act, and having used said proposed prices as modified as a basis for coordination with other districts, has coordinated same in conformity with the provisions of the Act and in the manner aforesaid, and having determined that the minimum prices so coordinated do not, as to District Number Nine or any other district with which prices were so coordinated, reduce or increase the return per net ton upon all the coal produced within any of such districts below or above the minimum return as provided in subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, by an amount greater than necessary to accomplish such coordination, and that the return per net ton upon the entire tonnage of the minimum price area in which any such district is located, at such prices as coordinated, will approximate the weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of such minimum price area.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the minimum prices of coals of code members produced within District Number Nine, set opposite the names of code members and their respective mines, as the same appear in the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Nine, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Nine and such minimum prices shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That any code member or district board or member thereof, or any State or political subdivision of a State, or the Consumers' Counsel who shall be dissatisfied with the coordination of prices or by any minimum price established, may at any time after this date make complaint by petition to the Commission, pursuant to Section 4, Part II (d), and in conformity with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Commission shall after notice and hearing make such further order as may be required to effectuate the purpose of subsection (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act. Pending final disposition of such petition and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission may at any time make such preliminary or temporary order as in its judgment may be appropriate, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Nine to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for the districts within Minimum Price Area Two and to code members within District Number Nine, shall cause copies of this order and said Schedule and copies of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all statistical bureaus of the Commission, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 30th day of November, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

[F. R. Doc. 37-3481; Filed, December 1, 1937; 12:26 p. m.]

[Order No. 98]

AN ORDER ESTABLISHING MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER TEN IN CONFORMITY WITH SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTIONS (A) AND (B) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having established in each of the districts under its jurisdiction, as an agency of the Commission, a statistical bureau, and having directed by its Order Number 15 producers of bituminous coal to file therewith cost data for the calendar year 1936; the district boards having been organized pursuant to Section 4, Part I (a), of the Act and such district boards having, from cost data submitted by the statistical bureaus for their respective districts, determined, pursuant to Order Number 55 of the Commission, the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in their respective districts in the calendar year 1936 and having adjusted the average costs so determined, as was necessary to give effect to any changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors substantially affecting costs, exclusive of seasonal changes, so as to reflect as accurately as possible any change or changes which had been established since January 1, 1936, and having submitted to the Commission such determinations and the computations upon which they were based; the Commission having thereupon determined by its Order Number 63 the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for Minimum Price Area Two in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as aforesaid, and having transmitted the same to the several district boards in such minimum price area; each district board in a minimum price area having proposed minimum prices free on board transportation facilities at the mines for the kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced in their respective districts, and classifications of coals and price variations as to mines, consuming market areas, values as to uses and seasonal demand, said prices having been proposed so as to yield a return per net ton for each district, equal as nearly as may be to the weighted average of the total costs, per net ton, of the tonnage of such minimum price area, such total costs computed as provided by subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, the minimum prices having been proposed on tentative weighted average costs, with later adjustments thereof to reflect the actual adjusted weighted average costs; the Commission having by its Order Number 80 determined and established the initial classifications of coals of code members within said District Ten; the District Board for District Number Ten having failed to coordinate in common consuming market areas with other districts upon a fair competitive basis the said proposed minimum prices as found by Commission Order Number 60, and the Commission having acted in lieu of said District Board under the authority of Section 6 (a) of the Act in coordinating the said proposed minimum prices upon a fair competitive basis in common consuming market areas as determined by the Commission and set forth in the attached Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members within District Number Ten, hereinafter referred to; and

The Commission, in coordinating and establishing the prices, having taken into account, among other factors, the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal, and transportation charges upon coal, and having conformed to the standards that such prices (a) be just and equitable as between producers within each district, (b) do not permit dumping, (c) be just and equitable and not unduly prejudicial or preferential, as between and among districts, (d) reflect, as nearly as possible, the relative market values, at points of delivery in each common consuming market area, of the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coals produced in the various districts, taking into account values as to uses, seasonal demand, transportation methods and charges and their effect upon a reasonable opportunity to compete on a fair basis, and the competitive relationships between coal and other forms of fuel and energy, (e) preserve, as nearly as may be, existing fair competitive opportunities, and (f) have due regard for the interests of the consuming public; and

The Commission having accepted the proposed minimum prices as submitted by the District Board of District Number Ten, and having modified same so as to conform to the standards set forth in the Act, and having used said proposed prices as modified as a basis for coordination with other districts, has coordinated same in conformity with the provisions of the Act and in the manner aforesaid, and having determined that the minimum prices so coordinated do not, as to District Number Ten or any other district with which prices were so coordinated, reduce or increase the return per net ton upon all the coal produced within any of such districts below or above the minimum return as provided in subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, by an amount greater than necessary to accomplish such coordination, and that the return per net ton upon the entire tonnage of the minimum price area in which any such district is located, at such prices as coordinated, will approximate the weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of such minimum price area.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the minimum prices of coals of code members produced within District Number Ten, set opposite the names of code members and their respective mines, as the same appear in the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Ten, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Ten and such minimum prices shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That any code member or district board or member thereof, or any State or political subdivision of a State, or the Consumers' Counsel who shall be dissatisfied with the coordination of prices or by any minimum price established, may at any time after this date make complaint by petition to the Commission, pursuant to Section 4, Part II (d), and in conformity with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Commission shall after notice and hearing make such further order as may be required to effectuate the purpose of subsection (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act. Pending final disposition of such petition and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission may at any time make such preliminary or temporary order as in its judgment may be appropriate, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Ten to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for the districts within Minimum Price Area Two and to code members within District Number Ten, shall cause copies of this order and said Schedule and copies of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all statistical bureaus of the Commission, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the Federal Register.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 30th day of November, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1—DISTRICT NO. 10

Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 10, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937".

Effective 12:01 a. m., December 16, 1937.

Issued November 30, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

Applicable to All Schedules of Minimum Prices Contained Herein

Item No. 1.—The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

Item No. 2.—All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

Item No. 3.—All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

Item No. 4.—In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

Item No. 5.—All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 pounds f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

Item No. 6.—When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil, or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10 cents per net ton shall be made.

Item No. 7.—Crushed coal.—Where any coal is crushed the minimum price therefor shall be the minimum price established for the original size, before crushing, plus five cents per net ton.

Item No. 8.—All delivered price differentials under Southern Illinois mines included in Mine Price Group "A" are based on the published and effective West Frankfort or Harrisburg freight rates, whichever is the lower.

Item No. 9.—Washed nut and stoker coals.—For application in all market areas, except Market Areas Nos. 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 36, the amounts indicated below will be added to the raw coal prices when the following sizes are washed:

Size Group No. 6, 10 cents per net ton.
" " " 7, 10 cents " " "
" " " 8, 10 cents " " "

Item No. 10.—Two inch screenings.—The price in all market areas of 2" screenings of their respective preparation (raw, washed, deducted and modified) shall be 10 cents per ton higher than the prices of the corresponding preparation of 1½" and 1¼" screenings.

Item No. 11.—Special sizes ⅜", or smaller, top size.—Washed or air-cleaned carbon ⅜", or smaller, top size, shall be forty-five cents per ton higher than the price for size group 14.

Prices for ⅜" or 5/16" x 48 mesh (Raw) shall be 30 cents per ton more than the price for size group 14.

SUBSTITUTION CLAUSE

The substitution on any order of a grade or size of coal taking a minimum price higher than the grade or size ordered is not authorized or permitted.

SIZE SPECIFICATIONS

A. Raw screenings is coal passing through round hole screens 2", 1½", 1¼", 1" or ¾" in diameter or the equivalent, to which nothing has been added and nothing removed; except that 1½" or 1¼" screenings which have been separated and reassembled shall contain not less than the following percentages of sizes, with a tolerance of 1½%:

5/16" x 0 ..... 40%
10 Mesh x 0 ..... 15%
48 Mesh x 0 ..... 6%

Percentages for the sizes of screenings, other than 1½" or 1¼", which have been separated and reassembled, shall be coordinated hereto mathematically.

Gob, pickings or other tipple reject coal crushed 2" or smaller, and washed, containing an ash content not less than raw screenings from the same mine, may be sold at not less than the minimum prices established for raw screenings of similar top size.

B. Modified screenings shall contain not less than 23.5% of coal which will pass through screens with openings 5/16" in diameter or other shaped openings equivalent in area. This size may be produced either by passing 1½" or 1¼" screenings over screens with perforations 5/16" in diameter or other shaped openings equivalent in area, to remove 5/16" x 0 coal or by the standard mechanical dedusters with the use of a 10 mesh screen for Southern Illinois and 8 mesh for other districts or its equivalent. The 23.5% mentioned applies only to this size; percentage for the other sizes to be correlated thereto mathematically.

C. The differentials in the prices for Washed screenings over those for raw screenings shall apply on screenings 2" and under when washed, if the ash content (on a dry basis) for the various classifications is not less than the following schedule:

Belleville ..... 10% Ash-Dry Basis.
Central ..... 10% Ash-Dry Basis.
Northern ..... 6% Ash-Dry Basis.
Peoria-Fulton ..... 10% Ash-Dry Basis.
Southern ..... 8% Ash-Dry Basis.

For each 1% decrease in the ash content from the above schedule an increase of 3¢ per ton shall be made in the price differential over raw coal prices. A tolerance of .9% in ash content is allowable without an increase in the differential.

Maximum fines to be removed when 100% wet washed, that material which will pass through standard one-half millimeter screens; when coal ⅜" or under is air cleaned, maximum fines to be removed to be the equivalent of 100% wet washed.

The established Minimum Mine Prices for coals from mines in Mine Price Groups other than Mine Price Group "A" for delivery in Consuming Market Areas Nos. 23, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 33, 34, 99, 100, 101, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 111, 112, 140, 141, 142, 143, 145, 146, and 147 are based on the transportation charges from such mines being the amounts shown, under those from West Frankfort, Ill., or Harrisburg, Ill., whichever is lower, and as listed under heading "Transportation Charge Difference."

The Minimum Mine Prices for coal from mines in Mine Price Groups, other than Mine Price Group "A", for delivery at points in Consuming Market Areas Nos. 23, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 33, 34, 99, 100, 101, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 111, 112, 140, 141, 142, 143, 145, 146, and 147 to which the transportation charges are not the same amounts under those from mines in Mine Price Group "A" as shown under heading "Transportation Charge Difference" will be Minimum Mine Prices determined in the following manner:

By adding 1¢ per ton to Minimum Mine Prices (with maximum addition of 35¢ per ton), for each 1¢ per ton which transportation charge difference exceeds amount shown under "Transportation Charge Difference." By deducting 1¢ per ton from Minimum Mine Prices (with maximum deduction of 35¢ per ton), for each 1¢ per ton which transportation charge difference is less than amount shown under "Transportation Charge Difference."

The established Minimum Mine Prices for coals from mines in Mine Price Groups other than Mine Price Group "A" for delivery in Consuming Market Area No. 26 are based on the transportation charges from such mines being the amounts shown, under those from West Frankfort, Ill., or Harrisburg, Ill., whichever is lower, and as listed under heading "Transportation Charge Difference."

The Minimum Mine Prices for coal from mines in Mine Price Groups, other than Mine Price Group "A", for delivery at points in Consuming Market Area No. 26 to which the transportation charges are not the same amounts under those from mines in Mine Price Group "A" as shown under heading "Transportation Charge Difference" will be Minimum Mine Prices determined in the following manner:

By adding 1¢ per ton to Minimum Mine Prices (with maximum addition of 35¢ per ton), for each 1¢ per ton which transportation charge difference exceeds amount shown under "Transportation Charge Difference." By deducing 1¢ per ton from Minimum Mine Prices (with maximum deduction of 35¢ per ton), for each 1¢ per ton which transportation charge difference is less than amount shown under "Transportation Charge Difference."

[Order No. 99]

AN ORDER ESTABLISHING MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER ELEVEN IN CONFORMITY WITH SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTIONS (A) AND (B) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having established in each of the districts under its jurisdiction, as an agency of the Commission, a statistical bureau, and having directed by its Order Number 15 producers of bituminous coal to file therewith cost data for the calendar year 1936; the district boards having been organized pursuant to Section 4, Part I, (a), of the Act and such district boards having, from cost data submitted by the statistical bureaus for their respective districts, determined, pursuant to Order Number 55 of the Commission, the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in their respective districts in the calendar year 1936 and having adjusted the average costs so determined, as was necessary to give effect to any changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors substantially affecting costs, exclusive of seasonal changes, so as to reflect as accurately as possible any change or changes which had been established since January 1, 1936, and having submitted to the Commission such determinations and the computations upon which they were based; the Commission having thereupon determined by its Order Number 63 the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for Minimum Price Area Two in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as aforesaid, and having transmitted the same to the several district boards in such minimum price area; each district board in a minimum price area having proposed minimum prices free on board transportation facilities at the mines for the kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced in their respective districts, and classifications of coals and price variations as to mines, consuming market areas, values as to uses and seasonal demand, said prices having been proposed so as to yield a return per net ton for each district, equal as nearly as may be to the weighted average of the total costs, per net ton, of the tonnage of such minimum price area, such total costs computed as provided by subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, the minimum prices having been proposed on tentative weighted average costs, with later adjustments thereof to reflect the actual adjusted weighted average costs; the Commission having by its Order Number 84 determined and established the initial classifications of coals of code members within said District Eleven; the District Board for District Number Eleven having failed to coordinate in common consuming market areas with other districts upon a fair competitive basis the said proposed minimum prices as found by Commission Order Number 60, and the Commission having acted in lieu of said District Board under the authority of Section 6 (a) of the Act in coordinating the said proposed minimum prices upon a fair competitive basis in common consuming market areas as determined by the Commission and set forth in the attached Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members within District Number Eleven, hereinafter referred to; and

The Commission, in coordinating and establishing the prices, having taken into account, among other factors, the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal, and transportation charges upon coal, and having conformed to the standards that such prices (a) be just and equitable as between producers within each district, (b) do not permit dumping, (c) be just and equitable and not unduly prejudicial or preferential, as between and among districts, (d) reflect, as nearly as possible, the relative market values, at points of delivery in each common consuming market area, of the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coals produced in the various districts, taking into account values as to uses, seasonal demand, transportation methods and charges and their effect upon a reasonable opportunity to compete on a fair basis, and the competitive relationships between coal and other forms of fuel and energy, (e) preserve, as nearly as may be, existing fair competitive opportunities, and (f) have due regard for the interests of the consuming public; and

The Commission having accepted the proposed minimum prices as submitted by the District Board of District Number Eleven, and having modified same so as to conform to the standards set forth in the Act, and having used said proposed prices as modified as a basis for coordination with other districts, has coordinated same in conformity with the provisions of the Act and in the manner aforesaid, and having determined that the minimum prices so coordinated do not, as to District Number Eleven or any other district with which prices were so coordinated, reduce or increase the return per net ton upon all the coal produced within any of such districts below or above the minimum return as provided in subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, by an amount greater than necessary to accomplish such coordination, and that the return per net ton upon the entire tonnage of the minimum price area in which any such district is located, at such prices as coordinated, will approximate the weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of such minimum price area.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the minimum prices of coals of code members produced within District Number Eleven, set opposite the names of code members and their respective mines, as the same appear in the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Eleven, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Eleven and such minimum prices shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That any code member or district board or member thereof, or any State or political subdivision of a State, or the Consumers' Counsel who shall be dissatisfied with the coordination of prices or by any minimum price established, may at any time after this date make complaint by petition to the Commission, pursuant to Section 4, Part II (d), and in conformity with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Commission shall after notice and hearing make such further order as may be required to effectuate the purpose of subsection (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act. Pending final disposition of such petition and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission may at any time make such preliminary or temporary order as in its judgment may be appropriate, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Eleven to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for the districts within Minimum Price Area Two and to code members within District Number Eleven, shall cause copies of this order and said Schedule and copies of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all statistical bureaus of the Commission, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 30th day of November, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1—DISTRICT NO. 11

Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 11, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective: 12:01 a. m., December 16, 1937.

Issued: November 30, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

Item No. 1.—The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

Item No. 2.—All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

Item No. 3.—All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

Item No. 4.—In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

Item No. 5.—All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

Item No. 6.—When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10 cents per net ton shall be made.

Item No. 7.—Crushed coal.—Where any coal is crushed the minimum price therefor shall be the minimum price established for the original size, before crushing, plus five cents per net ton.

Item No. 8.—Picking-table reject coal.—The price of unwashed picking-table reject coal, 1½" top sizes or less, commonly known as breaker screenings, for delivery in all market areas, shall be 25¢ per ton less than the price of 1½" or 1¼" screenings of the same classification, except that the price of such coal produced at Class F mines shall be the same as the price of such coal produced at Class E mines.

Picking-table reject coal crushed 1½" or smaller, and washed or air-cleaned, containing an ash content of not less than raw screenings from the same mine, may be sold at not less than the minimum price established for raw screenings of similar top size. (See Definition in Item No. 16.)

Item No. 9.—Mechanically cleaned and/or washed nut and stoker coals.—All mechanically cleaned and/or washed nut and stoker coals shall be priced a minimum of ten cents (10¢) per net ton higher than raw coal of the same size.

Item No. 10.—⅜" minus coals.—For application in all Market Areas, the prices of the sizes of coal indicated below will be determined by deducting from the prices of 1¼" raw screenings (Size Group No. 11), the amounts per ton shown opposite each size:

⅜" Minus (washed), 15 cents per ton.
¾" Minus (air-cleaned), 15 cents per ton.
⅜" x 10 Mesh (raw), 15 cents per ton.
⅜" x 10 Mesh (water dedusted), 20 cents per ton.
⅜" x 28 Mesh (water dedusted), 25 cents per ton.
10 Mesh x 28 Mesh (water dedusted), 60 cents per ton.

Item No. 11.—Brazil block 2" and 2½" lump.—The prices of 2 inch and 2½ inch Brazil Block lump coal, for delivery in all Market Areas, will be 10 cents per ton less than the prices published for those sizes of coal in Size Group No. 1.

Item No. 12.—Two inch screenings.—The prices in all Market Areas of 2" screenings of their respective preparation (raw, washed, dedusted and modified) shall be ten (10) cents per ton higher than the prices of the corresponding preparation of 1½" and 1¼" screenings.

Item No. 13.—Over-size block screenings.—The price of 2½ inch Brazil Block raw screenings for delivery in all Market Areas will be the same as the price of 2 inch Brazil Block modified screenings.

Item No. 14.—Explanation of letter references.—

(a) Applies to coal that has been dedusted over vibrating screens under high pressure water sprays.

(b) Applies to coal delivered on the C&EI and Pennsylvania Railroads.

(c) Applies to coal delivered on the CCC&StL and CMStP&P Railroads.

Item No. 15.—Explanation of exemptions.—

Exception Number 1.—The prices of all sizes of dedusted screenings will be the same as the price of the corresponding sizes of un-dedusted screenings.

Exception Number 2.—The prices of all sizes of coal included in Size Groups 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14 will be the following amounts less than the Class C prices applicable to the same sizes of coal in the following Market Areas:

Market Areas Nos. 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, and 36—5 cents per ton.
All other Market Areas—10 cents per ton.

Exception Number 3.—The prices of all sizes of coal included in Size Groups 11 and 12, in all Market Areas, will be ten (10¢) cents per ton less than Class F prices for those sizes of coal.

Exception Number 4.—The price of modified screenings, in all Market Areas, will be the same as the price of 1½" and 1¼" raw screenings.

Exception Number 5.—The prices of all sizes of coal included in Size Groups 10, 11, and 12, in all Market Areas, will be ten (10¢) cents per ton less than Class F prices for these sizes of coal.

SUBSTITUTION CLAUSE

The substitution on any order of a grade or size of coal taking a minimum price higher than the grade or size ordered is not authorized or permitted.

BASIS FOR FREIGHT RATE ADJUSTMENT

Absorption of freight differentials.—The prices published in this schedule are based upon: (a) the freight rates in effect from the Brazil-Clinton District (base group) to destinations where the freight rates from the other origin groups are related by fixed differentials, or (b) the lowest freight rate from any group to destinations where the freight rates from the various Indiana origin groups are not related by fixed differentials.

For the purpose of effecting the same delivered price, in the same market area, of all Indiana coals of the same classification, the f. o. b. mine prices published in this schedule may be reduced by the amounts in cents per net ton indicated for each producing district in connection with each of the market areas shown below:

Market Area No. 29.—

Coals produced in—
- Linton-Sullivan Group—10 cents per ton.
- Princeton-Ayrshire Group—22 cents per ton.
- Boonville Group—25 cents per ton.
- Evansville Group—30 cents per ton.

Market Areas Nos. 27, 28, 30, 31, 33, 34, 99, 100, 102; 104 to 112, inclusive; 136 to 147, inclusive; and that part of the State of Kansas in Market Area No. 118.—

Coals produced in—
- Linton-Sullivan Group—10 cents per ton.
- Princeton-Ayrshire Group—17 cents per ton.
- Boonville Group—20 cents per ton.
- Evansville Group—30 cents per ton.

Market Areas Nos. 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, and 36.—Any producer may shrink the f. o. b. mine prices published for his or its coal for delivery in the above market areas sufficiently to absorb the difference between the published freight rate from his or its mine and the lowest published freight rate from any Indiana mine to the same destination; provided, that in no instance shall the absorption of freight differences exceed 35 cents per net ton.

Exception.—The absorption of freight rate differences between Indiana mines shall not be predicated on the obsolete rates published from Cates and Cayuga on the NYC&StL, and Owensburg on the CI&L, to points on those roads and connecting lines.

Market Area No. 22.—Any producer may shrink the f. o. b. mine prices published for his or its coal for delivery in the above Market Area sufficiently to absorb the difference between the published rate from his or its mine and a rate of 50 cents per ton.

Market Areas Nos. 24, 25, 26, 32; 113 to 117, inclusive; and that Part of Missouri in Market Area No. 118.—The prices published in this schedule for application to coal for delivery in the above market areas, shall not be reduced to equalize any differences in the freight rates from the producing districts in Indiana to points in the aforesaid Market Areas.

[Order No. 100]

AN ORDER ESTABLISHING MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER TWELVE IN CONFORMITY WITH SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTIONS (A) AND (B) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having established in each of the districts under its jurisdiction, as an agency of the Commission, a statistical bureau, and having directed by its Order Number 15 Producers of bituminous coal to file therewith cost data for the calendar year 1936; the district boards having been organized pursuant to Section 4, Part I, (a), of the Act and such district boards having, from cost data submitted by the statistical bureaus for their respective districts, determined, pursuant to Order Number 55 of the Commission, the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in their respective districts in the calendar year 1936 and having adjusted the average costs so determined, as was necessary to give effect to any changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors substantially affecting costs, exclusive of seasonal changes, so as to reflect as accurately as possible any change or changes which had been established since January 1, 1936, and having submitted to the Commission such determinations and the computations upon which they were based; the Commission having thereupon determined by its Order Number 63 the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for Minimum Price Area Two in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as aforesaid, and having transmitted the same to the several district boards in such minimum price area; each district board in a minimum price area having proposed minimum prices free on board transportation facilites at the mines for the kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced in their respective districts, and classifications of coals and price variations as to mines, consuming market areas, values as to uses and seasonal demand, said prices having been proposed so as to yield a return per net ton for each district, equal as nearly as may be to the weighted average of the total costs, per net ton, of the tonnage of such minimum price area, such total costs computed as provided by subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, the minimum prices having been proposed on tentative weighted average costs, with later adjustments thereof to reflect the actual adjusted weighted average costs; the Commission having by its Order Number 85 determined and established the initial classifications of coals of code members within said District Twelve; the District Board for District Number Twelve having failed to coordinate in common consuming market areas with other districts upon a fair competitive basis the said proposed minimum prices as found by Commission Order Number 60, and the Commission having acted in lieu of said District Board under the authority of Section 6 (a) of the Act in coordinating the said proposed minimum prices upon a fair competitive basis in common consuming market areas as determined by the Commission and set forth in the attached Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members within District Number Twelve, hereinafter referred to; and

The Commission, in coordinating and establishing the prices, having taken into account, among other factors, the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal, and transportation charges upon coal, and having conformed to the standards that such prices (a) be just and equitable as between producers within each district, (b) do not permit dumping, (c) be just and equitable and not unduly prejudicial or preferential, as between and among districts, (d) reflect, as nearly as possible, the relative market values, at points of delivery in each common consuming market area, of the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coals produced in the various districts, taking into account values as to uses, seasonal demand, transportation methods and charges and their effect upon a reasonable opportunity to compete on a fair basis, and the competitive relationships between coal and other forms of fuel and energy, (e) preserve, as nearly as may be, existing fair competitive opportunities, and (f) have due regard for the interests of the consuming public; and

The Commission having accepted the proposed minimum prices as submitted by the District Board of District Number Twelve, and having modified same so as to conform to the standards set forth in the Act, and having used said proposed prices as modified as a basis for coordination with other districts, has coordinated same in conformity with the provisions of the Act and in the manner aforesaid, and having determined that the minimum prices so coordinated do not, as to District Number Twelve or any other district with which prices were so coordinated, reduce or increase the return per net ton upon all the coal produced within any of such districts below or above the minimum return as provided in subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, by an amount greater than necessary to accomplish such coordination, and that the return per net ton upon the entire tonnage of the minimum price area in which any such district is located, at such prices as coordinated, will approximate the weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of such minimum price area.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the minimum prices of coals of code members produced within District Number Twelve, set opposite the names of code members and their respective mines, as the same appear in the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Twelve, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Twelve and such minimum prices shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That any code member or district board or member thereof, or any State or political subdivision of a State, or the Consumers' Counsel who shall be dissatisfied with the coordination of prices or by any minimum price established, may at any time after this date make complaint by petition to the Commission, pursuant to Section 4, Part II (d), and in conformity with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Commission shall after notice and hearing make such further order as may be required to effectuate the purpose of subsection (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act. Pending final disposition of such petition and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission may at any time make such preliminary or temporary order as in its judgment may be appropriate, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Twelve to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for the districts within Minimum Price Area Two and to code members within District Number Twelve, shall cause copies of this order and said Schedule and copies of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all statistical bureaus of the Commission, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 30th day of November, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1, DISTRICT NO. 12

Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 12, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective 12:01 a. m., December 16, 1937.

Issued November 30, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

1. The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by code members in the district shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. If any size is made for which a minimum price is not designated herein, such shall be sold at not less than the minimum price applicable to the next larger size.

4. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used, the round hole equivalent shall control the sizes.

5. Coal that has been washed and dedusted shall take a minimum price ten cents (10¢) per net ton higher than the price established for raw coal.

6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil, or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than ten cents (10¢) per net ton shall be made.

7. The cost of transporting coal from the ordinary loading facilities at the mine to the loading facilities of any carrier shall be added to the established minimum price f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mine.

8. Minimum delivered prices provided for herein do not include switching charges.

9. On all shipments of interstate coal the Centerville, Iowa, proper, freight rate to apply.

10. On all shipments of intrastate movements of coal, prices are based on existing freight rates as of December 1, 1937, such prices to be increased or reduced, as the case may be, with any change in the freight rates subsequent to December 1, 1937.

11. Crushed Coal: Where any coal is crushed, the price therefor shall be the minimum price established for the original size before crushing, plus five cents (5¢) per net ton.

SUBSTITUTION CLAUSE

The substitution on any order of a grade or size of coal taking a minimum price higher than the grade or size ordered is not authorized or permitted.

[Order No. 101]

AN ORDER ESTABLISHING MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER THIRTEEN IN CONFORMITY WITH SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTIONS (A) AND (B) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having established in each of the districts under its jurisdiction, as an agency of the Commission, a statistical bureau, and having directed by its Order Number 15 producers of bituminous coal to file therewith cost data for the calendar year 1936; the district boards having been organized pursuant to Section 4, Part I (a), of the Act, and such district boards having, from cost data submitted by the statistical bureau for their respective districts, determined, pursuant to Order Number 55 of the Commission, the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in their respective districts in the calendar year 1936 and having adjusted the average costs so determined, as was necessary to give effect to any changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors substantially affecting costs, exclusive of seasonal changes, so as to reflect as accurately as possible any change or changes which had been established since January 1, 1936, and having submitted to the Commission such determinations and the computations upon which they were based; the Commission having thereupon determined by its Order Number 65 the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for Minimum Price Area Three in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as aforesaid, and having transmitted the same to the several district boards in such minimum price area; each district board in a minimum price area having proposed minimum prices free on board transportation facilities at the mines for the kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced in their respective districts, and classifications of coals and price variations as to mines, consuming market areas, values as to uses and seasonal demand, said prices having been proposed so as to yield a return per net ton for each district, equal as nearly as may be to the weighted average of the total costs, per net ton, of the tonnage of such minimum price area, such total costs computed as provided by subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, the minimum prices having been proposed on tentative weighted average costs, with later adjustments thereof to reflect the actual adjusted weighted average costs; the Commission having by its Order Number 81 determined and established the initial classifications of coals of code members within said District Number Thirteen; the District Board for District Number Thirteen having coordinated in common consuming market areas with other districts upon a fair competitive basis the said proposed minimum prices and having submitted to the Commission such coordinated prices and the data upon which they were predicated; the Commission having accepted the minimum prices as proposed and coordinated by said District Board and having in certain respects modified same, and having determined the common consuming market areas to be as set forth in the attached Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Thirteen, hereinafter referred to; the said District Board Number Thirteen in coordinating the said proposed minimum prices and the Commission in modifying the same, having taken into account, among other factors, the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal, and transportation charges upon coal, and the said District Board and the Commission having conformed to the standards that such prices (a) be just and equitable as between producers within each district, (b) do not permit dumping, (c) be just and equitable and not unduly prejudicial or preferential, as between and among districts, (d) reflect, as nearly as possible, the relative market values, at points of delivery in each common consuming market area, of the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coals produced in the various districts taking into account values as to uses, seasonal demand, transportation methods and charges and their effect upon a reasonable opportunity to compete on a fair basis, and the competitive relationships between coal and other forms of fuel and energy, (e) preserve, as nearly as may be, existing fair competitive opportunities, and (f) have due regard for the interests of the consuming public; and

The Commission having determined that the minimum prices so coordinated do not, as to District Number Thirteen or any other district with which prices were so coordinated, reduce or increase the return per net ton upon all the coal produced within any of such districts below or above the minimum return as provided in subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, by an amount greater than necessary to accomplish such coordination, and that the return per net ton upon the entire tonnage of the minimum price area in which any such district is located, at such prices as coordinated, will approximate the weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of such minimum price area.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the minimum prices of coals of code members produced within District Number Thirteen, set opposite the names of code members and their respective mines, as the same appear in the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Thirteen, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Thirteen, excluding Van Buren, Warren, and McMinn Counties in Tennessee, and such minimum prices shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That any code member or district board or member thereof, or any State or political subdivision of a State, or the Consumers' Counsel who shall be dissatisfied with the coordination of prices or by any minimum price established, may at any time after this date make complaint by petition to the Commission, pursuant to Section 4, Part II (d), and in conformity with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Commission shall after notice and hearing make such further order as may be required to effectuate the purpose of subsection (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act. Pending final disposition of such petition and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission may at any time make such preliminary or temporary order as in its judgment may be appropriate, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Thirteen to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers Boards for the districts within Minimum Price Area Three and to code members within District Number Thirteen, shall cause copies of this order and said Schedule and copies of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all statistical bureaus of the Commission, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated this 30th day of November, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1, DISTRICT NO. 13

Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 13, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937".

Effective 12:01 a. m., December 16, 1937.

Issued November 30, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

DISTRICT NO. 13 (ALABAMA MINES)

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS—GENERAL

1. Schedule of prices shown herein, applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in district No. 13.

2. All prices are subject to the uniform marketing rules and regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used, the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10¢ per net ton shall be made.

7. Crushed coal.—Where any coal is crushed, the minimum price therefor shall be the minimum price established for the original size before crushing, plus 5¢ per net ton.

8. Mines having published freight rate differentials applying against them in connection with other Alabama mines may absorb from minimum prices such differentials not in excess of 25¢ per net ton, except that this permission to absorb differentials does not apply to References 201 to 249, inclusive.

9. Coking coal, freight exceptions.—Prices are based on lowest line haul coking-in-transit or lowest line haul furnace raw material rates, whichever properly applies. Mines having lower respective transportation charges, either line haul or switching, must plus their mine prices the amount of their transportation advantage. Mines having higher than such base rates may absorb up to 25 cents per ton of such disadvantage. This applies to Alabama destinations only. There shall be no adjustment of furnace material transportation charges to equalize with coking-in-transit transportation charges.

10. When top sizes of Egg does not exceed 5", the schedule prices for same may be reduced 5¢ per net ton, Reference 250 to 266, inclusive.

11. Reference 255, 4" x 1½", is classified as Nut coal and takes Nut coal prices shown on schedules.

12. Prices for shipment to Columbus or West Point, Georgia may be reduced 25¢ per net ton from the schedule of prices shown for Market Areas 58 and 60 for References 251 to 266, inclusive.

RAILROAD LOCOMOTIVE FUEL (ON AND OFF LINE)

All coal, except lump or double screened sizes, sold for Railroad Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.40 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines.

Lump or any doube screened coal ordered or sold for Locomotive fuel, shall take a minimum price of $2.55 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines.

When coal, other than Locomotive fuel, is sold to a railroad the price shall be not less than the minimum established for the grade and size sold, applicable to the Market Area in which the mine is located.

Where any coal is crushed the minimum price therefor shall be the minimum price established for the original size, before crushing, plus five (5¢) cents per net ton.

No commission shall be paid or discount allowed by a Code Member on any coal sold for locomotive fuel purposes.

DISTRICT NO. 13 (TENNESSEE, GEORGIA MINES)

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

1. Schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the district shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the uniform marketing rules and regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used, the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge not less than 10¢ per net ton shall be made.

7. Crushed coal.—Where any coal is crushed, the minimum price therefor shall be the minimum price established for the original size before crushing, plus 5¢ per net ton.

8. Washed coal shall be ten cents per ton higher than unwashed coal.

9. Prices shown in size group 7 cover regular 2" x 0 and 1½" x 0 nut and slack. Where mines make a specially prepared 2" nut and slack coal with part of the fines removed, each car of such specially prepared 2" nut and slack coal must contain not less than 40% of slack coal including intermediate coal from washer which will pass through a ¾" screen.

10. Mines having published freight rate differential applying against them in connection with other Southern Tennessee Railroad mines may absorb such differentials provided the maximum absorption does not exceed 35¢ per ton, subject to exception below.

11. Market Area 83.—Where the applying freight rate is less than the 1.30 base rate, the minimum f. o. b. mine price shall be increased by an amount in cents per net ton sufficient to equalize the actual freight rate with such base rate: provided that the amount of such increase may be limited to a maximum of 35¢ per net ton.

SUBSTITUTION CLAUSE

The substitution on any order of a grade or size of coal taking a minimum price higher than the grade or size ordered is not authorized or permitted.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation.

[Department Circular No. 302 Second Edition [1]]

DESIGNATION AND APPROVAL OF NAUTICAL SCHOOL SHIPS

NOVEMBER 30, 1937.

To United States Supervising Inspectors, Local Inspectors and Others Concerned:

Under the provisions of section 13 of the act of March 4, 1915 (38 Stat. 1169; 46 U. S. C. 672), as amended by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1936 (Public No. 808—74th Cong. 49 Stat. 1930), and the act of May 22, 1937 (Public No. 100—75th Cong.), graduates of school ships approved by and conducted under rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce may be rated able seamen or qualified members of the engine department.

It has been made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Commerce that the school ships operated by the States in which they are located; namely, California Nautical School, Massachusetts Nautical School, New York Merchant Marine Academy, Pennsylvania State Nautical School; and also the United States Naval Academy, and the United States Coast Guard Academy; have adopted a course of study for their students complying with the rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce, and a system of regulations adequate to equip the deck and engineering students theoretically and practically in the rudiments of seamanship and navigation necessary to qualify the graduates for the rating of able seamen, and in all the branches of marine engineering necessary to qualify the graduates for the rating of qualified members of the engine department, respectively.

The school ships conducted by the State organizations above named, and also the Federal academies, are hereby approved and their graduates, if meeting the other qualifications required by law and regulations promulgated thereunder, are entitled to the rating of able seamen or qualified members of the engine department and to be certificated as such.

[SEAL] ERNEST G. DRAPER,
Acting Secretary of Commerce.

RULES FOR THE CONDUCT OF SCHOOL SHIPS

Section 13 of the act of March 4, 1915 (38 Stat. 1169; 46 U. S. C. 672), as amended by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1936 (Public No. 808—74th Cong. 49 Stat. 1930), and the act of May 22, 1937 (Public No. 100—75th Cong.), provides that graduates of school ships approved by and conducted under rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce may be rated able seamen, or qualified members of the engine department, if meeting the other qualifications required by law and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Pursuant to the above cited provisions, the following rules are hereby prescribed for the conduct of such school ships:

1. The course of study for deck students shall include (a) all the instruction in the rudiments of seamanship and navigation necessary to equip the student fully with the theoretical knowledge required for the proper discharge of the duties devolving upon able seamen; (b) a thorough practical training in the mechanics of all operations incident to the sailing and management of a vessel insofar as such operations form a part of the duties of able seamen.

2. The course of study for engineering students shall include (a) all the instruction necessary to fully equip the student with the theoretical knowledge required for the proper discharge of the duties devolving upon qualified members of the engine department; (b) a thorough practical training in the mechanics of all operations incident to the sailing and management of a vessel insofar as such operations form a part of the duties of qualified members of the engine department.

3. All students shall be trained to obey all lawful orders emanating from their superior officers and schooled in the rules of conduct to be observed in order that proper discipline may be maintained on shipboard. They shall also be instructed in the fundamentals of ship sanitation as prescribed by law and regulations, and shall be given intensive instruction and practical training in all the operations incident to fire and lifeboat drills, both in port and at sea.

4. Applicants for certificates as able seamen will be eligible for examination after they have completed a course of study as outlined in sections 1 and 3, and applicants for certificates as qualified members of the engine department after they have completed a course of study as outlined in sections 2 and 3.

Approved.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

EXTENDING AUTHORITY TO STATE MANAGERS, UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS, TO ACCEPT DEEDS IN LIEU OF FORECLOSURE

AMENDMENT OF LEGAL CHAPTER OF THE MANUAL

Be it resolved, That pursuant to the authority vested in the Board by Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 128, 129) as amended by Sections 1 and 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 643–647) and particularly by Sections 4–a and 4–k of said Act as amended, Section 605 (j) of the Manual is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 605 (j). Deeds in lieu of foreclosure may be accepted from owners of mortgaged properties in settlement of the indebtedness owing to the Corporation, and in connection with such acceptance each Regional or State Manager is authorized, in his discretion and with the approval of the Regional or State Counsel, to expend funds to satisfy, remove, release or acquire intervening liens or rights. No sum shall be paid to any owner of the property, but as a part of the consideration for such deed an owner may be permitted to continue in possession of the premises for a limited time within the discretion of the Regional or State Manager under advice of the Regional or State Counsel. The authority herein granted shall be exercised under procedure and limitations promulgated by the General Counsel with the approval of the General Manager.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on December 1, 1937.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

REGULATIONS UNDER THE ACT OF FEBRUARY 22, 1935 AS AMENDED BY THE ACT OF JUNE 14, 1937

WHEREAS, by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress entitled "An Act To regulate interstate and foreign commerce in petroleum and its products by prohibiting the shipment in such commerce of petroleum and its products produced in violation of State law, and for other purposes," approved February 22, 1935, (49 Stat. 30), as amended by the Act of June 14, 1937 (Public No. 145, 75th Congress, 1st Session), hereinafter referred to as said Act, and the Executive Order of the President of the United States No. 6979 (February 28, 1935), and the Executive Order of the President of the United States No. 7756 (Dec. 1, 1937), I am authorized to prescribe such regulations as I may find necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of said Act, and to require certificates of clearance for petroleum and petroleum products, moving or to be moved in interstate commerce from any particular area, whenever I find it necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of said Act.

The following regulations are hereby adopted for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of said Act:

Regulation I

When used in this Order or in subsequent Orders and regulations prescribed pursuant to said Act and Executive Orders, or in any forms prescribed thereunder:

SECTION 1. The term "person" shall include any individual, partnership, corporation or joint stock company.

SECTION 2. The term "producer" shall include every person having any part in the control or management of any operation by which petroleum is produced from any property. Every person in possession of crude petroleum who refuses to identify the prior owner thereof, from whom he acquired the same, shall be deemed the producer of such petroleum within the meaning of this Order.

SECTION 3. The term "refiner" shall include every person who has any part in the control or management of any operation by which the physical or chemical characteristics of petroleum or petroleum products are changed, but exclusive of the operations of passing petroleum through separators to remove gas, placing petroleum in settling tanks to remove basic sediment and water, dehydrating petroleum and generally cleaning and purifying petroleum. Within the term shall be included every person who blends petroleum with any product of petroleum.

SECTION 4. The term "reclamation plant" shall include every plant operated in the process of reclaiming, treating or washing waste petroleum, wash oil, pit oil, fugitive oil, basic sediment, or tank bottoms.

SECTION 5. The term "Casinghead gasoline plant" shall include every plant or device by the use of which gasoline or natural gasoline or casinghead gasoline (as those terms are commonly understood in the industry), or any of them, is extracted by any process or method from natural gas or casinghead gas, or from any gas liberated from petroleum in the process of refining.

SECTION 6. The term "pipe line" shall include every line of pipe, however constructed and regardless of length, and all receiving, storage and delivery tanks and facilities used in the operation thereof, by which petroleum or any petroleum product is transported, regardless of whether or not such line of pipe is owned, in whole or in part, by the person producing, refining, processing, manufacturing, purchasing, cleansing, or marketing such petroleum or such petroleum product, or by any or all such persons jointly, or by any other person or combination of persons, except that the term "pipe line" shall not include any line from a well to lease storage, or any line used in actual plant operations, and not used in the receipt or delivery of petroleum or petroleum products. The terms "pine line system" and "gathering system" are included within the term "pipe line."

SECTION 7. The term "transporting agency" shall include railroads, pipe lines, gathering systems, tankers, barges, trucks, or any other means of conveyance used for transporting petroleum or petroleum products.

SECTION 8. The term "storer" shall include every person who places petroleum or any petroleum product in any receptacle and keeps the same in any such receptacle for any period of time longer than is usually required in the ordinary conduct of business to move the same currently into the channels of trade and commerce; but excluding the ordinary working stocks of refiners and transporters by pipe line.

SECTION 9. The term "petroleum" when used singly and separate and apart from "product" shall include petroleum in its crude form, and the terms "product (or products) of petroleum" or "petroleum product (or products)" shall include any article produced or derived in whole or in part from petroleum or any product thereof by refining, processing, manufacturing or otherwise. Whenever natural gas is produced in conjunction or coincidentally with petroleum, such natural gas and all products derived therefrom shall be considered petroleum products. The terms "oil", "crude oil", and "crude petroleum" shall be considered synonymous with petroleum in these regulations.

SECTION 10. The term "barrel of petroleum" means 42 United States gallons of petroleum measured and calculated to net or gross quantities in accordance with the regulations of the State authorities in force at the point of production, or in the absence of such regulations, measured and calculated in the manner generally in use in the industry at such point of production. The term "barrel" as used otherwise in these regulations shall mean 42 United States gallons of the article referred to.

SECTION 11. The term "contraband oil" means petroleum which, or any constituent part of which, was produced, transported, or withdrawn from storage in excess of the amounts permitted to be produced, transported, or withdrawn from storage under the laws of a State or under any regulation or order prescribed thereunder by any board, commission, officer, or other duly authorized agency of such State, or any of the products of such petroleum.

SECTION 12. The term "interstate commerce" means commerce between any point in a State and any point outside thereof, or between points within the same State but through any place outside thereof, or from any place in the United States to a foreign country, but only in so far as such commerce takes place within the United States.

Regulation II

The Secretary of the Interior shall, whenever the facts in any area render it necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of said Act, designate such area (hereinafter sometimes referred to as "designated area") and shall establish a Board or Boards to issue certificates of clearance in accordance with the provisions of said Act. He shall establish such further regulations as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enforce the provisions of the said Act in any such area.

Regulation III

No person shall ship or transport in interstate commerce from any designated area petroleum or petroleum products unless a certificate of clearance covering such petroleum or petroleum products has been issued in conformity with the provisions of this Order.

No person shall ship or transport from any designated area petroleum or petroleum products not covered by a certificate of clearance if such petroleum or petroleum products are commingled with petroleum or petroleum products all or part of which are to be shipped or transported in interstate commerce.

Whenever petroleum or petroleum products shall be shipped or transported from any designated area without a certificate of clearance first having been issued therefor, no person shall ship, reship or transport in or divert into interstate commerce such petroleum or petroleum products, in whole or in part, or any petroleum or petroleum products commingled therewith unless a certificate of clearance covering such petroleum or petroleum products has been issued therefor.

The provisions of this Order shall apply to petroleum and petroleum products transported in interstate commerce in railroad engine tenders, in fuel or other tanks of automotive vehicles, or in vessels of all kinds whether as part of the cargoes or for consumption.

The certificates of clearance hereinabove referred to shall be known as "Tenders".

Regulation IV

Each Board established in accordance with Regulation II, hereinafter referred to as "Boards", shall consist of one or more persons who shall be appointed from time to time by the Secretary of the Interior and who shall serve at his pleasure. Whenever any Board consists of more than one person, such Board may designate one or more of its members to act for the Board. Each Board is charged with the duty of hearing and investigating all applications for Tenders prescribed by this Order and of determining as a matter of fact whether the petroleum and petroleum products for which a Tender is requested do or do not constitute contraband oil. In the case of applications for Tenders covering petroleum or petroleum products not produced, refined, processed or manufactured on the date application is made, each Board is charged with the duty of determining whether or not facts have been presented showing that the petroleum or petroleum products to be transported will or will not constitute contraband oil as above defined if the terms of the application are fulfilled. Each Board is further charged with the duty of approving such applications for Tenders if it finds that the petroleum or petroleum products are not or will not constitute contraband oil. No Tender shall be approved until application for approval has been presented on a form approved by the Secretary of the Interior, nor unless the reports hereinafter required have been made and are in order, nor until complete information has been furnished by the applicant enabling the Board to calculate and ascertain the true facts concerning the petroleum or petroleum products covered by the application. Denial of any such Tender shall be by order of the Board, and only after reasonable opportunity for hearing.

Production of books and records of the applicant relative to an application for a Tender may be required by any Board for inspection before approval thereof, and any Board may require the submission of specific information relative to an application in the form of sworn statements or otherwise, and may itself or through its agents examine any properties and facilities which it deems may afford information necessary to pass upon an application.

Each Board is authorized to make regulations governing its procedure. The members of each Board shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations. No Tender shall be approved except after hearing held not less than twelve hours subsequent to the filing of the application therefor and after notice has been given by posting a brief description of the application on a bulletin board at or near the place of hearing. Each Board is authorized, in cases of emergency, to waive any of the formal requirements of this Order, provided that the substance thereof is maintained, and provided that public notice of such waiver be given and be recorded at the next succeeding hearing held by the Board.

Regulation V

An application for approval of a Tender may be made to a Board where the ultimate destination of the movement of petroleum or petroleum products is unknown at the time of application, and application for approval of a Tender may further be made, at the option of the applicant, even though the immediate movement of the petroleum or petroleum products is intrastate, if the applicant contemplates that in the future such petroleum or petroleum products, or products derived from such petroleum or petroleum products will be moved in interstate or foreign commerce.

Regulation VI

Where application is made for approval of a Tender covering petroleum commingled with petroleum which is not shown to have been produced, transported or withdrawn from storage within the amounts permitted by State law, or regulations or orders prescribed thereunder, such Tender shall not be approved, nor shall a Tender covering any product of such commingled petroleum be approved; and where application is made for approval of a Tender covering any petroleum product commingled with a petroleum product derived from petroleum which is not shown to have been produced, transported or withdrawn from storage within the amounts permitted by State law, or regulations or orders prescribed thereunder, or commingled with petroleum which is not shown to have been so produced, transported or withdrawn from storage, such Tender shall not be approved.

Regulation VII

Any person transporting petroleum or any petroleum product covered by a Tender shall endorse on the back of such Tender a sworn return showing the quantity of petroleum or petroleum products actually transported, using the form on the reverse side of the copies designated "Tender Original" and "Tender Return" for this purpose and shall deliver in person or by mail the copy designated "Tender Return" to the Board issuing the Tender. Said delivery in the case of pipe lines shall be made within ten days, and in the case of other transporting agencies, within two days after the date of the last shipment made under said Tender, or within the same periods of time after the expiration of the Tender, whichever event first occurs. Said return shall be signed and sworn to by a duly authorized agent of the pipe line or other transporting agency.

Regulation VIII

The first transporting agency, other than a pipe line, transporting petroleum or petroleum products from any designated area in interstate commerce shall stamp on the shipping papers the following: "This shipment is covered by Tender No. ____, issued by _____ on the ____ day of _____, 19__", (the number, the title of the Board and the date shall be filled in to identify the Tender). Pipe lines shall, in lieu of such stamp on the shipping papers, notify the consignee in writing within three days after the date of delivery to such consignee of the date, the title of the Board, the number of the Tender and the amount and kind of petroleum or petroleum products delivered thereunder. No person transporting petroleum or any petroleum product shall receive any more of the commodity than is covered by the Tender, and no such person shall receive any different commodity than is described therein.

Regulation IX

Every transporting agency, other than a pipe line, transporting petroleum or any petroleum product from any designated area to a destination within the same State, which petroleum or petroleum product is not covered by a Tender, shall stamp on the shipping papers a notation that the petroleum or petroleum product was transported from the designated area and that said petroleum or petroleum product and any petroleum or petroleum product commingled therewith may not be shipped, reshipped or transported in or diverted into interstate commerce unless an approved Tender shall first be obtained. Such notation shall appear on the shipping papers covering every subsequent shipment of such petroleum or petroleum product within the State. Every pipe line transporting petroleum or any petroleum product from any designated area to a destination within the same State, which petroleum or petroleum product is not covered by a Tender, shall notify in writing the consignee at or before the time of delivery to him that said petroleum or petroleum product was transported from the designated area, and that said petroleum or petroleum product and any petroleum or petroleum product commingled therewith may not be shipped, reshipped or transported in or diverted into interstate commerce unless an approved Tender shall first be obtained.

Regulation X

All persons producing, refining, processing, manufacturing, transporting, withdrawing from storage or otherwise handling petroleum or any petroleum product in any designated area shall permit any person or persons authorized by me or by any Board to enter upon their properties, plants and facilities, and to examine all the books and records kept or required to be kept in accordance with this Order, and all other books, papers, records, vouchers, run-tickets, bills of lading, way bills, charges, memoranda or other documents which are used by them in connection with producing, refining, processing, manufacturing, transporting, withdrawing from storage or otherwise handling petroleum or any petroleum product, and to inspect such plants, facilities and properties, and to gauge tanks, and to examine wells, pipe lines, gathering systems, flow lines, pipe connections, storage tanks, loading racks, separators, pumps, meters or other measuring devices, and any other equipment or instruments.

Regulation XI

Every producer and refiner in any designated area shall accurately gauge and measure all petroleum and petroleum products before any part thereof leaves his possession or control. No means or device which prevents or hinders such accurate measurement shall be used. Complete and accurate records of all such measurements shall be kept up to date and preserved, and shall be open to the inspection of any person authorized by me or by any Board.

Regulation XII

From the effective date of this Order the following records shall be made and preserved accurately and completely showing the following facts with respect to production, refining, processing, manufacturing, transporting, withdrawing from storage or otherwise handling petroleum or petroleum products in any designated area:

A. By Producers:

(1) The location of the producing properties, the number and location of wells thereon, and the allowable production for each property and well as prescribed by the proper State agency.

(2) The names and addresses of all persons having any interest in or title to the petroleum at the time of its production, including those owning royalty or overriding royalty interests.

(3) An opening and closing inventory of the crude petroleum on hand each 24 hour day.

(4) The daily production in barrels of petroleum produced from each lease and well (estimated as to wells which are produced into common tankage and of which no separate gauge is made) with a notation of the allowance made for basic sediment and water, and the tanks, identified by number and location into which the petroleum is run.

(5) The amount of petroleum consumed upon each property daily.

(6) A daily record of all deliveries of petroleum or petroleum products, showing the names and places of business of all persons to whom such petroleum or petroleum products are delivered, whether purchasers, consignees or transporting agencies, the quantity involved in each delivery, transportation or other disposition, the identity of the means of transportation by which the petroleum or products are removed, and the identifying numbers of State and Federal Tenders.

(7) Gauge tickets, and run tickets, as made by the employees actually performing or observing the operations to which such records relate.

(8) True and complete copies of all reports, communications and diagrams filed or required to be filed under this Order.

(9) Such other records as may now be required under the rules and regulations of other governmental agencies, State or Federal, which supervise, regulate or tax the production of petroleum.

B. By every purchaser, refiner, storer, shipper or consignor of petroleum or petroleum products, by every casinghead gasoline plant, and by every person dealing in petroleum or petroleum products as a factor, broker, buyer or seller:

(1) An opening and closing inventory of petroleum and petroleum products on hand each 24 hour day.

(2) The daily receipts of petroleum and the petroleum products showing the amount received, the place and date of each receipt, the tanks identified by location and number into which received, the names and addresses of all producers or other persons from whom the crude petroleum and the petroleum products were received, a description identifying the transporting agency by which received, and the identifying numbers of State and Federal Tenders under which received.

(3) The amount of petroleum and petroleum products used or otherwise disposed of daily showing the amount run to stills and to cracking units and the amount and type of petroleum products refined, processed or manufactured.

(4) A daily record of all deliveries of petroleum and petroleum products including the names and addresses of purchasers and a description identifying the transporting agency delivering the same, and the identifying numbers of State and Federal Tenders under which delivered.

(5) Crude, pumping, still, transfer, and yield reports as made by the employees actually performing or observing the operations to which such records relate.

(6) True and complete copies of all reports, communications, and diagrams filed or required to be filed under this Order.

(7) Such other records as may now be required under the rules and regulations of other governmental agencies, State or Federal, which supervise, regulate or tax the purchasing, refining, storing, shipping or consigning or otherwise dealing in as a factor, broker, buyer or seller of petroleum and petroleum products.

C. By every person operating a reclamation plant:

(1) An opening and closing inventory of all petroleum and petroleum products on hand each 24 hour day.

(2) The number of barrels of each kind of petroleum and petroleum products which came into the possession of such plant daily, the name and address of each person from whom possession was acquired, the location from which the petroleum and petroleum products were acquired, the quantities acquired from each prior possessor and from each location, a description identifying the transporting agency by which such petroleum and petroleum products were acquired, and the numbers identifying the State and Federal Tenders under which acquired. In case any petroleum or petroleum product is picked up or reclaimed by such plant from any creek, river, stream or the bed thereof, such record shall also contain information as to the apparent source of the petroleum or petroleum product before it went into such creek, river, stream or the bed thereof.

(3) The number of barrels reclaimed by such plant daily and the disposition thereof showing the names and addresses of purchasers, a description identifying the transporting agency used in making delivery, and the identifying numbers of State and Federal Tenders.

(4) The original records made by the employees actually performing or observing the operations to which such records relate as required by items (1) (2) and (3) above.

(5) True and complete copies of all reports, communications and diagrams filed or required to be filed under this Order.

(6) Such other records as may now be required under the rules and regulations of all other governmental agencies, State or Federal, which supervise, regulate or tax the reclaiming or handling of petroleum or petroleum products.

D. By Pipe Lines:

(1) An opening and closing inventory including overages of crude petroleum and petroleum products on hand each 24 hour day.

(2) The daily receipts of all petroleum and petroleum products showing the kind, grade and quantity received, the names and addresses of the consignors, the names and addresses of the consignees, the points of origin and destination, and the identifying numbers of State and Federal Tenders covering the same.

(3) In case of the first transporting pipe line, and where possible in cases of subsequent transporting pipe lines, the location of the properties where the petroleum or petroleum products were produced, refined, processed or manufactured, the names and addresses of persons removing the petroleum or petroleum products from the properties where produced, refined, processed or manufactured, and a description identifying the transporting agency used in making delivery from such properties.

(4) A record of all shipments of petroleum or petroleum products diverted prior to reaching the original point of destination or stopped in the course of transportation, showing the disposition thereof.

(5) Copies of all run-tickets, way bills, division and transfer orders and other documents used in the transportation of petroleum or petroleum products.

(6) True and complete copies of all reports, communications and diagrams filed or required to be filed under this order.

(7) Such other records as may now be required under the rules or regulations of other governmental agencies, State or Federal, which supervise, regulate or tax the transportation of petroleum or petroleum products.

E. By transporting agencies, other than pipe lines:

(1) The daily shipments of all petroleum and petroleum products showing the kind, grade and quantity transported, the names and addresses of the consignors, the names and addresses of the consignees, the points of origin and destination, the identifying numbers of State and Federal

Tenders, and in the case of railroads the car initials and numbers identifying the various shipments.

(2) A record of all shipments of petroleum or petroleum products diverted prior to reaching the original point of destination, or stopped in the course of transportation, showing the disposition thereof.

(3) Copies of all way bills, bills of lading and other documents used in the transportation of petroleum or petroleum products.

(4) True and complete copies of all reports and communications filed or required to be filed under this Order.

(5) Such other records as may now be required under the rules or regulations of other governmental agencies, State or Federal, which supervise, regulate or tax the transportation of petroleum or petroleum products.

The records required by this Regulation to be made and preserved shall be made currently as the transactions involved occur. Such records prescribed in sub-paragraphs (1), (3), (4), (5), and (6) of sub-division A of this Regulation shall be kept on the lease or property to which they relate, or shall be kept in the field office or field headquarters from which the operations on such properties are conducted. Such records prescribed under sub-paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of sub-division B, (1), (2) and (3) of sub-division C, and (1), (2), (3) and (5) of sub-division D of this Regulation shall be kept at the field office or field headquarters from which the operations involved are conducted. Such records prescribed under sub-paragraphs (1) and (3) of subdivision E of this Regulation shall be kept at the freight office where the shipping papers for any shipment originate.

Regulation XIII

No transporting agency transporting petroleum or petroleum products from any designated area in interstate commerce shall accept for shipment any petroleum or any petroleum product unless the billing and other records of transportation covering such shipment truly and accurately describe by its proper and generally accepted name the commodity so shipped. Every transporting agency shall be held responsible for the truth of its records, way bills, bills of lading, division or transfer orders and other papers relating to such shipment, and shall be answerable as for a violation of these Regulations for each false billing of any such petroleum or petroleum product.

Regulation XIV

Each producer, refiner, reclamation plant, casinghead gasoline plant, pipe line, and storer of petroleum or petroleum products in any designated area shall file with the Board for said area monthly reports on forms approved by the Secretary of the Interior. Each report on such forms shall be subscribed and sworn to by the person required to file the same, using the form of affidavit therein contained, and the person required to file the report must make therein a full, truthful and complete disclosure of all the information required on the form and necessary to the full use thereof.

Regulation XV

Each transporting agency, other than pipe lines, transporting petroleum or petroleum products in or from any designated area shall make available daily to the Board for said area for inspection copies of all way bills, or other papers fulfilling the functions thereof, covering the movement during the preceding day of petroleum or petroleum products in or from said area, both interstate and intrastate. Upon request of the Board such way bills or other papers shall be attached to an affidavit executed by a duly authorized agent of the transporting agency stating that the way bills or other papers cover all shipments of petroleum or petroleum products moved by the transporting agency during the period named therein.

Regulation XVI

Every producer, refiner, pipe line, gathering system, reclamation plant and casinghead gasoline plant within any designated area shall keep and maintain in the office of the Board for said area a diagram or diagrams which shall accurately and completely show to scale, so far as is applicable to that particular business, the location of each lease, the location and identifying number of each well, the location, capacity and identifying number of all tanks, the location and size of all pipe lines, flow lines and gathering systems operated by it, and the location and sizes of all pipe lines, flow lines, gathering systems and other outlets attached to its properties, and every method by which oil is delivered to and from its properties. Such diagrams shall be brought up to date at least semi-annually or otherwise as the Board may require in order to show any change taking place in the information shown thereon, either by the filing of a new diagram or by corrections made upon the diagram on file.

Regulation XVII

When any affidavit or other sworn statement is required by this Order, or by Orders promulgated pursuant hereto or to said Act or Executive Orders, to be made or filed by any person, such affidavit or sworn statement must be made or filed by any real person in interest owning, producing, refining, processing, manufacturing, transporting, withdrawing from storage or otherwise handling petroleum or petroleum products involved in the transaction or transactions which are the subject of such affidavit or sworn statement; provided, however, that such affidavit or sworn statement may be made or filed by a duly authorized agent of such real party in interest when proof of his authorization has been filed with the Board or other agency with which the affidavit or sworn statement is to be filed on or before the date of filing said affidavit or sworn statement.

Regulation XVIII

The shipper, or duly authorized agent of the shipper, a copy of whose authorization has been filed with the Petroleum Conservation Division of the Department of the Interior at its office in Washington, D. C., of a cargo of petroleum or petroleum products, or any part thereof, which has been loaded at any port in the States of Texas or Louisiana for shipment by tanker, barge, or other vessel, in whole or in part in interstate or foreign commerce, including the intermediate shipment to any point from which shipments of petroleum or petroleum products in interstate or foreign commerce customarily are made, shall transmit by mail to the Petroleum Conservation Division of the Department of the Interior at its office in Washington, D. C., with full postage paid, not later than twenty-four (24) hours after the date of sailing, a report and affidavit in duplicate on form designated OCR–1, made and executed in accordance with instructions prescribed and approved by the Secretary of the Interior and appearing thereon.

The master, owner, charterer, or duly authorized agent of the owner or charterer of any tanker, barge, or other vessel, a copy of whose authorization has been filed with the Petroleum Conservation Division of the Department of the Interior at its office in Washington, D. C., upon discharging at any port in the United States a cargo of petroleum or petroleum products, or any part thereof, which has been loaded at any port in the States of Texas or Louisiana for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce, shall transmit by mail, with full postage paid, to the Petroleum Conservation Division of the Department of the Interior at its office in Washington, D. C., within twenty-four (24) hours of completion of each discharge operation, partial or complete, a report in duplicate on form designated OCR–2, made and executed in accordance with instructions prescribed and approved by the Secretary of the Interior and appearing thereon.

Regulation XIX

The Petroleum Conservation Division, and any Board established under Regulation II hereof, when authorized by the Secretary of the Interior, shall make necessary investigations, within or outside of any designated area, to carry out and accomplish the purposes of said Act.

Regulation XX

If any provision of this Order or any clause, sentence or part hereof is held unauthorized or invalid for any reason, or the application thereof to any person, circumstance, commodity or class of transactions with respect to any commodity be held unauthorized or invalid for any reason, the validity of the remainder of this Order and the application of such provisions to other persons, circumstances, commodities and classes of transactions shall not be affected thereby.

The Executive Order of the President of the United States (No. 6980–B), dated March 1, 1935, except in so far as it applies to or affects any violation thereof or any action which has been or may hereafter be taken because of such violation, is hereby revoked.

The operation of this Order shall be immediately effective.

Approved, prescribed and promulgated this 6th day of October, 1937.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

CONSTITUTING DESIGNATED AREA, AND ESTABLISHING FEDERAL TENDER BOARD NO. 1

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress entitled "An Act To regulate interstate and foreign commerce in petroleum and its products by prohibiting the shipment in such commerce of petroleum and its products produced in violation of State law, and for other purposes", approved February 22, 1935, (49 Stat. 30), as amended by the Act of June 14, 1937, (Public No. 145, 75th Congress, 1st Session), hereinafter referred to as said Act, and the Executive Order of the President of the United States, No. 6979, of February 28, 1935, and Executive Order No. 7756, this date promulgated; and

WHEREAS, when, By Executive Order No. 6980–C approved March 1, 1935, I designated the area known as the East Texas Field and appointed Federal Tender Board No. 1 for the purpose of issuing certificates of clearance for said Field and administering the regulations prescribed under said Act, I found that large quantities of contraband oil were originating in and being shipped and transported in interstate commerce from said Field; that actual production of petroleum in said Field was in excess of the amounts permitted to be produced under the Laws of the State of Texas and under the regulations and orders prescribed thereunder by the Railroad Commission of Texas, a substantial part of which moved in interstate commerce; that large quantities of contraband oil, a substantial part of which was available immediately for interstate transportation, were actually situated in said Field; and that various devices and operations had been and were being used in said Field to obstruct the enforcement of the Conservation Laws of the State of Texas and the orders thereunder of the Railroad Commission of Texas, all of which resulted in conditions which were wasteful and conducive to a decreased ultimate recovery of oil from said Field; and

WHEREAS, I find the operations of said Board in said Field have assisted materially in the enforcement of the Conservation Laws of the State of Texas and the orders thereunder of the Railroad Commission of Texas, have prevented the movement of contraband oil from said Field in interstate commerce, and have aided materially in the establishment of conditions which will result in a material increase in the ultimate recovery of petroleum from said Field, the benefit of which will accrue to the interest of the public, the State of Texas, and the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, I find that the potential production of petroleum in said East Texas Field continues to be and is at this time greatly in excess of the production currently permitted by the Conservation Laws of the State of Texas and the orders thereunder of the Railroad Commission of Texas; that the actual production of petroleum in said East Texas Field is approximately fourteen per cent of the total actual production of petroleum in the United States and is equal approximately to the aggregate production of the States of Kansas, Louisiana and New Mexico; that the estimated reserve of recoverable petroleum in said Field comprises approximately one-fourth of the estimated reserves of recoverable petroleum from all of the presently known fields of the United States; that there are in said Field more than 22,000 oil wells, a substantial proportion of which are capable of producing at this time quantities of petroleum greatly in excess of the amounts currently allowed to be produced by the Conservation Laws of the State of Texas and the orders thereunder of the Railroad Commission of Texas; that there is in said Field equipment, including numerous refineries, reclamation plants, casinghead gasoline plants, gathering systems, storage facilities, field and trunk pipe lines, loading racks, railroads, and tank trucks, which would make possible the immediate shipment in interstate commerce of quantities of petroleum and petroleum products greatly in excess of the quantity of petroleum currently allowed to be produced by the Conservation Laws of the State of Texas and the orders thereunder of the Railroad Commission of Texas; that such production in violation of said State Laws and orders would result in a material loss and wasteful use of the reservoir energy in said Field and in a substantial decrease in the amount of petroleum ultimately to be recovered from said Field, to the detriment of the public, the State of Texas and the United States of America; that there is actually situated in said Field at this time large quantities of contraband oil, a substantial part of which is available immediately for transportation in interstate and foreign commerce; and that bypasses and other devices and operations that have been used to obstruct the enforcement of the Conservation Laws of the State of Texas and the orders thereunder of the Railroad Commission of Texas could again be used immediately in the violation of said State Laws and Orders; and

WHEREAS, I found that it was necessary and appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of said Act to require certificates of clearance for petroleum and petroleum products moving or to be moved in interstate commerce from said East Texas Field and to establish a Board for the issuance of such certificates. I now find that it is necessary and appropriate to continue to require certificates of clearance for petroleum and petroleum products moving or to be moved in interstate commerce from said East Texas Field and to continue to maintain a Board for the issuance of such certificates;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is ordered:

Article I

That part of the State of Texas included within the Counties of Gregg, Upshur, Smith, Rusk, and that part of Cherokee County covered by the Miguel de los Santos Coy, Pratt and Wesley Dikes Surveys (to be known as the East Texas Field) is hereby constituted a designated area within the meaning of Regulation II of Executive Order No. 7757, and the regulations prescribed by said Order shall apply to all petroleum and petroleum products in or from said area and to all persons producing, refining, processing, manufacturing, storing, shipping or transporting petroleum or petroleum products in or from said area.

Article II

I hereby establish a Board to be known as Federal Tender Board No. 1, for the purpose of issuing certificates of clearance for such area under said Act and administering the regulations prescribed under said Act. Such Board shall consist of one or more persons who shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior and shall serve at his pleasure. The principal office of Federal Tender Board No. 1 shall be located at Kilgore, Texas.

Article III

Applications to Federal Tender Board No. 1 for certificates of clearance, supporting affidavits for said applications, and returns relative thereto shall be made on forms in accordance wit hinstructions prescribed and approved by the Secretary of the Interior and appearing thereon.

Article IV

Monthly reports by refineries, reclamation plants, casinghead gasoline plants, pipe lines and producers operating in the East Texas Field shall be made on forms in accordance with instructions prescribed and approved by the Secretary of the Interior and appearing thereon.

Article V

The operation of this order shall be immediately effective.

Approved, prescribed and promulgated this 6th day of October, 1937.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 102]

AN ORDER DETERMINING AND ESTABLISHING INITIAL CLASSIFICATIONS OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER 14 AS PROVIDED BY COMMISSION'S ORDERS NO. 38 AND NO. 43, AND SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTION (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders No. 38[1] and No. 43 directed all District Boards to propose to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members within their respective districts in conformity with the standards, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure prescribed by the Commission in said orders; the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Fourteen having proposed to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members and a hearing having been held thereon; and Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Fourteen having submitted evidence at such hearing showing compliance with the standards of classifications of coals, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure, as prescribed by the Commission in its Orders No. 38 and No. 43; and, the Commission having given due consideration to the proposed initial classifications of coals by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Fourteen and to other evidence and pertinent data relating to the classifications of coals for District Number Fourteen:

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the classifications of coals of code members for District Number Fourteen, set out preceding the names of code members and their respective mines as the same appear in the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members within District Number Fourteen, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the initial classifications of coals for code members within the said District Number Fourteen and such classifications shall be effective until further order of this Commission.

2. That all proceedings for reclassifications of coals shall be made and conducted in conformity with the provisions of Order No. 38, as amended by Order No. 43, and all proceedings for additional initial classifications shall be had in conformity with orders now in effect or hereafter issued.

3. That nothing herein contained shall affect any proceeding now pending before District Board Number Fourteen or the Commission involving a revision of the initial classifications of coals of any code member.

That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals for Code Members within District Number Fourteen to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretary of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Fourteen and to code members within said district, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the Federal Register.

By order of the Commission.

[Order No. 103]

AN ORDER DETERMINING AND ESTABLISHING INITIAL CLASSIFICATIONS OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER 16 AS PROVIDED BY COMMISSION'S ORDERS NO. 38 AND NO. 43, AND SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTION (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders No. 38 and No. 43 directed all District Boards to propose to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members within their respective districts in conformity with the standards, method of applying such standards, and rules of procedure prescribed by the Commission in said orders; the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 16 having proposed to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members and a hearing having been held thereon; and Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 16 having submitted evidence at such hearing showing compliance with the standards of classifications of coals, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure, as prescribed by the Commission in its Orders No. 38 and No. 43; and, the Commission having given due consideration to the proposed initial classifications of coals by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 16 and to other evidence and pertinent data relating to the classifications of coals for District Number 16:

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the classifications of coals of code members for District Number 16, set out preceding the names of code members and their respective mines as the same appear in the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members within District Number 16, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the initial classifications of coals for code members within the said District Number 16 and such classifications shall be effective until further order of this Commission.

2. That all proceedings for reclassifications of coals shall be made and conducted in conformity with the provisions of Order No. 38, as amended by Order No. 43, and all proceedings for additional initial classifications shall be had in conformity with orders now in effect or hereafter issued.

3. That nothing herein contained shall affect any proceeding now pending before District Board Number 16 or the Commission involving a revision of the initial classifications of coals of any code member.

That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals for Code Members within District Number 16 to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretary of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 16 and to code members within said district, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the Federal Register.

[Order No. 104]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF ARKANSAS AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH COMMERCE UPON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL, TO BE HELD AT FORT SMITH, ARKANSAS, ON DECEMBER 16, 1937, BEFORE AN EXAMINER, AND NOTICE THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, upon being advised that substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of Arkansas directly affect interstate commerce in such coal and will cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice as between such commerce in Arkansas on the one hand and interstate commerce in such coal on the other hand as such interstate commerce is provided to be regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and that a hearing to determine the effect of intrastate transactions in bituminous coal upon interstate transactions in bituminous coal in the State of Arkansas would be desirable, and upon investigation hereby orders:

1. That on December 16, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M., at the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Goldman Hotel, Fort Smith, Arkansas, a public hearing will be held to determine the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of Arkansas, and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice, will exist between localities in Arkansas in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and to the provisions of Section 4-A of said Act.

2. That said hearing will be conducted by an Examiner designated by the Commission.

3. That interested parties may appear and present evidence at such hearing.

4. That any producer believing that particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal are not subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of Section 4-A will, subsequent to the final order of the Commission in the proceeding herein noticed, be afforded full opportunity to file an application for exemption as provided in said section, upon which application a hearing will thereafter be held by the Commission upon proper notice given.

5. That failure of any producer to appear and present evidence at the hearing herein noticed to be held in Fort Smith, Arkansas, on December 16, 1937, will not prejudice the case of any producer to be heard upon such application.

6. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this notice to the Consumers' Counsel, to each known producer of bituminous coal in the State of Arkansas, and to the secretaries of all of the district boards, and shall cause to be published at the expense of the Commission copy of this order and notice for three (3) days in newspapers of general circulation in the counties of Arkansas in which bituminous coal is produced.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 30th day of November, 1937.

[Order No. 105]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH COMMERCE UPON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL, TO BE HELD AT MUSKOGEE, OKLAHOMA, ON DECEMBER 21, 1937, BEFORE AN EXAMINER, AND NOTICE THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, upon being advised that substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of Oklahoma directly affect interstate commerce in such coal and will cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice as between such commerce in Oklahoma on the one hand and interstate commerce in such coal on the other hand as such interstate commerce is provided to be regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and that a hearing to determine the effect of intrastate transactions in bituminous coal upon interstate transactions in bituminous coal in the State of Oklahoma would be desirable, and upon investigation hereby orders:

1. That on December 21, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M., at the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Hotel Severs, Muskogee, Oklahoma, a public hearing will be held to determine the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of Oklahoma, and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice, will exist between localities in Oklahoma in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and to the provisions of Section 4-A of said Act.

2. That said hearing will be conducted by an Examiner designated by the Commission.

3. That interested parties may appear and present evidence at such hearing.

4. That any producer believing that particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal are not subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of Section 4-A will, subsequent to the final order of the Commission in the proceeding herein noticed, be afforded full opportunity to file an application for exemption as provided in said section, upon which application a hearing will thereafter be held by the Commission upon proper notice given.

5. That failure of any producer to appear and present evidence at the hearing herein noticed to be held in Muskogee, Oklahoma, on December 21, 1937, will not prejudice the case of any producer to be heard upon such application.

6. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this notice to the Consumers' Counsel, to each known producer of bituminous coal in the State of Oklahoma, and to the secretaries of all of the district boards, and shall cause to be published at the expense of the Commission copy of this order and notice for three (3) days in newspapers of general circulation in the counties of Oklahoma in which bituminous coal is produced.

[Order No. 106]

AN ORDER DETERMINING AND ESTABLISHING INITIAL CLASSIFICATIONS OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER 17 AS PROVIDED BY COMMISSION'S ORDER NO. 38 AND NO. 43, AND SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTION (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders No. 38 and No. 43 directed all District Boards to propose to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members within their respective districts in conformity with the standards, method of applying such standards, and rules of procedure prescribed by the Commission in said orders; the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 17 having proposed to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members and a hearing having been held thereon; and Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 17 having submitted evidence at such hearing showing compliance with the standards of classifications of coals, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure, as prescribed by The Commission in its Orders No. 38 and No. 43; and, the Commission having given due consideration to the proposed initial classifications of coals by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 17 and to other evidence and pertinent data relating to the classifications of coals for District Number 17:

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the classifications of coals of code members for District Number 17, set opposite the names of code members and their respective mines as the same appear in the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members within District Number 17, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the initial classifications of coals for code members within the said District Number 17 and such classifications shall be effective until further order of this Commission.

2. That all proceedings for reclassifications of coals shall be made and conducted in conformity with the provisions of Order No. 38, as amended by Order No. 43, and all proceedings for additional initial classifications shall be had in conformity with orders now in effect or hereafter issued.

3. That nothing herein contained shall affect any proceeding now pending before District Board Number 17 or the Commission involving a revision of the initial classifications of coals of any code member.

That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals for Code Members within District Number 17 to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretary of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 17 and to code members within said district, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

WR—B-101—New Mexico, Supplement 6. Issued December 2, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

WR BULLETIN NO. 101—NEW MEXICO, SUPPLEMENT 6

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—New Mexico, as amended by Supplement 1, Supplement 2, Supplement 3, Supplement 4, and Supplement 5, is further amended by this supplement as follows:

Part VI, Section 4, Subsection A, is amended to read as follows:

"A. If the 1937 acreage of soil-depleting crops, except cotton, on any farm is in excess of the general soil-depleting base for the farm, a deduction shall be made from the payment which otherwise would be made with respect to such farm in an amount computed by multiplying the number of such excess acres by the rate per acre determined for the farm under Section 1, Part II; Provided, however, That if the general soil-depleting base on any non-diversion farm is less than 20 acres, such deduction shall be computed only with respect to the 1937 acreage of soil-depleting crops, except cotton, in excess of 20 acres."

Part XI, Section 2, is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 2. Deduction for insufficient acreage of soil-conserving crops.—Where a net Class I payment for diversion from the cotton soil-depleting base has been computed for the applicant in accordance with the applicable provisions of the foregoing Section I, the deduction for failure to have sufficient soil-conserving acreage on the farms with respect to which cotton soil-depleting bases have been established will be determined as follows:

"A. Determine the applicant's share[1] of the acreage of soil-conserving crops required with respect to the cotton soil-depleting bases as follows:

"1. To the sum of the applicant's share of the net decrease from the cotton soil-depleting bases or the sum of the applicant's share of maximum diversion from the cotton soil-depleting bases, whichever sum is the smaller, add the sum of the applicant's share of the normal acreage of soil-conserving crops on each farm with a cotton soil-depleting base.

"B. For each farm with a cotton soil-depleting base, compute the applicant's share of the 1937 acreage of soil-conserving crops and total the amounts thus obtained.

"C. If the apipcant's share of the 1937 acres of soil-conserving crops obtained under Subsection B of this Section 2, is less than the applicant's share of the acreage of soil-conserving crops required with respect to the cotton soil-depleting bases obtained under Subsection A of this Section 2, a deduction shall be made from any payment other than a range-building payment which otherwise would be made to the applicant at the rate of $3.00 for each deficit acre."

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2nd day of December, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

[1] The applicant's share of any payment, deduction, acreage, etc., shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Part V governing the applicant's share of payment.

Part XI, Section 2 is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 2. Deduction for insufficient acreage of soil-conserving crops.—Where a net Class I Payment for diversion from the cotton soil-depleting base has been computed for the applicant in accordance with the applicable provisions of the foregoing Section I, the deduction for failure to have sufficient soil-conserving acreage on the farms with respect to which cotton soil-depleting bases have been established will be determined as follows:

"A. Determine the applicant's share[1] of the acreage of soil-conserving crops required with respect to the cotton soil-depleting bases as follows:

"1. To the sum of the applicant's share of the net decrease from the cotton soil-depleting bases or the sum of the applicant's share of maximum diversion from the cotton soil-depleting bases, whichever sum is the smaller, add the sum of the applicant's share of the normal acreage of soil-conserving crops on each farm with a cotton soil-depleting base.

"B. For each farm with a cotton soil-depleting base, compute the applicant's share[1] of the 1937 acreage of soil-conserving crops and total the amounts thus obtained.

"C. If the applicant's share of the 1937 acres of soil-conserving crops obtained under subsection B of this section 2, is less than the applicant's share of the acreage of soil-conserving crops required with respect to the cotton soil-depleting bases obtained under subsection A of this section 2, a deduction shall be made from any payment other than a range-building payment which otherwise would be made to the applicant at the rate of $3.00 for each deficit acre."

Done at Washington, D. C. this 2nd day of December 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

ORDER OF DESIGNATION OF TOBACCO MARKETS

KENTUCKY

Whereas, the Act of Congress approved August 23, 1935 (49 Stat., 731) entitled "The Tobacco Inspection Act" contains the following provisions:

SEC. 2. That transactions in tobacco involving the sale thereof at auction as commonly conducted at auction markets are affected with a public interest; that such transactions are carried on by tobacco producers generally and by persons engaged in the business of buying and selling tobacco in commerce; that the classification of tobacco according to type, grade, and other characteristics affects the prices received therefor by producers; that without uniform standards of classification and inspection the evaluation of tobacco is susceptible to speculation, manipulation, and control, and unreasonable fluctuations in prices and quality determination occur which are detrimental to producers and persons handling tobacco in commerce; that such fluctuations constitute a burden upon commerce and make the use of uniform standards of classification and inspection imperative for the protection of producers and others engaged in commerce and the public interest therein.

SEC. 5. That the Secretary is authorized to designate those auction markets where tobacco bought and sold thereon at auction or the products customarily manufactured therefrom, moves in commerce. Before any market is designated by the Secretary under this section he shall determine by referendum the desire of tobacco growers who sold tobacco at auction on such market during the preceding marketing season. The Secretary may at his discretion hold one referendum for two or more markets or for all markets in a type area. No market or group of markets shall be designated by the Secretary unless two-thirds of the growers voting favor it. The Secretary shall have access to the tobacco records of the Collector of Internal Revenue and of the several collectors of internal revenue for the purpose of obtaining the names and addresses of growers who sold tobacco on any auction market, and the Secretary shall determine from said records the eligibility of such grower to vote in such referendum, and no grower shall be eligible to vote in more than one referendum. After public notice of not less than thirty days that any auction market has been so designated by the Secretary, no tobacco shall be offered for sale at auction on such market until it shall have been inspected and certified by an authorized representative of the Secretary according to the standards established under this Act, except that the Secretary may temporarily suspend the requirement of inspection and certification at any designated market whenever he finds it impracticable to provide for such inspection and certification because competent inspectors are not obtainable or because the quantity of tobacco available for inspection is insufficient to justify the cost of such service: Provided, That, in the event competent inspectors are not available, or for other reasons, the Secretary is unable to provide for such inspection and certification at all auction markets within a type area, he shall first designate those auction markets where the greatest number of growers may be served with the facilities available to him. No fee or charge shall be imposed or collected for inspection or certification under this section at any designated auction market. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to prevent transactions in tobacco at markets not designated by the Secretary or at designated markets where the Secretary has suspended the requirement of inspection or to authorize the Secretary to close any market."

Whereas pursuant to said Act a referendum has been held among the growers of Burley tobacco, Type 31, who sold tobacco at auction on the Danville, Kentucky tobacco market during the last marketing season, in which referendum said growers were given an opportunity to vote for or against the designation of said market as provided in Section 5 of said Act; and

Whereas more than two-thirds of the growers voting in said referendum and who sold tobacco at auction on said market during the last marketing season voted in favor of said designation,

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by Section 5 of The Tobacco Inspection Act and the affirmative results of the referendum conducted thereunder, the city of Danville, Kentucky is designated as a market where tobacco bought and sold thereon at auction, or the products customarily manufactured therefrom, moves in commerce.

It is hereby ordered, That, effective 30 days from this date no tobacco shall be offered for sale at auction on the above-named market until it shall have been inspected and certified by an authorized representative of the United States Department of Agriculture according to standards established under the Act; provided, however, that the requirement of inspection and certification may be suspended at such times as it is found impracticable to provide inspectors or when the quantity of tobacco available for inspection is insufficient to justify the cost of such service. No fee or charge shall be imposed or collected for the inspection and certification of tobacco sold or offered for sale at auction on the market designated herein.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, this 3rd day of December 1937.

NOTICE

DECEMBER 2, 1937.

TO GREAT FALLS LIVESTOCK MARKETING ASSOCIATION, INC.,

Whereas Section 301 of Title III of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate and foreign commerce in livestock, livestock products, dairy products, poultry, poultry products, and eggs, and for other purposes", approved August 15, 1921, provides in part that, when used in said Act, the term "stockyard owner" means any person engaged in the business of conducting or operating a stockyard; and Section 302 of said Act provides as follows:

(a) When used in this title the term "stockyard" means any place, establishment, or facility commonly known as stockyards, conducted or operated for compensation or profit as a public market, consisting of pens, or other inclosures, and their appurtenances, in which live cattle, sheep, swine, horses, mules, or goats are received, held, or kept for sale or shipment in commerce. This title shall not apply to a stockyard of which the area normally available for handling livestock, exclusive of runs, alleys, or passage ways, is less than twenty thousand square feet.

(b) The Secretary shall from time to time ascertain, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, the stockyards which come within the foregoing definition, and shall give notice thereof to the stockyard owners concerned, and give public notice thereof by posting copies of such notice in the stockyard, and in such other manner as he may determine. After the giving of such notice to the stockyard owner and to the public, the stockyard shall remain subject to the provisions of this title until like notice is given by the Secretary that such stockyard no longer comes within the foregoing definition.

And, whereas, the stockyard of the Great Falls Livestock Marketing Association, Inc. (Great Falls Meat Company Stockyards), north and east of Great Falls, Montana, was posted on the 14th day of December, 1936, as coming within the foregoing definition;

And, whereas, after an inquiry it has been ascertained by me as Secretary of Agriculture of the United States that this stockyard is no longer operated as a public market:

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the stockyard of the Great Falls Livestock Marketing Association, Inc. (Great Falls Meat Company Stockyards), north and east of Great Falls, Montana, no longer comes within the foregoing definition and the provisions of Title III of said Act.

NOTICE

DECEMBER 2, 1937.

TO DEAN SULLIVAN AND JOHN W. SMEED,
Doing business as O. K. Sale Yard, Caldwell, Idaho.

Whereas, Section 301 of Title III of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate and foreign commerce in livestock, livestock products, dairy products, poultry, poultry products, and eggs, and for other purposes", approved August 15, 1921, provides in part that, when used in said Act, the term "stockyard owner" means any person engaged in the business of conducting or operating a stockyard; and Section 302 of said Act provides as follows:

(a) When used in this title the term "stockyard" means any place, establishment, or facility commonly known as stockyards, conducted or operated for compensation or profit as a public market, consisting of pens, or other inclosures, and their appurtenances, in which live cattle, sheep, swine, horses, mules, or goats are received, held, or kept for sale or shipment in commerce. This title shall not apply to a stockyard of which the area normally available for handling livestock, exclusive of runs, alleys, or passage ways, is less than twenty thousand square feet.

(b) The Secretary shall from time to time ascertain, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, the stockyards which come within the foregoing definition, and shall give notice thereof to the stockyard owners concerned, and give public notice thereof by posting copies of such notice in the stockyard, and in such other manner as he may determine. After the giving of such notice to the stockyard owner and to the public, the stockyard shall remain subject to the provisions of this title until like notice is given by the Secretary that such stockyard no longer comes within the foregoing definition:

Notice is hereby given that after inquiry it has been ascertained by me as Secretary of Agriculture of the United States that the stockyard known as O. K. Sale Yard, at Caldwell, State of Idaho, comes within the foregoing definition and is subject to the provisions of said Act.

The attention of stockyard owners, market agencies, dealers and other persons concerned is directed to Sections 303 and 306 and other pertinent provisions of said Act and the rules and regulations issued thereunder by the Secretary of Agriculture.

IN THE MATTER OF CENTRAL MASSACHUSETTS LIGHT & POWER COMPANY AND MASSACHUSETTS UTILITIES ASSOCIATES

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

Various applications and declarations having been filed pursuant to Sections 7, 11, 12 and 15 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company and Massachusetts Utilities Associates, subsidiary companies of New England Power Association, a registered holding company, as follows:

Massachusetts Utilities Associates and Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company have submitted a plan of liquidation of said Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company, pursuant to Section 11 (e) of the Act, and have applied for an order approving said plan;

Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company has applied for a report on said plan pursuant to Section 11 (g) of the Act and Rule 12E;

Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company has applied for approval of the payment of a liquidating dividend, pursuant to Rule 12C-2;

Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company has applied for approval of the retirement by it of its preferred and common shares, pursuant to Rule 12C-1;

Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company has filed a declaration as to solicitation of consents to said plan, pursuant to Rule 12E;

Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company has filed a declaration, pursuant to Section 7 of said Act, regarding an amendment to its Declaration of Trust, for the purpose of effecting the consummation of the plan;

Massachusetts Utilities Associates has applied for approval of certain accounting entries, pursuant to Instruction 8C to the Uniform System of Accounts for Public Utility Holding Companies.

It is stated, in effect, that said plan of liquidation provides that upon liquidation of Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company, a voluntary trust, the public holders of the 6% preferred shares of Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company will become entitled to cash equal to the full amount to which such preferred shares are entitled in liquidation ($125 and accrued dividends) and that the public holders of the common shares of Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company will be given three options: (a) to receive in cash the fair value of their common shares as determined by a committee of disinterested persons selected by and from the Trustees of Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company; (b) to receive, in lieu of cash, such amount of outstanding preferred shares of Massachusetts Utilities Associates and such amount of outstanding Massachusetts Utilities Associates voting trust certificates as shall have been determined by a majority of the trustees of Central Massachusetts Light & Power Company, or a committee of such Trustees; (c) or any holder of common shares not voting in favor of the plan, shall be entitled to receive in cash the value of his shares as redetermined by arbitration, such right of arbitration and appraisal to be conditional upon demand for arbitration made within thirty days after the vote upon such plan.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters be held on December 20, 1937, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under Section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer. Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the presiding officer is directed to make his report to the Commission.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarants and applicants and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before December 15, 1937.

The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer. Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the presiding officer is directed to make his report to the Commission.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before December 15, 1937.

By the Commission.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of December, 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF ALBERT A. HALL, DOING BUSINESS AS A. A. HALL COMPANY, 60 BROAD STREET, NEW YORK, NEW YORK

ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 15 (B) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED

Albert A. Hall, doing business as A. A. Hall Company, a sole proprietorship, hereinafter called the registrant, having filed with the Commission on July 2, 1935 an application for registration on Form 1-M pursuant to Rule MA2 of the rules then governing the over-the-counter markets; and the said registration having become effective on January 1, 1936, in accordance with the Commission's rules and regulations; and the said registrant having become registered under Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, by virtue of the provisions of Section 10 of the Act of Congress approved May 27, 1936, providing for the registration of over-the-counter brokers and dealers; and

The Commission having reasonable grounds to believe that the said registrant during the period from March 8, 1936, up to and including April 25, 1936, has willfully violated the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the sale of certain securities; and

The Commission having further reasonable grounds to believe that it is in the public interest to revoke the said registration; and

The said registrant, on November 26, 1937, having consented in writing to the revocation of the said registration, and the Commission having duly considered the matter and being fully advised in the premises;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that the registration of Albert A. Hall, doing business as A. A. Hall Company, as a broker or dealer transacting business on the over-the-counter markets be and the same is hereby revoked.

By the Commission.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Public Debt Service.

[1937 Department Circular No. 579]

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA 2½ PERCENT TREASURY BONDS OF 1945

DATED AND BEARING INTEREST FROM DECEMBER 15, 1937; DUE DECEMBER 15, 1945; INTEREST PAYABLE JUNE 15 AND DECEMBER 15

I. Offering of Bonds

DECEMBER 6, 1937.

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for 2½ percent bonds of the United States, designated Treasury Bonds of 1945. The amount of the offering is $250,000,000, or thereabouts, with the right reserved to the Secretary of the Treasury to increase the offering by an amount sufficient to accept all subscriptions for which Treasury Notes of Series A–1938, maturing February 1, 1938, are tendered in payment and accepted.

II. Description of Bonds

1. The bonds will be dated December 15, 1937, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 2½ percent per annum, payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 in each year. They will mature December 15, 1945, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The bonds shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, or gift taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

3. The bonds will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege and will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

4. Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached, and bonds registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds, and for the transfer of registered bonds, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

5. The bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds.

III. Subscription and Allotment

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than banking institutions will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Cash subscriptions from banks and trust companies for their own account will be received without deposit but will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding one-half of the combined capital and surplus of the subscribing bank or trust company. Cash subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment of 10 percent of the amount of bonds applied for. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, subscriptions in payment of which Treasury Notes of Series A–1938 are tendered will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment, and the basis of the allotment will be publicly announced.

IV. Payment

1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for bonds allotted on cash subscriptions must be made or completed on or before December 15, 1937, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the payment with application up to 10 percent of the amount of bonds applied for shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve bank of its district. Treasury Notes of Series A–1938, maturing February 1, 1938, with coupon dated February 1, 1938, attached, will be accepted at par in payment for any bonds subscribed for and allotted, and accrued interest on the maturing notes from August 1, 1937, to December 15, 1937 ($9.701087 per $1,000), will be paid following acceptance of the notes. Payment through surrender of Treasury Notes of Series A–1938 should be made when the subscription is tendered.

V. General Provisions

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive bonds.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA 1¾ PERCENT TREASURY NOTES OF SERIES C–1942

DATED AND BEARING INTEREST FROM DECEMBER 15, 1937; DUE DECEMBER 15, 1942; INTEREST PAYABLE JUNE 15 AND DECEMBER 15

I. Offering of Notes

DECEMBER 6, 1937.

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for 1¾ percent notes of the United States, designated Treasury Notes of Series C–1942. The amount of the offering is $200,000,000, or thereabouts, with the right reserved to the Secretary of the Treasury to increase the offering by an amount sufficient to accept all subscriptions for which Treasury Notes of Series A–1938, maturing February 1, 1938, are tendered in payment and accepted.

II. Description of Notes

1. The notes will be dated December 15, 1937, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1¾ percent per annum, payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 in each year. They will mature December 15, 1942, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The notes shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes, or gift taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The notes will be accepted at par during such time and under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed or approved by the Secretary of the Treasury in payment of income and profits taxes payable at the maturity of the notes.

4. The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege.

5. Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form.

III. Subscription and Allotment

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Cash subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment of 10 percent of the amount of notes applied for. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, subscriptions in payment of which Treasury Notes of Series A–1938 are tendered will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment, and the basis of the allotment will be publicly announced.

IV. Payment

1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for notes allotted on cash subscriptions must be made or completed on or before December 15, 1937, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the payment with application up to 10 percent of the amount of notes applied for shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for notes allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve bank of its district. Treasury Notes of Series A–1938, maturing February 1, 1938, with coupon dated February 1, 1938, attached, will be accepted at par in payment for any notes subscribed for and allotted, and accrued interest on the maturing notes from August 1, 1937, to December 15, 1937 ($9.701087 per $1,000), will be paid following acceptance of the notes. Payment through surrender of Treasury Notes of Series A–1938 should be made when the subscription is tendered.

V. General Provisions

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for notes allotted, to make delivery of notes on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive notes.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

NCR—B–101, as Amended, Supplement 6 Issued December 3, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM

NORTH CENTRAL REGION BULLETIN 101, AS AMENDED

Supplement No. 6

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, North Central Region Bulletin 101, as Amended, is further amended as follows:

1. Part III, Section 2, first paragraph, the parenthetical expression appearing therein is amended to read as follows:

(This Section 2 does not exclude any acreage planted in the fall of 1936 to any of the crops listed in item (1) of Section 1 (b) of this Part III if such crop is not harvested as grain or hay and a seeding in 1937 of any of the crops listed in this Section 2 or a first cultivation which meets the requirements pertaining to the type of such cultivation set forth in item (1) of Section 3 (a) of this Part III is completed on such acreage before July 1, 1937, except: (1) in Nebraska such seeding or first cultivation must be completed by May 15, 1937; (2) in Missouri and Illinois such seeding may be made after June 30, 1937, if any of the crops listed in item (1) of Section 1 (b) of this Part III were planted on such acreage in the fall of 1936 and were pastured in the fall of 1936 and were pastured in 1937 until growth of such crop ceased or until such land was first cultivated in 1937.)

2. Part III, Section 2 (a), item (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) Annual sweet clover, lespedeza, and crotalaria.

3. Part III, Section 2 (b), item (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Planted to lespedeza in the spring of 1937, provided: that on the date as of which final inspection of the farm is made for the purpose of determining performance there is evidence that there was a good stand of lespedeza on such acreage in 1937 which had been permitted to mature sufficiently to reseed itself; that such acreage is not plowed before September 1, 1937, after the seeding in the spring of 1937 of such lespedeza; and that if such acreage is seeded in the fall of 1937 to any of the crops listed in item (1) of Section 1 (b) of this Part III, such seeding operation is commenced after such lepedeza has been permitted to mature sufficiently to reseed itself.

4. Part III, Section 2 (b) is amended by the addition of the following new item (3):

(3) Planted to annual sweet clover or crotalaria in the spring of 1937, provided: that on the date as of which final inspection of the farm is made for the purpose of determining performance there is evidence that there was a good stand of annual sweet clover or crotalaria on such acreage in 1937 and such acreage is not plowed before September 1, 1937, after the seeding in the spring of 1937 of such crop.

5. Part III, Section 3 (a), item (3) is amended by the addition of the following new sub-item:

c. Seeded in the spring of 1937 to annual sweet clover or crotalaria in accordance with good farming practices and upon which, due to uncontrollable natural causes, there was not a good stand of annual sweet clover or crotalaria on such acreage in 1937, provided, the nurse crop, if any, was seeded at a rate not in excess of one-half the normal rate of seeding alone for grain and was not harvested as grain or hay.

6. Part III, Section 3 (a), item 3, the parenthetical expression appearing therein is amended to read as follows:

(This item (3) includes any acreage planted in the fall of 1936 to any of the crops listed in item (1) of Section 1 (b) of this Part III if such crop is not harvested as grain or hay and a seeding in 1937 of any of the crops listed in Section 2 (a) of this Part III or the crop listed in item (2) of Section 2 (b) of this Part III or a first cultivation which meets the requirements pertaining to the type of such cultivation set forth in item (1) of Section 3 (a) of this Part III is completed on such acreage before July 1, 1937, except: (1) in Nebraska such seeding or first cultivation must be completed by May 15, 1937; (2) in Missouri and Illinois such seeding may be made after June 30, 1937, if any of the crops listed in item (1) of Section 1 (b) of this Part III were planted on such acreage in the fall of 1936 and were pastured in 1937 until growth of such crop ceased or until such land was first cultivated in 1937.)

7. Part IV, Section 2 (j) is amended to read as follows:

(j) If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to a cotton or sharecropper farm, such person's percentage of any deduction computed with respect to such farm shall be the percentage that the sum of all payments computed for such person with respect to such farm is of the sum of all payments computed for such farm, or if there is no payment computed with respect to such farm, such person's percentage of such deduction shall be such person's percentage of the principal soil-depleting crop on such farm.

8. Part IV, Section 10 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) If such farm is a diversion farm in Area "A" and if the 1937 corn acreage on such farm exceeds the larger of (1), the corn limit for such farm, or (2), 15 acres, the amount of deduction for such person for such excess shall be computed by multiplying such number of excess acres by the rate per acre for general diversion payments for such farm and multiplying this result by such person's percentage.

9. Part V, Section 1 (f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) If the major portion of the cropland operated as all or part of one farming unit by an operator is rented on shares from a landlord and the remaining portion of the land rented from such landlord and operated by such operator is rented for cash, such share-rented and cash-rented land shall be regarded as one farm and such landlord shall be regarded as having furnished all of the land in such farm.

10. Part V, Section 5, second paragraph is amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of determining the county in which the operator shall make application for payment where he is operating a farming unit consisting of two or more farms, one or more of which are located in different counties, all such farms shall be deemed to be located in the county in which the farming unit is deemed to be located. The operator in such cases shall include in such application for payment all farms in such farming unit. The owner in such cases shall make application for payment in the county in which the farm owned by him is deemed to be located. In all such cases payment with respect to any such farm shall be computed at the rates of payment for the county in which such farm is deemed to be located.

11. Part V, Section 4 is amended by adding thereto the following new subsection (h):

(h) If a person is eligible to execute an application for payment with respect to one or more farms which he owns or operates in the same capacity in a county on June 30, 1937, and becomes entitled to execute an application for payment as owner or operator of one or more other farms in the same county in the same capacity on or after July 1, 1937, pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of this Part V, such farms shall be regarded as owned by the same person. All such farms shall be included in the same application for payment if acquired before the application for payment is executed and forwarded by the county committee to the State committee. However, farms acquired after the application for payment is executed and forwarded by the county committee to the State committee shall be included in a separate application for payment.

12. Part IV, Section 18 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 18. Association expenses.—In determining the amount of payments under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program, there shall be deducted from any payment computed for any person with respect to any farms or ranches in a county, all of such person's pro rata share of the estimated total administrative expenses incurred and to be incurred by the Association of such county in cooperating in carrying out the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, or 10 percent of the gross payment computed for such person, whichever is smaller. Such pro rata share shall be determined by multiplying the total payments computed for such person with respect to any farms or ranches in such county by the percentage that the estimated total of administrative expenses of the Association for such county as approved by the North Central Division for 1937 is of the total payments estimated by the North Central Division which will be made with respect to farms and ranches in such county in 1937. There shall be credited for the payment of administrative expenses of each county association in which special surveys or programs designated by the North Central Division are carried out such amounts as are estimated by the North Central Division to have been incurred by such Association in carrying out such designated special surveys or programs. There shall also be credited for the payment of administrative expenses of each county association the sum of $2.00 for each application for payment under which, prior to the deduction of any administrative expenses and as estimated by the North Central Division, the total payment will be $20.00 or less or under which there will be no payment. As provided in the Articles of Association, as amended, any person who previously has not become a member of the Association of the county in which his farms or ranches are located shall become a member thereof by his signing an application for payment with respect to such farms or ranches.

13. Part VI, Section 8 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 8. Association expenses.—In determining the amount of payments due ranch operators under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program, deductions shall be made for the administrative expenses of the county association in the amount and in the manner set forth in Part IV, Section 18 of this Bulletin.

The provisions of this Supplement No. 6 to NCR—B–101, as Amended, shall be effective as of October 14, 1937, so as to be included within the conditions mentioned in the "Order Increasing the Allowances, Deductions, and Rates of Payment under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in the East Central, Northeast, North Central, Southern, and Western Regions" issued October 14, 1937.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 3rd day of December 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

NOTICE

DECEMBER 4, 1937.

TO UNION STOCK YARDS, INC.,
Albany, Georgia.

Whereas section 301 of Title III of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate and foreign commerce in livestock, livestock products, dairy products, poultry, poultry products, and eggs, and for other purposes," approved August 15, 1921, provides in part that, when used in said Act, the term "stockyard owner" means any person engaged in the business of conducting or operating a stockyard; and Section 302 of said Act provides as follows:

(a) When used in this title the term "stockyard" means any place, establishment, or facility commonly known as stockyards, conducted or operated for compensation or profit as a public market, consisting of pens, or other inclosures, and their appurtenances, in which live cattle, sheep, swine, horses, mules, or goats are received, held, or kept for sale or shipment in commerce. This title shall not apply to a stockyard of which the area normally available for handling livestock, exclusive of runs, alleys, or passage ways, is less than twenty thousand square feet.

(b) The Secretary shall from time to time ascertain, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, the stockyards which come within the foregoing definition, and shall give notice thereof to the stockyard owners concerned, and give public notice thereof by posting copies of such notice in the stockyard, and in such other manner as he may determine. After the giving of such notice to the stockyard owner and to the public, the stockyard shall remain subject to the provisions of this title until like notice is given by the Secretary that such stockyard no longer comes within the foregoing definition:

Notice is hereby given that after inquiry it has been ascertained by me as Secretary of Agriculture of the United States that the stockyard known as Union Stock Yards, at Albany, State of Georgia, comes within the foregoing definition and is subject to the provisions of said Act.

The attention of stockyard owners, market agencies, dealers and other persons concerned is directed to Sections 303 and 306 and other pertinent provisions of said Act and the rules and regulations issued thereunder by the Secretary of Agriculture.

[Amendment 11 to B. A. I. Order 353]

AMENDMENT OF ORDER TO PREVENT THE INTRODUCTION INTO THE UNITED STATES OF RINDERPEST AND FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE

DECEMBER 6, 1937.

Under authority conferred by law upon the Secretary of Agriculture by Section 306 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (46 Stat. 590, 689), the order to prevent the introduction into the United States of rinderpest and foot-and-mouth disease (B. A. I. Order 353), dated June 1, 1935, and effective August 1, 1935, as amended, is hereby further amended by restoring the name "Denmark" to the list of countries in said order, as I have determined that foot-and-mouth disease again exists in said country of Denmark and I have so officially notified the Secretary of the Treasury.

Amendment 8 to B. A. I. Order 353, effective May 29, 1937, is hereby revoked.

This amendment, which for purpose of identification is designated Amendment 11 to B. A. I. Order 353, shall be effective on and after December 7, 1937.

Done at Washington this 6th day of December, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

CONVERSION OF BRAZILIAN MILREIS

CONVERSION OF BRAZILIAN MILREIS FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE ASSESSMENT OF DUTIES ON MERCHANDISE IMPORTED INTO THE UNITED STATES

DECEMBER 6, 1937.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Reference is made to the instructions published in Treasury Decisions 48467 of August 8, 1936, and 48553 of October 5, 1936, regarding the collection of duties in cases involving the conversion of Brazilian milreis.

In the case of merchandise exported to the United States on or after November 18, 1937, and until further notice, if it is necessary to convert Brazilian milreis into currency of the United States for the purpose of assessing and collecting duties on such merchandise, collectors of customs are hereby directed to suspend liquidation of the involved entries. In all other respects, the instructions set forth in T. D. 48467, as modified by T. D. 48553, shall be followed.

CONVERSION OF CURRENCY—CHILEAN PESO

CONVERSION OF CHILEAN PESO FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE ASSESSMENT OF DUTIES ON MERCHANDISE IMPORTED INTO THE UNITED STATES

DECEMBER 6, 1937.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Reference is made to the certification of the daily buying rates for foreign currencies by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York to the Secretary of the Treasury, as provided by section 522 (c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 31, sec. 372 (c)). Beginning on November 30, 1937, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York has included in each list of buying rates, forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury, two rates for the Chilean peso, designated respectively "official" and "export."

If, for the purpose of the assessment and collection of duties on merchandise imported into the United States, it is necessary to convert Chilean pesos into currency of the United States, collectors of customs are hereby directed, in connection with entries of merchandise exported on or after November 30, 1937, and pending the receipt of further instructions from the Department, to require the deposit of estimated duties in an amount determined by the use of the value appearing opposite the word "official" in the list of rates above referred to, and to suspend liquidation of all such entries.

Appraising officers shall report promptly and in full to the Bureau of Customs the facts in regard to the appraisement of any merchandise exported on or after November 30, 1937, in connection with which the conversion of Chilean pesos into United States currency may be necessary or appropriate.

For the present only that rate for the Chilean peso which is to be used in estimating duties in accordance with these instructions will appear in the weekly pamphlets and bound volumes of the Treasury Decisions.

WEIGHTS FOR TESTING SCALES

To District Supervisors and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to authority conferred by Section 3249 Revised Statutes (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1157), the following regulations are prescribed:

1. Proprietors of distilleries; fruit distilleries; internal revenue bonded warehouses; industrial alcohol plants; alcohol bonded warehouses; denaturing plants; rectifying plants which taxpay rectified products in packages; and bonded wineries which receive brandy in packages for fortification and/or taxpay wine by weight, will provide, at their own expense, a set of ten 50-pound cast iron test weights, which shall be certified by the National Bureau of Standards or State Departments of Weights and Measures as conforming with Class "C" requirements of the National Bureau of Standards. If the proprietor operates one or more of the enumerated establishments on the same or contiguous premises, only one set of test weights need be provided.

2. Test weights now in the possesion of proprietors which conform to the requirements of this regulation, may be continued in use provided that such weights are certified by the National Bureau of Standards or State Departments of Weights and Measures as accurate.

3. The test weights shall be placed under the control and in the custody of the storekeeper-gaugers in charge, and will be used frequently by such officers to check all scales used in the plant or warehouse.

AN ORDER DETERMINING AND ESTABLISHING INITIAL CLASSIFICATIONS OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER NINETEEN AS PROVIDED BY COMMISSION'S ORDERS NO. 38 AND NO. 43, AND SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTION (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders No. 38 and No. 43 directed all District Boards to propose to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members within their respective districts in conformity with the standards, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure prescribed by the Commission in said orders; the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Nineteen having proposed to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members and a hearing having been held thereon; and Bituminous Coal Producers for District Number Nineteen having submitted evidence at such hearing showing compliance with the standards of classifications of coals, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure, as prescribed by the Commission in its Orders No. 38 and No. 43; and, the Commission having given due consideration to the proposed initial classifications of coals by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Nineteen and to other evidence and pertinent data relating to the classifications of coals for District Number Nineteen:

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the classifications of coals of code members for District Number Nineteen, set out preceding the names of code members and their respective mines as the same appear in the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members within District Number Nineteen, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the initial classifications of coals for code members within the said District Number Nineteen and such classifications shall be effective until further order of this Commission.

2. That all proceedings for reclassifications of coals shall be made and conducted in conformity with the provisions of Order No. 38, as amended by Order No. 43, and all proceedings for additional initial classifications shall be had in conformity with orders now in effect or hereafter issued.

3. That nothing herein contained shall affect any proceeding now pending before District Board Number Nineteen or the Commission involving a revision of the initial classifications of coals of any code member.

That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals for Code Members within District Number Nineteen to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretary of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Nineteen and to code members within said district, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Order No. 110]

AN ORDER DETERMINING AND ESTABLISHING INITIAL CLASSIFICATIONS OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER TWENTY-THREE AS PROVIDED BY COMMISSION'S ORDERS NO. 38 AND NO. 43, AND SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTION (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders No. 38 and No. 43 directed all District Boards to propose to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members within their respective districts in conformity with the standards, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure prescribed by the Commission in said orders; the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Twenty-three having proposed to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members and a hearing having been held thereon; and Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Twenty-three having submitted evidence at such hearing showing compliance with the standards of classifications of coals, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure, as prescribed by the Commission in its Orders No. 38 and No. 43; and, the Commission having given due consideration to the proposed initial classifications of coals by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Twenty-three and to other evidence and pertinent data relating to the classifications of coals for District Number Twenty-three:

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the classifications of coals of code members for District Number Twenty-three, set out preceding the names of code members and their respective mines as the same appear in the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members within District Number Twenty-three, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the initial classifications of coals for code members within the said District Number Twenty-three and such classifications shall be effective until further order of this Commission.

2. That all proceedings for reclassifications of coals shall be made and conducted in conformity with the provisions of Order No. 38, as amended by Order No. 43, and all proceedings for additional initial classifications shall be had in conformity with orders now in effect or hereafter issued.

3. That nothing herein contained shall affect any proceeding now pending before District Board Number Twenty-three or the Commission involving a revision of the initial classifications of coals of any code member.

That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals for Code Members within District Number Twenty-three to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretary of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Twenty-three and to code members within said district, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 6th day of December, 1937.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM.

REGULATION T, EXTENSION AND MAINTENANCE OF CREDIT BY BROKERS, DEALERS, AND MEMBERS OF NATIONAL SECURITIES EXCHANGES

AMENDMENT NO. 11 OF REGULATION T—EFFECTIVE DECEMBER 6, 1937

On December 3, 1937, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System adopted the following resolution:

Be it resolved, That, effective December 6, 1937, Regulation T, as amended, is further amended by adding at the end thereof after section 12 a new section reading as follows:

"Section 13. Special Commodity Account

"Notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation:

"(a) In a special commodity account recorded separately, a creditor may effect and carry for any customer transactions in commodities, and such a special account when so recorded shall be excluded from all calculations involving any combined account or any other special account; and

"(b) On or before December 31, 1937, the creditor shall transfer to the special commodity account of a customer from the combined account and from any other special account of such customer (1) all open trades or contracts in commodities carried in such combined account or such other special account, together with (2) funds in an amount equal to the amount of margin customarily required by the creditor on all such open trades or contracts so transferred plus any net loss on such open trades or contracts OR minus any net profit (not exceeding such margin) on such open trades or contracts.

"A special commodity account established pursuant to this section shall not be used in any way for the purpose of evading or circumventing any of the provisions of this regulation. If a customer has with a creditor both a combined account and such a special commodity account, the creditor shall treat the special commodity account as if the customer had with the creditor no combined account."

Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

AMENDING SECTION 602 (c) OF THE LEGAL CHAPTER (CHAPTER VI) OF THE MANUAL

CHANGING THE PROCEDURE FOR THE REQUIRING OF RECEIPTS

Be it resolved, That pursuant to the authority vested in the Board by Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 128, 129) as amended by Sections 1 and 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 643–647) and particularly by Sections 4–a and 4–k of said Act as amended, Section 602 (c) of the Manual is hereby amended as follows:

"SEC. 602 (c). Where the payment of any such fees or expenses is made by a salaried attorney, fee attorney, title company or trustee, an itemized statement covering such disbursements, certified to by any such attorney, title company or trustee, shall, when approved by the General Counsel, be accepted by the Auditor as sufficient evidence of the disbursement for the purpose of reimbursing the attorney, title company or trustee by whom the monies were paid or as settlement for funds advanced. Where the payment of any such fees or expenses is made by other than an attorney, title company or trustee, a properly certified voucher, or approval by the General Counsel, supported by receipts for all funds actually expended shall be accepted by the Auditor either as sufficient evidence of the disbursement for the purpose of reimbursing the individual payer or as settlement for funds advanced. The statement of the General Counsel as to the reason for the absence of any receipts, exclusive of tax receipts, shall be accepted by the Auditor in lieu thereof."

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on December 6, 1937.

IN RE DECLARATION OF INTENTION OF PLATTE VALLEY PUBLIC POWER AND IRRIGATION DISTRICT

ALLOWING INTERVENTION AND POSTPONING AND CHANGING PLACE OF HEARING

Upon joint petition filed December 2, 1937, by Platte Valley Water Users Association, Cozad Ditch Company, and South Side Irrigation District (hereinafter referred to as the "Petitioners"), for leave to intervene in the proceedings with respect to the Declaration of Intention filed January 5, 1934, and supplemented July 6, 1936, by Platte Valley Public Power and Irrigation District, and answering the petition of intervention heretofore filed May 14, 1937, by The Central Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation District;

The Commission, having considered said joint petition and the record of proceedings had with reference to said Declaration of Intention, finds:

Said Petitioners have made a prima facie showing of such an interest as entitles them to intervene and be heard in the proceedings in said Declaration of Intention;

And the Commission orders:

(1) That the intervention of said Petitioners be and it hereby is allowed;

(2) That the public hearing on the above matter heretofore ordered to be held on December 8, 1937, at 10 a. m. in the Hurley-Wright Building, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue N. W., Washington, D. C., by the Commission's order of November 9, 1937, be and the same hereby is postponed and the same shall be held on February 7, 1938, at 10 a. m. in the Court Room, Post Office Building, Grand Island, Nebraska, for the purposes specified in said order of November 9, 1937, and for the further purpose of permitting the introduction of evidence with respect to said joint petition of intervention.

Adopted by the Commission on December 3, 1937.

ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS FOR MOTOR CARRIERS

NOTICE

DECEMBER 3, 1937.

To all concerned:

The Commission has adopted orders prescribing for Class I motor carriers, both bus and truck, accounting systems to be put into effect on January 1, 1938. Class I carriers are those having average gross revenues of $100,000 or over annually for the 3 years preceding the effective date. The Commission regards it as unwise to impose accounting systems on the smaller Class II and III carriers until it has funds which will permit it to appoint and locate in the field offices of the Bureau of Motor Carriers accountants who can advise and help the carriers put such systems into effect, and until it is satisfied that the system which it contemplates for the Class III carriers is sufficiently simple to be practicable. It is believed, however, that the larger Class I carriers can comply without much difficulty with the requirements proposed, and it is known that many of them now have very similar systems in effect.

The accounting classifications prescribed differ in the treatment of some matters from the railroad classifications which the Commission has prescribed. It is deemed desirable to find out how these differences will work out in actual practice, and it is realized that experience may show need for changes as to these and other matters. The results will be watched as carefully as possible. The unit instead of the group plan of depreciation has been temporarily adopted for certain classes of property for practical reasons, but this is not to be regarded as an abandonment of the group principle which the Commission has followed in prescribing depreciation accounting for other carriers. It is probable that in time the group plan will be adopted for motor carriers as well.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR CLASS I COMMON AND CONTRACT MOTOR CARRIERS OF PASSENGERS

ISSUE OF 1937—EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1938

Carroll Miller, Chairman; Balthasar H. Meyer, Clyde B. Aitchison, Joseph B. Eastman, Frank McManamy, Claude R. Porter, William E. Lee, Charles D. Mahaffie, Walter M. W. Splawn, Marion M. Caskie, John L. Rogers; W. P. Bartel, Secretary.

ORDER

At a General Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of November, A. D. 1937.

The subject of a Uniform System of Accounts to be prescribed for Class I common or contract motor carriers of passengers, subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, being under consideration:

It is ordered, That the Uniform System of Accounts and the text pertaining thereto, hereafter known as Issue of 1937, a copy of which is now before the Commission, be, and is hereby approved; that a copy thereof duly authenticated by the Secretary of the Commission be filed in its archives, and a second copy thereof, in like manner authenticated, be filed in the office of the Bureau of Motor Carriers; and that each file of said copies so authenticated and filed shall be deemed an original record thereof.

It is further ordered, That the said Uniform System of Accounts be, and is hereby, prescribed for the use of Class I common or contract motor carriers of passengers, subject to the provisions of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, in the keeping and recording of their accounts; that each and every such carrier and each and every receiver, trustee, executor, administrator or assignee of such motor carrier be required to keep all accounts in conformity therewith; and that a copy of said Issue of 1937, be sent to each and every such motor carrier and to each and every receiver, trustee, executor, administrator or asignee of such motor carrier.

It is further ordered, That for the purpose of applying the system of accounts for motor carriers subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, Class I carriers shall include each carrier having average gross revenues of $100,000 or over annually from its motor carrier operations; and that such average revenues shall be determined by the average of its annual gross revenues from motor carrier operations for the three years immediately preceding the effective date of this system of accounts.

It is further ordered, That the date on which the said Issue of 1937 of the Uniform System of Accounts shall become effective be, and is hereby, fixed on January 1, 1938.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of November, A. D. 1937.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL, Secretary.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR MOTOR CARRIERS

This uniform system of accounts for motor carriers is issued and prescribed under the following provisions of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935:

Sec. 204. (a) It shall be the duty of the Commission—

(1) To regulate common carriers by motor vehicle as provided in this part, and to that end the Commission may establish reasonable requirements with respect to continuous and adequate service, transportation of baggage and express, uniform systems of accounts, records, and reports, preservation of records, qualifications and maximum hours of service of employees, and safety of operation and equipment.

(2) To regulate contract carriers by motor vehicle as provided in this part, and to that end the Commission may establish reasonable requirements with respect to uniform systems of accounts, records, and reports, preservation of records, qualifications and maximum hours of service of employees, and safety of operation and equipment.

(4) To regulate brokers as provided in this part, and to that end the Commission may establish reasonable requirements with respect to licensing, financial responsibility, accounts, records, reports, operations, and practices of any such person or persons.

(c) The Commission may from time to time establish such just and reasonable classifications of brokers or of groups of carriers included in the term "common carrier by motor vehicle", or "contract carrier by motor vehicle", as the special nature of the services performed by such carriers or brokers shall require; and such just and reasonable rules, regulations, and requirements, consistent with the provisions of this part, to be observed by the carriers or brokers so classified or grouped, as the Commission deems necessary or desirable in the public interest.

SEC. 220. (a) The Commission is hereby authorized to require annual, periodical, or special reports from all motor carriers, to prescribe the manner and form in which such reports shall be made, and to require from such carriers specific answers to all questions upon which the Commission may deem information to be necessary. Such reports shall be under oath whenever the Commission so requires. The Commission may also require any motor carrier to file with it a true copy of each or any contract, agreement, or arrangement between such carrier and any other carrier or person in relation to any traffic affected by the provisions of this part, to which he or it may be a party.

Sec. 222 (g) Any motor carrier, or broker, or any officer, agent, employee, or representative thereof who shall willfully fail or refuse to make a report to the Commission as required by this part, or to keep accounts, records, and memoranda in the form and manner approved or prescribed by the Commission, or shall knowingly and willfully falsify, destroy, mutilate, or alter any such report, account, record, or memorandum, or shall knowingly and willfully file any false report, account, record, or memorandum, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be subject for each offense to a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $5,000.

DEFINITIONS

When used in this system of accounts:

1. "Accounts" means the accounts prescribed in this system of accounts.

2. "Actually issued", as applied to securities, means those which have been sold to bona fide purchasers for a valuable consideration (including those issued in exchange for other securities or other property) so that the purchasers secured them free from control by the issuing carrier, also securities issued as dividends on stock, and those which have been issued in accordance with contractual requirements direct to trustees of sinking and other funds.

3. "Actually outstanding", as applied to securities issued or assumed by the carrier, means those which have been actually issued and are neither retired nor held by or for the carrier; provided, however, that securities held by trustees shall be considered as actually outstanding.

4. "Addition" means structures, facilities, or equipment added to those in service and not taking the place of anything previously existing.

5. "Amortization" means the gradual extinguishment of an amount in an account by prorating such amount over either a fixed period dependent on the life of the asset or liability to which it applies, or over the period during which it is anticipated the benefit will be realized.

6. (a) "Associated companies" means companies or persons that directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by, or are under common control with the accounting carrier.

(b) "Control" (including the terms "controlling", "controlled by", and "under common control") as used herein, means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, firm or corporation, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise. If in any instance the existence of control is or may be open to reasonable doubt, the carrier shall report to the Commission all of the material facts pertinent to the possible existence of control.

7. "Betterment" means the enlargement or improvement of existing structures, facilities, and equipment.

8. "Book cost" means the amount at which property is recorded on the books of the carrier without deduction of related reserves.

9. "Carrier" or "motor carrier" includes both a common carrier by motor vehicle and a contract carrier by motor vehicle, subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935.

10. "Carrier operating property" means the property which is used (see definition 40) by the carrier in the conduct of its motor carrier operations or leased to others for such operations, and which has an expectation of life in service of more than one year from date of installation. This includes land, structures, equipment, and facilities necessary for such operations and services incidental thereto.

11. "Company" means any individual, firm, copartnership, corporation, association, or joint-stock association; and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative thereof.

12. "Commission" or "the Commission" means the Interstate Commerce Commission.

13. "Contingent Assets" means a possible source of value to the carrier dependent upon the fulfillment of conditions regarded as uncertain.

14. "Contingent Liabilities" means items which may under certain conditions become obligations of the carrier but which are neither direct nor assumed liabilities at the date of the balance sheet.

15. "Cost" means the amount of money actually paid for property or services, or the cash value at the time of the transaction of any consideration other than money.

16. "Cost of removal" means the cost of demolishing, dismantling, tearing down, or otherwise removing operating property, including the cost of transportation and handling incident thereto.

17. "Current Assets" means cash as well as those assets that are readily convertible into cash or are held for current use in operations or construction; current claims against others, payment of which is reasonably assured; and other amounts accruing to the carrier which are subject to settlement within one year from the date of the balance sheet.

18. "Current Liabilities" means those obligations the amount of which is definitely determined or closely estimated which are either matured at the date of the balance sheet or become due within one year from date of issuance or assumption or upon demand, except bonds, equipment and other long-term obligations, receivers' or trustees' certificates, which shall be classed as long-term obligations (see definition 26) regardless of the period for which they are to run.

19. "Date of retirement", as applied to operating property, means the date at which such property is permanently withdrawn from service.

20. "Debt expense" means all expense in connection with the issuance and sale of evidences of long-term debt, such as fees for drafting mortgages and trust deeds; fees and taxes for issuing or recording evidences of debt; cost of engraving and printing bonds, certificates of indebtedness, and other evidences of debt; fees paid trustees; specific costs of obtaining governmental authority; fees for legal services; fees and commissions paid underwriters, brokers, and salesmen for marketing evidences of debt; fees and expenses of listing on exchanges; and other like costs.

21. "Delayed items" means items relating to transactions which occurred before the current calendar year. It includes adjustments of errors in the income, operating revenue, and operating expense accounts of prior years.

22. "Depreciation", as applied to depreciable operating property, means the loss in service value (see definition 37) not restored by current maintenance, incurred in connection with the consumption or prospective retirement of property in the course of service from causes against which the carrier is not protected by insurance, which are known to be in current operation. Among the causes to be given consideration are wear and tear, decay, action of the elements, obsolescence, changes in the art, inadequacy, changes in demand, and requirements of public authority.

NOTE A.—Unit Plan means the plan under which depreciation charges are computed and the records maintained so that the total amount of depreciation accrued applicable to each unit can be determined.

NOTE B.—Group Plan means the plan under which depreciation charges are accrued upon the basis of the sum total of the book cost balances at the close of each month (or four-week period) of all property included in each account or sub-division thereof, at rates determined from the average service life of the property included therein, and upon the retirement of any such property its full service value is charged to the depreciation reserve whether or not the particular item has attained the average service life.

23. "Discount", as applied to securities issued or assumed by the carrier, means the excess of the par or face value of the securities, plus interest or dividends accrued at the date of the sale over the cash value of the consideration received from the sale.

24. "District Operating Unit" means all or any portion of a route or routes covered by a certificate of convenience and necessity or a permit and operated as a separate entity, including the physical property used in the operation thereof.

25. "Joint facility" means any property occupied or used jointly by the carrier and one or more other carriers under a definite arrangement whereby the costs are shared between the parties to the joint agreement. Portions of a structure or other property used exclusively by each of two or more carriers are not joint facilities.

26. "Long-term obligations" means obligations having a life of more than one year from date of creation or assumption, and all unmatured bonds and receivers' or trustees' certificates.

27. "Mileage method", as applied to depreciation of vehicles, means the plan under which the service value is charged to depreciation expenses and credited to depreciation reserves at a fixed rate per mile run.

28. "Minor items", as applied to carrier operating property (see definition 10), means the associated parts or elements of which units of property (see definition 39) are composed. (See instruction 21 C.)

29. "Net book cost", when applied to property, means the book cost (see definition 8) less related depreciation and amortization reserves.

30. "Net salvage value" means the salvage value (see definition 35) of property retired after deducting the cost of removal.

31. "Nominally issued", as applied to securities issued or assumed by the carrier, means those which have been signed, certified, or otherwise executed and placed with the proper officer for sale and delivery, or pledged, or otherwise placed in some special fund of the carrier, but which have not been sold or issued direct to trustees of sinking funds in accordance with contractual requirements.

32. "Premium", as applied to securities issued or assumed by the carrier, means the excess of the cash value of the consideration received from their sale over the sum of their par (stated value of no-par stocks) or face value of the securities plus interest or dividends accrued at the date of sale.

33. "Property retired", as applied to operating property, means property which has been removed, sold, abandoned, destroyed, or which for any cause has been permanently withdrawn from service.

34. "Replacing" or "replacement", when not otherwise indicated in the context, means the acquisition, construction, or installation of property in place of property of like purpose retired, together with the removal of the property retired.

35. "Salvage value" means the amount received for property retired, less any expenses incurred in connection with the sale or in preparing the property for sale; or, if retained, the amount at which the material recovered is chargeable to account 1180, Material and Supplies, or other appropriate account.

36. "Service life" means the period between the date when carrier operating property (see definition 10) is placed in service and the date of its retirement. (See definition 33.)

37. "Service value" means the difference between the book cost (see definition 8) and the net salvage value (see definition 30) of carrier operating property.

38. "Straight-line method", as applied to depreciation accounting, means the plan under which the service value (see definition 37) of property is charged to depreciation expenses or other appropriate accounts and credited to the depreciation reserves through equal periodic charges as nearly as may be during its service life.

39. "Unit of Property", for the purpose of this system of accounts, means any item of property which on sale, abandonment, disposal or replacement is written out of the property accounts as provided for in instruction 21.

40. "Used", as applied to operating property, means actually and necessarily in current service or ready for and reasonably required to be currently held for future service.

1. Classification of carriers.—A. For the purpose of prescribing Uniform Systems of Accounts for common or contract motor carriers subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, carriers are grouped into the following three classes:

Class I. Carriers having average gross operating revenues (including interstate and intrastate) of $100,000 or over annually, from motor carrier operations.

Class II. Carriers having average gross operating revenues (including interstate and intrastate) of $25,000 or over, but under $100,000 annually, from motor carrier operations.

Class III. Carriers having average gross operating revenues (including interstate and intrastate) of less than $25,000 annually, from motor carrier operations.

B. Class I carriers shall keep all the accounts prescribed herein, where applicable. Separate systems of accounts will be prescribed for Class II and Class III carriers.

C. In order that frequent changes may be avoided, the class to which any carrier belongs may be determined by the average of its annual gross operating revenues for the three years immediately preceding the effective date of this system of accounts. If, at the end of any calendar year following, the average of its annual gross operating revenues for the three preceding years is greater than the maximum for the class in which the carrier has been grouped, it shall automatically be grouped in the higher class in which it falls because of such increased annual revenues. Any carrier engaged in new undertakings, the annual revenue from which is not known in advance, shall be classed in accordance with a reasonable estimate of its prospective revenues.

D. Any carrier may, at its option, place itself in any group higher than the one in which it falls on the basis of its average annual gross operating revenues. Notice of such action shall be promptly filed with the Commission.

2. Records.—A. All the accounts defined in this system of accounts must be kept by the double entry method. Each carrier shall keep its general accounting books and all other books, records and memoranda which support in any way the entries to such accounting books and analyses of general ledger account balances so that it can furnish at any time full information as to any account. Moreover, it shall support each entry to each account with such detailed information as will provide a ready analysis and verification of the facts recorded therein. All expenditures must be definitely supported by vouchers, pay rolls, receipted bills, cancelled checks, receipts for petty cash payments, or other evidences of the expenditures incurred.

B. The books referred to herein include not only books of account in a limited technical sense but all other records such as minute books, stock books, reports, correspondence, memoranda, etc., which will be useful in developing the history of or facts regarding any transaction.

C. Carriers shall not destroy any books, records, memoranda, etc., which support entries to its accounts unless the destruction thereof is specifically provided for in the Regulations to Govern the Preservation of Records of Motor Carriers and Brokers.

D. Subdivisions of any account in this system of accounts may be kept, provided that such subdivisions do not impair the integrity of the accounts prescribed. The Commission reserves the right to order any carrier to subdivide any account in this system of accounts. The title of each such subdivision shall clearly indicate the account of which it is a part. When an account is subdivided in the general ledger, an account need not be maintained for the total of the subdivisions. When such subdivisions are carried in subsidiary ledgers, however, the general ledger shall contain the controlling accounts therefor so that a complete general ledger trial balance may be obtained.

3. Accounting period.—Each carrier shall keep its books on a calendar year basis and for each month (or four-week period) all transactions applicable thereto, as nearly as can be ascertained (see instruction 8) shall be written up, posted to the general ledger and balanced. The final entries for any month (or four-week period) shall be made in the general ledger not later than 60 days after the last day of the accounting period for which the accounts are stated, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission, except that the period within which the final entries for the last period in the calendar year shall be made may be extended to such date in the following March as shall not interfere with the preparation and filing of annual reports as required by paragraph (a) of section 220 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935.

4. Submission of questions.—To maintain uniformity of accounting, carriers shall submit all questions of doubtful interpretation to the Commission for consideration and decision.

5. Item lists, interpretation of.—Lists of items appearing in the texts of the several accounts are given for the purpose of indicating the application of the prescribed accounting in specific cases. The lists are not to be considered as comprising all items includible in the several accounts, but merely as representative of them. On the other hand, the appearance of an item in a list warrants the inclusion of such item in the account concerned only when the text of the account also indicates inclusion, inasmuch as the same item frequently appears in more than one list. The proper entry in each instance must be determined by the texts of the accounts.

6. Opening entries.—As of the effective date of this system of accounts, the accounts prescribed herein shall be opened by appropriately transferring thereto the balances carried in the accounts previously maintained by the carrier. The carrier is authorized to make such subdivisions, reclassifications, consolidations of or additions to such balances as are necessary to meet the requirements of this system of accounts.

7. Delayed items.—A. Delayed items (see definition 21) shall be charged or credited to the same accounts which should have been charged or credited if the items had been taken up or adjusted in the period to which they pertain. When the amount of a delayed item is relatively so large that its inclusion in the accounts for a single period would seriously distort those accounts, it may be distributed in equal amounts to the accounts for the current and remaining periods of the calendar year.

B. If the amount of any delayed item is relatively so large that its inclusion in the accounts for a single year would seriously distort those accounts, the amount shall be distributed to the appropriate surplus account.

8. Unaudited items.—A. When the amount of any item affecting these accounts can not be accurately determined in time for inclusion in the accounts of the calendar year in which the transaction occurs, the amount of the item shall be estimated and included in the proper accounts. When the item is audited the necessary adjustments shall be made through the accounts in which the estimate was recorded. If, during the interval between the date of inclusion of the item in the accounts and the date on which it is audited, a substantial difference from the initial estimate is determined, appropriate adjustments shall be made in the current accounts to cover such difference. The carrier is not required to anticipate small items which would not appreciably affect these accounts.

B. If, owing to exceptional conditions, a carrier finds a modification of the instructions in paragraph A necessary, it shall furnish a statement of its proposed plans to the Commission for approval before adoption.

9. Spreading of unusual income, revenue and expense items.—When the amount of any unusual item includible in an income, operating revenue, or operating expense account for a single period is relatively so large that its inclusion in the accounts for that period would seriously distort those accounts it may be included in account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, or account 2450—Other Deferred Credits, as appropriate, and distributed in equal amounts to the accounts for the current and remaining periods of the year. No such item shall be spread beyond the accounts of the current year without authority of the Commission.

10. Current assets.—A. In the group of accounts designated as Current Assets (accounts 1000 to 1190, inclusive) there shall not be included any item the amount or collectibility of which is not reasonably assured or for which provision has not been made in a reserve. Items of current character but of doubtful value may be carried in these accounts at a nominal value or included in account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, at book cost or nominal value, or written off, as may be appropriate.

B. Adjustments to accomplish the writing down of items of doubtful value not covered by reserves shall be made through account 4680—Uncollectible Revenues, account 7500—Other Deductions, account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, or other appropriate income or surplus account.

11. Discount or premium on securities of other companies.—See instruction 15.

12. Discount, expense and premium on capital stock.—A. This system of accounts provides accounts for discounts, commissions and expenses on capital stock and another account for premium on capital stock. These accounts shall be subdivided for each class and series of capital stock issued by the carrier. Commission and expenses applicable to capital stock issues shall be included in the commission and expense account and shall not be deducted from premium on capital stock.

B. In stating the balance sheet, discount on capital stock shall not be netted against premiums.

C. General levies or assessments against stockholders of par or stated value shares shall be credited to the premium account for the particular class and series of capital stock so assessed.

D. Discounts and expenses on capital stock may be amortized by charges to account 2900—Unearned Surplus. However, in no event shall net debits exceed the accumulated net credits in unearned surplus. Any excess of debits may be retained in account 1900—Discount on Capital Stock, or account 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock, as appropriate, until the stock is reacquired or retired, or the excess debits may be charged to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

E. Discount and expenses on capital stock reacquired or retired shall be accounted for in accordance with instruction 14.

13. Discount, expense and premium on long-term obligations.—A. A separate subdivision shall be maintained in account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense, for the excess of discount and debt expense over any premium related to each class of long-term debt issued or assumed by the carrier. (See definitions 20, 23 and 32.)

B. Corresponding subdivisions shall be maintained in account 2400—'Unamortized Premium on Debt', for the excess of the premium over any discount and debt expense related to each class of long-term debt issued or assumed by the carrier.

C. Each period there shall be credited to each subdivision of account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense, the amount applicable to such period under a plan of amortization, the application of which will equitably distribute the balance therein over the life of the security. Amounts thus credited shall be concurrently charged to account 7300—Amortization of Debt Discount and Expense.

D. Correspondingly, each period there shall be charged to each subdivision of account 2400—Unamortized Premium on Debt, the portion of such credit balance which is applicable to that period. Amounts thus charged shall be concurrently credited to account 7400—Amortization of Premium on Debt—Credit.

E. Except as provided in paragraphs C and D of this instruction, the balances in each of these accounts or subdivisions thereof shall be carried until the reacquisition of the securities to which it relates. At that time (unless otherwise ordered by the Commission in the case of an exchange of securities) a portion of the balances in these accounts, or subdivision for the particular class of long-term debt reacquired, shall be transferred to account 2933—Other Credits to Surplus, or account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, as may be appropriate. Such portion shall be based on the relation of the amount of the particular issue of long-term debt reacquired to the total outstanding before the reacquisition. This provision shall also apply to securities held alive in sinking or other funds under instruction 14.

F. Except for such discount or expense as may be applicable to the construction period, no discount or expense on long-term debt shall be included in any account as a part of the cost of acquiring any property or as a part of the cost of operation.

14. Company securities owned.—A. Capital stock.—

1. Capital stock actually issued or assumed by the carrier which has been reacquired, shall be retired or carried in account 1920—Reacquired Securities, at the par or stated value, or the pro-rata proportion of the total of no-par stock without stated value at which it is carried in account 2700—Preferred Capital Stock, or account 2710—Common Capital Stock, unless it is required by provision of a mortgage or decision of a trustee not subject to the control of the accounting carrier that it be retained alive in sinking or other funds. The difference between the amount paid for the reacquired stock and the amount includible in account 1920, plus the premium and less the discount and expense entered in respect to the reacquired stock and not written off, shall be debited or credited as appropriate to account 2900—Unearned Surplus. In no event, however, shall net debits exceed the accumulated credits in Unearned Surplus. Any excess of debits resulting from reacquisition of capital stock over such accumulated credits in Unearned Surplus shall be charged to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

2. When reacquired capital stock is resold by the carrier, the amount included in account 1920—Reacquired Securities, shall be credited thereto and the accounting for premiums realized, discounts, commissions or expenses incurred, shall be the same as provided for in connection with original sales of capital stock.

B. Equipment and long-term obligations.—

1. Equipment and other long-term obligations reacquired by the carrier shall be entered in account 1920—Reacquired Securities, at face value. The difference between the face value and the amounts actually paid for the reacquired obligations shall be debited or credited as appropriate to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, or account 2933—Other Credits to Surplus. Likewise, any unamortized debt discount, expense or premium, applicable to the reacquired obligations, shall be adjusted through accounts 2946 or 2933, as appropriate.

2. When reacquired equipment and other long-term obligations are resold by the carrier, the amount included in account 1920—Reacquired Securities, shall be credited thereto and the accounting for any premiums realized, discounts, commissions or expenses incurred shall be the same as provided for in connection with original sales of such obligations.

15. Book cost of securities owned.—A. Securities of others acquired by the carrier shall be recorded in these accounts at cost at the time of acquisition. Cost does not include any amount paid for accrued interest or dividends.

B. The carrier may write down the book cost of any security in recognition of a decline in the value thereof. Securities shall be written off or written down to a nominal value if there be no reasonable prospect of substantial value. Fluctuations in market value shall not be recorded, but a permanent impairment in the value of the securities shall be recognized in the accounts. A reserve may be provided against such declines in value by charges to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

C. When securities with a fixed maturity date are purchased at a discount (that is when the total cost including brokerage fees, taxes, commissions, etc., is less than par), such discount may be amortized over the remaining life of the securities through periodic debits to the account in which the securities are carried (preferably coincident with entries recording interest accruals) and credits to the same account in which the interest revenue is credited. No debits shall be made in respect to discount upon securities held as investments or in special funds if there is reason to believe that such securities will be disposed of by redemption or otherwise at less than par or will not be paid at date of maturity.

D. When securities with a fixed maturity date are purchased at a premium (that is when the total cost including brokerage fees, taxes, commissions, etc., is in excess of par), such premiums may be amortized over the remaining life of the securities through periodic credits to the account in which the securities are carried (preferably coincident with entries recording interest accruals) and debits to the same account in which the interest revenue is recorded.

16. Clearing accounts, purpose of.—A. Clearing accounts, designed to facilitate the distribution of certain expenditures which may affect both construction and operations or which may affect transportation and other operations, may be kept when necessary in making the proper distribution of items to the appropriate accounts.

B. Balances in clearing accounts shall be fully cleared not later than the end of the calendar year unless items held therein unquestionably relate to future periods. Items carried over shall be included in account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, or account 2450—Other Deferred Credits.

17. Deduction of reserves.—In stating the balance sheet, reserves shall be shown separately and shall be deducted from the specific assets to which they apply. Reserves not applicable to specific assets shall be shown on the liability side. (See form of balance sheet following balance sheet accounts.)

18. Contingent assets and liabilities.—The balance sheet of a carrier shall clearly state by adequate notes contingent assets or liabilities not reflected in the balance sheet accounts, including any arrears in cumulative dividends, stating the amount per share of each class of stock and in total and the facts and amounts with respect to any default in principal, interest, or sinking fund provisions if not shown in the balance sheet accounts.

19. Operating property to be recorded at cost.—A. Amounts chargeable to the accounts numbered 1200 and 1300, designated as Carrier Operating Property accounts, shall be the actual cost to the carrier of the items properly includible therein, also including the excess cost of improvements over the estimated cost at current prices of property removed and replaced, and shall be exclusive of any cost for intangible items includible in any of the subdivisions of account 1500—Organization, Franchises and Permits, or account 1550—Other Intangible Property. (See, however, instruction 20.)

B. The book cost of the construction or acquisition of property chargeable to the carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 shall include the cost of direct labor, indirect labor, materials, transportation, contract work, rent of construction facilities, taxes, and simple interest during construction; also such portion of engineering, supervision, law expenditures, injuries and damages, compensation and other insurance, as is applicable to the construction period; and other analogous elements applicable to the construction and acquisition of property.

C. Any unit of property, including additions to or betterments of existing property, having a cost not in excess of $50.00, or having a life of one year or less, may be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense, or clearing account and not to the property account, except that if small tools, portable equipment and similar items are consumed directly in construction work, the cost may be included as part of the cost of the constructed unit. This is not to be construed as authorizing the parceling of expenditures to bring them within this limit, or the inconsistent application of any rule or practice adopted by the carrier hereunder to the same item or class of property. If a carrier adopts a rule hereunder, changes in the rule shall be reported to the Commission.

D. When operating property is purchased under any plan involving deferred payments, no charges shall be made to operating property accounts for interest, insurance, or other expenditures occasioned by such form of payment.

E. When the consideration given for property is anything other than cash, the cash value of such consideration shall be used, except that where physical property is received in exchange for physical property, such property shall be recorded at the net book cost of the property given in exchange. In the journal entry recording such a transaction the actual consideration shall be described with sufficient particularly to identify it. The carrier shall be prepared to furnish to the Commission the particulars of its determination of the cash value of the consideration if other than cash.

20. Property purchased.—A. When any transportation system or portion thereof constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) is purchased, the constituent elements thereof that are chargeable to carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 and to any subdivision of account 1500—Organization, Franchises and Permits, may be recorded in these accounts at their book cost as reflected by the records of the vendor (see definition 8) with concurrent credits to the depreciation and amortization reserves for accrued depreciation and amortization to date of purchase, otherwise such purchases shall be recorded in the books of the accounting carrier at cost. If the costs of the various elements of property are not separable in the purchase agreement, estimated values shall be used in charging the accounts appropriate for the property. In no event shall the amounts charged to accounts 1200 and 1300 exceed the actual amount paid therefor, or the current cost new of similar property.

B. The journal entry allocating the property purchased to the operating property accounts and setting up the accrued depreciation and amortization thereon should also cover any additional assets acquired or liabilities assumed and any incidental expenses incurred in connection with the transaction. Full supporting details, showing the purchase price, the principal from whom it was acquired, the agents who represented such principal, the basis of determining the book cost of constituent elements in the property purchased and when recorded at book cost as reflected by the records of the vendor, the accrued depreciation and amortization thereon at date of purchase shall be stated in the journal entry recording the purchased property.

C. Any distributed portion of the purchase cost not includible in specific accounts provided for assets acquired or liabilities assumed shall be charged to account 1550—"Other Intangible Property."

D. In a transaction involving the acquisition of any transportation system or portion thereof constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) from another carrier, the purchaser shall obtain from the vendor all available records and other evidence (or certified copies thereof) relating to the acquisition, construction and improvement of the property acquired.

21. Operating property retired.—When carrier operating property (see definition 10) ceases to be used (see definition 40) it shall be retired. If not dismantled or otherwise disposed of, it shall be transferred to account 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, or account 1450—Non-Operating Property, as appropriate. (See instruction 23.)

A. Property under "Unit plan" of depreciation.—When a unit of property on which depreciation charges were accrued under the unit plan, (see definition 22) is retired from service, the book cost of such property shall be credited to the appropriate property account and concurrently charged, together with the cost of removal, to the depreciation reserve account. Any salvage or insurance recovered, including amounts provided for in any insurance or other reserve with respect to the retired property when such reserve covers the cause of retirement shall be credited to the depreciation reserve. Any difference remaining in the depreciation reserve after the above entries, shall be charged or credited as appropriate to account 5091—Depreciation Adjustment.

B. Property under "Group plan" of depreciation.—When a unit of property, on which depreciation charges were accrued under the group plan (see definition 22), is retired from service, the book cost thereof shall be credited to the appropriate property account and concurrently charged, together with the cost of removal, to the depreciation reserve account. Any salvage or insurance recovered, including amounts provided for in any insurance or other reserve with respect to the retired property, when such reserve covers the cause of retirement, shall be credited to the depreciation reserve account.

C. Minor items.—When the property retired constitutes a minor item (see definition 28), the book cost of which has been or will be accounted for by its inclusion in the unit of property of which it is a part when such unit of property is retired, no adjustment of the operating property account or depreciation reserve is required therefor. When a minor item is retired and replaced, with property of like purpose, the entire cost of replacement shall be charged to the account appropriate for the cost of repairs of the property retired, except that if the replacement effects a betterment (see definition 7), there shall be charged to the property account, the excess cost of the replacement over the estimated cost at current prices of the items retired (see instruction 19 C), provided that property bettered shall not be carried in excess of the current cost new of equivalent property.

D. Land.—When land is sold, the book cost shall be credited to the land account and any difference between the book cost and the sales price, less commissions and expenses, on the sale shall be adjusted through account 2933—Other Credits to Surplus, or account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, as appropriate. (See instruction 19 E.)

E. Determination of book cost.—The book cost of operating property retired shall be the amount at which such property is included in the operating property accounts including all items set forth in instruction 19. Such costs shall be determined from the carrier's records when this can be done, as in the case of land, structures, revenue automotive equipment, service equipment, furniture, and other items of operating property for which individual cost records are available. When the actual book cost cannot be determined from the records, it shall be estimated. When it is impracticable to determine the book cost of each item due to the relatively large number and/or small cost of such items, the average book costs of all the items, with due allowance for differences in size or character, shall be used as the book cost of the items retired. The latter method may be applied in retirement of such items as spare parts, tools, etc.

F. Intangibles.—The accounting for the retirement of items included in account 1511—Franchises, account 1541—Patents, and intangible elements with limited terms included in account 1201—Land and Land Rights, shall be as provided in the texts of account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property, and account 5110—Amortization of Carrier Operating Property.

G. Sale of property.—When operating property used in transportation operations is sold together with the transportation business associated therewith, the book cost of the property shall be credited to the appropriate operating property accounts and the amounts carried with respect thereto in the depreciation and amortization reserve accounts, estimated if necessary, shall be charged to such reserves. The difference, if any, between (1) the net amount of such debit and credit items, and (2) the consideration received for the property, shall be included in account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, or account 2933—Other Credits to Surplus, as appropriate.

H. Extraordinary losses.—If the cause of retirement of depreciable operating property is one for which provision has not been made in the depreciation reserve and the loss is not covered by insurance, the accounting for the necessary adjustment shall be made in accordance with instructions under account 1890—Other Deferred Debits.

22. Leased property, expenditures on.—A. Except as provided in paragraph B following, the cost of initial improvements, including rearrangements, additions and betterments, to property leased from others made in the course of preparing the property for motor carrier operations and the cost of any subsequent additions to and betterments of such leased property, not including replacements, shall be charged to the operating property account 1271—Improvements to Leasehold Property. Amortization and depreciation on such expenditures shall be provided for in the manner set forth in instruction 25.

B. When the cost of alterations to leased transportation property otherwise chargeable to account 1271—Improvements to Leasehold Property, is not in excess of $50.00 or the period of the lease is less than one year, the cost may be charged to the accounts chargeable with the cost of repairs to such property.

23. Transfer of property.—Property transferred between accounts 1200—Carrier Operating Property, 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others, and accounts 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, 1450—Non-Operating Property, shall be charged or credited, as appropriate, to the carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 at its book cost with the debits or credits to the appropriate accounts for the accrued depreciation and amortization to date of transfer.

24. Common property.—A. If the carrier is engaged in forms of enterprise other than motor carrier operations and any of its carrier operating property is used in common for two or more purposes to such an extent and in such manner that it is otherwise impracticable to segregate it in the accounts, an allocation of the book cost thereof shall be made and the portion so ascertained to be assignable to motor carrier operations shall be recorded in the carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300. The remainder shall be recorded in accounts 1400 or 1450 as appropriate. It is not contemplated that minor or temporary changes in conditions shall necessitate frequent reallocations of common property.

B. The carrier shall be prepared to show at any time and to report to the Commission when required, and by carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 the following:

1. The book cost of common property,
2. The allocation of such cost to carrier operations and other purposes for which the jointly operated property is used, and
3. The basis of the allocation.

C. The expenses of operation, maintenance, depreciation and amortization of common property shall be recorded in the accounts prescribed herein and the allocation of such expenses to the carrier operations shall be supported in the same manner as the allocation of the cost of such property.

25. Depreciation accounting.—A. There shall be charged each month (or four-week period) to account 5000—Depreciation Expense, and credited to account 2500—Reserve for Depreciation—Carrier Operating Property, during the service life of depreciable property included in account 1200—Carrier Operating Property, amounts which will approximate the loss in service value not restored by current maintenance or covered by insurance, the effect of which can be forecast with a reasonable approach to accuracy. The straight-line method of computing depreciation (see definition 38) shall be used and the current depreciation charge shall be obtained by applying the applicable portion of the annual percentage rate to the book cost balances, except that the mileage method (see definition 27) may be used on automotive equipment, in which event the rate per mile shall be applied to the number of miles traveled each period. In no event, however, shall the charges based on such mileage method be less during any calendar year than would result from the application of rates based on the straight-line method.

Carriers engaged in seasonal operations may apportion the estimated annual depreciation charge over the months in which operations are actually conducted.

B. Depreciation charges on property included in accounts

1211. Structures.
1221. Revenue Equipment.
1231. Service Cars and Equipment.

shall be computed on the unit plan (see definition 22) under the straight-line method. Depreciation charges on any unit of property which is depreciated under the unit plan shall cease when the estimated service value shall have been credited to the depreciation reserve.

C. Depreciation charges on property included in accounts

1241. Shop and Garage Equipment.
1251. Furniture and Office Equipment.
1261. Miscellaneous Equipment.

shall be computed under either the unit plan or the group plan. (See definition 22.) If the group plan is used the current depreciation charge shall be determined by applying the applicable portion of the annual percentage rate to the sum total of the book cost balances of the property included in each account, or subdivisions thereof, at the rates determined from weighted averages of service lives of the property included therein.

D. Depreciation charges upon property included in account 1271—Improvements to Leasehold Property, shall be made upon the same basis as for owned depreciable property. Such depreciation charges shall be charged to account 5071—Depreciation of Improvements to Leasehold Property. Any additional reserve required to meet losses expected to be incurred through reversion of such property to the lessor prior to the expiration of its service life shall be provided through charges to account 5110—Amortization of Carrier Operating Property, and credits to account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property.

E. Depreciation charges upon operating property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) leased from others under terms whereby the carrier has exclusive possession, shall be made on the same basis as for owned depreciable property. (See instruction 30.) Records shall be maintained similar to those for owned property showing the cost, service life and salvage value for each unit of depreciable operating property leased from others.

F. Depreciation charges on operating property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) leased to others for transportation operations, when the lessee has exclusive possession, shall be charged to account 5500—Income from Lease of Carrier Property—Credit, with concurrent credits to account 2500—Reserve for Depreciation—Carrier Operating Property.

G. Depreciation expense on non-carrier operating property and non-operating property shall be charged to the appropriate Other Income account and credited to account 2610—Reserve for Depreciation and Amortization—Other Property.

26. Repairs, cost of.—A. The cost of repairs chargeable to the various operation and maintenance expense accounts includes labor employed, materials used, and expenses incurred in all current maintenance (not including depreciation and amortization), such as:

(1) Inspecting, testing, and reporting on the condition of operating property specifically to determine the need for repairs, minor replacements, rearrangements, and changes.
(2) Testing for, locating, and clearing trouble.
(3) Routine work to prevent trouble, such as general overhauling, removing carbon, grinding valves, adjusting and relining brakes, adjusting shock absorbers, cleaning and adjusting engines, etc.

(4) Replacing minor items of operating property. (See also instruction 21 C.)

(5) Rearranging and changing the location of property not retired.

(6) Restoring the condition of property damaged by wear and tear, storms, breakage, floods, fire, accident, or other casualties. (See also paragraph B.)

(7) Training employees for repair work.

(8) Inspecting and testing after repairs have been made.

B. Materials recovered in connection with repairs to property shall be credited to the same account to which the repair cost was charged.

C. If employees engaged in transportation, station or terminal service are also required to make repairs, an equitable proportion of their pay and expenses shall be charged to the account appropriate for the cost of such repairs. (See instruction 28.)

D. If the book cost of any property is carried in account 1281—Undistributed Property, the repairs to such property shall be charged to the accounts provided for repairs to property of the same nature and use, the book cost of which is carried in other operating property accounts. Repairs to property leased from others shall be treated in like manner.

27. Insurance.—A. Provision has been made under Operation and Maintenance Expenses for recording amounts of premiums paid outside insurance companies in accounts as follows:

4520. Public Liability and Property Damage Insurance.
4541. Workmen's Compensation—Insurance.
4550. Baggage and Express Insurance.
4570. Fire and Theft Insurance.
4580. Other Insurance.

Premiums paid in advance shall be charged to account 1800—Prepayments, and equitably distributed to the appropriate accounts over the period for which the premiums have been paid, except minor premiums which may be charged direct and premiums chargeable to construction.

B. Carriers authorized by the Commission to self-insure for automobile bodily injury liability, property damage liability or other liability shall record periodic charges to the appropriate expense accounts in amounts sufficient to cover estimated losses based on the carrier's experience.

C. The following accounts have been provided under Operation and Maintenance Expenses for the purpose of creating reserves for losses not covered by outside insurance and for losses incurred in excess of outside insurance coverage:

4530. Injuries and Damages.
4546. Workmen's Compensation—Self Insurer.
4560. Baggage and Express Loss and Damage.
4570. Fire and Theft Insurance.
4580. Other Insurance.

Reserves created for self-insurance of injuries and damages, workmen's compensation and baggage and express loss and damage shall be included in account 2680—Injuries, Loss and Damage Reserves. Reserves created for self-insurance of all other risks shall be included in account 2660—Insurance Reserves.

Periodic charges to expense accounts for the purpose of creating reserves for self-insurance liability shall be determined currently by the carrier from its best source of information and the rates used may be based on percentage of revenue, mileage of busses, amount of payrolls or other equitable basis.

28. Distribution of pay and expenses of employees.—The charges to investments, operation and maintenance expenses, and other accounts for services and expenses of employees engaged in activities chargeable to various accounts, shall be based upon the actual time engaged in the respective classes of work, or in case that method is impracticable, upon the basis of a study of the time actually engaged during a representative period. The pay and expenses of an employee of one department who occasionally performs incidental services involving but small expense for another department may be included in the expense of the department in which the employee is regularly employed.

29. Joint expenses.—Where the carrier owns the joint facility, any amounts received as reimbursement of operation and maintenance costs shall be credited to the appropriate joint facilities—credit account under maintenance and garage expenses; station and terminal expenses; or administrative and general expenses. Any amounts received for depreciation, taxes and return on the joint facility, shall be credited to account 5390—Joint Facility Rents—Credit. Similarly, any amounts paid by the carrier under joint facility arrangements for operating and maintenance costs shall be charged to the appropriate joint facilities—debit account in the operation and maintenance expense group of accounts and any amounts paid for depreciation, taxes and return on the joint facility, shall be charged to account 5340—Joint Facility Rents—Debit.

30. Rent and lease of carrier property.—A. Provision is made in the several sub-divisions of account 5300—Operating Rents—Net, for rents receivable and payable for use of property other than that constituting a distinct operating unit or system. (See definition 24.)

B. Taxes payable by the lessee upon property rented or leased shall be included in account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses, by the lessee.

C. Other expenses payable by the lessee shall be included in the appropriate accounts on the books of the lessee.

D. Amounts payable for use of operating property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) leased from others under terms whereby the carrier has exclusive possession shall be apportioned between rent and depreciation. The portion covering rent shall be included in account 5400—Rent for Lease of Carrier Property—Debit, and the portion covering depreciation shall be included in account 5000—Depreciation Expense. (See instruction 25.)

E. The lessor shall credit the amount receivable for use of the property leased to account 5500—Income from Lease of Carrier Property—Credit. The lessor shall charge the estimated depreciation accrual to account 5500 and credit account 2500—Reserve for Depreciation—Carrier Operating Property.

F. If settlement for either rent or depreciation is not made currently the amounts thereof shall be accrued by both lessor and lessee in harmony with the instructions in paragraphs C and D. The amounts accrued receivable, and payable, should be included in appropriate accounts classified under accounts 1890—Other Deferred Debits, and 2450—Other Deferred Credits, by the lessor and lessee, respectively.

ASSET SIDE

I. CURRENT ASSETS

1000. Cash.—This account shall include the amount of current funds available for use on demand in the hands of financial officers and deposits in banks or trust companies; also cash in transit for which agents or drivers have received credit.

NOTE A.—This account shall be credited with the amount of checks or drafts transmitted to payees.

NOTE B.—Funds subject to withdrawal restrictions.—Funds subject to such restrictions and deposits in closed banks shall not be included in this account. Such funds definitely known to be available within one year shall be included in account 1190—Other Current Assets. Deposits in closed banks which are not available within one year shall be included in account 1690—Other Deferred Debits.

1020. Working funds.—This account shall include amounts advanced to officers, agents, employees, and others as petty cash or working funds from which certain expenditures are to be made and accounted for.

1040. Special deposits.—This account shall include the balance of the amounts included in accounts 1041, 1042, and 1043, for short-term deposits.

1041. Interest special deposits.—This account shall include moneys and bank credits specially deposited in the hands of fiscal agents or others for the payment of interest on behalf of the carrier. When interest is paid from such deposits, it shall be credited to this account and charged to the appropriate accrued or matured interest account. Payments to trustees or other agents of the holders of bonds or other securities of the interest accrued thereon which operate under the terms of the securities or of mortgages supporting such securities as a release of the paying company from further liability for such interest, shall be charged to the appropriate interest accrual account.

1042. Dividend special deposits.—This account shall include moneys and bank credits in the hands of fiscal agents or others for the payment of dividends on behalf of the carrier. When dividends are paid from such deposits, they shall be credited to this account and charged to the appropriate dividend account.

1043. Miscellaneous special deposits.—This account shall include moneys and bank credits in the hands of fiscal agents or others for special purposes other than the payment of interest or dividends. This includes cash or securities deposited with Federal, state, or municipal authorities, public utilities, or others, as a guaranty for the fulfillment of obligations. Entries to this account shall specify the purpose for which the deposit is made. When such purposes are satisfied and the deposit is released, this account shall be credited with the amount deposited.

NOTE.—This account shall not include any assets available for general company purposes.

1060. Temporary cash investments.—A. This account shall include the book cost (see instruction 15) of investments such as time drafts receivable and time loans, bankers' acceptances, United States Treasury certificates, marketable securities, and other similar investments acquired for the purpose of temporarily investing cash. Any securities included in this account must be of such a nature as to be readily convertible into cash at substantially the book value.

B. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Temporary Cash Investments—Associated Companies.

(2) Temporary Cash Investments—Other.

NOTE A.—Amounts carried in this account as pledged shall be shown separately from amounts unpledged.

NOTE B.—There shall not be included in this account amounts properly includible in accounts 1600—Investments and Advances—Associated Companies, or 1650—Other Investments and Advances.

1080. Notes receivable.—A. This account shall include the book cost, not includible elsewhere, of all collectible obligations in the form of notes receivable, contracts receivable, and similar evidences (except interest coupons) of money receivable on demand or within a time not exceeding one year from date of issue.

NOTE A.—Notes receivable from associated companies shall be included in account 1100—Receivables from Associated Companies.

NOTE B.—The amount of notes receivable discounted, sold or transferred, unless transferred without recourse, shall be credited to account 2000—Notes Payable.

B. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Notes Receivable—Officers, Stockholders and Employees.

(2) Notes Receivable—Other.

1100. Receivables from associated companies.—A. This account shall include the total of amounts receivable from associated companies (see definition 6A) which are subject to current settlement (see definition 17), such as balances in open accounts for services rendered, material furnished, traffic or interline accounts, claims, rent for use of property and similar items; interest and dividends due from associated companies; and loans, notes and drafts for which associated companies are liable.

B. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Loans and Notes Receivable—Associated Companies.
(2) Interest and Dividends Receivable—Associated Companies.
(3) Accounts Receivable—Associated Companies.

NOTE A.—On the balance sheet, accounts receivable from associated companies shall be set off against accounts payable to the same companies.

NOTE B.—No amount representing dividends receivable shall be included in this account unless they have been declared or guaranteed.

NOTE C.—Items which are not subject to current settlement shall be included in account 1600—Investment and Advances—Associated Companies.

1120. Accounts receivable.—A. This account shall include amounts due from others (except associated companies) for material and supplies furnished and services rendered, including transportation and storage charges, use of property, other matured rents, amounts owing by public authorities, amounts of collectible judgments, current accounts with officers and employees, and other accounts and claims upon which responsibility is acknowledged by solvent concerns or individuals.

B. This account shall also include the balances due from other carriers, (except associated companies) against each of which there is a net debit balance representing traffic or interline accounts; also the net balance in current accounts due from agents, drivers, and other employees and representatives charged with the collection or custody of current revenues.

C. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Accounts Receivable—Officers, Stockholders and Employees.
(2) Traffic or Interline Account Balances.
(3) Accounts Receivable—Others.

NOTE A.—Amounts advanced to officers, employees, or others as working funds, shall be included in account 1020—Working Funds.

NOTE B.—Accounts with other carriers representing traffic and interline accounts which contain net credit balances shall be included in account 2050—Accounts Payable.

1140. Subscribers to capital stock.—A. This account shall include the balance due from subscribers upon legally enforceable subscriptions to capital stock.

B. The amount of each subscription shall be charged to this account at the time the subscription is accepted. Concurrently there shall be credited to account 2730—Capital Stock Subscribed, the par or stated value of the stock subscribed or the agreed purchase price in the case of non-par stock without a stated value. Appropriate entries shall likewise be recorded with respect to any discount or premium on par value stocks or non-par value stocks with a stated value.

NOTE.—The records supporting the entries to this account shall be kept so that the corporation can furnish the name and address of each subscriber, the amount and kind of capital stock subscribed, the date of subscription, the date that each payment is due and the date that each is paid, the nature of each payment (whether cash or other consideration), and any other information that is necessary to make the history of the subscription complete.

1160. Interest and dividends receivable.—This account shall include the amount of current interest accrued to the date of the balance sheet on bonds, mortgages, notes, and other commercial paper owned; on loans made; open accounts; bank deposits, etc.; and the amount of dividends receivable on stocks owned. (See instruction 10.)

NOTE A.—Interest and dividends receivable from associated companies shall be included in account 1100—Receivables from Associated Companies.

NOTE B.—Interest which is not subject to current settlement shall be included in the account in which is carried the principal on which the interest is accrued.

NOTE C.—No amount representing dividends receivable shall be included in this account unless they have been declared or guaranteed.

NOTE D.—No interest or dividends on securities or obligations issued or assumed by the carrier shall be included in this account.

1180. Material and supplies.—A. This account shall include the cost (less cash or other discounts when they can be determined) of all unapplied materials and supplies, including tools, repair parts, fuel, tires and tubes, etc. The cost shall include all specifically assignable transportation charges incurred in obtaining the delivery of such materials and supplies upon the premises of the carrier including loading and unloading, and at the option of the carrier, it may include a suitable proportion of purchasing and store expenses in which case corresponding credits shall be made to the appropriate account. The cost shall also include sales taxes on material purchases other than gasoline, other motor fuels and motor oil.

B. When any materials or supplies, the cost of which has been charged to this account, are issued for use, the amount at which they stand charged herein shall be credited to this account and charged to the appropriate construction, operation and maintenance expense, or other account. Such amount may be based upon the average cost of all items of a given type included in this account at the beginning of the period.

C. Materials recovered in connection with construction, maintenance, or the retirement of property shall be charged to this account as follows:

(1) Reusable materials shall be included in this account at amounts not to exceed cost, estimated if not known.
(2) Scrap and non-usable materials shall be carried at the estimated salvage value. So far as practicable, the difference between the amounts realized from sale or disposal and the amounts at which the materials are carried in this account shall be adjusted in the depreciation reserves, repair accounts, or other accounts which were credited when the materials were charged to this account.

NOTE A.—Interest charged on material bills, the payment of which is delayed, shall be charged to account 7100—Other Interest Deductions.

NOTE B.—Inventories of materials and supplies shall be taken at intervals of one year or less, and the necessary adjustment shall be made to bring this account into harmony with the actual physical inventory. In effecting this adjustment, differences which may practicably be assigned to important classes of materials shall be equitably distributed among the accounts to which such classes of materials are ordinarily chargeable. Other differences shall be equitably apportioned among the operation and maintenance accounts to which materials have been charged since the last inventory. Such differences that cannot be allocated to the operation and maintenance accounts shall be included in account 4655—Purchasing and Store Expenses.

NOTE C.—Sales taxes on gasoline, other motor fuels and motor oil and personal property taxes assessed on material and supplies, shall be included in account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses.

1190. Other current assets.—This account shall include the amount of all assets of a current nature not includible in any of the foregoing current asset accounts. (See definition 17.)

II. TANGIBLE PROPERTY

1200. Carrier operating property.—A. This account shall include the total of the amounts representing the cost (see instruction 19) of the carrier operating property, included in accounts 1201 to 1291, inclusive, owned and used by the carrier in its motor carrier operations, and which has an expected life in service of more than one year, including such property owned by the carrier but held by nominees.

B. When property normally having a service life of more than one year is installed for temporary use in motor carrier operations, it shall be accounted for in the same manner as property installed for permanent use.

C. Records shall be kept so as to reflect separately the cost and date of acquisition of property jointly owned and property operated under a joint agreement; also the cost and date of acquisition of each structure, unit of equipment, or other major item of property (or at the option of the carrier of each body, chassis or other major part). When a major part of a unit of property, such as a body or chassis of equipment or portion of a structure has been replaced by either a new or rebuilt one, details shall appear in the supporting records showing also the cost of the property removed, the cost of the replacement, and the date of removal or replacement. If property such as a structure or unit of equipment is constructed new, or rebuilt by the carrier to increase its capacity or otherwise add to its usefulness for motor carrier service, or if parts are purchased and assembled by the carrier, the cost records for construction and assembly shall be maintained in a sufficiently complete manner to show the cost of labor, materials and other expenses incurred in such work.

D. When a structure, unit of equipment, or other property is so rebuilt or remodeled as to create an expectation of service life fairly comparable with new property, the old property shall be retired. (See instruction 21.) Charges to this account for the rebuilt or remodeled property shall be based upon the appraised value of the reused parts, or the net book cost at time of retirement of the retired unit, whichever is lower, plus the cost of rebuilding or remodeling, provided, however, that in no event shall the total amount charged exceed the cost of similar new property.

E. The cost of removing old appliances and replacing them with new appliances shall be charged to the proper account under operation and maintenance expenses.

F. The cost of additions to and betterments of property leased from others shall be recorded in account 1271—Improvements to Leasehold Property. (See instruction 22.)

1201. Land and land rights.—A. This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19) including the amount of mortgages or other liens assumed, of land or interest in land, having a life of more than one year, for use directly in connection with the motor carrier operations of the carrier for such purposes as general office buildings, shops, garages, stations, terminals, waiting rooms, shelters, loading platforms, warehouses, and the like. This includes the first cost of acquiring leaseholds of land, easements, and rights-of-way, but not rents payable periodically in consideration of rights so obtained.

B. The cost of buildings and other improvements (other than public improvements) shall not be included in the land accounts. If at the time of acquisition of an interest in land such interest extends to buildings or other improvements (other than public improvements), which are then devoted to carrier operations, the land and improvements shall be separately appraised and the cost allocated to land and buildings or improvements on the basis of the appraisals. If the improvements are removed or wrecked without being used in carrier operations, the cost of removing or wrecking shall be charged and the salvage credited to the account in which the cost of the land is recorded.

C. Carriers shall keep their records so as to show separately the cost of each parcel of land or interest therein and the purpose or purposes for which used in motor carrier operations.

Items

Clearing land of brush, trees, and debris (First cost of).
Condemnation proceedings, including court costs and special counsel fees.
Consents and abutting damages, payment for.
Conveyancers' and notaries' fees.
Easements and rights-of-way, cost of, and expenses of acquisition.
Fees and commissions to brokers and agents.
Grading.
Land, cost of.
Leases having a life of more than one year, costs of and expenses incidental to acquiring.
Leases, voiding, to secure possession of land.
Relocating property of others.
Rights-of-way, including costs of locating.
Sidewalks on public streets abutting carrier's property.
Special assessments on the basis of benefits for new roads, new bridges, new pavements, new sewers, and other public improvements (but not any taxes levied to provide for maintenance of such improvements).
Surveys.
Taxes assumed, accrued prior to date of transfer of title.
Title, examining, registering, clearing, insuring and defending against claims relating to period prior to purchase.

NOTE A.—When land is acquired in excess of that required for motor carrier operations, or for which there is not a definite plan for its use in such service within one year, the cost of such land shall be charged to account 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, or to account 1450—Non-Operating Property, as appropriate. If land originally charged to either of these accounts is later used for motor carrier operations, it shall be charged to Carrier Operating Property in service at its cost when acquired. (See instruction 23.)

NOTE B.—Assessments for public improvements upon which payments are deferred shall be charged to this account in full and the unpaid balance carried in the appropriate liability account. Interest on unpaid balances shall be charged to the appropriate income deduction account.

1211. Structures.—A. This account shall include the cost in place (see instruction 19) of structures used in motor carrier operations. This includes buildings or constructions to house, support, or safeguard property or persons, with all appurtenant fixtures permanently attached thereto, and improvements to land, and other structures or constructions.

B. Carriers shall keep their records so as to show separately the cost of each structure included in this account and the purpose or purposes for which used in motor carrier operations.

NOTE A.—The cost of specially provided foundations not expected to outlast the machinery or apparatus for which they are provided, and the cost of angle irons, castings, etc., installed at the base of an item of equipment shall be charged to the same account as the cost of the machinery or equipment.

NOTE B.—When part of a structure is removed in order to build an extension thereto, the accounting therefor shall be in accordance with instruction 21.

1221. Revenue equipment.—A. This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19) of all units of revenue passenger equipment, and the cost of the first set of accessory equipment necessary to fit them for service, excluding tires and tubes (see account 4160—Tires and Tubes—Revenue Equipment). The term "revenue passenger equipment" includes body and chassis and all fixtures and appliances inside of or attached to the body or chassis.

B. If revenue passenger equipment is purchased in a condition ready for service, the cost shall include the invoice or contract price, (excluding tires and tubes) less discount, if any, plus freight, excise taxes, insurance in transit, unloading costs and other expenses incurred in obtaining delivery of these vehicles upon the premises of the carrier such as drive-away charges, and the cost of any additions or attachments made after delivery.

C. This account may also include the cost of spare engines and other major units carried on hand for the purpose of temporarily replacing such units taken into the shop for overhauling, repairing, or any other reason.

Items

Automobiles.
Busses.
Combination busses.
Horses and mules.
Stages.

1231. Service cars and equipment.—This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19) of automotive vehicles used in connection with keeping revenue vehicles in operation, including cars and trucks used as trouble wagons for servicing revenue vehicles on the road. This account shall also include the cost of the first set of appliances or accessory equipment, including tires and tubes, necessary to fit such vehicles for service, such as cranes, hoists and other appliances, devices and tools forming the equipment of service cars.

Items

Emergency repair vehicles and appliances.
Refueling cars.
Sand and salt cars.
Snow-fighting vehicles and equipment.
Spare units for service vehicles, on hand in shop (optional).
Tow cars and appliances.
Vehicles used by officials, starters and inspectors.

1241. Shop and garage equipment.—A. This account shall include the cost installed (see instruction 19) of machinery and equipment used in shops and garages when such machinery and equipment is not an integral part of the housing structure, together with specially provided foundations and settings not expected to outlast the machinery mounted thereon. Records shall be kept so as to show separately the cost of each major item of equipment.

B. If the carrier has shops or garages at more than one location, the records shall be maintained to reflect the carrier's investment at each location.

Items

Air compressors and hose, gauges and tanks.
Anvils.
Arbor presses.
Battery charging outfits.
Belts, shafts and countershafts.
Boring or reaming machines.
Car washing equipment.

Store room equipment (except office equipment).
Stoves.
Testing apparatus.
Tire changing equipment.
Tool racks.
Vises.
Vulcanizing equipment.
Weighing devices.
Welding apparatus.
Wheel pullers.
Work benches.

NOTE A.—The cost of small portable tools and implements of slight value or short life shall be charged to the appropriate expense account.

NOTE B.—The cost of cranes, hoists and other appliances, devices and tools forming the equipment of service cars and trucks shall be charged to account 1231—Service Cars and Equipment.

1251. Furniture and office equipment.—A. This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19), installed of furniture and appliances used in general offices, garage offices, stations, terminals, warehouses, and waiting rooms, when such equipment is not an integral part of the housing structure.

B. If the carrier has equipment included in this account at more than one location, the records shall be maintained to reflect the carrier's investment at each location.

C. If the carrier operates or owns auxiliary station facilities such as restaurants and news stands, the cost of equipment therein shall be charged to this account and carried under a special subdivision entitled "Furniture and Office Equipment—Special Facilities."

Items

Skidboards.
Warehouse trucks.
Weighing devices.

1271. Improvements to leasehold property.—A. This account shall include, except as provided in paragraph B following, the cost of initial improvements (including rearrangements, additions, and betterments) to property used for motor carrier operations and held under lease or through control of the carrier owning the property, and in existence at the date of the balance sheet; and the cost of any subsequent additions to and betterments of such leased or controlled property but not including replacements of other than the carrier's own improvements. Amortization and depreciation on such expenditures shall be provided for in the manner set forth in instruction 25.

B. When the cost of alterations to leased property used in motor carrier operations otherwise chargeable to this account is not in excess of $50.00 or the period of the lease is less than one year, the cost may be charged to the accounts chargeable with the cost of repairs to such property.

1281. Undistributed property.—A. When a carrier purchases or sells any property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) or otherwise finds it necessary because of incomplete financial records to make a general readjustment of operating property records, temporary charges or credits to this account may be made with approval of the Commission, and the distribution of the amounts involved shall be made promptly to the appropriate accounts after authorization by the Commission.

B. Balances in accounts previously carried representing property owned as of the effective date of this system of accounts may be carried temporarily in this account. Journal entries distributing such balances to the appropriate property accounts prescribed herein shall be made and filed with the Commission not later than one year after the effective date of this system of accounts.

1291. Unfinished construction.—This account shall include the cost of construction projects not ready for service at the date of the balance sheet. It shall include all elements of cost as set forth in instruction 19.

NOTE.—This account is intended to include only charges for new construction not involving any replacement. If, however, at the beginning of a job involving the replacement or retirement of any operating property, the accounting carrier makes full credits therefor to the appropriate property accounts, the cost of installing new property in substitution or replacement may be carried in this account pending completion of the work. (See also account 1890—Other Deferred Debits.)

1300. Carrier operating property leased to others.—A. This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19) of carrier operating property owned by the carrier but leased to others as distinct operating units (see definition 24) or systems for use in motor carrier operations, where the lessee has exclusive possession.

B. This account shall be sub-divided so as to reflect separately the investment in each class of property as provided for under account 1200—Carrier Operating Property.

1400. Non-carrier operating property.—This account shall include the book cost of land, structures and equipment owned by the carrier and used in other than motor carrier operations and not provided for in account 1200—Carrier Operating Property, and account 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others.

1450. Non-operating property.—This account shall include the book cost of land, structures and equipment owned by the carrier, but not used in any of its operating activities.

III. INTANGIBLE PROPERTY

1500. Organization, franchises and permits.—This account shall include the balance of the amounts included in accounts 1501 to 1541, inclusive.

1501. Organization.—This account shall include fees paid to state or other governmental authority for the privilege of incorporation, and expenditures incident to organizing the corporation, partnership, or other enterprise, and putting it into readiness to do business.

Items

Fees and expenses for incorporation.
Fees and expenses for mergers or consolidations.
Office expenses incident to organizing the company.
Stock and minute books and corporate seal.

NOTE A.—This account shall not include any discounts upon securities issued or assumed; nor shall it include any costs incident to negotiating loans, selling bonds or other evidences of debt, or expenses in connection with the authorization, issuance or sale of stock. (See instructions 12 and 13, and accounts 1900—Discount on Capital Stock, and 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock.)

NOTE B.—Exclude from this account, and include in account 4620—Law Expenses, the cost of preparing and filing papers in connection with the extension of the term of incorporation unless the first organization costs have been written off.

NOTE C.—When charges are made to this account for expenses incurred in mergers, consolidations, acquisitions or reorganizations, amounts previously included herein on the books of the retiring companies shall not be carried over. If such items represent part of the assets acquired they shall be included in account 1550—Other Intangible Property. (See instruction 20.)

1511. Franchises.—A. This account shall include amounts actually paid to a state or political subdivision thereof or to other governmental authority in consideration of franchises, permits, consents, or certificates running in perpetuity or for a specified term of more than one year, together with the necessary reasonable expenses incident to procuring such franchises, consents, or certificates of convenience and necessity.

B. When a franchise, permit, consent or certificate is acquired by assignment, the charge to this account shall not exceed the actual cost to the original holder thereof. Payments in excess of the cost to the original holder, together with any expenses incurred by the acquiring carrier shall be charged to account 1550—Other Intangible Property. (See instruction 20.)

C. When any franchises, permits, or consents have expired, and are not immediately renewed, are sold or otherwise disposed of, credits to this account shall be made representing the amounts at which such items (including expenses of acquisition) are carried herein, concurrent charges shall be made to account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property, or to surplus as appropriate.

Expenses incurred in connection with renewals shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense account.

D. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately amounts pertaining to:

(1) Perpetual Franchises.
(2) Fixed-Term Franchises.

NOTE.—Regularly recurring payments made to any political subdivision for the right to operate within its boundaries shall be charged to account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses.

1541. Patents.—A. This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19) of patent rights, licenses, and privileges necessary or valuable to the economical conduct of motor carrier operations, and which have a life of more than one year from the date they become effective.

B. When any right or license included herein expires or is canceled and is not immediately renewed, is sold, or otherwise disposed of, credit to this account shall be made representing the amount at which such right or license is included herein. Concurrent charge shall be made to account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property, or to surplus as appropriate. Expenses incurred in connection with renewals shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense account.

1550. Other intangible property.—A. This account shall include any intangibles not provided for elsewhere, including any undistributed portion of the purchase cost of a transportation system or portion thereof, constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) not includible in specific accounts provided for assets acquired or liabilities assumed. (See instruction 20.)

B. The carrier may amortize the balance carried in this account by credits hereto and concurrent charges to account 7500—Other Deductions, or the amount carried herein for any item may be written off to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

IV. INVESTMENT SECURITIES AND ADVANCES

1600. Investments and advances—Associated companies.—A. This account shall include the book cost (see insruction 15) of the carrier's investments in securities issued or assumed by associated companies; notes of associated companies maturing later than one year from date of issue; and the amount of advances to associated companies not subject to current settlement, including accrued interest on such advances when not subject to current settlement. Exclude from this account securities held in special funds or as temporary cash investments. (See definitions 6 and 8, account 1060—Temporary Cash Investments, and instruction 15.)

B. This account shall be subdivided to reflect separately:

(1) Common Stocks.
(2) Preferred Stocks.
(3) Bonds.
(4) Notes.
(5) Other Investments.
(6) Advances.

NOTE A.—Balances in open accounts with associated companies which are subject to current settlement shall be included in account 1100—Receivables from Associated Companies.

NOTE B.—Securities pledged shall be shown separately from securities unpledged.

NOTE C.—Securities borrowed by the carrier and pledged shall not be included in this account. A memorandum record shall be kept.

1650. Other investments and advances.—A. This account shall include the book cost (see instruction 15) of the carrier's investments in securities issued or assumed by other than associated companies; notes of other companies and persons, maturing later than one year from date of issue; the cash surrender values of insurance policies carried on the lives of officers and employees when the carrier is beneficiary of such policies; advances to other companies and individuals not subject to current settlement, including any accrued interest on such advances when not subject to current settlement.

B. This account shall be subdivided to reflect separately:

(1) Common Stocks.
(2) Preferred Stocks.
(3) Bonds.
(4) Notes.
(5) Other Investments.
(6) Advances.

NOTE A.—Balances in open accounts with other companies and individuals which are subject to current settlement shall be included in account 1120—Accounts Receivable.

NOTE B.—Securities pledged shall be shown separately from securities unpledged.

NOTE C.—Securities borrowed by the carrier and pledged shall not be included in this account. A memorandum record shall be kept.

V. SPECIAL FUNDS

1701. Sinking funds.—A. This account shall include the amount of cash or other items when held by trustees or other fiscal agents in charge of sinking funds, or by the carrier itself when they are segregated in a distinct fund, for the purpose of redeeming outstanding obligations. (See instruction 15.)

Items

Cash.

Securities of other companies or other assets, at cost except as otherwise provided herein.

Live securities, issued or assumed by the carrier, at face value. (For conditions under which such securities may be kept alive, see instruction 14.)

Amounts deposited with trustees or other fiscal agents on account of mortgaged property sold, when held for the redemption of securities.

Securities of the carrier issued to trustees without intervening sale, at face value.

B. A separate subdivision shall be kept for each fund, the title of which shall designate the obligation in support of which the fund was created.

1751. Depreciation funds.—This account shall include the amount of cash and the cost (see instruction 15) of securities of other companies and other assets which have been specifically set aside for the purpose of providing a fund for the replacement of units of depreciable property.

1781. Miscellaneous special funds.—This account shall include the amount of cash and the cost (see instruction 15) of securities of other companies and other assets in insurance, employees' pension, savings, relief, hospital, and other funds which have been raised and specifically set aside or invested for purposes not provided for elsewhere; and the face value of securities issued or assumed by the carrier which may be held alive in such funds under instruction 14. Also include in this account deposits in lieu of mortgaged property sold and other trust deposits, pending their refund when equivalent property is acquired or pending their transfer under mortgage provisions to account 1701—Sinking Funds. A separate subdivision shall be provided for each fund.

VI. DEFERRED DEBITS

1800. Prepayments.—This account shall include the balances representing payment of items in advance of their accrual, the benefit of which is to be realized subsequent to the time of such payment. Entries shall be made each period transferring from this account to the appropriate account the portion of each prepayment which is applicable to that period. The account shall be kept so that there can be determined readily the amounts applicable to the following:

(1) Taxes and Licenses.
(2) Insurance.
(3) Interest.
(4) Rents.
(5) Tires and tubes. (See account 4160—Tires and Tubes—Revenue Equipment.)
(6) Miscellaneous.

NOTE.—Prepayments of minor items applicable to the current year may be charged directly to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense or other accounts.

1880. Unamortized debt discount and expense.—This account shall include the total of the net debit balances representing the excess of the discount and expense over the premium in connection with the issuance of each class of the carrier's outstanding long-term or equipment obligations. Separate subdivisions shall be maintained in respect of each issue of such obligations. (See instruction 13.)

1890. Other deferred debits.—A. This account shall include all debit balances in suspense accounts that cannot be entirely cleared and disposed of until further information is received; also items of a deferred nature (except items chargeable to account 1800—Prepayments, or account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense) which are subsequently to be amortized to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense or other accounts. This includes amounts on deposit with banks which have failed, pending determination of loss; amounts paid for options pending final disposition which are not recoverable; expenditures for plans and investigations made for determining the feasibility of projects under contemplation, pending further disposition; and expenditures for valuations, inventories, and appraisals made in connection with the contemplated purchase or sale of property. (See instruction 19.) If projects in connection with which such preliminary costs were incurred are abandoned, the expense shall be charged to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

B. This account may also include losses in service value of property retired for causes for which provision has not been made in the depreciation reserve and losses from retirements which could not reasonably have been foreseen and provided for. (See instruction 21 and account 5120—Property Loss Chargeable to Operations.) The carrier shall make application to the Commission for permission to make such use of this account for the foregoing purpose, and in the application the carrier shall give full particulars concerning the property retired or abandoned, the reason for which it is retired or abandoned, the amounts provided in respect thereto in the depreciation and amortization reserves, the amount chargeable to this account, and the period over which, in its judgment, such amount should be distributed.

C. This account shall also include other debit items which are subject to amortization by order of the Commission.

D. This account shall also include the balances in clearing accounts maintained to carry temporarily the cost of operating and maintaining such facilities as office buildings, storehouses, etc.; and such overhead costs as it is desirable to apportion to the construction, operating, and other accounts involved. (See instruction 16.)

VII. MISCELLANEOUS DEBIT ITEMS

1900. Discount on capital stock.—This account shall include the discounts suffered in the sale of capital stock. (See instructions 12 and 14.)

1910. Commission and expense on capital stock.—This account shall include all expenses incurred in connection with the issuance and sale of capital stock. (See instructions 12 and 14.)

Items

Fees and expenses in obtaining permission from regulatory bodies for the issuance of stock and in filing papers of notification thereunder.

Fees paid to promoters.

Listing stock on exchanges.

Preparation and distribution of prospectuses.

Preparation and issuance of certificates of stock.

Soliciting subscriptions for stock, including fees, commissions, advertising and printing.

Taxes paid on stock issues.

1920. Reacquired securities.—This account shall include in subdivisions for each class, the face, par, or stated value of capital stock, bonds, and other forms of securities which have been actually issued or assumed by the carrier, and reacquired and are neither retired nor properly includible in sinking or other funds.

NOTE A.—The accounting for the reacquisition of securities and resales thereof shall be in accordance with instruction 14.

NOTE B.—This account shall be maintained so as to reflect separately securities pledged and unpledged.

NOTE C.—In reports to the Commission the balance in this account shall be deducted from the securities accounts on the liability side, thereby extending into the money column the amounts to reflect the actually outstanding securities.

1990. Nominally issued securities.—A. This account shall include in subdivisions for each class, the face value of capital stock, bonds, and other forms of securities which have been nominally but not actually issued by the carrier. (See definitions 2 and 30.)

B. When stock without par value is nominally issued, a memorandum entry shall be made to this account showing the number of shares thus issued.

NOTE A.—This account shall be maintained so as to reflect separately securities pledged and unpledged.

NOTE B.—In reports to the Commission, the balance in this account shall be deducted from the securities accounts on the liability side, thereby extending into the money column the amounts to reflect the actually outstanding securities.

LIABILITY SIDE

VIII. CURRENT LIABILITIES

2000. Notes payable.—A. This account shall include the face value of outstanding obligations in the form of notes, drafts, acceptances, and other similar evidences of indebtedness which by their terms do not run for a period in excess of one year, including the face value of notes receivable discounted or sold without releasing the carrier from liability as endorser thereon.

B. Subdivisions shall be maintained to show separately obligations maturing upon demand from obligations bearing a specified date of maturity.

NOTE A.—Notes payable to associated companies shall be included in account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies.

NOTE B.—Unmatured equipment obligations irrespective of maturity shall be included in account 2300—Equipment Obligations.

2020. Matured equipment and long-term obligations.—This account shall include the amount (including obligations for premiums) of equipment obligations, long-term obligations and receivers' certificates matured and unpaid without any specific agreement for extension of maturity, including unpresented bonds called for redemption.

2030. Payables to associated companies.—A. This account shall include the total of amounts payable to associated companies (see definition 6) which are subject to current settlement (see definition 17), such as credit balances in open accounts for services rendered, material furnished, traffic or interline accounts, claims, rent for use of property and similar items; interest and dividends due to associated companies; and loans, notes and drafts which are payable to associated companies.

B. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Loans and Notes Payable—Associated Companies.
(2) Interest and Dividends Payable—Associated Companies.
(3) Accounts Payable—Associated Companies.

NOTE A.—On the balance sheet accounts payable to associated companies shall be set off against accounts receivable from the same companies.

NOTE B.—No amount representing dividends payable shall be included in this account unless they have been declared or guaranteed.

NOTE C.—Items which are not subject to current settlement shall be included in account 2200—Advances Payable—Associated Companies.

2050. Accounts payable.—A. This account shall include amounts payable to others (except associated companies) for materials and supplies and services received, including use of property, other matured rents, amounts due to public authorities, amounts of payable judgments, current accounts with officers and employees, personal injury and property damage claims, and other similar items.

B. This account shall also include the balances due to other carriers (except associated companies) in favor of each of which there is a net credit balance representing traffic or interline accounts.

C. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Accounts Payable—Officers, Stockholders and Employees.
(2) Traffic or Interline Account Balances.
(3) Accounts Payable—Others.

NOTE.—Accounts with other carriers representing traffic or interline accounts which contain net debit balances shall be included in account 1120—Accounts Receivable.

2070. Wages payable.—This account shall include the amount of wages payable or accrued pay rolls at the date of the balance sheet. Unclaimed wages should be transferred to account 2190—Other Current Liabilities.

2080. Unredeemed tickets.—Carriers using the "ticket lift basis" in recording revenues shall credit this account with the amounts received from the sale of mileage books, scrip books, tokens, strip or coupon tickets, commutation or other forms of tickets which are valid for transportation. This account shall be charged and the appropriate revenue account credited as tickets, tokens, or coupons are honored for transportation. This account shall also be charged with unused portions of tickets, tokens, or coupons with concurrent credits to cash or other appropriate account for the amount redeemed and to the appropriate revenue account for the portion not so redeemed or redeemable.

NOTE.—Carriers using the "ticket sales basis" in recording revenues shall credit account 3200—Passenger Revenue, with their proportion received from the sale of tickets, etc.

2090. C. O. D.'s unremitted.—This account shall be credited with amounts of C. O. D.'s collected from consignees for shippers on express delivered.

This account shall be charged when remittances of amounts of C. O. D.'s are made to shippers.

NOTE.—Fees for handling C. O. D.'s shall be credited to the express revenue account.

2100. Dividends declared.—This account shall include the amount of dividends declared but not paid on any issue of capital stock of the carrier. Dividends shall be credited to this account as of the day upon which they become a liability of the carrier.

NOTE.—Dividends declared and payable to associated companies shall be included in account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies.

2120. Taxes accrued.—A. This account shall be credited each period with the amount of taxes accrued during the period, with concurrent debits to the appropriate accounts for tax charges. As credits to this account will necessarily be based upon estimates, they shall be adjusted from time to time during the year so that the tax charge accounts may show as nearly as possible, the taxes applicable to the year. Payments of taxes for which accruals have been made shall be debited to this account. Amounts representing prepayment of taxes applicable to the period subsequent to the date of the balance sheet shall be included in account 1800—Prepayments.

B. The records supporting the entries to this account shall be kept so that the carrier can furnish information as to the amount and basis for each tax accrual, the kinds of taxes paid, the amount of each and the accounts charged with the tax accruals.

2150. Interest accrued.—A. This account shall include the amount of interest accrued to the date of the balance sheet, but not payable until after that date, on all indebtedness of the carrier except interest which is added to the principal.

B. When interest matures without being paid it shall be charged to this account and credited to account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies or account 2160—Matured Interest, as appropriate. Payments to trustees or other agents of the holders of bonds or other securities, of the interest accrued thereon, which operate under the terms of the securities (or of mortgages supporting such securities) as a release of the carrier from further liability for such interest, shall be accounted for in the same manner as payments of interest made directly to bondholders.

NOTE.—Interest accrued upon any judgment against the carrier shall be credited to the account to which such judgment stands credited.

2160. Matured interest.—This account shall include the amount of matured and unpaid interest on obligations of the accounting carrier whether the cause of the failure to pay the interest is on the part of the creditor or for other reasons except where such interest is added to the principal of the obligation.

NOTE.—Interest payable to associated companies shall be included in account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies.

2190. Other current liabilities.—This account shall include all current and accrued liabilities not includible in any of the foregoing accounts. This includes unmatured rents accrued, and unclaimed wages.

IX. ADVANCES PAYABLE

2200. Advances payable—Associated companies.—A. This account shall include the amount of advances from associated companies, whether evidenced by notes or open accounts which are not subject to current settlement, including interest accrued thereon, when such interest is not subject to current settlement.

B. This account shall be subdivided so as to show for each creditor:

(1) Notes Payable.
(2) Open accounts not subject to current settlement.
(3) Interest accrued on amounts included in this account when not subject to current settlement.

NOTE.—Amounts of temporary advances which are subject to current settlement such as charges for materials and supplies currently furnished, charges for repairs to equipment, etc., shall be included in account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies.

2250. Other advances payable.—A. This account shall include the amount of advances from individuals and companies other than associated companies, whether evidenced by notes or open accounts, which are not subject to current settlement, including interest accrued thereon when such interest is not subject to current settlement.

B. This account shall be subdivided so as to show for each creditor:

(1) Notes Payable.
(2) Open accounts not subject to current settlement.
(3) Interest accrued on amounts included in this account when not subject to current settlement.

NOTE.—Amounts of temporary advances which are subject to current settlement such as charges for materials and supplies currently furnished, charges for repairs to equipment, etc., shall be included in account 2050—Accounts Payable.

X. EQUIPMENT AND OTHER LONG-TERM OBLIGATIONS

2300. Equipment obligations.—A. This account shall include the face value of unmatured equipment obligations, issued by the carrier and not retired and canceled. This includes equipment bonds, equipment notes, chattel mortgages, and other obligations for which equipment is pledged as security or is held under a conditional sales agreement; also the face value of equipment obligations issued by others, the payment of which has been assumed by the carrier; and of equipment obligations so issued or assumed, the maturity of which has been extended by specific agreement.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show the face value of equipment obligations (1) nominally issued, and (2) actually outstanding. (See definitions 3 and 31.)

C. A separate subdivision shall be maintained for each class of equipment obligation and no issues shall be considered to be of the same class unless identical as to liability and nature of property covered.

NOTE A.—Equipment obligations matured and unpaid without specific agreement for extension as to time of payment, including unpresented equipment obligations called for redemption shall be included in account 2020—Matured Equipment and Long-Term Obligations.

NOTE B.—On the balance sheet, obligations maturing within one year shall be shown separately from those maturing later than one year from the date of the balance sheet.

2330. Bonds.—A. This account shall not include the face value of the unmatured bonds which have not been retired or canceled (except equipment bonds—see account 2300—Equipment Obligations); also the face value of such bonds issued by others, the payment of which has been assumed by the carrier.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show the face value of bonds (1) nominally issued, and (2) actually outstanding. (See definitions 3 and 31.)

C. A separate subdivision shall be maintained for each class and series of bonds, and no issue shall be considered to be of the same class unless identical as to liability and nature of property covered.

NOTE A.—Bonds matured and unpaid without specific agreement for extension as to time of payment, including unpresented bonds called for redemption, shall be included in account 2020—Matured Equipment and Long-Term Obligations.

NOTE B.—On the balance sheet, obligations maturing within one year shall be shown separately from those maturing later than one year from the date of the balance sheet.

2360. Other long-term obligations.—A. This account shall include all long-term obligations not otherwise provided for. This covers such items, executed or assumed, as real estate mortgages; assessments for public improvement; receipts outstanding for long-term obligations; and other obligations maturing more than one year from date of issue.

B. This account shall also include the face value of certificates of indebtedness issued upon the property by receivers in possession of the property acting under the orders of a court.

NOTE A.—Separate subdivisions shall be maintained for each class of obligation included herein, and records shall be maintained to show separately for each issue all details as to date of issue, date of maturity, interest dates and rates, security for obligations, etc.

NOTE B.—On the balance sheet, obligations maturing within one year shall be shown separately from those maturing later than one year from the date of the balance sheet.

NOTE C.—Matured obligations which are unpaid shall be included in account 2020—Matured Equipment and Long-Term Obligations.

XI. DEFERRED CREDITS

2400. Unamortized premium on debt.—This account shall include the total of all credit balances representing the excess of the premium over the discount and expense in connection with the issuance of each class of the carrier's outstanding long-term or equipment obligations. Separate subdivisions shall be maintained in respect of each issue of obligations. (See instruction 13.)

2450. Other deferred credits.—This account shall include the credit balances in suspense accounts that can not be entirely cleared and disposed of until additional information is received, and other items of a deferred nature. (See instruction 16.)

XII. RESERVES

2500. Reserve for depreciation—carrier operating property.—A. This account shall be credited with the following:

(1) Amounts charged to account 5000—Depreciation Expense, account 5500—Income from Lease of Carrier Property—Credit, or other accounts for currently accruing depreciation (see definition 22) of carrier operating property as provided in instruction 25.

(2) Amounts which the carrier may charge to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, or transfer to this account for depreciation accrued but not provided for prior to the effective date of this system of accounts.

(3) The amount of depreciation accrued to date of transfer applicable to carrier operating property acquired as distinct operating units when the carrier elects to set up the book cost of such property as provided in instruction 20.

(4) The amount of depreciation accrued to date of transfer, applicable to property transferred from accounts 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, or 1450—Non-Operating Property, to accounts 1200—Carrier Operating Property, or 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others. (See instruction 23.)

B. Charges to this account in connection with carrier operating property retired shall be made in accordance with instruction 21. This account shall also be charged with the amount of depreciation accrued to date of transfer applicable to property transferred from accounts 1200—Carrier Operating Property, or 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others, to accounts 1400 or 1450.

C. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect the balance applicable to each class of property as follows:

2511. Structures.
2521. Revenue Equipment.
2531. Service Cars and Equipment.
2541. Shop and Garage Equipment.
2551. Furniture and Office Equipment.
2561. Miscellaneous Equipment.
2571. Improvements to Leasehold Property.
2581. Undistributed Property.
2591. Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others.

2600. Reserve for amortization—Carrier operating property.—A. This account shall be credited with amounts charged to account 5110—Amortization of Carrier Operating Property, or other appropriate account, for the amortization of leaseholds, franchises, consents, privileges, patents, and other intangible property having a fixed-term life, and for losses expected to be incurred through the reversion of improvements on leased property prior to the expiration of their service lives. (See instruction 25.)

B. When any leasehold, franchise, permit, consent, privilege or patent expires, is sold or relinquished, or is otherwise retired from service, this account shall be charged with the amount previously credited hereto in respect of such property. The difference between the proceeds realized and the net book cost (see definition 29 and instruction 25) of the property retired shall be included in account 5110—Amortization of Carrier Operating Property.

C. Records shall be maintained so as to show separately the balances applicable to each item of intangible property which is being amortized.

D. This account shall be credited with such amounts as are necessary to reflect, as of the effective date of this system of accounts, the expired portion of the life of franchises, permits, consents, patent rights, leaseholds, easements, rights-of-way, other interest in land, or other intangible property which has a fixed term life, the cost of which is included in operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 and intangible property accounts 1500 and 1550. To the extent that provision has not previously been made the amounts credited to this reserve shall be concurrently debited to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

2610. Reserve for depreciation and amortization—Other property.—This account shall include amounts provided for depreciation and amortization of properties carried in accounts 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, and 1450—Non-Operating Property.

2650. Reserve for uncollectible accounts.—This account shall be credited each period with amounts reserved for receivables which may become uncollectible.

NOTE A.—Charges applicable to receivables for carrier operating revenues shall be included in account 4680—Uncollectible Revenues.

NOTE B.—Charges applicable to other than carrier operating revenues shall be included in account 7500—Other Deductions.

NOTE C.—Charges for items not applicable to motor carrier operations shall be included in accounts 6000—Net Income from Non-Carrier Operations, or 6100—Net Income from Non-Operating Property, as appropriate.

2660. Insurance reserves.—A. This account shall be credited with amounts charged to account 4570—Fire and Theft Insurance, account 4580—Other Insurance, or other appropriate accounts to provide a reserve for losses through collision, accident, fire, flood, or other hazards to the carrier's own property or to property leased from others which are not covered by outside insurance. (See instruction 27.) A schedule of risks covered by this reserve shall be maintained, giving a description of the property involved, the character of the risks covered and the rates used.

B. The cost to the carrier of repairing damaged property owned or leased from others and of replacing damaged or destroyed property leased from others shall first be charged to the account appropriate for the cost of repairs or replacement. When the risk is specifically provided for in the schedule applicable to this account, the cost of repairs or restoration of the property damaged shall be charged to this account and credited to the account previously charged. Such charges shall not exceed the amount of the risk provided for in the schedule. When carrier operating property is destroyed or so badly damaged as to require retirement, the amount provided therefor in the schedule of risks applicable to this account shall be charged hereto and credited to account 2500—Reserve for Depreciation—Carrier Operating Property.

2680. Injuries, loss and damage reserves.—A. This account shall be credited with amounts charged to accounts 4530—Injuries and Damages, 4546—Workmen's Compensation—Self Insurer, 4560—Baggage and Express Loss and Damage, or other appropriate accounts to provide a reserve against claims for deaths of or injuries to employees and others; for damages to property not owned or held under lease by the carrier; and for loss, destruction, damage, or delays to property intrusted to the carrier for transportation or storage, which are not covered by outside insurance. (See instruction 27.) A schedule of risks covered by this reserve shall be maintained in sufficient detail to indicate the character of the risks covered and the rates used.

B. This account shall be charged with claims payable for injuries and damages when the risk is specifically provided for in the schedule applicable to this account.

C. When liability for any injury or damage is admitted by the carrier either voluntarily or because of the decision of a court or other lawful authority such as a workmen's compensation board, industrial commission, etc., the amount shall be charged to this account. The amount of such a liability shall be credited to account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies, account 2050—Accounts Payable, or account 2450—Other Deferred Credits, as appropriate, until paid or liquidated.

D. This account shall be subdivided to reflect:

(1) Reserve for Personal Injuries and Property Damage.
(2) Reserve for Baggage and Express Loss and Damage.

NOTE.—The accounting for repairs and replacements of property owned, or leased from others, shall be as provided in paragraph B of account 2660—Insurance Reserves.

2690. Other reserves.—A. This account shall include amounts reserved by the carrier for purposes which are not provided for in any of the preceding reserves. There shall be reported hereunder such accounts as sinking fund reserves, contingency reserves and other reserves created by charges to income or surplus.

B. This account shall be maintained in such manner as to show the amount of each separate reserve and the nature and the amounts of the debits and credits thereto.

XIII. CAPITAL STOCK

2700. Preferred capital stock.—

2710. Common capital stock.—A. These accounts shall include the par value of stocks with par value; the stated value of non-par stocks having a stated value; and the cash value of the consideration received, including assessments, for non-par stocks without stated value, which have been nominally or actually issued.

B. Separate accounts shall be provided for each class of stock, and the title of each account shall clearly identify the class of stock covered. Issues of stock shall not be considered as of the same class unless identical in all provisions, nor shall there be carried any undivided item in respect of more than one class of stock.

C. When stock is issued for cash, that fact shall be stated; if for any consideration other than cash, the person to whom it is issued shall be designated and the consideration for which it is issued shall be described with sufficient particularity to identify it. If such issuance is to the treasurer or other agent of the corporation for purpose of sale, that fact and the name of such agent shall be shown; and such agent shall show like details concerning the consideration realized therefor in his account of the disposition thereof, which when accepted by the corporation, shall be preserved as a corporate record.

D. When capital stock is retired and canceled, these accounts shall be charged with the amount at which such stock is carried in these accounts.

NOTE A.—For each class of stock the records shall show the number of shares nominally issued, actually outstanding, and nominally outstanding. (See definitions 3 and 31.) When non-par stock (without stated value) is nominally issued a memorandum entry shall be made showing only the number of shares so issued.

NOTE B.—When non-par stock is issued in exchange for par stock, or non-par stock with stated value, amounts included in account 2720—Premiums and Assessments on Capital Stock, for the retired stock, shall be treated as part of the consideration received for non-par stock.

NOTE C.—No entries recording changes in the par value of stocks with par value; the stated value of non-parstocks having a stated value; or the recorded value of non-par stocks without stated value shall be made in any account for capital stock without approval of the Commission.

2720. Premiums and assessments on capital stock.—A. This account shall include the excess of the actual cash value (at the time of sale of the stock) of the consideration received over the par or stated value of the stock issued, plus accrued dividends, if any; and subsequent assessments against stockholders representing payments required in excess of par or stated value.

B. A separate subdivision shall be maintained for premiums on each class and series of stock.

C. When capital stock is retired and canceled, the amount in this account with respect to the shares retired and canceled shall be debited hereto in accordance with instruction 14.

2730. Capital stock subscribed.—This account shall include the amount of legally enforceable subscriptions to capital stock of the carrier. It shall be credited with the par or stated value, or with the subscription price in the case of stock without par or stated value, exclusive of accrued dividends, if any. Concurrently a debit shall be made to account 1140—Subscribers to Capital Stock, for the agreed purchase price and any discount or premium debited or credited to the appropriate discount or premium account. When properly executed stock certificates have been issued representing the stocks subscribed, this account shall be debited and the appropriate capital stock account credited with the par or stated value (or the consideration received in the case of non-par stock without a stated value) of the stock.

XIV. NON-CORPORATE CAPITAL

2800. Sole proprietorship capital.—This account shall include the investment in an unincorporated carrier by the proprietor thereof and shall be charged with all withdrawals from the business by its proprietor. At the end of each calendar year the net income for the year as developed in the income account shall be transferred to this account. There shall also be entered in this account such items as in corporate organizations are handled through earned surplus accounts 2930 to 2946. (See optional accounting procedure provided in note B, hereunder.)

NOTE A.—Amounts payable to the proprietor as fair and reasonable compensation for services performed, shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense or other accounts.

NOTE B.—This account may be restricted to the amount considered by the proprietor to be the permanent investment in the business, subject to change only by additional investment by the proprietor or the withdrawals of portions thereof not representing net income. When this option is taken the surplus accounts shall be maintained and entries thereto shall be made in accordance with the texts thereof.

2810. Partnership capital.—This account shall be credited, where the business is conducted by an unincorporated firm, co-partnership or under any style other than that of an incorporated company or sole proprietorship, with the respective amounts paid into the business by the partners therein, and shall be charged with all withdrawals from the business by each partner. At the end of each calendar year the net income for the year as developed in the income account shall be transferred to this account. There shall also be entered in this account such items as in corporate organizations are handled through earned surplus accounts 2930 to 2946. (See optional accounting procedure provided in note C hereunder.)

NOTE A.—Amounts payable to the partners as fair and reasonable compensation for services performed, shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense or other accounts.

NOTE B.—Separate accounts shall be kept to show the net equity of each member of the co-partnership and the transactions affecting the interest of each such partner. The total of the balances in such accounts shall be shown as one amount in the balance sheet.

NOTE C.—This account may be restricted to the amount considered by the members of the co-partnership to be their permanent investment in the business, subject to change only by additional investments by the co-partners or the withdrawals of portions thereof not representing net income. When this option is taken the surplus accounts shall be maintained and entries thereto shall be made in accordance with the texts thereof.

XV. UNAPPROPRIATED SURPLUS

2900. Unearned surplus.—A. This account shall include all surplus not classified herein as earned surplus. It shall include such items as surplus arising from the donations by stockholders of the carrier's capital stock; surplus recorded at reorganization or in connection with recapitalization; net credits resulting from reacquisition or resales of carrier's capital stock (see instruction 14); amortization of discount and expense on capital stock (see instruction 12); and from a reduction of the par or stated value of the carrier's capital stock where allowed by statute.

B. No entry shall be made in this account to create unearned surplus arising out of the revaluation of carrier operating property except upon written order of the Commission.

C. This account shall be subdivided into accounts to show each source of unearned surplus.

2930. Earned surplus.—A. This account shall include the balance of the amounts included in accounts 2931 to 2946, inclusive, either debit or credit, of unappropriated surplus arising from earnings. It shall not include surplus property includible under accounts 2800—Sole Proprietorship Capital, 2810—Partnership Capital, or 2900—Unearned Surplus.

B. The balances of all earned surplus accounts (2931 to 2946, inclusive) shall be closed to this account at the end of each calendar year.

Earned Surplus Accounts

I. Credits

2930. Earned Surplus (or Deficit) at Beginning of Period.
2931. Surplus Credits Applicable to Prior Years.
2932. Credit Balance Transferred from Income Account.
2933. Other Credits to Surplus.
Total Credits.

II. Debits

2941. Surplus Debits Applicable to Prior Years.
2942. Debit Balance Transferred from Income Account.
2943. Dividend Appropriations.
2944. Appropriations to Reserves.
2945. Other Appropriations.
2946. Other Debits to Surplus.
Total Debits.
2930. Earned Surplus (or Deficit) at End of Period.

I. CREDITS

2931. Surplus credits applicable to prior years.—This account shall include major items which are directly applicable to prior years' operations and which, if credited to the income, operating revenue, or operating expense accounts of the current year, would seriously distort those accounts. (See instruction 7.)

2932. Credit balance transferred from income accounts.—This account shall include the net credit balance brought forward from the income account for the current calendar year.

2933. Other credits to surplus.—This account shall include all credits affecting the carrier's surplus or deficit and not elsewhere provided for, such as:

(1) Cancellation of balance sheet accounts representing unclaimed wages or other liabilities written off because of inability to locate the creditor.
(2) Profit derived from the sale of investments or property not provided for elsewhere.
(3) Credits resulting from difference between the cost of debt obligations reacquired and the amount chargeable to account 1920—Reacquired Securities.
(4) Credits not provided for elsewhere.

II. DEBITS

2941. Surplus debits applicable to prior years.—This account shall include major items which are directly applicable to prior years' operations and which, if charged to the income, operating revenue, or operating expense accounts of the current year, would seriously distort those accounts. (See instruction 7.)

2942. Debit balance transferred from income account.—This account shall include the net debit balance brought forward from the income account for the current calendar year.

2943. Dividend appropriations.—A. This account shall include amounts declared as dividends on capital stock actually outstanding.

B. This account shall be subdivided to show separately the dividends on each class of stock. If a dividend is not payable in cash, the consideration shall be described in the entry with sufficient particularity to identify it.

NOTE.—Dividend charges shall be restricted to actually outstanding stock and this account shall not include charges for dividends on capital stock issued by the carrier and owned by it.

2944. Appropriations to reserves.—This account shall include appropriations from surplus for sinking fund and other reserves and allotments of surplus, or transfers of definite amounts from surplus into sinking fund and other reserves under the terms of mortgages, deeds of trust, or under contracts, and such other appropriations of surplus to be set aside in special reserve accounts as the accounting carrier may make.

2945. Other appropriations.—This account shall include appropriations of surplus not includible elsewhere.

2946. Other debits to surplus.—This account shall include all debits affecting the carrier's surplus or deficit not elsewhere provided for, such as:

(1) Losses resulting from the sale of investments or property, including any provision made for declines in values of investments, not provided for elsewhere. (See instruction 15.)
(2) Net debits resulting from the difference between the cost of capital stock reacquired and the amount chargeable to account 1920—Reacquired Securities. (See instructions 12 and 14.)
(3) Debits resulting from difference between the cost of debt obligations reacquired and the amount chargeable to account 1920—Reacquired Securities. (See instructions 13 and 14.)
(4) Adjustment and cancellation of balance sheet accounts representing assets other than uncollectible revenues and other receivables for services rendered and material and supplies furnished.
(5) Debits not provided for elsewhere.

OPERATING REVENUES

3000. Operating revenues.—This account shall include the total operating revenues as provided in the primary operating revenue accounts, derived by the carrier from its motor carrier operations during the period covered by the income account.

Operating Revenue Accounts

3200. Passenger Revenue.
3210. Special Bus Revenue.
3220. Baggage Revenue.
3300. Mail Revenue.
3400. Express Revenue.
3500. Newspaper Revenue.
3600. Miscellaneous Station Revenue.
3900. Other Operating Revenue.

3200. Passenger revenue.—A. This account shall include all revenue accrued from the transportation of passengers over regularly operated routes. This includes:

(1) Revenues upon the basis of local tariff fares.
(2) The carrier's proportion of revenue from joint-tariff fares.

B. This account shall be charged with:

(1) Redemptions of unused or partially used local passenger tickets.
(2) The carrier's proportion of redemption of unused and partially used through or interline passenger tickets.
(3) The carrier's proportion of overcharges resulting from the application, in error, of fares in excess of tariffs.
(4) The carrier's proportion of refunds of tickets issued in lieu of passes under regulations of the Commission and Section 217 (b) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935.

NOTE A.—The foregoing is based upon the practice of accounting on a "ticket sales basis" and not on a "ticket lift basis." Carriers using the "ticket lift basis" shall credit this account with the revenue earned from the transportation of passengers as determined by the "ticket lift" concurrently charging account 2080—Unredeemed Ticket.

NOTE B.—By "regularly operated routes" is meant routes or portions thereof over which uniform service is maintained at intervals of one week or less.

NOTE C.—Revenue from transportation of passengers on special busses at fares based on special rates shall be credited to account 3210—Special Bus Revenue.

NOTE D.—Payments to other carriers for transportation of passengers, their baggage and personal effects to complete any portion of the reporting carrier's haul, shall be charged to account 4250—Purchased Transportation, or account 4370—Purchased Collection and Delivery as appropriate.

NOTE E.—Divisions of tariff rates due other carriers shall be included in the appropriate accounts payable account.

NOTE F.—Revenue derived from sleeping accommodations furnished passengers shall be included in account 3900—Other Operating Revenue.

3210. Special bus revenue.—A. This account shall include the amounts earned by the carrier from busses chartered for special passenger and other special contract service.

B. This account shall be charged with the amounts of all special bus refunds.

3220. Baggage revenue.—A. This account shall include the revenues earned from the transportation of baggage in excess of free authorized allowances and for the transportation of packages, articles, dogs, etc., as baggage.

B. This account shall be charged with the amounts of all baggage refunds.

3300. Mail revenue.—A. This account shall include revenue earned from the transportation of United States and other mails, and from bonuses for special mail transportation.

B. This account shall be charged with fines and penalties imposed by the government in connection with the transportation of mail which are not collectible from agents or employees.

3400. Express revenue.—A. This account shall include the amounts earned by the carrier from the transportation of express matter (including milk and cream) at specified tariff rates and the fees for handling express C. O. D.'s.

B. This account shall be charged with:

(1) The carrier's proportion of overcharges resulting from use of erroneous rates, weights, classifications or computations.
(2) Uncollected earnings on express destroyed in transit and on short and lost express.

3500. Newspaper revenue.—A. This account shall include the revenue earned from the transportation of newspapers at specified tariff rates.

B. This account shall be charged with the amounts of all refunds on newspaper revenue billing resulting from overcharges, etc.

3600. Miscellaneous station revenue.—This account shall include the revenue earned by the carrier from:

(1) Weighing, vending and other automatic machines located at stations.
(2) Advertising cards at stations.
(3) Companies or others for the privilege of operating news stands, lunch counters, soda fountains, etc., at stations, and selling papers, periodicals, pillows or pillow service, tobaccos, etc., on busses.
(4) Telephone companies for the privilege of installing and operating commercial telephones and coinbox telephones at stations.
(5) Taxicab companies for the privilege of operating taxicab stands at stations.
(6) Operation of parcel rooms.
(7) Parcel room privileges in stations and terminals of the carrier and leased to others.
(8) Storage of baggage.
(9) Operation of restaurants, cafes, lunch rooms, lunch counters, cafeterias and soda fountains.
(10) Operation of all other miscellaneous station concessions, not provided for elsewhere.

3900. Other operating revenue.—This account shall include revenues not provided for in accounts 3200 to 3600, inclusive, derived from the operation of property, the investment in which is included in account 1200—Carrier Operating Property, including amounts received from sleeping accommodations on busses, snowplow work and revenue from display of advertising in and on revenue automotive equipment, and the excess of guaranteed route revenue over tariff revenues.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE EXPENSES

4000. Operation and maintenance expenses.—This account shall include the total of operation and maintenance expenses, as provided in the primary accounts, incurred by the carrier in its motor carrier operations during the period covered by the income account.

- 4696. Joint Operating Expense—Credit.

4100. Equipment maintenance and garage expense.—This account shall include the total of amounts included in accounts 4110 to 4196, inclusive.

4110. Supervision of shop and garage.—This account shall include the pay and expenses (including cost of operating automobiles) of officials and employees engaged in supervising and directing the repairs to revenue automotive equipment and shop and garage property used in providing motor carrier service, including superintendents, foremen, (except working foremen), inspectors, shop and garage clerks, and timekeepers. (See instruction 28.)

4121. Repairs to shop and garage equipment.—This account shall include the cost of repairs (see instructions 26 and 28) to tools, equipment and permanently located machinery used in shops and garages. (For list of equipment, see account 1241—Shop and Garage Equipment.)

NOTE A.—The cost of repairs to portable tools shall be included in account 4132—Other Shop and Garage Expenses.

NOTE B.—Amounts recovered from insurance companies or others and losses provided for in account 2660—Insurance Reserves, for damages to shop and garage equipment shall be credited to this account in such manner as to be readily identifiable.

4122. Operation and maintenance of service equipment.—This account shall include the cost of labor, fuel, tires and supplies for the operation and the cost of repairs to service equipment, such as trouble cars and wagons, wreckers, repair trucks, snowplows, sweepers, scrapers, refueling cars, automobiles, motorcycles, or other equipment included under account 1231—Service Cars and Equipment. (See instructions 26 and 28.)

NOTE A.—The pay of employees and expenses incurred in operating snowplows, sand and salt cars, and other service equipment used in cleaning and safeguarding roads, shall be charged to account 4261—Road Expense.

NOTE B.—Amounts recovered from insurance companies or others and losses provided for in account 2660—Insurance Reserves, for damage to service equipment shall be credited to this account in such manner as to be readily identifiable.

NOTE C.—When any service equipment is used in a particular operation other than maintenance, such as automobiles or motorcycles used in connection with advertising, the cost of operation of such service equipment shall be charged to the account provided for expenses of that character.

4128. Repairs to shop and garage buildings and grounds.—This account shall include the cost of repairs to shop and garage structures used in motor carrier operations such as shops, garages, and service stations, together with fixtures, grounds and approaches. (See instructions 26 and 28.)

Items

Changing location of partitions. (See also note A hereunder.)

Maintaining public improvements, including assessments covering such work.

Maintaining yards and grounds, including fences, shrubbery, driveways, sidewalks, platforms, and sewers.

Minor improvements to leased buildings and grounds. (See also instruction 22.)

Repainting buildings, including redecorating interiors of buildings.

Repairing building machinery, fixtures, appurtenances, and appliances, such as elevators, plumbing, and equipment for heating, lighting, and ventilating.

Repairing rented buildings and grounds.

Replacing and repairing awnings, screens, window shades and ventilators, storm doors, storm windows, movable partitions, and similar movable minor items of buildings. (See also note A hereunder.)

Replacing minor items of buildings including labor and material used and the cost of removal and recovery of the items retired less salvage recovered. (See also instruction 21 and note B hereunder.)

Restoring condition of buildings or grounds damaged or otherwise altered in the course of repairs, replacements, additions, or betterments. (See also account 2660—Insurance Reserves.)

NOTE A.—The cost of any substantial increase or decrease in partitions shall be charged or credited, as appropriate, to account 1211—Structures. When partitions of a movable type are replaced by partitions of a permanent type or vice versa, the costs involved shall be accounted for through the operating property and the depreciation reserve accounts.

NOTE B.—The cost of initial improvements (including repairs and rearrangements in the preparation for service of purchased buildings or grounds) shall be charged to account 1201—Land and Land Rights, or account 1211—Structures, as appropriate. The accounting for expenditures on property leased from others shall be as provided in instruction 22.

NOTE C.—Amounts recovered from insurance companies or others and losses provided for in account 2660—Insurance Reserves, for damages to buildings and grounds shall be credited to this account in such manner as to be readily identifiable.

4131. Light, heat, power and water for shops and garages.—This account shall include the cost of light, heat, power and water used at each shop and garage; the cost of fuel used for heating, lighting or power; also include pay and expenses of employees engaged in producing light, heat, and power. (See instruction 28.)

4546. Workmen's compensation—Self insurer.—This account shall be charged each period with amounts sufficient to meet the probable liability not covered by outside insurance, on account of claims for injuries to and deaths of employees arising under the Workmen's Compensation Acts. (See instruction 27.) This account shall also be charged with amounts payable in settlement of claims which are not recoverable from insurance companies or for which self insurance has not been provided.

NOTE.—Payments to or on behalf of employees other than those covered by Workmen's Compensation insurance, including accident and death benefits; salaries; hospital expenses; medical supplies; also salaries, fees, and expenses of surgeons, doctors, nurses, etc., when provided for through a plan for employees' benefits, shall be charged to account 4652—Employees' Welfare Expenses.

4550. Baggage and express insurance.—This account shall include premiums payable to outside insurance companies to indemnify the carrier against costs and expenses incurred through loss of and damage to express matter and baggage intrusted to the carrier for transportation or storage. (See instruction 27.)

NOTE.—Amounts payable in settlement of claims for loss of or damage to property intrusted to the carrier for transportation or storage which are not recoverable from insurance companies and for which the carrier has not provided self-insurance shall be included in account 4560—Baggage and Express Loss and Damage.

4560. Baggage and express loss and damage.—This account shall be charged each period with amounts sufficient to meet the probable liability, not covered by outside insurance, on account of loss, destruction, damage, or delay to express matter, baggage, parcels, etc., intrusted to the carrier for transportation or storage. (See instruction 27.) This account shall also be charged with amounts payable in settlement of claims which are not recoverable from insurance companies or for which self insurance has not been provided.

NOTE.—Any provision or amounts payable for injuries or damages to employees and others, or amounts payable on account of damages to the property of others not intrusted to the carrier for transportion or storage shall be included in account 4530—Injuries and Damages.

4570. Fire and theft insurance.—A. This account shall include premiums payable to outside insurance companies for fire and theft insurance on owned and leased vehicles and for fire insurance on structures, machinery, and equipment used in motor carrier operations. (See instruction 27.)

B. In case a carrier shall carry its own fire and theft insurance risks, it shall charge to this account each period an amount sufficient to meet the probable loss, and shall credit the amount so charged to account 2660—Insurance Reserves.

C. This account shall be charged with losses arising under the classes of risks enumerated in paragraph A above, which are not recoverable from insurance companies and for which the carrier has not provided self-insurance.

NOTE.—Recoveries from insurance companies or others for damages to the carrier's owned or leased property shall be accounted for as provided in paragraph B of account 2660—Insurance Reserves.

4580. Other insurance.—A. This account shall include premiums paid to outside insurance companies for boiler; burglar; fidelity; holdup; lightning; plate glass; owners, landlords and tenants liability; and other forms of insurance coverage not elsewhere provided for. (See instruction 27.)

B. In case a carrier shall carry its own insurance risks for the classes of coverage enumerated in paragraph A above, it shall charge to this account each period an amount sufficient to meet the probable loss and shall credit the amount so charged to account 2660—Insurance Reserves.

C. This account shall be charged with losses arising under the classes of risks enumerated in paragraph A above, which are not recoverable from insurance companies and for which the carrier has not provided self-insurance.

NOTE.—The cost of life insurance on the lives of officers and other employees of the carrier whereunder the carrier is the beneficiary shall be charged to account 7500—Other Deductions. Cash surrender values of such policies shall be carried in account 1650—Other Investments and Advances.

4600. Administrative and general expense.—This account shall include the total of amounts included in accounts 4611 to 4696, inclusive.

4611. Salaries and general officers.—This account shall include the salaries, bonuses and other forms of consideration for services of general officers whose jurisdiction extends over the entire transportation system of the carrier; and fees payable to receivers. As here used, the term "General Officers" would ordinarily include the following:

Chairman of the Board.
President.
Vice-President.
Treasurer.
Secretary.
Comptroller.
General Auditor.
General Manager.

NOTE A.—Do not include in this account amounts payable to organizations for services chargeable to account 4660—Management and Supervision Fees and Expenses.

NOTE B.—If officers and assistants supervise particular departments of carrier operations, or other operations, or are engaged in specific work other than supervision of the entire transportation system, their pay and expenses shall be apportioned to the appropriate accounts for carrier operations or other operations. (See instruction 28.)

4612. Expenses of general officers.—This account shall include expenses incurred, including cost of operating automobiles, for the benefit of motor carrier operations by administrative officers (as defined in account 4611) such as traveling, and other incidental expenses.

Items

4640. Communication service.—This account shall include the cost of all communication service payable to outside companies, such as telephone, teletypewriter, telegraph, radio, etc.

NOTE.—Taxes on telegrams and telephone tolls shall be charged to account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses.

4651. Outside auditing expenses.—This account shall include amounts paid as fees for auditing and accounting services rendered by individuals or firms other than carrier's employees.

NOTE.—The fees of independent auditors and accountants in preparing financial and other statements incident to the issuance of long-term debt or capital stock shall be charged to account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense, account 2400—Unamortized Premium on Debt, or account 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock, as appropriate.

4652. Employees' welfare expense.—A. This account shall include pensions or other benefits paid to active and retired employees, their representatives or beneficiaries, and salaries and expenses incurred in conducting relief, benefit and general medical departments. It shall include payments to or on behalf of employees on account of injuries or accidental death when such payments come within the scope of a carrier's general provision for employees' benefits.

B. If the carrier has definitely undertaken by contract to pay pensions to employees when regularly retired for superannuation or disability and has established a fund to be held in trust for such pension purposes, the carrier shall charge to this account periodic amounts determined through the application of equitable actuarial factors to the current payrolls, which, together with interest accruals on trust funds, will, as nearly as may be practicable, provide for the payment of such pensions, or for the purchase of annuities corresponding thereto. The amounts so charged shall be concurrently credited to a separate subdivision of account 2690—Other Reserves. The total of actual payments and accruals for future payments charged to this account for pensions, shall not exceed the amounts determined as hereinbefore prescribed. The carrier shall maintain a complete record of the actuarial computations through which the accrual each period of its pension liabilities is established.

C. Upon the adoption of the accrual plan of accounting, pension payments to employees retired before the adoption of such plan shall be charged to an existing pension reserve or to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus. If a carrier pays into its pension trust fund the amount of its existing pension reserve, any such amounts in excess of provision for pensions granted prior to the adoption of the accrual plan may be applied in whole or in part to the adjustment of future accrual charges.

D. Before adopting the accrual plan of accounting for pensions, the carrier shall inform the Commission of the details of its pension plan, giving full statement of the facts which in its judgment establish a contractual obligation for pension payments, together with the actuarial formula under which it proposes to create its pension trust fund, and also a copy of the declaration of trust under which the fund is to be established.

E. No charges shall be made to this account in anticipation of discretionary pension payments in the future.

4691. Joint operating expense—Debit.—This account shall include amounts payable to others representing the cost of operation and maintenance of joint facilities used for general purposes, such as a general office, or where amounts payable can not be segregated between the functional groups of expense accounts provided herein. (See instruction 29.)

4696. Joint operating expense—Credit.—This account shall include amounts received by the accounting carrier as reimbursement for operating and maintenance costs incurred by it in connection with a joint facility used for general purposes such as a general office, or when the amounts received can not be segregated between the functional groups of expense accounts provided herein. (See instruction 29.)

DEPRECIATION EXPENSE

5000. Depreciation expense.—A. This account shall include the amount of depreciation charges applicable to the accounting period for all classes of depreciable carrier operating property, including improvements to leased property, if any, as provided in instruction 25. The amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 2500—Reserve for Depreciation—Carrier Operating Property.

B. The following subdivisions of this account shall be maintained to reflect the amount of depreciation charges on each class of property and the necessary depreciation adjustment on carrier operating property at the time it is retired from service as provided in instruction 21 (see definition 33):

5011. Depreciation of Structures.
5021. Depreciation of Revenue Equipment.
5031. Depreciation of Service Cars and Equipment.
5041. Depreciation of Shop and Garage Equipment.
5051. Depreciation of Furniture and Office Equipment.
5061. Depreciation of Miscellaneous Equipment.
5071. Depreciation of Improvements to Leasehold Property.
5081. Depreciation of Undistributed Property.
5091. Depreciation Adjustment.

AMORTIZATION EXPENSE

5100. Amortization chargeable to operations.—This account shall include the total of the amounts included in accounts 5110 and 5120:

5110. Amortization of carrier operating property.—This account shall include the amount of the amortization charges applicable to the accounting period for amounts carried in account 1501—Organization, account 1511—Franchises, and account 1541—Patents, for fixed-term franchises, licenses, and patent rights; for fixed-term interest in land and land rights (account 1201), for losses incurred or expected to be incurred through the reversion of improvements on leased property to the lessor prior to the expiration of their service lives (account 1271), and for losses expected to be incurred through reversion of property to a state, municipality, or other governmental body, or otherwise, at no compensation to the carrier, before the expiration of the service lives of such property. Such charges shall be computed so as to distribute the book cost of each item evenly throughout its service life to the carrier. (See also account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property.)

5120. Property loss chargeable to operations.—This account shall be concurrently charged with amounts credited to account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, for the amortization of property abandoned or for extraordinary property losses carried in that account, when such amounts are authorized to be amortized from that account by charges to operations. This account shall also be charged with losses on abandoned property and extraordinary property losses from carrier operations which are charged off at the time of their occurrence.

NOTE.—The carrier shall not make any charges to this account except upon approval by the Commission.

TAXES AND LICENSES

5200. Operating taxes and licenses.—A. This account shall include the amount of Federal, state, county, municipal and other taxing-district taxes (except as provided for in account 8000—Provision for Income Taxes) which relate to carrier property, operation and privileges for the period covered by the income account.

B. When it is not possible to determine the actual taxes, suitable estimates shall be made and the proportion of the amount estimated, which is applicable to the accounting period, shall be charged to this account and concurrently credited to account 2120—Taxes Accrued, or account 1800—Prepayments, as appropriate. When the actual tax levies become known the amounts included in this account on an estimated basis shall be adjusted.

C. Taxes on property leased from others for use in motor carrier operations, when the lessee is obligated under the terms of the lease to pay such taxes in addition to stipulated rent, shall be included in this account.

D. The records shall be kept so as to show separately the amount of each class of tax included in this account, and the basis on which it is levied, as follows:

(1) Gasoline, Other Fuel and Oil Taxes.
(2) Public Utility Taxes and Licenses.
(3) Other Licenses.
(4) Corporation Taxes.
(5) Real Estate and Personal Property Taxes (or Gross Receipt Taxes).
(6) Social Security Taxes.
(7) Federal and State Capital Stock Taxes and Stock Transfer Taxes.
(8) Federal Excise Taxes.
(9) Other Taxes.

NOTE A.—Filing fees accompanying applications to regulatory bodies for certificates shall be charged to the appropriate subdivision of account 1500—Organization, Franchises and Permits. (See also account 4656.)

NOTE B.—Special assessments for street or other improvements and fees or charges, sometimes called taxes, such as water taxes, street sprinkling and sidewalk repairs, which are payments for some specific service rendered by the government, should be charged to the appropriate property investment or maintenance accounts. (See note B, account 1201—Land and Land Rights.)

NOTE C.—Taxes on non-operating property shall be charged to the account to which the revenue of such property is credited.

NOTE D.—Taxes on property leased to others shall be charged to the account to which the rent revenue is credited.

NOTE E.—Taxes assumed by the carrier on bond and note interest shall be changed to account 7200—Taxes Assumed on Interest.

NOTE F.—Taxes received on the sale of gasoline and oil shall be credited to this account.

NOTE G.—Taxes paid on original issues of capital stock shall be included in account 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock.

NOTE H.—Amounts received by the carrier in reimbursement of taxes on property operated as a joint facility (see definition 25) shall be credited to account 5390—Joint Facility Rents—Credit. Payments to other carriers for a portion of taxes on joint facilities shall be charged to account 5340—Joint Facility Rents—Debit.

NOTE I.—Sales taxes on material purchases, except gasoline, other motor fuel and motor oil, shall be included in the cost of material.

OPERATING RENTS

5300. Operating rents—Net.—This account shall include the net total of amounts included in accounts 5310 to 5390, inclusive. (See instruction 30.)

5310. Equipment rents—Debit.—This account shall include the amounts payable for use of automotive equipment on whatever basis such rent may be determined. All expenses incurred in connection with the operation of leased equipment which the lessee is obligated to assume in addition to the amount stipulated as rent, shall be included in the operation and maintenance or other accounts as appropriate.

NOTE.—Amounts payable for rental of equipment included in the lease of a distinct operating unit shall be charged to account 5400—Rent for Lease of Carrier Property—Debit.

5320. Other operating rents—Debit.—This account shall include all rental payments for the use of property employed in motor carrier operations not provided for elsewhere, such as:

(1) Rent for shop and garage space.
(2) Rents paid for use of property by the transportation department.

Items

Accident, sickness, death, and other disability benefits to employees, their representatives or beneficiaries.
Employees of relief, benefit, and general medical departments, pay and expenses of.
Expenses in connection with employees' disability cases, such as hospital, nursing, and medical attendance.
Fees and retainers for medical and similar services incurred by relief, benefit, and general medical departments.
Medical service.

Office supplies.
Postage, printing and stationery.
Premiums paid for group insurance for the benefit of employees or their beneficiaries.
Traveling expenses.

NOTE.—The cost of life or other insurance whereunder the carrier is the beneficiary shall be charged to account 7500—Other Deductions. Cash surrender values of such policies shall be carried in account 1650—Other Investments and Advances.

4655. Purchasing and store expenses.—A. This account shall include salaries and expenses of purchasing agents, and their assistants, whose jurisdiction extends over all purchases such as parts, gasoline and other fuel, stationery supplies, etc.

B. This account shall include credits for cash and other discounts when it is not practicable to apply such discounts directly to the cost of materials to which they relate.

C. This account shall include such differences from inventory adjustments which have not been otherwise apportioned in accordance with note B under account 1180—Material and Supplies.

NOTE A.—Suitable proportions of items included in this account may be allocated to the cost of materials and supplies. (See instruction 19.)

NOTE B.—See also instruction 16 with reference to clearing accounts which may be maintained.

4656. Other general expenses.—A. This account shall include all general expenses connected with motor carrier operations not provided for elsewhere including fees and expenses payable to directors and trustees; expenses in connection with publishing and mailing reports and notices to stockholders, etc.; cash overages and shortages and fees for filing annual reports and other documents not specifically related to certificates or applications for issuance of securities.

B. This account shall also include contributions for charitable, social or community welfare purposes which have a direct or intimate relation to the protection of the property of the carrier or the development of its business or the welfare of its employees. (See account 7500—Other Deductions.)

NOTE.—Direct contributions to employees' welfare associations shall be included in account 4652—Employees' Welfare Expenses.

4660. Management and supervision fees and expenses.—A. This account shall include fees and expenses payable to any corporation, firm or individual, other than officers and employees of the carrier, for continuously rendered supervision and management.

B. This account shall be subdivided to reflect:

(1) Management and Supervision Fees and Expenses of Associated Companies.
(2) Management and Supervision Fees and Expenses of Other Companies.

C. Records supporting this account shall be kept so as to show (1) the basis of the fees, i. e., the gross or net earnings of the carrier, if such is the basis, (2) the percentage applied in determining the fee, (3) the amount of the fee, and (4) the amount of the expenses.

4671. Franchise requirements—Debit.—A. This account shall include the total cost to the carrier in connection with payments to governmental authorities in compliance with franchises, ordinances or similar requirements, except taxes and license fees, provided, however, that the carrier may charge this account with the amounts based on regular tariff rates of intrastate transportation furnished without charge under provisions of franchises.

B. When no direct outlay is involved concurrent credit for such charges shall be to account 4672—Franchise Requirements—Credit.

4672. Franchise requirements—Credit.—This account shall include concurrent credits for charges which are made to account 4671—Franchise Requirements—Debit, to the extent that such charges do not represent direct outlays.

4673. Other regulatory commission expenses.—A. This account shall include expenses incurred by the carrier in connection with formal cases before Federal or State regulatory bodies or cases in which such a body is a party; also include payments made to a regulatory commission for fees or amounts assessed against the accounting carrier for pay and expenses of the regulatory commission, its officers, agents and employees, other than those incurred in securing certificates of convenience and necessity and authority for the issuance of securities.

B. Amounts includible in this account which by approval or direction of the Commission are to be spread over future periods shall be charged to account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, and amortized by charges to this account.

Items

Fees, retainers, and expenses of counsel, solicitors, attorneys, clerks, attendants, witnesses, and others whose services are secured for the defense or prosecution of petitions or complaints presented to regulatory bodies.
The pay of officers and employees specifically assigned to or engaged in the valuation of property owned or used by the carrier, in connection with such cases, and the cost of similar work performed by others.
Amounts assessed by Federal and State regulatory commissions for pay and expenses of their officers, agents, and employees; office and traveling expenses; stationery, printing and engineering supplies; and other expenses and supplies including expenses of officers and employees upon matters covered by this account even though no portion of their pay is assignable hereto.

NOTE A.—Expenses incurred for the improvement of service, for additional inspection, or rendering reports which are made necessary by the rules and regulations, or orders, of regulatory bodies, shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense accounts.

NOTE B.—Expenses incident to securing certificates of convenience and necessity shall be charged to the appropriate subdivision of account 1500—Organization, Franchises and Permits. Expenditures incident to securing authorization for issuance of long-term debt or capital stock shall be charged to account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense, account 2400—Unamortized Premium on Debt, or account 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock, as appropriate.

4680. Uncollectible revenues.—A. This account shall include charges for receivables for carrier operating revenues which, after a reasonably diligent effort to collect, have proved impracticable of collection. If accounts which have been so written off are afterwards collected, the amount received shall be credited to this account, provided, however, that such recoveries are from accounts charged off against this account.

B. Charges to this account may be made on the basis of the estimated average loss due to uncollectible accounts in which case the concurrent credit shall be to account 2650—Reserve for Uncollectible Accounts. To the reserve thus established shall be charged such amounts as are determined to be uncollectible; amounts written off and subsequently collected shall be credited to the reserve. When charges to such accounts are thus made by estimate, the estimate shall be adjusted at the end of each calendar year to conform to the experience of the accounting carrier as determined by analysis of its accounts receivable.

NOTE.—Losses on receivables for other than operating revenues, and losses on notes or claims, shall be included in account 7500—Other Deductions.

(3) Rents paid for use of terminals and stations.
(4) Rents paid for use of property by the traffic and solicitation department.
(5) Rents paid for use of the general office.

NOTE.—Rental payments for property not used in transportation operations shall be charged to the appropriate Other Income account.

5340. Joint facility rents—Debit.—This account shall include amounts payable to other carriers as their proportion of rent, including taxes and depreciation, for the use of property under a joint facility arrangement. (See definition 25 and instruction 29.)

5350. Equipment rents—Credit.—This account shall include amounts receivable for use of automotive equipment on whatever basis such rent may be determined.

NOTE.—Amounts receivable for rental of equipment included in the lease of a distinct operating unit shall be credited to account 5500—Income from Lease of Carrier Property—Credit.

5360. Rent from owned land and structures.—This account shall include the rent from land and structures, the cost of which is included in accounts 1200—Carrier Operating Property, and 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others, except joint facilities.

NOTE.—Rent from subleases of property rented from others shall be included in account 5370—Sublease Rental Income.

5370. Sublease rental income.—This account shall include rents receivable from subleases of carrier operating property rented from others.

5390. Joint facility rents—Credit.—This account shall include amounts receivable from other carriers as their proportion of rent, including taxes and depreciation, for the use of property under a joint facility arrangement. (See definition 25 and instruction 29.)

LEASE OF CARRIER PROPERTY

5400. Rent for lease of carrier property—Debit.—This account shall include amounts payable, for rent of property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24 and instruction 30) or system leased from others for use in motor carrier operations when the carrier has exclusive possession.

NOTE.—Taxes payable upon leased property, assumed by the lessee, shall be included in account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses.

5500. Income from lease of carrier property—Credit.—A. This account shall include amounts receivable for rent of property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24 and instruction 30) or system leased by the carrier to others for motor carrier operations where the lessee has exclusive possession.

B. This account shall include as a deduction from rent revenue, expenses such as repairs, depreciation, insurance, and taxes assumed by the lessor; uncollectible rents, etc., in connection with the property leased.

C. This account shall be divided to show separately for each lease the following:

(1) Rent Revenue.
(2) Expenses.
(3) Depreciation and Amortization.
(4) Taxes.
(5) Uncollectible Rents.

OTHER INCOME

6000. Net income from non-carrier operations.—A. This account shall include the revenues from and expenses incurred in the operation of property, the investment in which is carried in account 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property.

B. This account shall be subdivided to reflect:

(1) The total revenues derived from non-carrier operating property operations.
(2) The total expenses incurred in non-carrier operating property operations.

NOTE A.—The expenses referred to include every element of cost incurred in such operations including depreciation, rents, taxes and insurance.

NOTE B.—Each carrier may adopt its own classification of revenue and expenses for this account. The classification shall be such, however, as to permit ready analysis of the revenue and expense.

6100. Net income from non-operating property.—A. This account shall include all rent revenues from land, buildings, and other property not devoted to transportation operations, the book cost of which is included in account 1450—Non-Operating Property.

B. This account shall include as a deduction from rent revenue, expenses such as repairs, depreciation, amortization, taxes, uncollectible rents, insurance, etc., in connection with the property leased.

C. This account shall be subdivided to show separately for each lease the following:

(1) Rent revenue.
(2) Expenses.
(3) Depreciation and amortization.
(4) Taxes.
(5) Uncollectible rents.

6200. Interest income.—A. This account shall include interest accruing to the accounting carrier upon securities of other companies and Federal, state, or municipal governments, on loans, notes, and advances; special deposits and all other interest bearing assets, including simple interest charged to property during its construction.

Interest accrued shall not be credited to this account unless its payment is reasonably assured; in other cases, credits to this account shall be based upon the interest actually collected.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show separately the interest income from each investment and from each associated company.

NOTE A.—No interest upon reacquired securities issued or assumed by the accounting carrier shall be credited to this account.

NOTE B.—Interest accrued on securities of other companies held in sinking or other special funds shall be credited to account 6400—Income from Sinking and Other Funds.

6300. Dividend income.—A. This account shall include revenue derived by the accounting carrier from the dividends on stocks of other companies held by it. Accruals of guaranteed dividends may be included in this account if the payment is reasonably assured.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show separately the dividend income from each investment and from each associated company.

NOTE.—No dividends on reacquired securities issued by the carrier shall be credited to this account.

6400. Income from sinking and other funds.—This account shall include all revenues (whether interest or dividends) accrued on cash, securities (not issued or assumed by the accounting carrier) or other assets held in sinking fund and other special funds.

NOTE.—This account covers all income from investments of special funds, whether required to be retained in the fund or not. If such income is required to be retained in the fund and the fund required to be represented by a reserve, the amount of such accretions to the fund shall be concurrently credited to the appropriate reserve account and charged to account 2944—Appropriations to Reserves.

6500. Other non-operating income.—This account shall include all income accrued to the accounting carrier in accordance with the terms of any contract by which the carrier is entitled to participate in the profits from the operations of others and all other non-operating income not provided for in any of the foregoing accounts.

NOTE.—"Profits from the operations of others" does not include any dividends on stock. Revenues from dividends shall be credited to account 6300—Dividend Income, or to account 6400—Income from Sinking and Other Funds, as appropriate.

INCOME DEDUCTIONS

7000. Interest on long-term obligations.—A. This account shall include all interest accrued on unmatured outstanding long-term obligations issued or assumed by the accounting carrier; also interest accrued on debentures and on receivers' certificates which mature more than one year after date of issue. This account does not include interest on securities held by the accounting carrier in its treasury, in sinking or other special funds, or pledged as collateral.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show the interest expense (accrual) on each of the following classes or subdivisions of long-term obligations:

(1) Equipment Obligations.
(2) Advances.
(3) Bonds.
(4) Other Long-Term Obligations.

7100. Other interest deductions.—This account shall include interest on all short-term obligations of the accounting carrier, such as notes or loans for terms of less than one year, unpaid taxes, or other accounts payable, etc., and also interest on matured long-term obligations.

7200. Taxes assumed on interest.—This account shall include amounts paid to holders of the bonds or other indebtedness of the carrier in reimbursement of income and other taxes levied against income from such obligation or levied as a tax for ownership of the obligation, where the mortgage, indenture, or other instrument provides for payment of such taxes by the carrier.

7300. Amortization of debt discount and expense.—This account shall include for any period that proportion of the unamortized discount and expense on outstanding long-term debt which is applicable to the period. This proportion shall be determined according to a rule, the uniform application of which during the interval between the issue and maturity of any debt will completely amortize the discount at which such debt was issued and the debt expense connected therewith. Amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense. (See also instruction 13.)

7400. Amortization of premium on debt—Credit.—This account shall include the proportion of the premium at which outstanding long-term debt was issued which is applicable to each period. This proportion shall be determined according to a rule the uniform application of which during the interval between the issuance and the maturity of any debt will completely amortize the premium at which such debt was issued. Amounts credited to this account shall be concurrently charged to account 2400—Unamortized Premium on Debt. (See instruction 13.)

7500. Other deductions.—This account shall include all deductions from gross income not provided for in any of the foregoing accounts such as:

(1) Unsecured accruals on obligations arising under contracts whereby the accounting carrier has guaranteed the annual or more frequent periodic payment of money or performance of other obligation on the part of another corporation or person, and because of the default of such other corporation or person, the liability of the accounting carrier has become actual.

(2) Losses resulting from the operations of others, whenever, in accordance with the terms of any contract, the accounting carrier is bound to contribute toward reimbursement of such losses.

(3) Losses on receivables, notes or claims, which are not includible in account 4680—Uncollectible Revenues.

(4) Amortization charges of the book value of property included in account 1550—Other Intangible Property, and other items carried among its assets.

(5) Contributions for charitable, social or community welfare purposes which do not have a direct or intimate relation to the protection of the property, development of the business or welfare of employees. (See account 4656—Other General Expenses.)

(6) Penalties and fines for violations of law not provided for in account 4264—Other Transportation Expenses.

(7) Premiums for life insurance carried on the lives of officers and employees when the carrier is the beneficiary.

INCOME TAXES

8000. Provision for income taxes.—This account shall include charges for the year classifiable in accounts 8010 to 8060, inclusive.

8010. Federal income tax.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for Federal Income Tax, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8020. Federal excess profits tax.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for Federal Excess Profits Tax, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8030. Federal surtax on undistributed profits.—Charge this account on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for Federal Surtax on Undistributed Profits, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8040. Other Federal income taxes.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for other Federal Income Taxes, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8050. State income taxes.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for State Income Taxes, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8060. Other income taxes.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amounts accrued for all other income taxes, not provided for in the foregoing accounts, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR CLASS I COMMON AND CONTRACT MOTOR CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

ISSUE OF 1937—EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1938

Carroll Miller, Chairman; Balthasar H. Meyer, Clyde B. Aitchison, Joseph B. Eastman, Frank McManamy, Claude R. Porter, William E. Lee, Charles D. Mahaffie, Walter M. W. Splawn, Marion M. Caskie, John L. Rogers; W. P. Bartel, Secretary.

ORDER

At a General Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of November A. D. 1937.

The subject of a Uniform System of Accounts to be prescribed for Class I common or contract motor carriers of property, subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, being under consideration:

It is ordered, That the Uniform System of Accounts and the text pertaining thereto, hereafter known as Issue of 1937, a copy of which is now before the Commission, be, and is hereby approved; that a copy thereof duly authenticated by the Secretary of the Commission be filed in its archives, and a second copy thereof, in like manner authenticated, be filed in the office of the Bureau of Motor Carriers; and that each file of the said copies so authenticated and filed shall be deemed an original record thereof.

It is further ordered, That the said Uniform System of Accounts be, and is hereby, prescribed for the use of Class I common or contract motor carriers of property, subject to the provisions of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, in the keeping and recording of their accounts; that each and every such carrier and each and every receiver, trustee, executor, administrator or assignee of such motor carrier be required to keep all accounts in conformity therewith; and that a copy of said Issue of 1937, be sent to each and every such motor carrier and to each and every receiver, trustee, executor, administrator or assignee of such motor carrier.

It is further ordered, That for the purpose of applying the system of accounts for motor carriers subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, Class I carriers shall include each carrier having average gross revenues of $100,000 or over annually from its motor carrier operations; and that such average revenues shall be determined by the average of its annual gross revenues from motor carrier operations for the three years immediately preceding the effective date of this system of accounts.

It is further ordered, That the date on which the said Issue of 1937 of the Uniform System of Accounts shall become effective be, and is hereby, fixed on January 1, 1938.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of November, A. D. 1937.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL, Secretary.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR MOTOR CARRIERS

This uniform system of accounts for motor carriers is issued and prescribed under the following provisions of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935:

SEC. 204. (a) It shall be the duty of the Commission—

(1) To regulate common carriers by motor vehicle as provided in this part, and to that end the Commission may establish reasonable requirements with respect to continuous and adequate service, transportation of baggage and express, uniform systems of accounts, records, and reports, preservation of records, qualifications and maximum hours of service of employees, and safety of operation and equipment.

(2) To regulate contract carriers by motor vehicle as provided in this part, and to that end the Commission may establish reasonable requirements with respect to uniform systems of accounts, records, and reports, preservation of records, qualifications and maximum hours of service of employees, and safety of operation and equipment.

(4) To regulate brokers as provided in this part, and to that end the Commission may establish reasonable requirements with respect to licensing, financial responsibility, accounts, records, reports, operations, and practices of any such person or persons.

(c) The Commission may from time to time establish such just and reasonable classifications of brokers or of groups of carriers included in the term "common carrier by motor vehicle", or "contract carrier by motor vehicle", as the special nature of the services performed by such carriers or brokers shall require; and such just and reasonable rules, regulations, and requirements, consistent with the provisions of this part, to be observed by the carriers or brokers so classified or grouped, as the Commission deems necessary or desirable in the public interest.

SEC. 220. (a) The Commission is hereby authorized to require annual, periodical, or special reports from all motor carriers, to prescribe the manner and form in which such reports shall be made, and to require from such carriers specific answers to all questions upon which the Commission may deem information to be necessary. Such reports shall be under oath whenever the Commission so requires. The Commission may also require any motor carrier to file with it a true copy of each or any contract, agreement, or arrangement between such carrier and any other carrier or person in relation to any traffic affected by the provisions of this part, to which he or it may be a party.

SEC. 222. (g) Any motor carrier, or broker, or any officer, agent, employee, or representative thereof who shall willfully fail or refuse to make a report to the Commission as required by this part, or to keep accounts, records, and memoranda in the form and manner approved or prescribed by the Commission, or shall knowingly and willfully falsify, destroy, mutilate, or alter any such report, account, record, or memorandum, or shall knowingly and willfully file any false report, account, record, or memorandum, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be subject for each offense to a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $5,000.

DEFINITIONS

When used in this system of accounts:

1. "Accounts" means the accounts prescribed in this system of accounts.

2. "Actually issued", as applied to securities, means those which have been sold to bona fide purchasers for a valuable consideration (including those issued in exchange for other securities or other property) so that the purchasers secured them free from control by the issuing carrier, also securities issued as dividends on stock, and those which have been issued in accordance with contractual requirements direct to trustees of sinking and other funds.

3. "Actually outstanding", as applied to securities issued or assumed by the carrier, means those which have been actually issued and are neither retired nor held by or for the carrier; provided, however, that securities held by trustees shall be considered as actually outstanding.

4. "Additional" means structures, facilities, or equipment added to those in service and not taking the place of anything previously existing.

5. "Amortization" means the gradual extinguishment of an amount in an account by prorating such amount over either a fixed period dependent on the life of the asset or liability to which it applies, or over the period during which it is anticipated the benefit will be realized.

6. (a) "Associated companies" means companies or persons that directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by, or are under common control with the accounting carrier.

(b) "Control" (including the terms "controlling", "controlled by", and "under common control") as used herein, means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, firm or corporation, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise. If in any instance the existence of control is or may be open to reasonable doubt, the carrier shall report to the Commission all of the material facts pertinent to the possible existence of control.

7. "Betterment" means the enlargement or improvement of existing structures, facilities, and equipment.

8. "Book cost" means the amount at which property is recorded on the books of the carrier without deduction of related reserves.

9. "Carrier" or "motor carrier" includes both a common carrier by motor vehicle and a contract carrier by motor vehicle subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935.

10. "Carrier operating property" means the property which is used (see definition 40) by the carrier in the conduct of its motor carrier operations or leased to others for such operations, and which has an expectation of life in service of more than one year from date of installation. This includes land, structures, equipment, and facilities necessary for such operations and services incidental thereto.

11. "Company" means any individual, firm, copartnership, corporation, association, or joint-stock association; and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative thereof.

12. "Commission" or "the Commission" means the Interstate Commerce Commission.

13. "Contingent Assets" means a possible source of value to the carrier dependent upon the fulfillment of conditions regarded as uncertain.

14. "Contingent Liabilities" means items which may under certain conditions become obligations of the carrier but which are neither direct nor assumed liabilities at the date of the balance sheet.

15. "Cost" means the amount of money actually paid for property or services, or the cash value at the time of the transaction of any consideration other than money.

16. "Cost of removal" means the cost of demolishing, dismantling, tearing down, or otherwise removing operating property, including the cost of transportation and handling incident thereto.

17. "Current Assets" means cash as well as those assets that are readily convertible into cash or are held for current use in operations or construction; current claims against others, payment of which is reasonably assured; and other amounts accruing to the carrier which are subject to settlement within one year from the date of the balance sheet.

18. "Current Liabilities" means those obligations the amount of which is definitely determined or closely estimated which are either matured at the date of the balance sheet or become due within one year from date of issuance or assumption or upon demand, except bonds, equipment and other long-term obligations, receivers' or trustees' certificates, which shall be classed as long-term obligations (see definition 26) regardless of the period for which they are to run.

19. "Date of retirement", as applied to operating property, means the date at which such property is permanently withdrawn from service.

20. "Debt expense" means all expense in connection with the issuance and sale of evidences of long-term debt, such as fees for drafting mortgages and trust deeds; fees and taxes for issuing or recording evidences of debt; cost of engraving and printing bonds, certificates of indebtedness, and other evidences of debt; fees paid trustees; specific costs of obtaining governmental authority; fees for legal services; fees and commissions paid underwriters, brokers, and salesmen for marketing evidences of debt; fees and expenses of listing on exchanges; and other like costs.

21. "Delayed items" means items relating to transactions which occurred before the current calendar year. It includes adjustments of errors in the income, operating revenue, and operating expense accounts of prior years.

22. "Depreciation", as applied to depreciable operating property, means the loss in service value (see definition 37) not restored by current maintenance, incurred in connection with the consumption or prospective retirement of property in the course of service from causes against which the carrier is not protected by insurance, which are known to be in current operation. Among the causes to be given consideration are wear and tear, decay, action of the elements, obsolescence, changes in the art, inadequacy, changes in demand, and requirements of public authority.

NOTE A.—Unit Plan means the plan under which depreciation charges are computed and the records maintained so that the total amount of depreciation accrued applicable to each unit can be determined.

NOTE B.—Group Plan means the plan under which depreciation charges are accrued upon the basis of the sum total of the book cost balances at the close of each month (or four-week period) of all property included in each account or sub-division thereof, at rates determined from the average service life of the property included therein, and upon the retirement of any such property its full service value is charged to the depreciation reserve whether or not the particular item has attained the average service life.

23. "Discount", as applied to securities issued or assumed by the carrier, means the excess of the par or face value of the securities, plus interest or dividends accrued at the date of the sale over the cash value of the consideration received from the sale.

24. "Distinct Operating Unit" means all or any portion of a route or routes covered by a certificate of convenience and necessity or a permit and operated as a separate entity, including the physical property used in the operation thereof.

25. "Joint facility" means any property occupied or used jointly by the carrier and one or more other carriers under a definite arrangement whereby the costs are shared between the parties to the joint agreement. Portions of a structure or other property used exclusively by each of two or more carriers are not joint facilities.

26. "Long-term obligations" means obligations having a life of more than one year from date of creation or assumption, and all unmatured bonds and receivers' or trustees' certificates.

27. "Mileage method", as applied to depreciation of vehicles, means the plan under which the service value is charged to depreciation expenses and credited to depreciation reserves at a fixed rate per mile run.

28. "Minor items", as applied to carrier operating property (see definition 10), means the associated parts or elements of which units of property (see definition 39) are composed. (See instruction 21C.)

29. "Net book cost", when applied to property, means the book cost (see definition 8) less related depreciation and amortization reserves.

30. "Net salvage value" means the salvage value (see definition 35) of property retired after deducting the cost of removal.

31. "Nominally issued," as applied to securities issued or assumed by the carrier, means those which have been signed, certified, or otherwise executed and placed with the proper officer for sale and delivery, or pledged, or otherwise placed in some special fund of the carrier, but which have not been sold or issued direct to trustees of sinking funds in accordance with contractual requirements.

32. "Premium", as applied to securities issued or assumed by the carrier, means the excess of the cash value of the consideration received from their sale over the sum of their par (stated value of no-par stocks) or face value of the securities plus interest or dividends accrued at the date of sale.

33. "Property retired", as applied to operating property, means property which has been removed, sold, abandoned, destroyed, or which for any cause has been permanently withdrawn from service.

34. "Replacing" or "replacement", when not otherwise indicated in the context, means the acquisition, construction, or installation of property in place of property of like purpose retired, together with the removal of the property retired.

35. "Salvage value" means the amount received for property retired, less any expenses incurred in connection with the sale or in preparing the property for sale; or, if retained, the amount at which the material recovered is chargeable to account 1180—Material and Supplies, or other appropriate account.

36. "Service life" means the period between the date when carrier operating property (see definition 10) is placed in service and the date of its retirement. (See definition 33.)

37. "Service value" means the difference between the book cost (see definition 8) and the net salvage value (see definition 30) of carrier operating property.

38. "Straight-line method", as applied to depreciation accounting, means the plan under which the service value (see definition 37) of property is charged to depreciation expenses or other appropriate accounts and credited to the depreciation reserves through equal periodic charges as nearly as may be during its service life.

39. "Unit of Property", for the purpose of this system of accounts, means any item of property which on sale, abandonment, disposal or replacement is written out of the property accounts as provided for in instruction 21.

40. "Used", as applied to operating property, means actually and necessarily in current service or ready for and reasonably required to be currently held for future service.

1. Classification of carriers.—A. For the purpose of prescribing Uniform Systems of Accounts for common or contract motor carriers subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, carriers are grouped into the following three classes:

Class I. Carriers having average gross operating revenues (including interstate and intrastate) of $100,000 or over annually, from motor carrier operations.

Class II. Carriers having average gross operating revenues (including interstate and intrastate) of $25,000 or over, but under $100,000 annually, from motor carrier operations.

Class III. Carriers having average gross operating revenues (including interstate and intrastate) of less than $25,000 annually, from motor carrier operations.

B. Class I carriers shall keep all the accounts prescribed herein, where applicable. Separate systems of accounts will be prescribed for Class II and Class III carriers.

C. In order that frequent changes may be avoided, the class to which any carrier belongs may be determined by the average of its annual gross operating revenues for the three years immediately preceding the effective date of this system of accounts. If, at the end of any calendar year following, the average of its annual gross operating revenues for the three preceding years is greater than the maximum for the class in which the carrier has been grouped, it shall automatically be grouped in the higher class in which it falls because of such increased annual revenues. Any carrier engaged in new undertakings, the annual revenue from which is not known in advance, shall be classed in accordance with a reasonable estimate of its prospective revenues.

D. Any carrier may, at its option, place itself in any group higher than the one in which it falls on the basis of its average annual gross operating revenues. Notice of such action shall be promptly filed with the Commission.

2. Records.—A. All the accounts defined in this system of accounts must be kept by the double entry method. Each carrier shall keep its general accounting books and all other books, records and memoranda which support in any way the entries to such accounting books and analyses of general ledger account balances so that it can furnish at any time full information as to any account. Moreover, it shall support each entry to each account with such detailed information as will provide a ready analysis and verification of the facts recorded therein. All expenditures must be definitely supported by vouchers, pay rolls, receipted bills, cancelled checks, receipts for petty cash payments, or other evidences of the expenditures incurred.

B. The books referred to herein include not only books of account in a limited technical sense but all other records such as minute books, stock books, reports, correspondence, memoranda, etc., which will be useful in developing the history of or facts regarding any transaction.

C. Carriers shall not destroy any books, records, memoranda, etc., which support entries to its accounts unless the destruction thereof is specifically provided for in the Regulations to Govern the Preservation of Records of Motor Carriers and Brokers.

D. Subdivisions of any account in this system of accounts may be kept, provided that such subdivisions do not impair the integrity of the accounts prescribed. The Commission reserves the right to order any carrier to subdivide any account in this system of accounts. The title of each such subdivision shall clearly indicate the account of which it is a part. When an account is subdivided in the general ledger, an account need not be maintained for the total of the subdivisions. When such subdivisions are carried in subsidiary ledgers, however, the general ledger shall contain the controlling accounts therefor so that a complete general ledger trial balance may be obtained.

3. Accounting period.—Each carrier shall keep its books on a calendar year basis and for each month (or four-week period) all transactions applicable thereto, as nearly as can be ascertained (see instruction 8) shall be written up, posted to the general ledger and balanced. The final entries for any month (or four-week period) shall be made in the general ledger not later than 60 days after the last day of the accounting period for which the accounts are stated, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission, except that the period within which the final entries for the last period in the calendar year shall be made may be extended to such date in the following March as shall not interfere with the preparation and filing of annual reports as required by paragraph (a) of section 220 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935.

4. Submission of questions.—To maintain uniformity of accounting, carriers shall submit all questions of doubtful interpretation to the Commission for consideration and decision.

5. Item lists, interpretation of.—Lists of items appearing in the texts of the several accounts are given for the purpose of indicating the application of the prescribed accounting in specific cases. The lists are not to be considered as comprising all items includible in the several accounts, but merely as representative of them. On the other hand, the appearance of an item in a list warrants the inclusion of such item in the account concerned only when the text of the account also indicates inclusion, inasmuch as the same item frequently appears in more than one list. The proper entry in each instance must be determined by the texts of the accounts.

6. Opening entries.—As of the effective date of this system of accounts the accounts prescribed herein shall be opened by appropriately transferring thereto the balances carried in the accounts previously maintained by the carrier. The carrier is authorized to make such subdivisions, reclassifications, consolidations of or additions to such balances as are necessary to meet the requirements of this system of accounts.

7. Delayed items.—A. Delayed items (see definition 21) shall be charged or credited to the same accounts which should have been charged or credited if the items had been taken up or adjusted in the period to which they pertain. When the amount of a delayed item is relatively so large that its inclusion in the accounts for a single period would seriously distort those accounts, it may be distributed in equal amounts to the accounts for the current and remaining periods of the calendar year.

B. If the amount of any delayed item is relatively so large that its inclusion in the accounts for a single year would seriously distort those accounts, the amount shall be distributed to the appropriate surplus account.

8. Unaudited items.—A. When the amount of any item affecting these accounts can not be accurately determined in time for inclusion in the accounts of the calendar year in which the transaction occurs, the amount of the item shall be estimated and included in the proper accounts. When the item is audited the necessary adjustments shall be made through the accounts in which the estimate was recorded. If, during the interval between the date of inclusion of the item in the accounts and the date on which it is audited, a substantial difference from the initial estimate is determined, appropriate adjustments shall be made in the current accounts to cover such difference. The carrier is not required to anticipate small items which would not appreciably affect these accounts.

B. If, owing to exceptional conditions, a carrier finds a modification of the instructions in paragraph A necessary, it shall furnish a statement of its proposed plans to the Commission for approval before adoption.

9. Spreading of unusual income, revenue and expense items.—When the amount of any unusual item includible in an income, operating revenue, or operating expense account for a single period is relatively so large that its inclusion in the accounts for that period would seriously distort those accounts it may be included in account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, or account 2450—Other Deferred Credits, as appropriate, and distributed in equal amounts to the accounts for the current and remaining periods of the year. No such item shall be spread beyond the accounts of the current year without authority of the Commission.

10. Current assets.—A. In the group of accounts designated as Current Assets (accounts 1000 to 1190, inclusive) there shall not be included any item the amount or collectibility of which is not reasonably assured or for which provision has not been made in a reserve. Items of current character but of doubtful value may be carried in these accounts at a nominal value or included in account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, at book cost or nominal value, or written off, as may be appropriate.

B. Adjustments to accomplish the writing down of items of doubtful value not covered by reserves shall be made through account 4680—Uncollectible Revenues, account 7500—Other Deductions, account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, or other appropriate income or surplus account.

11. Discount or premium on securities of other companies. (See instruction 15.)

12. Discount, expense and premium on capital stock.—A. This system of accounts provides accounts for discounts, commissions and expenses on capital stock and another account for premium on capital stock. These accounts shall be subdivided for each class and series of capital stock issued by the carrier. Commission and expenses applicable to capital stock issues shall be included in the commission and expense account and shall not be deducted from premium on capital stock.

B. In stating the balance sheet, discount on capital stock shall not be netted against premiums.

C. General levies or assessments against stockholders of par or stated value shares shall be credited to the premium account for the particular class and series of capital stock so assessed.

D. Discounts and expenses on capital stock may be amortized by charges to account 2900—Unearned Surplus. However, in no event shall net debits exceed the accumulated net credits in unearned surplus. Any excess of debits may be retained in account 1900—Discount on Capital Stock or account 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock, as appropriate, until the stock is reacquired or retired, or the excess debits may be charged to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

E. Discount and expenses on capital stock reacquired or retired shall be accounted for in accordance with instruction 14.

13. Discount, expense and premium on long-term obligations.—A. A separate subdivision shall be maintained in account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense, for the excess of discount and debt expense over any premium related to each class of long-term debt issued or assumed by the carrier. (See definitions 20, 23 and 32.)

B. Corresponding subdivisions shall be maintained in account 2400—Unamortized Premium on Debt, for the excess of the premium over any discount and debt expense related to each class of long-term debt issued or assumed by the carrier.

C. Each period there shall be credited to each subdivision of account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense, the amount applicable to such period under a plan of amortization, the application of which will equitably distribute the balance therein over the life of the security. Amounts thus credited shall be concurrently charged to account 7300—Amortization of Debt Discount and Expense.

D. Correspondingly, each period there shall be charged to each subdivision of account 2400—Unamortized Premium on Debt, the portion of such credit balance which is applicable to that period. Amounts thus charged shall be concurrently credited to account 7400—Amortization of Premium on Debt—Credit.

E. Except as provided in paragraphs C and D of this instruction, the balances in each of these accounts or subdivisions thereof shall be carried until the reacquisition of the securities to which it relates. At that time (unless otherwise ordered by the Commission in the case of an exchange of securities) a portion of the balances in these accounts, or subdivision for the particular class of long-term debt reacquired, shall be transferred to account 2933—Other Credits to Surplus, or account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, as may be appropriate. Such portion shall be based on the relation of the amount of the particular issue of long-term debt reacquired to the total outstanding before the reacquisition. This provision shall also apply to securities held alive in sinking or other funds under instruction 14.

F. Except for such discount or expense as may be applicable to the construction period, no discount or expense on long-term debt shall be included in any account as a part of the cost of acquiring any property or as a part of the cost of operation.

14. Company securities owned.—A. Capital stock.—

1. Capital stock actually issued or assumed by the carrier which has been reacquired, shall be retired or carried in account 1920—Reacquired Securities, at the par or stated value, or the pro-rata proportion of the total of no-par stock without stated value at which it is carried in account 2700—Preferred Capital Stock, or account 2710—Common Capital Stock, unless it is required by provision of a mortgage or decision of a trustee not subject to the control of the accounting carrier that it be retained alive in sinking or other funds. The difference between the amount paid for the reacquired stock and the amount includible in account 1920, plus the premium and less the discount and expense entered in respect to the reacquired stock and not written off, shall be debited or credited as appropriate to account 2900—Unearned Surplus. In no event, however, shall net debits exceed the accumulated credits in Unearned Surplus. Any excess of debits resulting from reacquisition of capital stock over such accumulated credits in Unearned Surplus shall be charged to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

2. When reacquired capital stock is resold by the carrier, the amount included in account 1920—Reacquired Securities, shall be credited thereto and the accounting for premiums realized, discounts, commissions or expenses incurred, shall be the same as provided for in connection with original sales of capital stock.

B. Equipment and long-term obligations.—

1. Equipment and other long-term obligations reacquired by the carrier shall be entered in account 1920—Reacquired Securities, at face value. The difference between the face value and the amounts actually paid for the reacquired obligations shall be debited or credited as appropriate to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, or account 2933—Other Credits to Surplus. Likewise, any unamortized debt discount, expense or premium, applicable to the reacquired obligations, shall be adjusted through accounts 2946 or 2933, as appropriate.

2. When reacquired equipment and other long-term obligations are resold by the carrier, the amount included in account 1920—Reacquired Securities, shall be credited thereto and the accounting for any premiums realized, discounts, commissions or expenses incurred shall be the same as provided for in connection with original sales of such obligations.

15. Book cost of securities owned.—A. Securities of others acquired by the carrier shall be recorded in these accounts at cost at the time of acquisition. Cost does not include any amount paid for accrued interest or dividends.

B. The carrier may write down the book cost of any security in recognition of a decline in the value thereof. Securities shall be written off or written down to a nominal value if there be no reasonable prospect of substantial value. Fluctuations in market value shall not be recorded, but a permanent impairment in the value of the securities shall be recognized in the accounts. A reserve may be provided against such declines in value by charges to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

C. When securities with a fixed maturity date are purchased at a discount (that is when the total cost including brokerage fees, taxes, commissions, etc., is less than par), such discount may be amortized over the remaining life of the securities through periodic debits to the account in which the securities are carried (preferably coincident with entries recording interest accruals) and credits to the same account in which the interest revenue is credited. No debits shall be made in respect to discount upon securities held as investments or in special funds if there is reason to believe that such securities will be disposed of by redemption or otherwise at less than par or will not be paid at date of maturity.

D. When securities with a fixed maturity date are purchased at a premium (that is when the total cost including brokerage fees, taxes, commissions, etc., is in excess of par), such premiums may be amortized over the remaining life of the securities through periodic credits to the account in which the securities are carried (preferably coincident with entries recording interest accruals) and debits to the same account in which the interest revenue is recorded.

16. Clearing accounts, purpose of.—A. Clearing accounts, designed to facilitate the distribution of certain expenditures which may affect both construction and operations or which may affect transportation and other operations, may be kept when necessary in making the proper distribution of items to the appropriate accounts.

B. Balances in clearing accounts shall be fully cleared not later than the end of the calendar year unless items held therein unquestionably relate to future periods. Items carried over shall be included in account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, or account 2450—Other Deferred Credits.

17. Deduction of reserves.—In stating the balance sheet, reserves shall be shown separately and shall be deducted from the specific assets to which they apply. Reserves not applicable to specific assets shall be shown on the liability side. (See form of balance sheet following balance sheet accounts.)

18. Contingent assets and liabilities.—The balance sheet of a carrier shall clearly state by adequate notes contingent assets or liabilities not reflected in the balance sheet accounts, including any arrears in cumulative dividends, stating the amount per share of each class of stock and in total and the facts and amounts with respect to any default in principal, interest, or sinking fund provisions if not shown in the balance sheet accounts.

19. Operating property to be recorded at cost.—A. Amounts chargeable to the accounts numbered 1200 and 1300, designated as Carrier Operating Property accounts, shall be the actual cost to the carrier of the items properly includible therein, also including the excess cost of improvements over the estimated cost at current prices of property removed and replaced, and shall be exclusive of any cost for intangible items includible in any of the subdivisions of account 1500—Organization, Franchises and Permits, or account 1550—Other Intangible Property. (See, however, instruction 20.)

B. The book cost of the construction or acquisition of property chargeable to the carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 shall include the cost of direct labor, indirect labor, materials, transportation, contract work, rent of construction facilities, taxes and simple interest during construction; also such portion of engineering, supervision, law expenditures, injuries and damages, compensation and other insurance, as is applicable to the construction period; and other analogous elements applicable to the construction and acquisition of property.

C. Any unit of property, including additions to or betterments of existing property, having a cost not in excess of $50.00, or having a life of one year or less, may be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense, or clearing account and not to the property account, except that if small tools, portable equipment and similar items are consumed directly in construction work, the cost may be included as part of the cost of the constructed unit. This is not to be construed as authorizing the parceling of expenditures to bring them within this limit, or the inconsistent application of any rule or practice adopted by the carrier hereunder to the same item or class of property. If a carrier adopts a rule hereunder, changes in the rule shall be reported to the Commission.

D. When operating property is purchased under any plan involving deferred payments, no charges shall be made to operating property accounts for interest, insurance, or other expenditures occasioned by such form of payment.

E. When the consideration given for property is anything other than cash, the cash value of such consideration shall be used, except that where physical property is received in exchange for physical property, such property shall be recorded at the net book cost of the property given in exchange. In the journal entry recording such a transaction the actual consideration shall be described with sufficient particularity to identify it. The carrier shall be prepared to furnish to the Commission the particulars of its determination of the cash value of the consideration if other than cash.

20. Property purchased.—A. When any transportation system or portion thereof constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) is purchased, the constituent elements thereof that are chargeable to carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 and to any subdivision of account 1500—Organization, Franchises and Permits, may be recorded in these accounts at their book cost as reflected by the records of the vendor (see definition 8) with concurrent credits to the depreciation and amortization reserves for accrued depreciation and amortization to date of purchase. otherwise such purchases shall be recorded in the books of the accounting carrier at cost. If the costs of the various elements of property are not separable in the purchase agreement, estimated values shall be used in charging the accounts appropriate for the property. In no event shall the amounts charged to accounts 1200 and 1300 exceed the actual amount paid therefor, or the current cost new of similar property.

B. The journal entry allocating the property purchased to the operating property accounts and setting up the accrued depreciation and amortization thereon should also cover any additional assets acquired or liabilities assumed and any incidental expenses incurred in connection with the transaction. Full supporting details, showing the purchase price, the principal from whom it was acquired, the agents who represented such principal, the basis of determining the book cost of constituent elements in the property purchased and when recorded at book cost as reflected by the records of the vendor, the accrued depreciation and amortization thereon at date of purchase shall be stated in the journal entry recording the purchased property.

C. Any undistributed portion of the purchase cost not includible in specific accounts provided for assets acquired or liabilities assumed shall be charged to account 1550—Other Intangible Property.

D. In a transaction involving the acquisition of any transportation system or portion thereof constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) from another carrier, the purchaser shall obtain from the vendor all available records and other evidence (or certified copies thereof) relating to the acquisition, construction and improvement of the property acquired.

21. Operating property retired.—When carrier operating property (see definition 10) ceases to be used (see definition 40) it shall be retired. If not dismantled or otherwise disposed of, it shall be transferred to account 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, or account 1450—Non-Operating Property, as appropriate. (See instruction 23.)

A. Property under "Unit plan" of depreciation.—When a unit of property on which depreciation charges were accrued under the unit plan, (see definition 22) is retired from service, the book cost of such property shall be credited to the appropriate property account and concurrently charged. together with the cost of removal, to the depreciation reserve account. Any salvage or insurance recovered, including amounts provided for in any insurance or other reserve with respect to the retired property when such reserve covers the cause of retirement shall be credited to the depreciation reserve. Any difference remaining in the depreciation reserve after the above entries, shall be charged or credited as appropriate to account 5091—Depreciation Adjustment.

B. Property under "Group plan" of depreciation.—When a unit of property, on which depreciation charges were accrued under the group plan (see definition 22), is retired from service, the book cost thereof shall be credited to the appropriate property account and concurrently charged, together with the cost of removal, to the depreciation reserve account. Any salvage or insurance recovered, including amounts provided for in any insurance or other reserve with respect to the retired property, when such reserve covers the cause of retirement, shall be credited to the depreciation reserve account.

C. Minor items.—When the property retired constitutes a minor item (see definition 28), the book cost of which has been or will be accounted for by its inclusion in the unit of property of which it is a part when such unit of property is retired, no adjustment of the operating property account or depreciation reserve is required therefor. When a minor item is retired and replaced, with property of like purpose, the entire cost of replacement shall be charged to the account appropriate for the cost of repairs of the property retired, except that if the replacement effects a betterment (see definition 7), there shall be charged to the property account, the excess cost of the replacement over the estimated cost at current prices of the items retired (see instruction 19 C), provided that property bettered shall not be carried in excess of the current cost new of equivalent property.

D. Land.—When land is sold, the book cost shall be credited to the land account and any difference between the book cost and the sales price, less commissions and expenses, on the sale shall be adjusted through account 2933—Other Credits to Surplus, or account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, as appropriate. (See instruction 19 E.)

E. Determination of book cost.—The book cost of operating property retired shall be the amount at which such property is included in the operating property accounts including all items set forth in instruction 19. Such costs shall be determined from the carrier's records when this can be done, as in the case of land, structures, revenue automotive equipment, service equipment, furniture, and other items of operating property for which individual cost records are available. When the actual book cost cannot be determined from the records, it shall be estimated. When it is impracticable to determine the book cost of each item due to the relatively large number and/or small cost of such items, the average book costs of all the items, with due allowance for differences in size or character, shall be used as the book cost of the items retired. The latter method may be applied in retirement of such items as spare parts, tools, etc.

F. Intangibles.—The accounting for the retirement of items included in account 1511—Franchises, account 1541—Patents, and intangible elements with limited terms included in account 1201—Land and Land Rights, shall be as provided in the texts of account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property, and account 5110—Amortization of Carrier Operating Property.

G. Sale of property.—When operating property used in transportation operations is sold together with the transportation business associated therewith, the book cost of the property shall be credited to the appropriate operating property accounts and the amounts carried with respect thereto in the depreciation and amortization reserve accounts, estimated if necessary, shall be charged to such reserves. The difference, if any, between (1) the net amount of such debit and credit items, and (2) the consideration received for the property, shall be included in account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, or account 2933—Other Credits to Surplus, as appropriate.

H. Extraordinary losses.—If the cause of retirement of depreciable operating property is one for which provision has not been made in the depreciation reserve and the loss is not covered by insurance, the accounting for the necessary adjustment shall be made in accordance with instructions under account 1890—Other Deferred Debits.

22. Leased property, expenditures on.—A. Except as provided in paragraph B following, the cost of initial improvements, including rearrangements, additions and betterments, to property leased from others made in the course of preparing the property for motor carrier operations and the cost of any subsequent additions to and betterments of such leased property, not including replacements, shall be charged to the operating property account 1271—Improvements to Leasehold Property. Amortization and depreciation on such expenditures shall be provided for in the manner set forth in instruction 25.

B. When the cost of alterations to leased transportation property otherwise chargeable to account 1271—Improvements to Leasehold Property, is not in excess of $50.00 or the period of the lease is less than one year, the cost may be charged to the accounts chargeable with the cost of repairs to such property.

23. Transfer of property.—Property transferred between accounts 1200—Carrier Operating Property, 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others, and accounts 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, 1450—Non-Operating Property, shall be charged or credited, as appropriate, to the carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 at its book cost with the debits or credits to the appropriate accounts for the accrued depreciation and amortization to date of transfer.

24. Common property.—A. If the carrier is engaged in forms of enterprise other than motor carrier operations and any of its carrier operating property is used in common for two or more purposes to such an extent and in such manner that it is otherwise impracticable to segregate it in the accounts, an allocation of the book cost thereof shall be made and the portion so ascertained to be assignable to motor carrier operations shall be recorded in the carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300. The remainder shall be recorded in accounts 1400 or 1450 as appropriate. It is not contemplated that minor or temporary changes in conditions shall necessitate frequent reallocations of common property.

B. The carrier shall be prepared to show at any time and to report to the Commission when required, and by carrier operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 the following:

1. The book cost of common property,
2. The allocation of such cost to carrier operations and other purposes for which the jointly operated property is used, and
3. The basis of the allocation.

C. The expenses of operation, maintenance, depreciation and amortization of common property shall be recorded in the accounts prescribed herein and the allocation of such expenses to the carrier operations shall be supported in the same manner as the allocation of the cost of such property.

25. Depreciation accounting.—A. There shall be charged each month (or four-week period) to account 5000—Depreciation Expense, and credited to account 2500—Reserve for Depreciation—Carrier Operating Property, during the service life of depreciable property included in account 1200—Carrier Operating Property, amounts which will approximate the loss in service value not restored by current maintenance or covered by insurance, the effect of which can be forecast with a reasonable approach to accuracy. The straightline method of computing depreciation (see definition 38) shall be used and the current depreciation charge shall be obtained by applying the applicable portion of the annual percentage rate to the book cost balances, except that the mileage method (see definition 27) may be used on automotive equipment, in which event the rate per mile shall be applied to the number of miles traveled each period. In no event, however, shall the charges based on such mileage method be less during any calendar year than would result from the application of rates based on the straight-line method.

Carriers engaged in seasonal operations may apportion the estimated annual depreciation charge over the months in which operations are actually conducted.

B. Depreciation charges on property included in accounts:

1211. Structures.
1221. Revenue Equipment.
1231. Service Cars and Equipment.

shall be computed on the unit plan (see definition 22) under the straight-line method. Depreciation charges on any unit of property which is depreciated under the unit plan shall cease when the estimated service value shall have been credited to the depreciation reserve.

C. Depreciation charges on property included in accounts:

1241. Shop and Garage Equipment.
1251. Furniture and Office Equipment.
1261. Miscellaneous Equipment.

shall be computed under either the unit plan or the group plan. (See definition 22.) If the group plan is used the current depreciation charge shall be determined by applying the applicable portion of the annual percentage rate to the sum total of the book cost balances of the property included in each account, or subdivisions thereof, at the rates determined from weighted averages of service lives of the property included therein.

D. Depreciation charges upon property included in account 1271—Improvements to Leasehold Property, shall be made upon the same basis as for owned depreciable property. Such depreciation charges shall be charged to account 5071—Depreciation of Improvements to Leasehold Property. Any additional reserve required to meet losses expected to be incurred through reversion of such property to the lessor prior to the expiration of its service life shall be provided through charges to account 5110—Amortization of Carrier Operating Property, and credits to account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property.

E. Depreciation charges upon operating property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) leased from others under terms whereby the carrier has exclusive possession, shall be made on the same basis as for owned depreciable property. (See instruction 30.) Records shall be maintained similar to those for owned property showing the cost, service life and salvage value for each unit of depreciable operating property leased from others.

F. Depreciation charges on operating property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) leased to others for transportation operations, when the lessee has exclusive possession, shall be charged to account 5500—Income from Lease of Carrier Property—Credit, with concurrent credits to account 2500—Reserve for Depreciation—Carrier Operating Property.

G. Depreciation expense on non-carrier operating property and non-operating property shall be charged to the appropriate Other Income account and credited to account 2610—Reserve for Depreciation and Amortization—Other Property.

26. Repairs, cost of.—A. The cost of repairs chargeable to the various operation and maintenance expense accounts includes labor employed, materials used, and expenses incurred in all current maintenance (not including depreciation and amortization), such as:

(1) Inspecting, testing, and reporting on the condition of operating property specifically to determine the need for repairs, minor replacements, rearrangements, and changes.
(2) Testing for, locating, and clearing trouble.
(3) Routine work to prevent trouble, such as general overhauling, removing carbon, grinding valves, adjusting and relining brakes, adjusting shock absorbers, cleaning and adjusting engines, etc.
(4) Replacing minor items of operating property. (See also instruction 21 C.)
(5) Rearranging and changing the location of property not retired.
(6) Restoring the condition of property damaged by wear and tear, storms, breakage, floods, fire, accident, or other casualties. (See also paragraph B.)
(7) Training employees for repair work.
(8) Inspecting and testing after repairs have been made.

B. Materials recovered in connection with repairs to property shall be credited to the same account to which the repair cost was charged.

C. If employees engaged in transportation, station or terminal service are also required to make repairs, an equitable proportion of their pay and expenses shall be charged to the account appropriate for the cost of such repairs. (See instruction 28.)

D. If the book cost of any property is carried in account 1281—Undistributed Property, the repairs to such property shall be charged to the accounts provided for repairs to property of the same nature and use, the book cost of which is carried in other operating property accounts. Repairs to property leased from others shall be treated in like manner.

27. Insurance.—A. Provision has been made under Operation and Maintenance Expenses for recording amounts of premiums paid outside insurance companies in accounts as follows:

4520. Public Liability and Property Damage Insurance.
4541. Workmen's Compensation—Insurance.
4550. Cargo Insurance.
4570. Fire and Theft Insurance.
4580. Other Insurance.

Premiums paid in advance shall be charged to account 1800—Prepayments, and equitably distributed to the appropriate accounts over the period for which the premiums have been paid, except minor premiums which may be charged direct and premiums chargeable to construction.

B. Carriers authorized by the Commission to self-insure for automobile bodily injury liability, property damage liability or cargo liability shall record periodic charges to the appropriate expense accounts in amounts sufficient to cover estimated losses based on the carrier's experience.

C. The following accounts have been provided under Operation and Maintenance Expenses for the purpose of creating reserves for losses not covered by outside insurance and for losses incurred in excess of outside insurance coverage:

4530. Injuries and Damages.
4546. Workmen's Compensation—Self Insurer.
4560. Cargo Loss and Damage.
4570. Fire and Theft Insurance.
4580. Other Insurance.

Reserves created for self-insurance of injuries and damages, workmen's compensation and cargo loss and damage shall be included in account 2680—Injuries, Loss and Damage Reserves. Reserves created for self-insurance of all other risks shall be included in account 2660—Insurance Reserves.

Periodic charges to expense accounts for the purpose of creating reserves for self-insurance liability shall be determined currently by the carrier from its best source of information and the rates used may be based on percentage of revenue, mileage of trucks, amount of pay rolls or other equitable basis.

28. Distribution of pay and expenses of employees.—The charges to investments, operation and maintenance expenses, and other accounts for services and expenses of employees engaged in activities chargeable to various accounts, shall be based upon the actual time engaged in the respective classes of work, or in case that method is impracticable, upon the basis of a study of the time actually engaged during a representative period. The pay and expenses of an employee of one department who occasionally performs incidental services involving but small expense for another department may be included in the expense of the department in which the employee is regularly employed.

29. Joint expenses.—Where the carrier owns the joint facility, any amounts received as reimbursement of operation and maintenance costs shall be credited to the appropriate joint facilities—credit account under maintenance and garage expenses; station and terminal expenses; or administrative and general expenses. Any amounts received for depreciation, taxes and return on the joint facility, shall be credited to account 5390—Joint Facility Rents—Credit. Similarly, any amounts paid by the carrier under joint facility arrangements for operating and maintenance costs shall be charged to the appropriate joint facilities—debit account in the operation and maintenance expense group of accounts and any amounts paid for depreciation, taxes and return on the joint facility, shall be charged to account 5340—Joint Facility Rents—Debit.

30. Rent and lease of carrier property.—A. Provision is made in the several sub-divisions of account 5300—Operating Rents—Net, for rents receivable and payable for use of property other than that constituting a distinct operating unit or system. (See definition 24.)

B. Taxes payable by the lessee upon property rented or leased shall be included in account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses, by the lessee.

C. Other expenses payable by the lessee shall be included in the appropriate accounts on the books of the lessee.

D. Amounts payable for use of operating property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) leased from others under terms whereby the carrier has exclusive possession shall be apportioned between rent and depreciation. The portion covering rent shall be included in account 5400—Rent for Lease of Carrier Property—Debit, and the portion covering depreciation shall be included in account 5000—Depreciation Expense. (See instruction 25.)

E. The lessor shall credit the amount receivable for use of the property leased to account 5500—Income from Lease of Carrier Property—Credit. The lessor shall charge the estimated depreciation accrual to account 5500 and credit account 2500—Reserve for Repreciation—Carrier Operating Property.

F. If settlement for either rent or depreciation is not made currently the amounts thereof shall be accrued by both lessor and lessee in harmony with the instructions in paragraphs C and D. The amounts accrued receivable, and payable, should be included in appropriate accounts classified under accounts 1890—Other Deferred Debits, and 2450—Other Deferred Credits, by the lessor and lessee, respectively.

ASSET SIDE

I. CURRENT ASSETS

1000. Cash.—This account shall include the amount of current funds available for use on demand in the hands of financial officers and deposits in banks or trust companies; also cash in transit for which agents or drivers have received credit.

NOTE A.—This account shall be credited with the amount of checks or drafts transmitted to payees.

NOTE B.—Funds subject to withdrawal restrictions.—Funds subject to such restrictions and deposits in closed banks shall not be included in this account. Such funds definitely known to be available within one year shall be included in account 1190—Other Current Assets. Deposits in closed banks which are not available within one year shall be included in account 1890—Other Deferred Debits.

1020. Working funds.—This account shall include amounts advanced to officers, agents, employees, and others as petty cash or working funds from which certain expenditures are to be made and accounted for.

1040. Special deposits.—This account shall include the balance of the amounts included in accounts 1041, 1042, and 1043, for short-term deposits.

1041. Interest special deposits.—This account shall include moneys and bank credits specially deposited in the hands of fiscal agents or others for the payment of interest on behalf of the carrier. When interest is paid from such deposits, it shall be credited to this account and charged to the appropriate accrued or matured interest account. Payments to trustees or other agents of the holders of bonds or other securities of the interest accrued thereon which operate under the terms of the securities or of mortgages supporting such securities as a release of the paying company from further liability for such interest, shall be charged to the appropriate interest accrual account.

1042. Dividend special deposits.—This account shall include moneys and bank credits in the hands of fiscal agents or others for the payment of dividends on behalf of the carrier. When dividends are paid from such deposits, they shall be credited to this account and charged to the appropriate dividend account.

1043. Miscellaneous special deposits—This account shall include moneys and bank credits in the hands of fiscal agents or others for special purposes other than the payment of interest or dividends. This includes cash or securities deposited with Federal, state, or municipal authorities, public utilities, or others, as a guaranty for the fulfillment of obligations. Entries to this account shall specify the purpose for which the deposit is made. When such purposes are satisfied and the deposit is released, this account shall be credited with the amount deposited.

NOTE.—This account shall not include any assets available for general company purposes.

1060. Temporary cash investments.—A. This account shall include the book cost (see instruction 15) of investments such as time drafts receivable and time loans, bankers' acceptances, United States Treasury certificates, marketable securities, and other similar investments acquired for the purpose of temporarily investing cash. Any securities included in this account must be of such a nature as to be readily convertible into cash at substantially the book value.

B. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Temporary Cash Investments—Associated Companies.

(2) Temporary Cash Investments—Other.

NOTE A.—Amounts carried in this account as pledged shall be shown separately from amounts unpledged.

NOTE B.—There shall not be included in this account amounts properly includible in accounts 1600—Investments and Advances—Associated Companies, or 1650—Other Investments and Advances.

1080. Notes receivable.—A. This account shall include the book cost, not includible elsewhere, of all collectible obligations in the form of notes receivable, contracts receivable, and similar evidences (except interest coupons) of money receivable on demand or within a time not exceeding one year from date of issue.

NOTE A.—Notes receivable from associated companies shall be included in account 1100—Receivables from Associated Companies.

NOTE B.—The amount of notes receivable discounted, sold or transferred, unless transferred without recourse, shall be credited to account 2000—Notes Payable.

B. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Notes Receivable—Officers, Stockholders, and Employees.

(2) Notes Receivable—Other.

1100. Receivables from associated companies.—A. This account shall include the total of amounts receivable from associated companies (see definition 6 A) which are subject to current settlement (see definition 17), such as balances in open accounts for services rendered, material furnished, traffic or interline accounts, claims, rent for use of property and similar items; interest and dividends due from associated companies; and loans, notes and drafts for which associated companies are liable.

B. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Loans and Notes Receivable—Associated Companies.

(2) Interest and Dividends Receivable—Associated Companies.

(3) Accounts Receivable—Associated Companies.

NOTE A.—On the balance sheet, accounts receivable from associated companies shall be set off against accounts payable to the same companies.

NOTE B.—No amount representing dividends receivable shall be included in this account unless they have been declared or guaranteed.

NOTE C.—Items which are not subject to current settlement shall be included in account 1600—Investment and Advances—Associated Companies.

1120. Accounts receivable.—A. This account shall include amounts due from others (except associated companies) for material and supplies furnished and services rendered, including transportation and storage charges, use of property, other matured rents, amounts owing by public authorities, amounts of collectible judgments, current accounts with officers and employees, and other accounts and claims upon which responsibility is acknowledged by solvent concerns or individuals.

B. This account shall also include the balances due from other carriers (except associated companies), against each of which there is a net debit balance representing traffic or interline accounts; also the net balance in current accounts due from agents, drivers, and other employees and representatives charged with the collection or custody of current revenues.

C. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Accounts Receivable—Officers, Stockholders and Employees.

(2) Traffic or Interline Account Balances.

(3) Accounts Receivable—Others.

NOTE A.—Amounts advanced to officers, employees, or others as working funds, shall be included in account 1020—Working Funds.

NOTE B.—Accounts with other carriers representing traffic and interline accounts which contain net credit balances shall be included in account 2050—Accounts Payable.

1140. Subscribers to capital stock.—A. This account shall include the balance due from subscribers upon legally enforceable subscriptions to capital stock.

B. The amount of each subscription shall be charged to this account at the time the subscription is accepted. Concurrently there shall be credited to account 2730—Capital Stock Subscribed, the par or stated value of the stock subscribed or the agreed purchase price in the case of non-par stock without a stated value. Appropriate entries shall likewise be recorded with respect to any discount or premium on par value stocks or non-par value stocks with a stated value.

NOTE.—The records supporting the entries to this account shall be kept so that the corporation can furnish the name and address of each subscriber, the amount and kind of capital stock subscribed, the date of subscription, the date that each payment is due and the date that each is paid, the nature of each payment (whether cash or other consideration), and any other information that is necessary to make the history of the subscription complete.

1160. Interest and dividends receivable.—This account shall include the amount of current interest accrued to the date of the balance sheet on bonds, mortgages, notes, and other commercial paper owned; on loans made; open accounts; bank deposits, etc.; and the amount of dividends receivable on stocks owned. (See instruction 10.)

NOTE A.—Interest and dividends receivable from associated companies shall be included in account 1100—Receivables from Associated Companies.

NOTE B.—Interest which is not subject to current settlement shall be included in the account in which is carried the principal on which the interest is accrued.

NOTE C.—No amount representing dividends receivable shall be included in this account unless they have been declared or guaranteed.

NOTE D.—No interest or dividends on securities or obligations issued or assumed by the carrier shall be included in this account.

1180. Material and supplies.—A. This account shall include the cost (less cash or other discounts when they can be determined) of all unapplied materials and supplies, including tools, repair parts, fuel, tires and tubes, etc. The cost shall include all specifically assignable transportation charges incurred in obtaining the delivery of such materials and supplies upon the premises of the carrier including loading and unloading, and at the option of the carrier, it may include a suitable proportion of purchasing and store expenses in which case corresponding credits shall be made to the appropriate account. The cost shall also include sales taxes on material purchases other than gasoline, other motor fuels and motor oil.

B. When any materials or supplies, the cost of which has been charged to this account, are issued for use, the amount at which they stand charged herein shall be credited to this account and charged to the appropriate construction, operation and maintenance expense, or other account. Such amount may be based upon the average cost of all items of a given type included in this account at the beginning of the period.

C. Materials recovered in connection with construction, maintenance, or the retirement of property shall be charged to this account as follows:

(1) Reusable materials shall be included in this account at amounts not to exceed cost, estimated if not known.

(2) Scrap and non-usable materials shall be carried at the estimated salvage value. So far as practicable, the difference between the amounts realized from sale or disposal and the amounts at which the materials are carried in this account shall be adjusted in the depreciation reserves, repair accounts, or other accounts which were credited when the materials were charged to this account.

NOTE A.—Interest charged on material bills, the payment of which is delayed, shall be charged to account 7100—Other Interest Deductions.

NOTE B.—Inventories of materials and supplies shall be taken at intervals of one year or less, and the necessary adjustment shall be made to bring this account into harmony with the actual physical inventory. In effecting this adjustment, differences which may practicably be assigned to important classes of materials shall be equitably distributed among the accounts to which such classes of materials are ordinarily chargeable. Other differences shall be equitably apportioned among the operation and maintenance accounts to which materials have been charged since the last inventory. Such differences that cannot be allocated to the operation and maintenance accounts shall be included in account 4655—Purchasing and Store Expenses.

NOTE C.—Sales taxes on gasoline, other motor fuels and motor oil and personal property taxes assessed on material and supplies, shall be included in account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses.

1190. Other current assets.—This account shall include the amount of all assets of a current nature not includible in any of the foregoing current asset accounts. (See definition 17.)

II. TANGIBLE PROPERTY

1200. Carrier operating property.—A. This account shall include the total of the amounts representing the cost (see instruction 19) of carrier operating property, included in accounts 1201 to 1291, inclusive, owned and used by the carrier in its motor carrier operations, and which has an expected life in service of more than one year, including such property owned by the carrier but held by nominees.

B. When property normally having a service life of more than one year is installed for temporary use in motor carrier operations, it shall be accounted for in the same manner as property installed for permanent use.

C. Records shall be kept so as to reflect separately the cost and date of acquisition of property jointly owned and property operated under a joint agreement; also the cost and date of acquisition of each structure, unit of equipment, or other major item of property (or at the option of the carrier of each body, chassis or other major part). When a major part of a unit of property, such as a body or chassis of equipment or portion of a structure has been replaced by either a new or rebuilt one, details shall appear in the supporting records showing also the cost of the property removed, the cost of the replacement, and the date of removal or replacement. If property such as a structure or unit of equipment is constructed new, or rebuilt by the carrier to increase its capacity or otherwise add to its usefulness for motor carrier service, or if parts are purchased and assembled by the carrier, the cost records for construction and assembly shall be maintained in a sufficiently complete manner to show the cost of labor, materials and other expenses incurred in such work.

D. When a structure, unit of equipment, or other property is so rebuilt or remodeled as to create an expectation of service life fairly comparable with new property, the old property shall be retired. (See instruction 21.) Charges to this account for the rebuilt or remodeled property shall be based upon the appraised value of the reused parts, or the net book cost at time of retirement of the retired unit, whichever is lower, plus the cost of rebuilding or remodeling, provided, however, that in no event shall the total amount charged exceed the cost of similar new property.

E. The cost of removing old appliances and replacing them with new appliances shall be charged to the proper account under operation and maintenance expenses.

F. The cost of additions to and betterments of property leased from others shall be recorded in account 1271—Improvements to Leasehold Property. (See instruction 22.)

1201. Land and land rights.—A. This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19) including the amount of mortgages or other liens assumed, of land or interest in land, having a life of more than one year, for use directly in connection with the motor carrier operations of the carrier for such purposes as general office buildings, shops, garages, stations, terminals, waiting rooms, shelters, loading platforms, warehouses, and the like. This includes the first cost of acquiring leaseholds of land, easements, and rights-of-way, but not rents payable periodically in consideration of rights so obtained.

B. The cost of buildings and other improvements (other than public improvements) shall not be included in the land accounts. If at the time of acquisition of an interest in land such interest extends to buildings or other improvements (other than public improvements), which are then devoted to carrier operations, the land and improvements shall be separately appraised and the cost allocated to land and buildings or improvements on the basis of the appraisals. If the improvements are removed or wrecked without being used in carrier operations, the cost of removing or wrecking shall be charged and the salvage credited to the account in which the cost of the land is recorded.

C. Carriers shall keep their records so as to show separately the cost of each parcel of land or interest therein and the purpose or purposes for which used in motor carrier operations.

Items

Clearing land of brush, trees, and debris. (First cost of.)

Condemnation proceedings, including court costs and special counsel fees.

Consents and abutting damages, payment for.
Conveyancers' and notaries' fees.
Easements and rights-of-way, cost of, and expenses of acquisition.
Fees and commissions to brokers and agents.
Grading.
Land, cost of.
Leases having a life of more than one year, costs of and expenses incidental to acquiring.
Leases, voiding, to secure possession of land.
Relocating property of others.
Rights-of-way, including costs of locating.
Sidewalks on public streets abutting carrier's property.
Special assessments on the basis of benefits for new roads, new bridges, new pavements, new sewers, and other public improvements (but not any taxes levied to provide for maintenance of such improvements).
Surveys.
Taxes assumed, accrued prior to date of transfer of title.
Title, examining, registering, clearing, insuring and defending against claims relating to period prior to purchase.

NOTE A.—When land is acquired in excess of that required for motor carrier operations, or for which there is not a definite plan for its use in such service within one year, the cost of such land shall be charged to account 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, or to account 1450—Non-Operating Property, as appropriate. If land originally charged to either of these accounts is later used for motor carrier operations, it shall be charged to Carrier Operating Property in service at its cost when acquired. (See instruction 23.)

NOTE B.—Assessments for public improvements upon which payments are deferred shall be charged to this account in full and the unpaid balance carried in the appropriate liability account. Interest on unpaid balances shall be charged to the appropriate income deduction account.

1211. Structures.—A. This account shall include the cost in place (see instruction 19) of structures used in motor carrier operations. This includes buildings or constructions to house, support, or safeguard property or persons, with all appurtenant fixtures permanently attached thereto, and improvements to land, and other structures or constructions.

B. Carriers shall keep their records so as to show separately the cost of each structure included in this account and the purpose or purposes for which used in motor carrier operations.

NOTE A.—The cost of specially provided foundations not expected to outlast the machinery or apparatus for which they are provided, and the cost of angle irons, castings, etc., installed at the base of an item of equipment shall be charged to the same account as the cost of the machinery or equipment.

NOTE B.—When part of a structure is removed in order to build an extension thereto, the accounting therefor shall be in accordance with instruction 21.

1221. Revenue equipment.—A. This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19) of all units of revenue freight equipment, and the cost of the first set of accessory equipment necessary to fit them for service, excluding tires and tubes (see account 4160—Tires and Tubes—Revenue Equipment). The term "revenue freight equipment" includes body and chassis and all fixtures and appliances inside of or attached to the body or chassis.

B. If revenue freight equipment is purchased in a condition ready for service, the cost shall include the invoice or contract price, (excluding tires and tubes) less discount, if any, plus freight, excise taxes, insurance in transit, unloading costs and other expenses incurred in obtaining delivery of these vehicles upon the premises of the carrier such as drive-away charges, and the cost of any additions or attachments made after delivery.

C. This account may also include the cost of spare engines and other major units carried on hand for the purpose of temporarily replacing such units taken into the shop for overhauling, repairing, or any other reason.

1271. Improvements to leasehold property.—A. This account shall include, except as provided in paragraph B following, the cost of initial improvements (including rearrangements, additions, and betterments) to property used for motor carrier operations and held under lease or through control of the carrier owning the property, and in existence at the date of the balance sheet; and the cost of any subsequent additions to and betterments of such leased or controlled property but not including replacements of other than the carrier's own improvements. Amortization and depreciation on such expenditures shall be provided for in the manner set forth in instruction 25.

B. When the cost of alterations to leased property used in motor carrier operations otherwise chargeable to this account is not in excess of $50.00 or the period of the lease is less than one year, the cost may be charged to the accounts chargeable with the cost of repairs to such property.

1281. Undistributed property.—A. When a carrier purchases or sells any property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) or otherwise finds it necessary because of incomplete financial records to make a general readjustment of operating property records, temporary charges or credits to this account may be made with approval of the Commission, and the distribution of the amounts involved shall be made promptly to the appropriate accounts after authorization by the Commission.

B. Balances in accounts previously carried representing property owned as of the effective date of this system of accounts may be carried temporarily in this account. Journal entries distributing such balances to the appropriate property accounts prescribed herein shall be made and filed with the Commission not later than one year after the effective date of this system of accounts.

1291. Unfinished construction.—This account shall include the cost of construction projects not ready for service at the date of the balance sheet. It shall include all elements of cost as set forth in instruction 19.

NOTE.—This account is intended to include only charges for new construction not involving any replacement. If, however, at the beginning of a job involving the replacement or retirement of any operating property, the accounting carrier makes full credits therefor to the appropriate property accounts, the cost of installing new property in substitution or replacement may be carried in this account pending completion of the work. (See also account 1890—Other Deferred Debits.)

1300. Carrier operating property leased to others.—A. This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19) of carrier operating property owned by the carrier but leased to others as distinct operating units (see definition 24) or systems for use in motor carrier operations, where the lessee has exclusive possession.

B. This account shall be subdivided so as to reflect separately the investment in each class of property as provided for under account 1200—Carrier Operating Property.

1400. Non-carrier operating property.—This account shall include the book cost of land, structures and equipment owned by the carrier and used in other than motor carrier operations and not provided for in account 1200—Carrier Operating Property, and account 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others.

1450. Non-operating property.—This account shall include the book cost of land, structures and equipment owned by the carrier, but not used in any of its operating activities.

III. INTANGIBLE PROPERTY

1500. Organization, franchises and permits.—This account shall include the balance of the amounts included in accounts 1501 to 1541, inclusive.

1501. Organization.—This account shall include fees paid to state or other governmental authority for the privilege of incorporation, and expenditures incident to organizing the corporation, partnership, or other enterprise, and putting it into readiness to do business.

Items

Fees and expenses for incorporation.
Fees and expenses for mergers or consolidations.
Office expenses incident to organizing the company.
Stock and minute books and corporate seal.

NOTE A.—This account shall not include any discounts upon securities issued or assumed; nor shall it include any costs incident to negotiating loans, selling bonds or other evidences of debt, or expenses in connection with the authorization, issuance or sale of stock. (See instructions 12 and 13, and accounts 1900—Discount on Capital Stock, and 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock.)

NOTE B.—Exclude from this account, and include in account 4620—Law Expenses, the cost of preparing and filing papers in connection with the extension of the term of incorporation unless the first organization costs have been written off.

NOTE C.—When charges are made to this account for expenses incurred in mergers, consolidations, acquisitions or reorganizations, amounts previously included herein on the books of the retiring companies shall not be carried over. If such items represent part of the assets acquired, they shall be included in account 1500—Other Intangible Property. (See instruction 20.)

1511. Franchises.—A. This account shall include amounts actually paid to a state or political subdivision thereof or to other governmental authority in consideration of franchises, permits, consents, or certificates running in perpetuity or for a specified term of more than one year, together with the necessary reasonable expenses incident to procuring such franchises, consents, or certificates of approval of convenience and necessity.

B. When a franchise, permit, consent or certificate is acquired by assignment, the charge to this account shall not exceed the actual cost to the original holder thereof. Payments in excess of the cost to the original holder, together with any expenses incurred by the acquiring carrier shall be charged to account 1550—Other Intangible Property. (See instruction 20.)

C. When any franchises, permits, or consents have expired, and are not immediately renewed, are sold or otherwise disposed of, credits to this account shall be made representing the amounts at which such items (including expenses of acquisition) are carried herein, concurrent charges shall be made to account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property, or to surplus as appropriate. Expenses incurred in connection with renewals shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense account.

D. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately amounts pertaining to:

(1) Perpetual Franchises.
(2) Fixed-Term Franchises.

NOTE.—Regularly recurring payments made to any political subdivision for the right to operate within its boundaries shall be charged to account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses.

1541. Patents.—A. This account shall include the cost (see instruction 19) of patent rights, licenses, and privileges necessary or valuable to the economical conduct of motor carrier operations, and which have a life of more than one year from the date they become effective.

B. When any right or license included herein expires or is canceled and is not immediately renewed, is sold, or otherwise disposed of, credit to this account shall be made representing the amount at which such right or license is included herein. Concurrent charge shall be made to account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property, or to surplus as appropriate. Expenses incurred in connection with renewals shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense account.

1550. Other intangible property.—A. This account shall include any intangibles not provided for elsewhere, including any undistributed portion of the purchase cost of a transportation system or portion thereof, constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24) not includible in specific accounts provided for assets acquired or liabilities assumed. (See instruction 20.)

B. The carrier may amortize the balance carried in this account by credits hereto and concurrent charges to account 7500—Other Deductions, or the amount carried herein for any item may be written off to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

IV. INVESTMENT SECURITIES AND ADVANCES

1600. Investments and advances—associated companies.—A. This account shall include the book cost (see instruction 15) of the carrier's investments in securities issued or assumed by associated companies; notes of associated companies maturing later than one year from date of issue; and the amount of advances to associated companies not subject to current settlement, including accrued interest on such advances when not subject to current settlement. Exclude from this account securities held in special funds or as temporary cash investments. (See definitions 6 and 8, account 1060—Temporary Cash Investments, and instructions 15.)

B. This account shall be subdivided to reflect separately:

(1) Common Stocks.
(2) Preferred Stocks.
(3) Bonds.

(4) Notes.
(5) Other Investments.
(6) Advances.

NOTE A.—Balances in open accounts with associated companies which are subject to current settlement shall be included in account 1100—Receivables from Associated Companies.

NOTE B.—Securities pledged shall be shown separately from securities unpledged.

NOTE C.—Securities borrowed by the carrier and pledged shall not be included in this account. A memorandum record shall be kept.

1650. Other investments and advances.—A. This account shall include the book cost (see instruction 15) of the carrier's investments in securities issued or assumed by other than associated companies; notes of other companies and persons, maturing later than one year from date of issue; the cash surrender values of insurance policies carried on the lives of officers and employees when the carrier is beneficiary of such policies; advances to other companies and individuals not subject to current settlement, including any accrued interest on such advances when not subject to current settlement.

B. This account shall be subdivided to reflect separately:

(1) Common Stocks.
(2) Preferred Stocks.
(3) Bonds.
(4) Notes.
(5) Other Investments.
(6) Advances.

NOTE A.—Balances in open accounts with other companies and individuals which are subject to current settlement shall be included in account 1120—Accounts Receivable.

NOTE B.—Securities pledged shall be shown separately from securities unpledged.

NOTE C.—Securities borrowed by the carrier and pledged shall not be included in this account. A memorandum record shall be kept.

V. SPECIAL FUNDS

1701. Sinking Funds.—A. This account shall include the amount of cash or other items when held by trustees or other fiscal agents in charge of sinking funds, or by the carrier itself when they are segregated in a distinct fund, for the purpose of redeeming outstanding obligations. (See instruction 15.)

Items

Cash.

Securities of other companies or other assets, at cost except as otherwise provided herein.

Live securities, issued or assumed by the carrier, at face value. (For conditions under which such securities may be kept alive, see instruction 14.)

Amounts deposited with trustees or other fiscal agents on account of mortgaged property sold, when held for the redemption of securities.

Securities of the carrier issued to trustees without intervening sale, at face value.

B. A separate subdivision shall be kept for each fund, the title of which shall designate the obligation in support of which the fund was created.

1751. Depreciation funds.—This account shall include the amount of cash and the cost (see instruction 15) of securities of other companies and other assets which have been specifically set aside for the purpose of providing a fund for the replacement of units of depreciable property.

1781. Miscellaneous special funds.—This account shall include the amount of cash and the cost (see instruction 15) of securities of other companies and other assets in insurance, employees' pension, savings, relief, hospital, and other funds which have been raised and specifically set aside or invested for purposes not provided for elsewhere; and the face value of securities issued or assumed by the carrier which may be held alive in such funds under instruction 14. Also include in this account deposits in lieu of mortgaged property sold and other trust deposits, pending their refund when equivalent property is acquired or pending their transfer under mortgage provisions to account 1701—Sinking Funds. A separate subdivision shall be provided for each fund.

VI. DEFERRED DEBITS

1800. Prepayments.—This account shall include the balances representing payment of items in advance of their accrual, the benefit of which is to be realized subsequent to the time of such payment. Entries shall be made each period transferring from this account to the appropriate account the portion of each prepayment which is applicable to that period. The account shall be kept so that there can be determined readily the amounts applicable to the following:

(1) Taxes and Licenses.
(2) Insurance.
(3) Interest.
(4) Rents.
(5) Tires and tubes (see account 4160—Tires and Tubes—Revenue Equipment).
(6) Miscellaneous.

NOTE.—Prepayments of minor items applicable to the current year may be charged directly to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense or other accounts.

1880. Unamortized debt discount and expense.—This account shall include the total of the net debit balances representing the excess of the discount and expense over the premium in connection with the issuance of each class of the carrier's outstanding long-term or equipment obligations. Separate subdivisions shall be maintained in respect of each issue of such obligations. (See instruction 13.)

1890. Other deferred debits.—A. This account shall include all debit balances in suspense accounts that cannot be entirely cleared and disposed of until further information is received; also items of a deferred nature (except items chargeable to account 1800—Prepayments, on account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense) which are subsequently to be amortized to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense or other accounts. This includes amounts on deposit with banks which have failed, pending determination of loss; amounts paid for options pending final disposition which are not recoverable; expenditures for plans and investigations made for determining the feasibility of projects under contemplation, pending further disposition; and expenditures for valuations, inventories, and appraisals made in connection with the contemplated purchase or sale of property. (See instruction 19.) If projects in connection with which such preliminary costs were incurred are abandoned, the expense shall be charged to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

B. This account may also include losses in service value of property retired for causes for which provision has not been made in the depreciation reserve and losses from retirements which could not reasonably have been foreseen and provided for. (See instruction 21 and account 5120—Property Loss Chargeable to Operations.) The carrier shall make application to the Commission for permission to make such use of this account for the foregoing purpose, and in the application the carrier shall give full particulars concerning the property retired or abandoned, the reason for which it is retired or abandoned, the amounts provided in respect thereto in the depreciation and amortization reserves, the amount chargeable to this account, and the period over which, in its judgment, such amount should be distributed.

C. This account shall also include other debit items which are subject to amortization by order of the Commission.

D. This account shall also include the balances in clearing accounts maintained to carry temporarily the cost of operating and maintaining such facilities as office buildings, storehouses, etc.; and such overhead costs as it is desirable to apportion to the construction, operating, and other accounts involved. (See instruction 16.)

VII. MISCELLANEOUS DEBIT ITEMS

1900. Discount on capital stock.—This account shall include the discounts suffered in the sale of capital stock. (See instructions 12 and 14.)

1910. Commission and expense on capital stock.—This account shall include all expenses incurred in connection with the issuance and sale of capital stock. (See instructions 12 and 14.)

Items

Fees and expenses in obtaining permission from regulatory bodies for the issuance of stock and in filing papers of notification thereunder.

Fees paid to promoters.

Listing stock on exchanges.

Preparation and distribution of prospectuses.

Preparation and issuance of certificates of stock.

Soliciting subscriptions for stock, including fees, commissions, advertising and printing.

Taxes paid on stock issues.

1920. Reacquired securities.—This account shall include in subdivisions for each class, the face, par, or stated value of capital stock, bonds, and other forms of securities which have been actually issued or assumed by the carrier, and reacquired and are neither retired nor properly includible in sinking or other funds.

NOTE A.—The accounting for the reacquisition of securities and resales thereof shall be inaccordance with instruction 14.

NOTE B.—This account shall be maintained so as to reflect separately securities pledged and unpledged.

NOTE C.—In reports to the Commission the balance in this account shall be deducted from the securities accounts on the liability side, thereby extending into the money column the amounts to reflect the actually outstanding securities.

1990. Nominally issued securities.—A. This account shall include in subdivisions for each class, the face value of capital stock, bonds, and other forms of securities which have been nominally but not actually issued by the carrier. (See definitions 2 and 30.)

B. When stock without par value is nominally issued, a memorandum entry shall be made to this account showing the number of shares thus issued.

NOTE A.—This account shall be maintained so as to reflect separately securities pledged and unpledged.

NOTE B.—In reports to the Commission, the balance in this account shall be deducted from the securities accounts on the liability side, thereby extending into the money column the amounts to reflect the actually outstanding securities.

LIABILITY SIDE

VIII. CURRENT LIABILITIES

2000. Notes payable.—A. This account shall include the face value of outstanding obligations in the form of notes, drafts, acceptances, and other similar evidences of indebtedness which by their terms do not run for a period in excess of one year, including the face value of notes receivable discounted or sold without releasing the carrier from liability as endorser thereon.

B. Subdivisions shall be maintained to show separately obligations maturing upon demand from obligations bearing a specified date of maturity.

NOTE A.—Notes payable to associated companies shall be included in account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies.

NOTE B.—Unmatured equipment obligations irrespective of maturity shall be included in account 2300—Equipment Obligations.

2020. Matured equipment and long-term obligations.—This account shall include the amount (including obligations for premiums) of equipment obligations, long-term obligations and receivers' certificates matured and unpaid without any specific agreement for extension of maturity, including unpresented bonds called for redemption.

2030. Payables to associated companies.—A. This account shall include the total of amounts payable to associated companies (see definition 6) which are subject to current settlement (see definition 17), such as credit balances in open accounts for services rendered, material furnished, traffic or interline accounts, claims, rent for use of property and similar items; interest and dividends due to associated companies; and loans, notes and drafts which are payable to associated companies.

B. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Loans and Notes Payable—Associated Companies.

(2) Interest and Dividends Payable—Associated Companies.

(3) Accounts Payable—Associated Companies.

NOTE A.—On the balance sheet accounts payable to associated companies shall be set off against accounts receivable from the same companies.

NOTE B.—No amount representing dividends payable shall be included in this account unless they have been declared or guaranteed.

NOTE C.—Items which are not subject to current settlement shall be included in account 2200—Advances Payable—Associated Companies.

2050. Accounts payable.—A. This account shall include amounts payable to others (except associated companies) for materials and supplies and services received, including use of property, other matured rents, amounts due to public authorities, amounts of payable judgments, current accounts with officers and employees, personal injury and property damage claims, and other similar items.

B. This account shall also include the balances due to other carriers (except associated companies) in favor of each of which there is a net credit balance representing traffic or interline accounts.

C. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect separately:

(1) Accounts Payable—Officers, Stockholders and Employees.

(2) Traffic or Interline Account Balances.

(3) Accounts Payable—Others.

NOTE.—Accounts with other carriers representing traffic or interline accounts which contain net debit balances shall be included in account 1120—Accounts Receivable.

2070. Wages payable.—This account shall include the amount of wages payable or accrued pay rolls at the date of the balance sheet. Unclaimed wages should be transferred to account 2190—Other Current Liabilities.

2090. C. O. D.'s unremitted.—This account shall be credited with amounts of C. O. D.'s collected from consignees for shippers on freight delivered.

This account shall be charged when remittances of amounts of C. O. D.'s are made to shippers.

NOTE.—Fees for handling C. O. D.'s shall be credited to the same account to which the transportation revenue is credited.

2100. Dividends declared.—This account shall include the amount of dividends declared but not paid on any issue of capital stock of the carrier. Dividends shall be credited to this account as of the day upon which they became a liability of the carrier.

NOTE.—Dividends declared and payable to associated companies shall be included in account 2030—Payable to Associated Companies.

2120. Taxes accrued.—A. This account shall be credited each period with the amount of taxes accrued during the period, with concurrent debits to the appropriate accounts for tax charges. As credits to this account will necessarily be based upon estimates, they shall be adjusted from time to time during the year so that the tax charge accounts may show as nearly as possible the taxes applicable to the year. Payments of taxes for which accruals have been made shall be debited to this account. Amounts representing prepayment of taxes applicable to the period subsequent to the date of the balance sheet shall be included in account 1800—Prepayments.

B. The records supporting the entries to this account shall be kept so that the carrier can furnish information as to the amount and basis for each tax accrual, the kinds of taxes paid, the amount of each and the accounts charged with the tax accruals.

2150. Interest accrued.—A. This account shall include the amount of interest accrued to the date of the balance sheet, but not payable until after that date, on all indebtedness of the carrier except interest which is added to the principal.

B. When interest matures without being paid, it shall be charged to this account and credited to account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies, or account 2160—Matured Interest, as appropriate. Payments to trustees or other agents of the holders of bonds or other securities, of the interest accrued thereon, which operate under the terms of the securities (or of mortgages supporting such securities) as a release of the carrier from further liability for such interest, shall be accounted for in the same manner as payments of interest made directly to bondholders.

NOTE.—Interest accrued upon any judgment against the carrier shall be credited to the account to which such judgment stands credited.

2160. Matured interest.—This account shall include the amount of matured and unpaid interest on obligations of the accounting carrier whether the cause of the failure to pay the interest is on the part of the creditor or for other reasons, except where such interest is added to the principal of the obligation.

NOTE.—Interest payable to associated companies shall be included in account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies.

2190. Other current liabilities.—This account shall include all current and accrued liabilities not includible in any of the foregoing accounts. This includes unmatured rents accrued, and unclaimed wages.

IX. ADVANCES PAYABLE

2200. Advances payable—Associated companies.—A. This account shall include the amount of advances from associated companies, whether evidenced by notes or open accounts which are not subject to current settlement, including interest accrued thereon, when such interest is not subject to current settlement.

B. This account shall be subdivided so as to show for each creditor:

(1) Notes Payable.

(2) Open accounts not subject to current settlement.

(3) Interest accrued on amounts included in this account when not subject to current settlement.

NOTE.—Amounts of temporary advances which are subject to current settlement such as charges for materials and supplies currently furnished, charges for repairs to equipment, etc., shall be included in account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies.

2250. Other advances payable.—A. This account shall include the amount of advances from individuals and companies other than associated companies, whether evidenced by notes or open accounts, which are not subject to current settlement, including interest accrued thereon when such interest is not subject to current settlement.

B. This account shall be subdivided so as to show for each creditor:

(1) Notes Payable.

(2) Open accounts not subject to current settlement.

(3) Interest accrued on amounts included in this account when not subject to current settlement.

NOTE.—Amounts of temporary advances which are subject to current settlement such as charges for materials and supplies currently furnished, charges for repairs to equipment, etc., shall be included in account 2050—Accounts Payable.

X. EQUIPMENT AND OTHER LONG-TERM OBLIGATIONS

2300. Equipment obligations.—A. This account shall include the face value of unmatured equipment obligations, issued by the carrier and not retired and canceled. This includes equipment bonds, equipment notes, chattel mortgages, and other obligations for which equipment is pledged as security or is held under a conditional sales agreement; also the face value of equipment obligations issued by others, the payment of which has been assumed by the carrier; and of equipment obligations so issued or assumed, the maturity of which has been extended by specific agreement.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show the face value of equipment obligations (1) nominally issued, and (2) actually outstanding. (See definitions 3 and 31.)

C. A separate subdivision shall be maintained for each class of equipment obligation and no issues shall be considered to be of the same class unless identical as to liability and nature of property covered.

NOTE A.—Equipment obligations matured and unpaid without specific agreement for extension as to time of payment, including unpresented equipment obligations called for redemption shall be included in account 2020—Matured Equipment and Long-Term Obligations.

NOTE B.—On the balance sheet, obligations maturing within one year shall be shown separately from those maturing later than one year from the date of the balance sheet.

2330. Bonds.—A. This account shall include the face value of the unmatured bonds which have not been retired or canceled (except equipment bonds—see account 2300—Equipment Obligations); also the face value of such bonds issued by others, the payment of which has been assumed by the carrier.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show the face value of bonds (1) nominally issued, and (2) actually outstanding. (See definitions 3 and 31.)

C. A separate subdivision shall be maintained for each class and series of bonds, and no issue shall be considered to be of the same class unless identical as to liability and nature of property covered.

NOTE A.—Bonds matured and unpaid without specific agreement for extension as to time of payment, including unpresented bonds called for redemption, shall be included in account 2020—Matured Equipment and Long-Term Obligations.

NOTE B.—On the balance sheet, obligations maturing within one year shall be shown separately from those maturing later than one year from the date of the balance sheet.

2360. Other long-term obligations.—A. This account shall include all long-term obligations not otherwise provided for. This covers such items, executed or assumed, as real estate mortgages; assessments for public improvements; receipts outstanding for long-term obligations; and other obligations maturing more than one year from date of issue.

B. This account shall also include the face value of certificates of indebtedness issued upon the property by receivers in possession of the property acting under the orders of a court.

NOTE A.—Separate subdivisions shall be maintained for each class of obligation included herein, and records shall be maintained to show separately for each issue all details as to date of issue, date of maturity, interest dates and rates, security for obligations, etc.

NOTE B.—On the balance sheet, obligations maturing within one year shall be shown separately from those maturing later than one year from the date of the balance sheet.

NOTE C.—Matured obligations which are unpaid shall be included in account 2020—Matured Equipment and Long-Term Obligations.

XI. DEFERRED CREDITS

2400. Unamortized premium on debt.—This account shall include the total of all credit balances representing the excess of the premium over the discount and expense in connection with the issuance of each class of the carrier's outstanding long-term or equipment obligations. Separate subdivisions shall be maintained in respect of each issue of obligations. (See instruction 13.)

2450. Other deferred credits.—This account shall include the credit balances in suspense accounts that can not be entirely cleared and disposed of until additional information is received, and other items of a deferred nature. (See instruction 16.)

XII. RESERVES

2500. Reserve for depreciation—Carrier operating property.—A. This account shall be credited with the following:

(1) Amounts charged to account 5000—Depreciation Expense, account 5500—Income from Lease of Carrier's Property—Credit, or other accounts for currently accruing depreciation (see definition 22) of carrier operating property as provided in instruction 25.

(2) Amounts which the carrier may charge to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus, or transfer to this account for depreciation accrued but not provided for prior to the effective date of this system of accounts.

(3) The amount of depreciation accrued to date of transfer applicable to carrier operating property acquired as distinct operating units when the carrier elects to set up the book cost of such property as provided in instruction 20.

(4) The amount of depreciation accrued to date of transfer, applicable to property transferred from accounts 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, or 1450—Non-Operating Property, to accounts 1200—Carrier Operating Property, or 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others. (See instruction 23.)

B. Charges to this account in connection with carrier operating property retired shall be made in accordance with instruction 21. This account shall also be charged with the amount of depreciation accrued to date of transfer applicable to property transferred from accounts 1200—Carrier Operating Property, or 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others, to accounts 1400 or 1450.

C. This account shall be sub-divided to reflect the balance applicable to each class of property as follows:

2511. Structures.
2521. Revenue Equipment.
2531. Service Cars and Equipment.
2541. Shop and Garage Equipment.
2551. Furniture and Office Equipment.
2561. Miscellaneous Equipment.
2571. Improvements to Leasehold Property.
2581. Undistributed Property.
2591. Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others.

2600. Reserve for amortization—Carrier operating property.—A. This account shall be credited with amounts charged to account 5110—Amortization of Carrier Operating Property, or other appropriate account, for the amortization of leaseholds, franchises, consents, privileges, patents, and other intangible property having a fixed term life, and for losses expected to be incurred through the reversion of improvements on leased property prior to the expiration of their service lives. (See instruction 25.)

B. When any leasehold, franchise, permit, consent, privilege or patent expires, is sold or relinquished, or is otherwise retired from service, this account shall be charged with the amount previously credited hereto in respect of such property. The difference between the proceeds realized and the net book cost (see definition 29 and instruction 25) of the property retired shall be included in account 5110—Amortization of Carrier Operating Property.

C. Records shall be maintained so as to show separately the balances applicable to each item of intangible property which is being amortized.

D. This account shall be credited with such amounts as are necessary to reflect, as of the effective date of this system of accounts, the expired portion of the life of franchises, permits, consents, patent rights, leaseholds, easements, rights of way, other interest in land, or other intangible property which has a fixed term life, the cost of which is included in operating property accounts 1200 and 1300 and intangible property accounts 1500 and 1550. To the extent that provision has not previously been made the amounts credited to this reserve shall be concurrently debited to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus.

2610. Reserve for depreciation and amortization—Other property.—This account shall include amounts provided for depreciation and amortization of properties carried in accounts 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property, and 1450—Non-Operating Property.

2650. Reserve for uncollectible accounts.—This account shall be credited each period with amounts reserved for receivables which may become uncollectible.

NOTE A.—Charges applicable to receivables for carrier operating revenues shall be included in account 4680—Uncollectible Revenues.

NOTE B.—Charges applicable to other than carrier operating revenues shall be included in account 7500—Other Deductions.

NOTE C.—Charges for items not applicable to motor carrier operations shall be included in accounts 6000—Net Income from Non-Carrier Operations, or 6100—Net Income from Non-Operating Property, as appropriate.

2660. Insurance Reserves.—A. This account shall be credited with amounts charged to account 4570—Fire and Theft Insurance, account 4580—Other Insurance, or other appropriate accounts to provide a reserve for losses through collision, accident, fire, flood, or other hazards to the carrier's own property or to property leased from others, which are not covered by outside insurance. (See instruction 27.) A schedule of risks covered by this reserve shall be maintained, giving a description of the property involved, the character of the risks covered and the rates used.

B. The cost to the carrier of repairing damaged property owned or leased from others and of replacing damaged or destroyed property leased from others, shall first be charged to the account appropriate for the cost of repairs or replacement. When the risk is specifically provided for in the schedule applicable to this account, the cost of repairs or restoration of the property damaged shall be charged to this account and credited to the account previously charged. Such charges shall not exceed the amount of the risk provided for in the schedule. When carrier operating property is destroyed or so badly damaged as to require retirement, the amount provided therefor in the schedule of risks applicable to this account shall be charged hereto and credited to account 2500—Reserve for Depreciation—Carrier Operating Property.

2680. Injuries, loss and damage reserves.—A. This account shall be credited with amounts charged to accounts 4530—Injuries and Damages, 4546—Workmen's Compensation—Self Insurer, 4560—Cargo Loss and Damage, or other appropriate accounts to provide a reserve against claims for deaths of or injuries to employees and others; for damages to property not owned or held under lease by the carrier; and for loss, destruction, damage, or delays to property intrusted to the carrier for transportation or storage, which are not covered by outside insurance. (See instruction 27.) A schedule of risks covered by this reserve shall be maintained in sufficient detail to indicate the character of the risks covered and the rates used.

B. This account shall be charged with claims payable for injuries and damages when the risk is specifically provided for in the schedule applicable to this account.

C. When liability for any injury or damage is admitted by the carrier either voluntarily or because of the decision of a court or other lawful authority such as a workmen's compensation board, industrial commission, etc., the amount shall be charged to this account. The amount of such a liability shall be credited to account 2030—Payables to Associated Companies, account 2050—Accounts Payable, or account 2450—Other Deferred Credits, as appropriate, until paid or liquidated.

D. This account shall be subdivided to reflect:

(1) Reserve for Personal Injuries and Property Damage.
(2) Reserve for Cargo Loss and Damage.

NOTE.—The accounting for repairs and replacements of property owned, or leased from others, shall be as provided in paragraph B of account 2660—Insurance Reserves.

2690. Other reserves.—A. This account shall include amounts reserved by the carrier for purposes which are not provided for in any of the preceding reserves. There shall be reported hereunder such accounts as sinking fund reserves, contingency reserves and other reserves created by charges to income or surplus.

B. This account shall be maintained in such manner as to show the amount of each separate reserve and the nature and the amounts of the debits and credits thereto.

XIII. CAPITAL STOCK

2700. Preferred capital stock.—

2710. Common capital stock.—A. These accounts shall include the par value of stocks with par value; the stated value of non-par stocks having a stated value; and the cash value of the consideration received, including assessments, for non-par stocks without stated value, which have been nominally or actually issued.

B. Separate accounts shall be provided for each class of stock, and the title of each account shall clearly identify the class of stock covered. Issues of stock shall not be considered as of the same class unless identical in all provisions, nor shall there be carried any undivided item in respect of more than one class of stock.

C. When stock is issued for cash, that fact shall be stated; if for any consideration other than cash, the person to whom it is issued shall be designated and the consideration for which it is issued shall be described with sufficient particularity to identify it. If such issuance is to the treasurer or other agent of the corporation for purpose of sale, that fact and the name of such agent shall be shown; and such agent shall show like details concerning the consideration realized therefor in his account of the disposition thereof, which when accepted by the corporation, shall be preserved as a corporate record.

D. When capital stock is retired and canceled, these accounts shall be charged with the amount at which such stock is carried in these accounts.

NOTE A.—For each class of stock the records shall show the number of shares nominally issued, actually outstanding, and nominally outstanding (see definitions 3 and 31). When non-par stock (without stated value) is nominally issued a memorandum entry shall be made showing only the number of shares so issued.

NOTE B.—When non-par stock is issued in exchange for par stock, or non-par stock with stated value, amounts included in account 2720—Premiums and Assessments on Capital Stock, for the retired stock, shall be treated as part of the consideration received for non-par stock.

NOTE C.—No entries recording changes in the par value of stocks with par value; the stated value of non-par stocks having a stated value; or the recorded value of non-par stocks without stated value shall be made in any account for capital stock without approval of the Commission.

2720. Premiums and assessments on capital stock.—A. This account shall include the excess of the actual cash value (at the time of sale of the stock) of the consideration received over the par or stated value of the stock issued, plus accrued dividends, if any; and subsequent assessments against stockholders representing payments required in excess of par or stated value.

B. A separate subdivision shall be maintained for premiums on each class and series of stock.

C. When capital stock is retired and canceled, the amount in this account with respect to the shares retired and canceled shall be debited hereto in accordance with instruction 14.

2730. Capital stock subscribed.—This account shall include the amount of legally enforceable subscriptions to capital stock of the carrier. It shall be credited with the par or stated value, or with the subscription price in the case of stock without par or stated value, exclusive of accrued dividends, if any. Concurrently a debit shall be made to account 1140—Subscribers to Capital Stock, for the agreed purchase price and any discount or premium debited or credited to the appropriate discount or premium account. When properly executed stock certificates have been issued representing the stocks subscribed, this account shall be debited and the appropriate capital stock account credited with the par or stated value (or the consideration received in the case of non-par stock without a stated value) of the stock.

XIV. NON-CORPORATE CAPITAL

2800. Sole proprietorship capital.—This account shall include the investment in an unincorporated carrier by the proprietor thereof and shall be charged with all withdrawals from the business by its proprietor. At the end of each calendar year the net income for the year as developed in the income account shall be transferred to this account. There shall also be entered in this account such items as in corporate organizations are handled through earned surplus accounts 2930 to 2946. (See optional accounting procedure provided in note B, hereunder.)

NOTE A.—Amounts payable to the proprietor as fair and reasonable compensation for services performed, shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense or other accounts.

NOTE B.—This account may be restricted to the amount considered by the proprietor to be the permanent investment in the business, subject to change only by additional investment by the proprietor or the withdrawals of portions thereof not representing net income. When this option is taken the surplus accounts shall be maintained and entries thereto shall be made in accordance with the texts thereof.

2810. Partnership capital.—This account shall be credited, where the business is conducted by an unincorporated firm, co-partnership or under any style other than that of an incorporated company or sole proprietorship, with the respective amounts paid into the business by the partners therein, and shall be charged with all withdrawals from the business by each partner. At the end of each calendar year the net income for the year as developed in the income account shall be transferred to this account. There shall also be entered in this account such items as in corporate organizations are handled through earned surplus accounts 2930 to 2946. (See optional accounting procedure provided in note C hereunder.)

NOTE A.—Amounts payable to the partners as fair and reasonable compensation for services performed, shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense or other accounts.

NOTE B.—Separate accounts shall be kept to show the net equity of each member of the co-partnership and the transactions affecting the interest of each such partner. The total of the balances in such accounts shall be shown as one amount in the balance sheet.

NOTE C.—This account may be restricted to the amount considered by the members of the co-partnership to be their permanent investment in the business, subject to change only by additional investments by the co-partners or the withdrawals of portions thereof not representing net income. When this option is taken the surplus accounts shall be maintained and entries thereto shall be made in accordance with the texts thereof.

XV. UNAPPROPRIATED SURPLUS

2900. Unearned surplus.—A. This account shall include all surplus not classified herein as earned surplus. It shall include such items as surplus arising from the donations by stockholders of the carrier's capital stock; surplus recorded at reorganization or in connection with recapitalization; net credits resulting from reacquisition or resales of carrier's capital stock (see instruction 14); amortization of discount and expense on capital stock (see instruction 12); and from a reduction of the par or stated value of the carrier's capital stock were allowed by statute.

B. No entry shall be made in this account to create capital surplus arising out of the revaluation of carrier operating property except upon written order of the Commission.

C. This account shall be subdivided into accounts to show each source of unearned surplus.

2930. Earned surplus.—A. This account shall include the balance of the amounts included in accounts 2931 to 2946, inclusive, either debit or credit, of unappropriated surplus arising from earnings. It shall not include surplus properly includible under accounts 2800—Sole Proprietorship Capital, 2810—Partnership Capital, or 2900—Unearned Surplus.

B. The balances of all earned surplus accounts (2931 to 2946, inclusive) shall be closed to this account at the end of each calendar year.

Earned Surplus Accounts

I. Credits

2930. Earned Surplus (or Deficit) at Beginning of Period.
2931. Surplus Credits Applicable to Prior Years.
2932. Credit Balance Transferred from Income Account.
2933. Other Credits to Surplus.
Total Credits.

II. Debits

2941. Surplus Debits Applicable to Prior Years.
2942. Debit Balance Transferred from Income Account.
2943. Dividend Appropriations.
2944. Appropriations to Reserves.
2945. Other Appropriations.
2946. Other Debits to Surplus.
Total Debits.
2930. Earned Surplus (or Deficit) at End of Period.

I. CREDITS

2931. Surplus credits applicable to prior years.—This account shall include major items which are directly applicable to prior years' operations and which, if credited to the income, operating revenue, or operating expense accounts of the current year would seriously distort those accounts. (See instruction 7.)

2932. Credit balance transferred from income account.—This account shall include the net credit balance brought forward from the income account for the current calendar year.

2933. Other credits to surplus.—This account shall include all credits affecting the carrier's surplus or deficit and not elsewhere provided for, such as:

(1) Cancellation of balance sheet accounts representing unclaimed wages or other liabilities written off because of inability to locate the creditor.

(2) Profit derived from the sale of investments or property, not provided for elsewhere.

(3) Credits resulting from difference between the cost of debt obligations reacquired and the amount chargeable to account 1920—Reacquired Securities.

(4) Credits not provided for elsewhere.

II. DEBITS

2941. Surplus debits applicable to prior years.—This account shall include major items which are directly applicable to prior years' operations, and which, if charged to the income, operating revenue, or operating expense accounts of the current year, would seriously distort those accounts. (See instruction 7.)

2942. Debit balance transferred from income account.—This account shall include the net debit balance brought forward from the income account for the current calendar year.

2943. Dividend appropriations.—A. This account shall include amounts declared as dividends on capital stock actually outstanding.

B. This account shall be subdivided to show separately the dividends on each class of stock. If a dividend is not payable in cash, the consideration shall be described in the entry with sufficient particularity to identify it.

NOTE.—Dividend charges shall be restricted to actually outstanding stock and this account shall not include charges for dividends on capital stock issued by the carrier and owned by it.

2945. Other appropriations.—This account shall include appropriations of surplus not includible elsewhere.

2946. Other debits to surplus.—This account shall include all debits affecting the carrier's surplus or deficit not elsewhere provided for, such as:

(1) Losses resulting from the sale of investments or property, including any provision made for declines in values of investments, not provided for elsewhere. (See instruction 15.)

(2) Net debits resulting from the difference between the cost of capital stock reacquired and the amount chargeable to account 1920—Reacquired Securities. (See instructions 12 and 14.)

(3) Debits resulting from difference between the cost of debt obligations reacquired and the amount chargeable to account 1920—Reacquired Securities. (See instructions 13 and 14.)

(4) Adjustment and cancellation of balance sheet accounts representing assets other than uncollectible revenues and other receivables for services rendered and materials and supplies furnished.

(5) Debits not provided for elsewhere.

OPERATING REVENUES

3000. Operating revenues.—This account shall include the total operating revenues, as provided in the primary operating revenue accounts, derived by the carrier from its motor carrier operations during the period covered by the income account.

Operating Revenue Accounts

3100. Freight Revenue—Common Carrier.
3110. Freight Revenue—Contract Carrier.
3700. Miscellaneous Terminal Revenue.
3900. Other Operating Revenue.

3100. Freight revenue—Common carrier.—A. This account shall include revenue earned by the carrier from the transportation of freight, when operating as a common carrier as defined in Section 203 (a) (14) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935. This includes:

(1) Revenues upon the basis of local freight tariff rates.

(2) Carrier's proportion of revenue from joint-tariff rates.

(3) Fees for handling C. O. D.'s.

B. This account shall be charged with:

(1) The carrier's proportion of overcharges resulting from use of erroneous rates, weights, classifications or computations.

(2) Uncollected earnings on freight destroyed in transit and on short and lost freight.

(3) The carrier's proportion of uncollected tariff charges on damaged shipments for which charges neither shipper nor consignee is liable.

NOTE A.—When a common carrier employs vehicles and services of others on a commission or other basis for hauling loads, and the expenses incurred in their operation are borne, and disbursed by the owners, the common carrier shall record in this account the freight revenue from such hauls in the same manner as if the vehicles were owned by the common carrier. Amounts paid by the common carrier to the owners of the vehicles, as compensation for the hauls, shall be charged to account 4250—Purchased Transportation.

NOTE B.—Divisions of tariff rates due other carriers shall be included in the appropriate accounts payable account.

3110. Freight revenue—Contract carrier.—A. This account shall include all revenue earned by the carrier from the transportation of freight when operating as a contract carrier as defined in section 203 (a) (15) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935.

4640. Communication service.—This account shall include the cost of all communication service payable to outside companies, such as telephone, teletypewriter, telegraph, radio, etc.

NOTE.—Taxes on telegrams and telephone tolls shall be charged to account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses.

4651. Outside auditing expenses.—This account shall include amounts paid as fees for auditing and accounting services rendered by individuals or firms other than carrier's employees.

NOTE.—The fees of independent auditors and accountants in preparing financial and other statements incident to the issuance of long-term debt or capital stock shall be charged to account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense, account 2400—Unamortized Premium on Debt, or account 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock, as appropriate.

4652. Employees' welfare expenses.—A. This account shall include pensions or other benefits paid to active and retired employees, their representatives or beneficiaries, and salaries and expenses incurred in conducting relief, benefit and general medical departments. It shall include payments to or on behalf of employees on account of injuries or accidental death when such payments come within the scope of a carrier's general provision for employees' benefits.

B. If the carrier has definitely undertaken by contract to pay pensions to employees when regularly retired for superannuation or disability and has established a fund to be held in trust for such pension purposes, the carrier shall charge to this account periodic amounts determined through the application of equitable actuarial factors to the current payrolls, which, together with interest accruals on trust funds, will, as nearly as may be practicable, provide for the payment of such pensions, or for the purchase of annuities corresponding thereto. The amounts so charged shall be concurrently credited to a separate subdivision of account 2690—Other Reserves. The total of actual payments and accruals for future payments charged to this account for pensions, shall not exceed the amounts determined as hereinbefore prescribed. The carrier shall maintain a complete record of the actuarial computations through which the accrual each period of its pension liabilities is established.

C. Upon the adoption of the accrual plan of accounting, pension payments to employees retired before the adoption of such plan shall be charged to an existing pension reserve or to account 2946—Other Debits to Surplus. If a carrier pays into its pension trust fund the amount of its existing pension reserve, any such amounts in excess of provision for pensions granted prior to the adoption of the accrual plan may be applied in whole or in part to the adjustment of future accrual charges.

D. Before adopting the accrual plan of accounting for pensions, the carrier shall inform the Commission of the details of its pension plan, giving full statement of the facts which in its judgment establish a contractual obligation for pension payments, together with the actuarial formula under which it proposes to create its pension trust fund, and also a copy of the declaration of trust under which the fund is to be established.

E. No charges shall be made to this account in anticipation of discretionary pension payments in the future.

Items

Accident, sickness, death, and other disability benefits to employees, their representatives or beneficiaries.
Employees of relief, benefit, and general medical departments, pay and expenses of.
Expenses in connection with employees' disability cases, such as hospital, nursing, and medical attendance.

Office supplies.
Postage, printing and stationery.

Premiums paid for group insurance for the benefit of employees or their beneficiaries.

Traveling expenses.

NOTE.—The cost of life or other insurance whereunder the carrier is the beneficiary shall be charged to account 7500—Other Deductions. Cash surrender values of such policies shall be carried in account 1650—Other Investments and Advances.

4655. Purchasing and store expenses.—A. This account shall include salaries and expenses of purchasing agents, and their assistants, whose jurisdiction extends over all purchases such as parts, gasoline and other fuel, stationery supplies, etc.

B. This account shall include credits for cash and other discounts when it is not practicable to apply such discounts directly to the cost of materials to which they relate.

C. This account shall include such differences from inventory adjustments which have not been otherwise apportioned in accordance with note B under account 1180—Material and Supplies.

NOTE A.—Suitable proportions of items included in this account may be allocated to the cost of materials and supplies. (See instruction 19.)

NOTE B.—See also instruction 16 with reference to Clearing Accounts which may be maintained.

4656. Other general expenses.—A. This account shall include all general expenses connected with motor carrier operations not provided for elsewhere including fees and expenses payable to directors and trustees; expenses in connection with publishing and mailing reports and notices to stockholders, etc.; cash overages and shortages and fees for filing annual reports and other documents not specifically related to certificates or applications for issuance of securities.

B. This account shall include contributions for charitable, social or community welfare purposes which have a direct or intimate relation to the protection of the property of the carrier or the development of its business or the welfare of its employees. (See account 7500—Other Deductions.)

NOTE.—Direct contributions to employees' welfare associations shall be included in account 4652—Employees' Welfare Expenses.

4660. Management and supervision fees and expenses.—A. This account shall include fees and expenses payable to any corporation, firm or individual, other than officers and employees of the carrier, for continuously rendered supervision and management.

B. This account shall be subdivided to reflect:

(1) Management and Supervision Fees and Expenses of Associated Companies.

(2) Management and Supervision Fees and Expenses of Other Companies.

C. Records supporting this account shall be kept so as to show (1) the basis of the fees, i. e., the gross or net earnings of the carrier, if such is the basis, (2) the percentage applied in determining the fees, (3) the amount of the fee, and (4) the amount of the expenses.

4671. Franchise requirements—Debit.—A. This account shall include the total cost to the carrier in connection with payments to governmental authorities in compliance with franchises, ordinances or similar requirements, except taxes and license fees, provided, however, that the carrier may charge this account with the amounts based on regular tariff rates, of intrastate transportation furnished without charge under provisions of franchises.

B. When no direct outlay is involved concurrent credit for such charges shall be to account 4672—Franchise Requirements—Credit.

4672. Franchise requirements—Credit.—This account shall include concurrent credits for charges which are made to account 4671—Franchise Requirements—Debit, to the extent that such charges do not represent direct outlays.

4673. Other regulatory commission expenses.—A. This account shall include expenses incurred by the carrier in connection with formal cases before Federal or State regulatory bodies or cases in which such a body is a party also, include payments made to a regulatory commission for fees or amounts assessed against the accounting carrier for pay and expenses of the regulatory commission, its officers, agents and employees, other than those incurred in securing certificates of convenience and necessity and authority for the issuance of securities.

B. Amounts includible in this account which by approval or direction of the Commission are to be spread over future periods shall be charged to account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, and amortized by charges to this account.

Items

Fees, retainers, and expenses of counsel, solicitors, attorneys, clerks, attendants, witnesses, and others whose services are secured for the defense or prosecution of petitions or complaints presented to regulatory bodies.

The pay of officers and employees specifically assigned to or engaged in the valuation of property owned or used by the carrier, in connection with such cases, and the cost of similar work performed by others.

Amounts assessed by Federal and State regulatory commissions for pay and expenses of their officers, agents, and employees; office and traveling expenses; stationery, printing and engineering supplies; and other expenses and supplies including expenses of officers and employees upon matters covered by this account even though no portion of their pay is assignable hereto.

NOTE A.—Expenses incurred for the improvement of service, for additional inspection, or rendering reports which are made necessary by the rules and regulations, or orders, of regulatory bodies, shall be charged to the appropriate operation and maintenance expense accounts.

NOTE B.—Expenses incident to securing certificates of convenience and necessity shall be charged to the appropriate subdivision of account 1500—Organization, Franchises and Permits. Expenditures incident to securing authorization for issuance of long-term debt or capital stock shall be charged to account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense, account 2400—Unamortized Premium on Debt, or account 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock, as appropriate.

4680. Uncollectible revenues.—A. This account shall include charges for receivables for carrier operating revenues which, after a reasonably diligent effort to collect, have proved impracticable of collection. If accounts which have been so written off are afterwards collected, the amount received shall be credited to this account, provided, however, that such recoveries are from accounts charged off against this account.

B. Charges to this account may be made on the basis of the estimated average loss due to uncollectible accounts in which case the concurrent credit shall be to account 2650—Reserve for Uncollectible Accounts. To the reserve thus established shall be charged such amounts as are determined to be uncollectible; amounts written off and subsequently collected shall be credited to the reserve. When charges to such accounts are thus made by estimate, the estimate shall be adjusted at the end of each calendar year to conform to the experience of the accounting carrier as determined by analysis of its accounts receivable.

NOTE.—Losses on receivables for other than operating revenues, and losses on notes or claims, shall be included in account 7500—Other Deductions.

4691. Joint operating expense—Debit.—This account shall include amounts payable to others representing the cost of operation and maintenance of joint facilities used for general purposes, such as a general office, or where amounts payable can not be segregated between the functional groups of expense accounts provided herein. (See instruction 29.)

4696. Joint operating expense—Credit.—This account shall include amounts received by the accounting carrier as reimbursement for operating and maintenance costs incurred by it in connection with a joint facility used for general purposes such as a general office or when the amounts received can not be segregated between the functional groups of expense accounts provided herein. (See instruction 29.)

DEPRECIATION EXPENSE

5000. Depreciation expense.—A. This account shall include the amount of depreciation charges applicable to the accounting period for all classes of depreciable carrier operating property, including improvements to leased property, if any, as provided in instruction 25. The amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 2500—Reserve for Depreciation—Carrier Operating Property.

B. The following subdivisions of this account shall be maintained to reflect the amount of depreciation charges on each class of property and the necessary depreciation adjustment on carrier operating property at the time it is retired from service as provided in instruction 21 (see definition 33):

5011. Depreciation of Structures.
5021. Depreciation of Revenue Equipment.
5031. Depreciation of Service Cars and Equipment.
5041. Depreciation of Shop and Garage Equipment.
5051. Depreciation of Furniture and Office Equipment.
5061. Depreciation of Miscellaneous Equipment.
5071. Depreciation of Improvements to Leasehold Property.
5081. Depreciation of Undistributed Property.
5091. Depreciation Adjustment.

AMORTIZATION EXPENSE

5100. Amortization chargeable to operations.—This account shall include the total of the amounts included in accounts 5110 and 5120:

5110. Amortization of carrier operating property.—This account shall include the amount of the amortization charges applicable to the accounting period for amounts carried in account 1501—Organization, account 1511—Franchises, and account 1541—Patents, for fixed-term franchises, licenses, and patent rights; for fixed-term interest in land and land rights (account 1201), for losses incurred or expected to be incurred through the reversion of improvements on leased property to the lessor prior to the expiration of their service lives (account 1271), and for losses expected to be incurred through reversion of property to a state, municipality, or other governmental body, or otherwise, at no compensation to the carrier, before the expiration of the service lives of such property. Such charges shall be computed so as to distribute the book cost of each item evenly throughout its service life to the carrier. (See also account 2600—Reserve for Amortization—Carrier Operating Property.)

5120. Property loss chargeable to operations.—This account shall be concurrently charged with amounts credited to account 1890—Other Deferred Debits, for the amortization of property abandoned or for extraordinary property losses carried in that account, when such amounts are authorized to be amortized from that account by charges to operations. This account shall also be charged with losses on abandoned property and extraordinary property losses from carrier operations which are charged off at the time of their occurrence.

NOTE.—The carrier shall not make any charges to this account except upon approval by the Commission.

TAXES AND LICENSES

5200. Operating taxes and licenses.—A. This account shall include the amount of Federal, state, county, municipal and other taxing-district taxes (except as provided for in account 5000—Provision for Income Taxes), which relate to carrier property, operation and privileges for the period covered by the income account.

B. When it is not possible to determine the actual taxes, suitable estimates shall be made and the proportion of the amount estimated, which is applicable to the accounting period, shall be charged to this account and concurrently credited to account 2120—Taxes Accrued, or account 1800—Prepayments, as appropriate. When the actual tax levies become known the amounts included in this account on an estimated basis shall be adjusted.

C. Taxes on property leased from others for use in motor carrier operations, when the lessee is obligated under the terms of the lease to pay such taxes in addition to stipulated rent, shall be included in this account.

D. The records shall be kept so as to show separately the amount of each class of tax included in this account, and the basis on which it is levied, as follows:

(1) Gasoline, Other Fuel, and Oil Taxes.
(2) Public Utility Taxes and Licenses.
(3) Other Licenses.
(4) Corporation Taxes.
(5) Real Estate and Personal Property Taxes (or Gross Receipt Taxes).
(6) Social Security Taxes.
(7) Federal and State Capital Stock Taxes and Stock Transfer Taxes.
(8) Federal Excise Taxes.
(9) Other Taxes.

NOTE A.—Filing fees accompanying applications to regulatory bodies for certificates shall be charged to the appropriate subdivision of account 1500—Organization, Franchises and Permits. (See also account 4656.)

NOTE B.—Special assessments for street or other improvements and fees or charges, sometimes called taxes, such as water taxes, street sprinkling and sidewalk repairs, which are payments for some specific service rendered by the government, should be charged to the appropriate property investment or maintenance accounts. (See note B, account 1201—Land and Land Rights.)

NOTE C.—Taxes on non-operating property shall be charged to the account to which the revenue of such property is credited.

NOTE D.—Taxes on property leased to others shall be charged to the account to which the rent revenue is credited.

NOTE E.—Taxes assumed by the carrier on bond and note interest shall be charged to account 7200—Taxes Assumed on Interest.

NOTE F.—Taxes received in the sale of gasoline and oil shall be credited to this account.

NOTE G.—Taxes paid on original issues of capital stock shall be included in account 1910—Commission and Expense on Capital Stock.

NOTE H.—Amounts received by the carrier in reimbursement of taxes on property operated as a joint facility (see definition 25) shall be credited to account 5390—Joint Facility Rents—Credit. Payments to other carriers for a portion of taxes on joint facilities shall be charged to account 5340—Joint Facility Rents—Debit.

NOTE I.—Sales taxes on material purchases, except gasoline, other motor fuel and motor oil, shall be included in the cost of material.

OPERATING RENTS

5300.—Operating rents—Net.—This account shall include the net total of amounts included in accounts 5310 to 5390, inclusive. (See instruction 30.)

5310. Equipment rents—Debit.—This account shall include the amounts payable for use of automotive equipment on whatever basis such rent may be determined. All expenses incurred in connection with the operation of leased equipment which the lessee is obligated to assume in addition to the amount stipulated as rent, shall be included in the operation and maintenance or other accounts as appropriate.

NOTE.—Amounts payable for rental of equipment included in the lease of a distinct operating unit shall be charged to account 5400—Rent for Lease of Carrier Property—Debit.

5320. Other operating rents—Debits.—This account shall include all rental payments for the use of property employed in motor carrier operations not provided for elsewhere, such as:

(1) Rent for shop and garage space
(2) Rents paid for use of property by the transportation department
(3) Rents paid for use of terminals and stations
(4) Rents paid for use of property by the traffic and solicitation department
(5) Rents paid for use of the general office

NOTE.—Rental payments for property not used in transportation operations shall be charged to the appropriate Other Income account.

5340. Joint facility rents—Debit.—This account shall include amounts payable to other carriers as their proportion of rent, including taxes and depreciation, for the use of property under a joint facility arrangement. (See definition 25 and instruction 29.)

5350. Equipment rents—Credit.—This account shall include amounts receivable for use of automotive equipment on whatever basis such rent may be determined.

NOTE.—Amounts receivable for rental of equipment included in the lease of a distinct operating unit shall be credited to account 5500—Income from Lease of Carrier Property—Credit.

5360. Rent from owned land and structures.—This account shall include the rent from land and structures, the cost of which is included in accounts 1200—Carrier Operating Property, and 1300—Carrier Operating Property Leased to Others, except joint facilities.

NOTE.—Rent from subleases of property rented from others shall be included in account 5370—Sublease Rental Income.

5370. Sublease rental income.—This account shall include rents receivable from subleases of carrier operating property rented from others.

5390. Joint facility rents—Credit.—This account shall include amounts receivable from other carriers as their proportion of rent, including taxes and depreciation, for the use of property under a joint facility arrangement. (See definition 25 and instruction 29.)

LEASE OF CARRIER PROPERTY

5400. Rent for lease of carrier property—Debit.—This account shall include amounts payable, for rent of property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24 and instruction 30) or system leased from others for use in motor carrier operations when the carrier has exclusive possession.

NOTE.—Taxes payable upon leased property, assumed by the lessee, shall be included in account 5200—Operating Taxes and Licenses.

5500. Income from lease of carrier property—Credit.—A. This account shall include amounts receivable for rent of property constituting a distinct operating unit (see definition 24 and instruction 30) or system leased by the carrier to others for motor carrier operations where the lessee has exclusive possession.

B. This account shall include as a deduction from rent revenue, expenses such as repairs, depreciation, insurance, and taxes assumed by the lessor; uncollectible rents, etc., in connection with the property leased.

C. This account shall be divided to show separately for each lease the following:

(1) Rent Revenue.
(2) Expenses.
(3) Depreciation and Amortization.
(4) Taxes.
(5) Uncollectible Rents.

OTHER INCOME

6000. Net income from non-carrier operations.—A. This account shall include the revenues from and expenses incurred in the operation of property, the investment in which is carried in account 1400—Non-Carrier Operating Property.

B. This account shall be subdivided to reflect separately:

(1) The total revenues derived from non-carrier operating property operations.
(2) The total expenses incurred in non-carrier operating property operations.

NOTE A.—The expenses referred to include every element of cost incurred in such operations including depreciation, rents, taxes, and insurance.

NOTE B.—Each carrier may adopt its own classification of revenue and expenses for this account. The classification shall be such, however, as to permit ready analysis of the revenue and expense.

6100. Net income from non-operating property.—A. This account shall include all rent revenues from land, buildings, and other property not devoted to transportation operations, the book cost of which is included in account 1450—Non-Operating Property.

B. This account shall include as a deduction from rent revenue, expenses such as repairs, depreciation, amortization, taxes, uncollectible rents, insurance, etc., in connection with the property leased.

C. This account shall be subdivided to show separately for each lease the following:

(1) Rent revenue.
(2) Expenses.
(3) Depreciation and amortization.
(4) Taxes.
(5) Uncollectible rents.

6200. Interest income.—A. This account shall include interest accruing to the accounting carrier upon securities of other companies and Federal, State, or municipal governments, on loans, notes, and advances; special deposits and all other interest bearing assets, including simple interest charged to property during its construction. Interest accrued shall not be credited to this account unless its payment is reasonably assured; in other cases, credits to this account shall be based upon the interest actually collected.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show separately the interest income from each investment and from each associated company.

NOTE A.—No interest upon reacquired securities issued or assumed by the accounting carrier shall be credited to this account.

NOTE B.—Interest accrued on securities of other companies held in sinking or other special funds shall be credited to account 6400—Income from Sinking and Other Funds.

6300. Dividend income.—A. This account shall include revenue derived by the accounting carrier from the dividends on stocks of other companies held by it. Accruals of guaranteed dividends may be included in this account if the payment is reasonably assured.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show separately the dividend income from each investment and from each associated company.

NOTE.—No dividends on reacquired securities issued by the carrier shall be credited to this account.

6400. Income from sinking and other funds.—This account shall include all revenues (whether interest or dividends) accrued on cash, securities (not issued or assumed by the accounting carrier) or other assets held in sinking fund and other special funds.

NOTE.—This account covers all income from investments of special funds, whether required to be retained in the fund or not. If such income is required to be retained in the fund and the fund required to be represented by a reserve, the amount of such accretions to the fund shall be concurrently credited to the appropriate reserve account and charged to account 2944—Appropriations to Reserves.

6500. Other non-operating income.—This account shall include all income accrued to the accounting carrier in accordance with the terms of any contract by which the carrier is entitled to participate in the profits from the operations of others and all other non-operating income not provided for in any of the foregoing accounts.

NOTE.—"Profits from the operations of others" does not include any dividends on stock. Revenues from dividends shall be credited to account 6300—Dividend Income, or to account 6400—Income from Sinking and Other Funds, as appropriate.

INCOME DEDUCTIONS

7000. Interest on long-term obligations.—A. This account shall include all interest accrued on unmatured outstanding long-term obligations issued or assumed by the accounting carrier; also interest accrued on debentures and on receivers' certificates which mature more than one year after date of issue. This account does not include interest on securities held by the accounting carrier in its treasury, in sinking or other special funds, or pledged as collateral.

B. This account shall be kept so as to show the interest expense (accrual) on each of the following classes or subdivisions of long-term obligations:

(1) Equipment Obligations.
(2) Advances.
(3) Bonds.
(4) Other Long-Term Obligations.

7100. Other interest deductions.—This account shall include interest on all short-term obligations of the accounting carrier, such as notes or loans for terms of less than one year, unpaid taxes, or other accounts payable, etc., and also interest on matured long-term obligations.

7200. Taxes assumed on interest.—This account shall include amounts paid to holders of the bonds or other indebtedness of the carrier in reimbursement of income and other taxes levied against income from such obligation or levied as a tax for ownership of the obligation, where the mortgage, indenture, or other instrument provides for payment of such taxes by the carrier.

7300. Amortization of debt discount and expense.—This account shall include for any period that proportion of the unamortized discount and expense on outstanding long-term debt which is applicable to the period. This proportion shall be determined according to a rule, the uniform application of which during the interval between the issue and maturity of any debt will completely amortize the discount at which such debt was issued and the debt expense connected therewith. Amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 1880—Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense. (See also instruction 13.)

7400. Amortization of premium on debt—Credit.—This account shall include the proportion of the premium at which outstanding long-term debt was issued which is applicable to each period. This proportion shall be determined according to a rule the uniform application of which during the interval between the issuance and the maturity of any debt will completely amortize the premium at which such debt was issued. Amounts credited to this account shall be concurrently charged to account 2400—Unamortized Premium on Debt. (See instruction 13.)

7500. Other deductions.—This account shall include all deductions from gross income not provided for in any of the foregoing accounts, such as:

(1) Unsecured accruals on obligations arising under contracts whereby the accounting carrier has guaranteed the annual or more frequent periodic payment of money or performance of other obligation on the yart of another corporation or person, and because of the default of such other corporation or person, the liability of the accounting carrier has become actual.

(2) Losses resulting from the operations of others, whenever, in accordance with the terms of any contract, the accounting carrier is bound to contribute toward reimbursement of such losses.

(3) Losses on receivables, notes or claims which are not includible in account 4680—Uncollectible Revenues.

(4) Amortization charges of the book value of property included in account 1550—Other Intangible Property, and other items carried among its assets.

(5) Contributions for charitable, social or community welfare purposes which do not have a direct or intimate relation to the protection of the property, development of the business or welfare of employees. (See account 4656—Other General Expenses.)

(6) Penalties and fines for violations of law not provided for in account 4264—Other Transportation Expenses.

(7) Premiums for life insurance carried on the lives of officers and employees when the carrier is the beneficiary.

INCOME TAXES

8000. Provision for income taxes.—This account shall include charges for the year classifiable in accounts 8010 to 8060, inclusive.

8010. Federal income tax.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for Federal Income Tax, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8020. Federal excess profits tax.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for Federal Excess Profits Tax, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8030. Federal surtax on undistributed profits.—Charge this account on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for Federal Surtax on Undistributed Profits, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8040. Other Federal income taxes.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for other Federal Income Taxes, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8050. State income taxes.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for State Income Taxes, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

8060. Other income taxes.—Charge this account each period on an estimated basis with the amount accrued for all other income taxes, not provided for in the foregoing accounts, concurrently crediting account 2120—Taxes Accrued.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

DOMESTIC ANIMALS, TOGETHER WITH THEIR OFFSPRING, RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS section 318 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (46 Stat. 696; U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1318) provides:

"Whenever the President shall by proclamation declare an emergency to exist by reason of a state of war, or otherwise, he may authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to extend during the continuance of such emergency the time herein prescribed for the performance of any act * * *";

AND WHEREAS subparagraph (c) of paragraph 1606 of section 201 of the said act (46 Stat. 673; U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1201, par. 1606) provides:

"Horses, mules, asses, cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals straying across the boundary line into any foreign country, or driven across such boundary line by the owner for temporary pasturage purposes only, together with their offspring, shall be dutiable unless brought back to the United States within eight months, in which case they shall be free of duty, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the foregoing provision of section 318 of the Tariff Act of 1930, do by this proclamation declare an emergency to exist.

And I do hereby authorize the Secretary of the Treasury, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to extend the time in which horses, mules, asses, cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals, straying across the boundary line into any foreign country, or driven across such boundary line by the owner for temporary pasturage purposes only, together with their offspring, may be brought back into the United States free of duty, from eight months, as provided in subparagraph (c) of paragraph 1606 of the said act, to twelve months, if such animals are brought back on or before June 30, 1938.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 6th day of December in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

National Munitions Control Board.

RULES OF PROCEDURE GOVERNING THE ISSUANCE OF LICENSES FOR THE EXPORTATION OF TIN-PLATE SCRAP

DECEMBER 6, 1937.

In furtherance of the purposes of the Act of Congress approved February 15, 1936, which, as stated therein, are:

to protect, preserve, and develop domestic sources of tin, to restrain the depletion of domestic reserves of tin-bearing materials, and to lessen the present costly and dangerously dependent position of the United States with respect to resources of tin, and in order to assure in the public interest the fair and equitable consideration referred to in Section 2 of the Act which reads as follows:

There shall not be exported from the United States after the expiration of sixty days from the enactment of this Act any tin-plate scrap, except upon license issued by the President of the United States. The President is authorized to grant licenses upon such conditions and regulations as he may find necessary to assure in the public interest fair and equitable consideration to all producers of this commodity.

The Secretary of State, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in him by Executive Order No. 7297 of February 16, 1936, hereby prescribes, by and with the advice and consent of the National Munitions Control Board, the following rules of procedure to govern the issuance of licenses for the exportation of tin-plate scrap between January 1 and December 31, 1938, under the regulations governing the export of that commodity prescribed on December 7, 1936:

(1) Requests for allotments.—Each producer of tin-plate scrap who desires to export that commodity during the calendar year 1938, as well as every producer whose scrap is sold to and ultimately exported by third parties, should submit to the Secretary of State not later than December 20, 1937, a request for an allotment, specifying in long tons the quantity of tin-plate scrap which he desires to export or to sell for export between January 1 and December 31, 1938.

(2) Original allotments.—Allotments will be granted to producers of tin-plate scrap only and will be assigned on January 1, 1938, to producers whose applications have been submitted in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1). Allotments will be based on the individual producer's request therefor with the provision that no allotment of more than 25 long tons shall exceed in amount 25 percent of the quantity of tin-plate scrap produced by him during the calendar year 1936. Requests for allotments of 25 long tons or less may be granted in full, without reference to the quantity of tin-plate scrap produced during the calendar year 1936, provided the producer concerned presents convincing evidence, in the form of a sworn statement, establishing that he will, during the calendar year 1938, produce at least the equivalent of the allotment which he requests.

(3) Sworn statement of 1936 production.—No producer shall be eligible to receive an allotment under the provisions of paragraph (2) until the Secretary of State has received from him a sworn statement setting forth the quantity of tin-plate scrap, in long tons, produced by him during the calendar year 1936. Sworn statements submitted under the provisions of this paragraph shall include the name and address of the producer, the name and location of each factory, and the quantity of tin-plate scrap produced at each factory.

(4) Apportionment of total allotments.—In the event that it shall be necessary, in order that the quantity of tin-plate scrap to be exported during the calendar year 1938 shall not exceed the total figure to be agreed upon by the National Munitions Control Board, such total shall be apportioned among the applicants for allotments on the basis of 1936 production, with the provision that no allotment shall exceed the quantity specified in the individual producer's request therefor. If an apportionment is unnecessary, further allotments may be granted after January 1 in the order of the receipt of requests therefor until the total figure referred to has been exhausted.

(5) Additional allotments.—Provided the total of the allotments assigned prior to July 1, 1938, does not equal the total figure referred to in paragraph (4), additional allotments may be assigned after that date to any producer whose production of tin-plate scrap during the calendar year 1937 exceeded the quantity produced by him in 1936, provided that no allotment assigned under the provisions of this paragraph shall exceed 25 percent of the difference between the individual producer's 1936 production and the quantity produced by him in 1937, and provided further that the total allotments assigned shall not exceed the maximum authorized exports referred to under paragraph (4). Allotments granted under the provisions of this paragraph will be assigned in the order of the receipt of requests therefor.

(6) Sworn statement of 1937 production.—No producer shall be eligible to receive an allotment under the provisions of paragraph (5) until the Secretary of State has received from him a sworn statement setting forth the quantity of tin-plate scrap, in long tons, produced by him during the calendar year 1937. Sworn statements submitted under the provisions of this paragraph shall include the name and address of the producer, the name and location of each factory, and the quantity of tin-plate scrap produced at each factory.

(7) Further additional allotments.—In the event that conditions then existing shall warrant such action, further additional allotments may be granted after July 1, 1938, upon such conditions as may be agreed upon by the National Munitions Control Board and announced by the Secretary of State.

(8) Fair and equitable consideration.—An allotment may be granted at any time during the calendar year 1938, without regard to previous assignments of allotments, to any producer of tin-plate scrap who presents to the National Munitions Control Board, through the Secretary of State, convincing evidence that he is not receiving the fair and equitable consideration referred to in Section 2 of the Act approved February 15, 1936. Allotments assigned under the provisions of this paragraph shall be granted in such quantities as will assure in the public interest fair and equitable consideration to the producer concerned. All applications for allotments under the provisions of this paragraph shall be accompanied by sworn statements, in quintuplicate, setting forth complete and detailed information in support thereof.

(9) Licenses.—No tin-plate scrap may be exported unless a license authorizing such export shall have been issued by the Secretary of State. Licenses may be issued to any producer who has been assigned an allotment or to any other person or persons authorized by such producer to export tin-plate scrap under his allotment.

(10) Licenses issued to persons other than producers of tin-plate scrap.—Any producer who has received an allotment may, if he so desires, authorize any other person or persons to apply for license to export under his allotment tin-plate scrap produced at his factory or factories. The Department of State should be informed promptly of such authorizations when made. Persons other than producers should, in submitting applications for license, assure themselves that an allotment has been assigned covering the particular tin-plate scrap which they desire to export and they should include, either in the application or in the transmitting letter, a statement setting forth the name and address of the factory or factories at which the tin-plate scrap was produced and the quantity produced at each factory.

As stated in paragraph (3) of the regulations governing the exportation of tin-plate scrap, the Secretary of State will issue export licenses to cover proposed shipments of tin-plate scrap when, in the opinion of the National Munitions Control Board, the issuance of such licenses may be consistent with the purposes of the Act approved February 15, 1936. The National Munitions Control Board may revoke, cancel, or modify at any time allotments or licenses granted under the procedure herein announced and may modify this procedure whenever, in its opinion, such action as required in order to carry out the purposes of the Act.

Secretary of State.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 111]

AN ORDER PRESCRIBING RULES OF PROCEDURE UNDER SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTION (D), OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

Pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and particularly Section 4, Part II, Subsection (d) of said Act, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, notwithstanding any other general rules of practice and procedure heretofore issued, has adopted and hereby orders that the following Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Commission be applicable to proceedings under and pursuant to the provisions of Section 4, Part II, Subsection (d) of the Act.

1. When a petition, filed pursuant to the provisions of Section 4, Part II, Subsection (d) of the Act, is assigned for hearing:

(a) The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith cause a copy of such petition to be placed on file and made available for inspection to interested parties at each of the Statistical Bureaus of the Commission, at the Office of each District Board, and at the office of the Secretary of the Commission:

(b) The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of the notice of hearing to the petitioner, to each code member within the District in which the petitioner is a code member, and to the Consumers' Counsel; and shall cause a copy thereof to be filed and made available for inspection at each of the Statistical Bureaus of the Commission and at the office of each District Board; and shall cause a copy thereof to be published in the Federal Register, and if the petition directs a specific complaint against any other code member a copy of the notice of hearing shall be mailed by the Secretary to such code member.

2. Any interested party desiring to be heard at such hearing shall on or before the day preceding the date thereof file with the Commission a notice and request to that effect.

3. In any proceeding instituted by such petition, any minimum price or Marketing Rule and Regulation complained of, shall be presumed to have been established and prescribed in conformity with the provisions of the Act, and the burden of proof shall be upon the party so complaining.

4. Any application for a preliminary or temporary order, pending final disposition of the petition, may be made in such petition or by amendment thereto, in conformity with the provisions of Subsection (d) of Part II, Section 4, of the Act.

The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to all code members within the several districts, and to the Secretaries of all District Boards; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the Federal Register.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 7th day of December, 1937.

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

DETERMINATION OF PRACTICES WHICH TEND TO DEFEAT THE PURPOSES OF THE 1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM, PURSUANT TO SECTION THREE, PART VI OF WESTERN REGION BULLETINS 101, AS AMENDED

Whereas Section 3, Part VI of Western Region Bulletins 101, as amended, provides that the Secretary may determine whether any practice adopted by a person participating in the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program tended to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 Program, and

Whereas in areas subject to wind or water erosion in the Western Region, certain persons who wish to participate in the benefits of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in the Western Region have failed to perform necessary wind erosion control practices or otherwise attempt to control the soil blowing or other form of damage to the productivity of the land in one or more farms owned or operated by them or in one or more adjacent or nearby farms:

Now, Therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine (1) that, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, failure to perform necessary erosion control practices or otherwise attempt to control the soil blowing or other form of damage to the productivity of the land in the farm or in one or more nearby or adjacent farms shall constitute a practice, within the meaning of Section 3, Part VI of Western Region Bulletin 101, as amended, which tends to defeat the purposes of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program, (2) that, where any person owns or operates more than one farm in a county and the county committee determines that, notwithstanding failure on the part of such person to attempt to control the wind or water erosion or other damage to the productivity of the land in one or more farms owned or operated by such person in the county, taking into account the effect that such erosion or damage has upon the land in nearby or adjacent farms, the performance on all farms owned or operated by such person in the county tends in the aggregate to effectuate the purposes of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program from the standpoint of soil conservation accomplished, such person shall be entitled to receive his share of any payments which otherwise could be made: Provided, however, That no payments shall be made with respect to those farms upon which such person has failed to perform erosion control practices or otherwise attempt to control the soil blowing or other damage to the productivity of the land.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of December 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Secretary of Agriculture.

PERMITS—RESTRICTIONS ON TRAPPING, ETC.

Permits for the public trapping of muskrats and minks herein authorized, may be issued without charge by the Superintendent of the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge to any qualified person. The issuance of such permits and the privileges conferred thereby shall be further subject to the following restrictions:

1. In the issuance of permits hereunder, preference will be given to persons who have been bona fide residents for a period of six months last past within or near the Refuge.

2. Not more than one permit will be issued to the same individual.

3. Before any permit may be issued, the applicant shall exhibit to the said Superintendent or his representative a valid trapping license from the State in which such trapping is to be conducted, and the applicant shall, in his application for permit, make a sworn statement as to his period of residence in the civil township, village, or city in which he claims such residence.

4. Permits will be valid and authorize public trapping only on the dates specified in the permit.

5. Muskrats and minks may be taken on the Refuge only with traps for capturing the animals alive, or with ordinary spring steel or other traps the use of which is approved by the Superintendent or his authorized representative. The possession or use within the boundaries of the Refuge of a muskrat spear, or of any similar device by means of which muskrats may be speared, or of any trap or device that does not comply with the requirements of these regulations is prohibited. Prohibited traps and devices found on the Refuge, if not removed therefrom by the owner thereof upon the direction of the Superintendent, will be seized by the Superintendent or his representative.

6. No person shall hunt muskrats or minks with a gun or the aid of a dog, disturb or molest any mink den or disturb or molest any muskrat house, or muskrat feeding house.

7. To run a trap line or to visit traps between sunset and one-half hour before sunrise is prohibited, but each permittee shall visit and inspect each of his traps within the Refuge at least once each day, and at the close of the trapping season each trap shall be taken up and removed from the Refuge.

8. Birds and mammals, other than muskrats and minks, found alive in such traps shall be immediately liberated. Birds or mammals, other than muskrats and minks, found dead or mortally injured, shall be immediately turned over to the Superintendent or his representative.

9. Trappers may not cut any growth on the Refuge except willows for use as trap stakes or drags.

10. Whenever it shall appear advisable for the proper administration of the Refuge, the Superintendent may, in his discretion, terminate trapping on the entire Refuge or any portion thereof, within three days after giving notice to that effect. Thereupon all outstanding permits for trapping muskrats and minks on the area or areas affected shall become null and void.

11. Each permittee not later than December 31, 1937, shall submit to the Superintendent of the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge, Winona, Minnesota, a report correctly stating the total number of muskrats and/or minks taken on the Refuge under the permit during the season, together with the name and address of each person or firm to whom such pelts thereof were disposed of and the number disposed of to each such person or firm.

Failure of a permittee to comply with any of the above provisions, or the violation by him of any of the regulations issued under authority of the Act of June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 650), establishing said Refuge, or of any State laws or regulations applicable to trapping on said Refuge, shall not only render the offender subject to prosecution under said laws or regulations, but shall be sufficient ground for refusal of a permit to such offender during the Federal muskrat and/or mink trapping season next following on said Refuge, or of any other use or privilege on the Refuge for which a permit may be required by regulations.

This Order shall become effective on December 7, 1937.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

AMENDMENTS TO RULES 830 AND 835

The Securities and Exchange Commission has amended Rules 830 and 835 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act. These rules relate to material required in prospectuses for securities registered on Forms A–1 and E–1. The amendment provides that the financial statements of issuers engaged primarily in the business of investing or trading in securities, required to be furnished in the prospectus, be supplemented by information with respect to security holdings, including, among other things, the cost, ledger value and market value. The text of the Commission's action follows:

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, particularly subsections (2), (3) and (4) of Section 10 (b) and Section 19 (a) of the Act, and finding that the requirements as hereinbelow amended regarding information to be contained in prospectuses for the classes of securities and issuers to which such requirements are applicable are necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, and that the statements made in registration statements which are permitted under the requirements as hereinbelow amended to be omitted from prospectuses are not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors for the class of prospectuses and issuers to which such requirements are applicable, hereby amends Rules 830 and 835 as follows:

1. Rule 830 is hereby amended by changing the phrase "all supporting schedules to balance sheets and profit and loss statements" to read as follows:

"all supporting schedules to financial statements, except that if such statements are for a person engaged, directly or through subsidiaries, primarily in the business of investing and reinvesting or trading in securities for revenue and profit, and not for the purpose or with the effect of exercising control, the schedules called for by instructions 6 and 11 pertaining to balance sheets shall be included in the prospectus;"

The text of Rule 830, as amended, reads as follows:

"In the case of a security registered on form A–1, information in respect of the following, contained in the registration statement, may be omitted from any prospectus: Items 9; 17; 18; 23, except as to the issue or issues for which the registration statement is filed; 28; 29, except information as of a date within twenty days concerning persons owning more than 10 percent of any class of voting stock of the issuer; 31, except as to principal underwriters; 36; 37; 38; 46; 48; 49; 52, except that the number of subsidiaries and affiliates shall be stated; all supporting schedules to financial statements, except that if such statements are for a person engaged, directly or through subsidiaries, primarily in the business of investing and reinvesting or trading in securities for revenue and profit, and not for the purpose or with the effect of exercising control, the schedules called for by instructions 6 and 11 pertaining to balance sheets shall be included in the prospectus; all financial statements and schedules of any unconsolidated subsidiary the total assets of which, as shown by its latest balance sheet filed with the registration statement, amount to less than 15 percent of the total assets of the registrant and its consolidated subsidiaries as shown by the latest consolidated balance sheet filed with the registration statement; and all exhibits."

2. Rule 835 is amended by adding, in subparagraph (a) (5), immediately following the words "all supplemental schedules" and before the semicolon, a comma and the following:

"except that if the financial statements are for a person engaged, directly or through subsidiaries, primarily in the business of investing and reinvesting or trading in securities for revenue and profit, and not for the purpose or with the effect of exercising control, the schedules called for by instructions Nos. 3 and 7 of financial statement instructions set No. 1 shall be included in the prospectus;"

The text of subparagraph (a) (5) of Rule 835, as amended, reads as follows:

"(5) Exhibits A to K, inclusive; the supplementary, earlier balance sheets required under exhibits L, N, P, R, T, and W; exhibits M, O, Q, U, and X, including all statements of predecessors who are such under paragraph (2) of definition number 19 in the form (except the most recent profit-and-loss statement of the predecessor most recently owner of each item or group of property), but excepting the profit-and-loss statements for the latest fiscal year and any subsequent period of the registrant, all guarantors, and all predecessors who are such under paragraph (1) of definition number 19 in the form; the unconsolidated financial statements of the registrant and the financial statements of subsidiaries required under exhibit V; all supplemental schedules, except that if the financial statements are for a person engaged, directly or through subsidiaries, primarily in the business of investing and reinvesting or trading in securities for revenue and profit, and not for the purpose or with the effect of exercising control, the schedules called for by instructions Nos. 3 and 7 of financial statement instructions set No. 1 shall be included in the prospectus; any schedules or statements submitted in lieu of any of the balance sheets or profit-and-loss statements which may be omitted from the prospectus under this rule."

The foregoing action shall be effective January 3, 1938.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

AMENDMENT NO. 31 TO FORM A–2

The Securities and Exchange Commission has amended the Instructions for Form A–2 with respect to the prospectus. The amendment requires that there be included in the prospectus with respect to persons engaged primarily in the business of investing or trading in securities, a schedule showing the complete list of securities held in the portfolio, the market value of each such security, and the amount at which carried in the balance sheet.

The text of the Commission's action follows:

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, particularly subsections (2), (3) and (4) of Section 10 (b) and Section 19 (a) of the Act, and finding that the requirements as hereinbelow amended regarding information to be contained in prospectuses for the classes of securities and issuers to which such requirements are applicable are necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, and that the statements made in registration statements which are permitted under the requirements as hereinbelow amended to be omitted from prospectuses are not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors for the class of prospectuses and issuers to which such requirements are applicable, hereby amends the Instruction Book for Form A–2 as follows:

In paragraph 6 (f) under the heading "Instructions as to Prospectuses Other than Newspaper Prospectuses", the word "and" at the end of subparagraph (2) is stricken; at the end of subparagraph (3) there is inserted, in lieu of the period, a semicolon and the word "and"; and immediately following subparagraph (3) a new subparagraph is added as follows:

"(4) Schedule IA if the registrant is engaged, directly or through subsidiaries, primarily in the business of investing and reinvesting or trading in securities for revenue and profit, and not for the purpose or with the effect of exercising control."

Paragraph 6 (f) as amended reads as follows:

"(f) All schedules to the respective financial statements other than:

"(1) Schedule VII, which schedule, however, may be expressed in condensed or summarized form if containing numerous items;

"(2) The information required by Columns B and C of Items 1, 2 and 5 of Schedule VIII, and that required by footnote (2) of Schedule VIII, which information shall be set forth by an apposite note to the respective Profit and Loss Statement;

"(3) The information required by Note (1) (c) of Schedule III and Note (1) (b) of Schedule V; and

"(4) Schedule IA if the registrant is engaged, directly or through subsidiaries, primarily in the business of investing and reinvesting or trading in securities for revenue and profit, and not for the purpose or with the effect of exercising control."

The foregoing action shall be effective January 3, 1938.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

AMENDMENT TO FORM C–1

The Securities and Exchange Commission has amended Form C–1. The amendment clarifies the requirement calling for the cost of portfolio securities so as clearly to require the cost of each issue to be given.

The text of the Commission's action follows:

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, particularly Sections 7 and 19 (a) thereof, and deeming that such information or documents as Form C–1, as hereby amended, requires to be set forth, but which are not specified in Schedule A of the Securities Act of 1933, are necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, and that adoption of this amendment is necessary to carry out the provisions of said Act, hereby amends Form C–1 as follows:

By adding to Note 1 of Exhibit O, immediately following the words "each company", the following, ", the cost thereof,".

Note 1 of Exhibit O as amended reads as follows:

"Furnish also a complete list of the companies whose securities compose the trust property, showing the number and kind of the securities of each company, the cost thereof, and the market price as of the date of the balance sheet."

The foregoing action shall be effective January 3, 1938.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF KEOKUK ELECTRIC COMPANY, DALLAS CITY LIGHT COMPANY, FORT MADISON ELECTRIC COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by Keokuk Electric Company, a subsidiary of The North American Company, which is a registered holding company, for exemption of the issuance of its no par value common stock in an aggregate amount equal, at an issue price of $45 per share, to the book value of the property and assets (less liabilities to be assumed) of Fort Madison Electric Company and Dallas City Light Company, which said Keokuk Electric Company proposes to acquire; Fort Madison Electric Company and Dallas City Light Company, affiliate companies of Keokuk Electric Company, having filed applications, pursuant to Section 10 of said Act, for approval of the acquisition by each of said no par common stock, to be issued by Keokuk Electric Company, in aggregate amounts equal, at an issue price of $45 per share, to the property and assets (less liabilities to be assumed) of each company to be acquired by said Keokuk Electric Company; all of the applicants being subsidiaries of Central Mississippi Valley Electric Properties which in turn is a subsidiary of Union Electric Company of Missouri; and said applications having been filed as a part of a plan of reorganization and liquidation by which Dallas City Light Company and Fort Madison Electric Company, upon transfer of their assets to said Keokuk Electric Company, will be liquidated and dissolved and will distribute the stock of said Keokuk Electric Company, to be received by them in exchange for their assets, to Central Mississippi Valley Electric Properties, which company thereupon will be liquidated and dissolved and will distribute such stock to Union Electric Company of Missouri;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on December 22, 1937, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under Section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer. Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the presiding officer is directed to make his report to the Commission.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before December 18, 1937.

By the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

CHATTAHOOCHEE NATIONAL FOREST—GEORGIA

By the President of The United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS it appears that certain lands within the State of Georgia, acquired by the United States, under the authority of the National Industrial Recovery Act, approved July 16, 1933 (48 Stat. 195), and the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, approved April 8, 1935 (49 Stat. 115), are suitable for forest purposes; and

WHEREAS it appears that it will be in the public interest to reserve such lands for national-forest purposes, and that they can be effectively and economically administered as part of the Chattahoochee National Forest, Georgia, established by Proclamation of July 9, 1936 (1 F. R. 776):

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 24 of the act of March 3, 1891, 26 Stat. 1095, 1103, as amended (16 U. S. C., sec. 471), the act of June 4, 1897, 30 Stat. 34, 36 (16 U. S. C., sec. 473), the said National Industrial Recovery Act, and the said Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, do proclaim that the following-described lands are hereby included in and reserved as part of the said Chattahoochee National Forest:

Tracts Nos. 490a, 360, 360a, 861, 332, 131c, and 215d, of the Piedmont Project (LA-GA-3), Georgia, as shown on the accompanying diagram which is made a part hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this seventh day of December in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] thirty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

SUBDIVISION PACKAGES FOR CIGARS AND CIGARETTES

REGULATIONS NO. 8, RELATING TO THE TAXES ON TOBACCO, SNUFF, CIGARS, AND CIGARETTES, ALSO ON CIGARETTE PAPERS AND TUBES AND PURCHASE AND SALE OF LEAF TOBACCO, AMENDED

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Article 76, Regulations No. 8, as revised and approved November 12, 1934, as amended by T. D. 4668, approved July 22, 1936, is further amended to read as follows:

"ART. 76. Subdivision packages.—The statutory number of cigars and cigarettes contained in the box or package may be subdivided by the use of paper or ribbon bands. The statutory number of cigars and cigarettes contained in the box or package may be subdivided, also, into parcels as follows:

"(a) Cigars weighing more than three pounds per thousand may be separated into parcels containing not more than ten cigars each. The subdivision parcels may be made of foil, foil paper, wax paper, cellophane, or other unsubstantial material upon which it would be impracticable to print the required factory brand or affix an internal revenue stamp. The subdivision parcels may be made also of lightweight cardboard or other substantial material upon which it is practicable to print the factory brand or to affix an internal revenue stamp, provided the lightweight cardboard or other substantial parcels have cut-out windows or are open at one end.

"(b) Cigarettes (including small cigars weighing not more than three pounds per thousand) may be subdivided into parcels containing a statutory number, i. e., five, eight, ten, twelve, fifteen, sixteen, twenty, twenty-four, forty, fifty, eighty, or one hundred cigarettes or small cigars, provided such subdivision parcels are made of foil, foil paper, wax paper, cellophane, or other unsubstantial material upon which it would be impracticable to print the required factory brand or to affix an internal revenue stamp. Subdivision parcels which do not contain a statutory number of cigarettes or small cigars as enumerated above may be made of the same unsubstantial material as mentioned in the preceding sentence, or the subdivision parcels may be made of lightweight cardboard or other substantial material provided the lightweight cardboard or other substantial subdivisions have cut-out windows, or are open at one end. The above provisions relating to the use of subdivision parcels in packing cigarettes or small cigars do not apply to subdivision parcels containing not more than four cigarettes or small cigars each, when such parcels are prepared by the manufacturer solely for delivery to his agents or representatives and to be distributed exclusively by them directly from the original stamped statutory packages to prospective customers for advertising purposes only.

"(c) The caution notice label (article 84), factory brand (article 85), and classification label (article 86), must not appear on any subdivision parcel of a statutory box or package, but must appear only on the statutory box or package on which the requisite stamp is affixed. No subdivision parcel shall bear any statement which indicates that the tax has been paid on the contents of any such subdivision parcel.

"(d) Cigars and cigarettes when subdivided into parcels must remain in the stamped statutory box or package until they are sold or delivered direct to the consumer, and the whole number of cigars or cigarettes packed in each statutory box or package must correspond to the denomination of the stamp affixed to the box or package. (See article 151.)"

This Treasury Decision is promulgated under the authority contained in section 1101 of the Revenue Act of 1926.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

G. S. Q. R., Series 4, No. 8 Issued December 8, 1937

PRORATION OF THE 1937 HAWAIIAN SUGAR DEFICIT

[General Sugar Quota Regulations, Series 4, No. 2, Supplement 4]

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Sugar Act of 1937, approved September 1, 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, in order to carry out the powers vested in me by the said act, do hereby make, prescribe, publish, and give public notice of these regulations (constituting a supplement to General Sugar Quota Regulations, Series 4, No. 2, issued September 2, 1937), which shall have the force and effect of law and shall remain in force and effect until amended or superseded by orders or regulations hereafter made by the Secretary of Agriculture.

1. It is hereby determined, pursuant to Section 204 (a) of the said act, that for the calendar year 1937 the Hawaiian sugar producing area will be unable by an amount of 54,123 short tons of sugar, raw value, to market the quota established for that area in General Sugar Quota Regulations, Series 4, No. 2, approved September 2, 1937, and Supplement 3 to such regulations, approved September 16, 1937.

2. An amount of sugar equal to the deficit determined in paragraph one is hereby prorated, pursuant to Section 204 (a) of the said act, to the Mainland Cane Sugar Area, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Cuba as follows:

| Areas: | Additional quotas (short tons, raw value) |
|---|---|
| Mainland Cane Sugar Area (Louisiana and Florida) | 7,245 |
| Puerto Rico | 13,760 |
| Virgin Islands | 154 |
| Cuba | 32,964 |
| Total | 54,123 |

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the District of Columbia, city of Washington this 8th day of December, 1937.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION.

RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE AND LAWS RELATING TO THE TARIFF COMMISSION

RULES OF GENERAL APPLICATION

The Tariff Commission's rules of general application apply (except for a few details, which are indicated) to investigations under the provisions of sections 332, 336, and 337 of title III, part II, of the Tariff Act of 1930. In addition to the rules of general application, rules having specific application to investigations under sections 336 and 337 appear separately hereinafter. It is not feasible to promulgate rules for investigations under section 338. Attention is called to the fact that the law does not require hearings in general investigations under section 332; however, when it is decided to hold hearings in such investigations, notice will be given and the hearings conducted so far as feasible in the same manner as under section 336.

The principal office of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., is open each business day from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., except on Saturday, when the office hours are 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. The Commission may meet and exercise all its powers at any place and may designate one or more of its members or any duly authorized agent or agents to hold hearings or to prosecute any inquiry necessary to its duties. A majority of the Commissioners in office shall constitute a quorum.

Suspension of Rules

In an emergency or when in the judgment of the Commission the public interest requires it, the Commission may modify or suspend any of its rules of practice and procedure except such details of procedure as are expressly required by law. Whenever feasible, public notice of such suspension will be given.

United States Publications as Evidence

Publications of the United States Government, particularly reports of the Tariff Commission, need not be offered in evidence because the Commission will notice them as public documents. Reference may be made to a document by its title and particular page.

Confidential Information Not To Be Disclosed

Trade secrets and processes within the meaning of section 335 of the Tariff Act of 1930 will not be made public.

Furthermore, individual business data which the Commission considers to be of a confidential nature will be withheld from disclosure. All data which persons wish to have considered confidential should be submitted on separate pages, clearly marked "Confidential." The acceptance of any particular information in confidence is within the discretion of the Commission.

Action Upon Receipt of Application or Complaint

Receipt of an application for investigation under section 336 or of a complaint under section 337 will be acknowledged by the Secretary of the Commission, and public notice of such receipt will be posted at least 10 days at the principal office of the Commission in Washington, D. C., and at its office in New York City, and published in Treasury Decisions of the Treasury Department, and in Commerce Reports of the Department of Commerce. This public notice will set forth the name or description of the commodity concerned, the date of receipt and the purpose of the application or complaint, and the name of the applicant or complainant. Similar public notice will be given of applications or complaints withdrawn or dismissed. Copies of notices referred to in this paragraph will be mailed to all persons named in the application or complaint concerned.

At the time of posting notice of the receipt of an application or of a complaint, such application or complaint, except for confidential material, will be made available for public inspection at the office of the Commission in Washington, D. C., where it may be read and copied by persons interested.

Applications and complaints may be withdrawn as a matter of course at any time before an investigation pursuant thereto has been ordered by the Commission, but, whether or not an application or complaint shall have been withdrawn, the Commission may order an investigation in any case if in its judgment the public interest so requires. The Commission may also in special cases and for adequate cause allow the withdrawal of an application or complaint after an investigation has been ordered, but the investigation may be continued if deemed by the Commission to be in the public interest. Investigations may be terminated short of formal completion when, in the judgment of the Commission, the public interest so requires.

The Commission will notify the applicant or complainant of its decision to order or not to order the investigation requested. In reaching its decision, the Commission will take into consideration the informaton furnished by the applicant or complaint, the information assembled by its staff, and the information furnished by other persons either in favor of or opposed to the institution of an investigation.

Scope of Investigations

In ordering an investigation the Commission will not be confined to the issues presented in an application or a complaint but may broaden, limit, or modify the scope of the investigation.

Appearances

Any person showing to the satisfaction of the Commission an interest in the subject matter of an investigation may enter an appearance in such investigation, either in person or by representative at any time before the close of the public hearing relating to the matter involved. Persons participating as witnesses only are not expected to enter appearances.

Requests to enter an appearance shall be filed in writing with the Secretary of the Commission at its office in Washington, D. C., or at any other place where a hearing is held. A written notice of an appearance on behalf of a particular person or persons in a proceeding should be submitted by attorneys or agents desiring to appear for such person or persons.

No register of attorneys or agents who may practice before the Commission is maintained. No application for admission to practice is required. Any person desiring to appear as attorney or agent before the Commission may be required to show to the satisfaction of the Commission his acceptability in that capacity. Any attorney or agent practicing before the Commission, or desiring so to practice, may for good cause shown be suspended or disbarred from practicing before the Commission, but only after he has been accorded an opportunity to be heard in the matter.

No former officer or employee of the Commission who has, as such officer or employee, given personal consideration to an investigation (including preliminary inquiries prior to the institution of an investigation) shall be eligible to appear as attorney or agent before the Commission in such investigation. No former officer or employee of the Commission shall be eligible to appear as attorney or agent before the Commission within 2 years after the termination of such employment unless he has first obtained written consent from the Commission.

Rehearings, Postponements, Continuances, and Extensions of Time

The Commission may in its discretion for good cause shown grant rehearings, postponements, or continuances of hearings, or extend the time for doing any act fixed in or pursuant to these rules. Motions or requests for postponements or extensions of time must be filed at least 10 days in advance of the time previously prescribed. Motions for rehearing must be filed within a reasonable time after the Commission's decision in the particular matter.

Conduct of Public Hearings

Parties interested may appear at public hearings, either in person or by representative, and produce under oath, evidence relevant and material to the matter or matters with which the investigation is concerned.

After offering evidence, witnesses may be questioned under the direction of the Commission by any member of the Commission, or by any agent designated by the Commission, or by any person who has entered an appearance, for the purpose of assisting the Commission in obtaining the material facts with respect to the subject matter of the investigation.

Evidence, oral or written, submitted at hearings, shall upon the order of the Commission be subject to verification from the books, papers, and records of the parties interested and from any other available sources.

All hearings shall be stenographically reported. The Commission does not have available for distribution transcripts of the records of such hearings. Parties interested may see them at the Commission's office in Washington, D. C., or purchase them from the official reporter.

The Commission may continue any hearing or order such rehearing as it may deem necessary for a full presentation of the facts in any investigation.

Witnesses and Subpenas

Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, witnesses shall be examined orally.

The attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence may be required from any place in the United States at any designated place of hearing.

Any member of the Commission may sign subpenas, and members and agents of the Commission, when authorized by the Commission, may administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take testimony, and receive evidence.

Witness Fees and Mileage

Witnesses summoned before the Commission shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking them, except employees of the Commission, shall severally be entitled to the same fees and mileage as are paid for like service in the courts of the United States.

When witnesses are summoned or depositions are taken at the request of a party interested, such party must bear all expenses involved.

Depositions

The Commisison may order testimony to be taken by deposition at any stage of an investigation. Depositions may be taken before any person having power to administer oaths and designated by the Commisison. Such testimony shall be reduced to writing by the person taking the deposition, or under his direction, and shall then be subscribed by the deponent and certified in the usual manner by the person taking the deposition. After the deposition has been so certified it shall, together with a copy thereof made by such person or under his direction, be forwarded under seal to the Secretary of the Commission, Washington, D. C., and shall constitute a part of the record in such investigation. A sufficient number of additional copies of depositions must be furnished so that testimony so produced will be available to parties interested.

Briefs of the evidence given by deposition and arguments thereon may be filed in the same manner as briefs of testimony given at a public hearing.

Any person may be compelled to appear and depose and to produce documentary evidence in the same manner that witnesses may be compelled to appear and testify and produce documentary evidence before the Commission.

(See last paragraph under Witness Fees and Mileage for provision regarding expenses.)

Oral Argument

Oral argument may, in the discretion of the Commission, be heard upon the conclusion of the testimony in a hearing.

The Commission will determine in each instance the time to be allowed for argument and the allocation thereof to the parties interested.

Commissioners Sitting at Hearings

Hearings may be conducted by one or more Commissioners or by any duly authorized agent or agents of the Commission, and the record shall be presented for the consideration of the Commission.

Service

Except when service by other methods shall be specifically ordered by the Commission, processes of the Commission, service of which is required by law or by the Commission's rules, shall be served by the Secretary of the Commission by registered mail, by registering and mailing a copy thereof addressed to the person to be served, or to a member of the partnership to be served, or to the president, secretary, or other executive officer or a director of the corporation to be served. Complaints and findings under section 337 shall be similarly served.

When service cannot be accomplished by registered mail or whenever the Commission shall so direct, processes of the Commission may be served by anyone duly authorized by a Commissioner (a) by delivering a copy of the document to the person to be served, or to a member of the partnership to be served, or to the president, secretary, or other executive officer or a director of the corporation to be served; or (b) by leaving a copy thereof at the principal office of such person, partnership, or corporation. The return post office receipt for such processes, registered and mailed as aforesaid, or the verified return by the person serving such processes, setting forth the manner of said service shall be proof of the service of the document.

RULES APPLYING SPECIFICALLY TO SECTION 336—EQUALIZATION OF COSTS OF PRODUCTION

The following rules are specifically applicable to investigations for the purposes of section 336 of title III, part II, of the Tariff Act of 1930, and apply in addition to the pertinent rules of general application set forth hereinbefore.

Applications

Applications for an investigation for the purposes of section 336 may be made by any person, partnership, association, or corporation.

Applications for investigation should be typewritten or printed and must be submitted in duplicate but need not be drawn in any particular form and need not be under oath. Applications must be signed by or on behalf of the applicant and should state the name, address, and nature of business of the applicant.

Applications must clearly state that they are requests for investigation and must name or describe the commodity concerning which an investigation is sought. They should also refer to the tariff provision or provisions applicable to such commodity and should state whether an increase or a decrease in the rate of duty is sought.

Nature of information to accompany application.—The applicant must file with his application all supporting information available to him. The filing of such information is required to aid the Commission and does not render unnecessary the investigation which the law requires the Commission to make. As far as practicable information of the character indicated below should be furnished.

1. Comparability of the domestic and foreign articles and the degree of competition between them.
2. Trend of domestic production and sales and of imports.
3. Trend of cost of production and prices in recent years.
4. Evidence of difference between domestic and foreign costs of production of the articles involved. (When considered with reference to sec. 336, the term "cost of production" includes transportation costs and other costs incident to the delivery of the articles to the principal market or markets of the United States.)
5. Areas of greatest competition between the imported and domestic products and the principal market or markets in the United States.
6. Other relevant factors that constitute, in the opinion of the applicant, an advantage or disadvantage in competition, and any other information which the applicant believes the Commission should consider.

NOTE.—See rule dealing with confidential information.

Public Notice of Investigation

Public notice shall be given of every investigation ordered by the Commission, and subsequent notices relating thereto, by posting, for not less than 30 days, a copy of the order, at the principal office of the Commission in Washington, D. C., and at its office in New York City, and by publishing the text thereof in "Treasury Decisions," and by announcement thereof in "Commerce Reports."

Public Hearing

Reasonable public notice will be given of the time and place set for all hearings in the same manner that notice is given of an order instituting an investigation. In addition, notice of public hearing will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Announcement of hearing will ordinarily be made 30 days in advance of the date set.

Without excluding other factors and with a view to assisting parties interested in preparing for the hearing, the Commission will expect attention to be concentrated upon—

Facts which should be considered in appraising the competitive strength in the markets of the United States of the foreign and domestic articles.

Facts bearing upon the degree of likeness or similarity between grades, classes, and price groups of the American product and the imported article.

Facts bearing on costs of production and importation. Statements of average cost of production may be submitted subject to verification and review in the Commission's investigation. Such statements should include not only the direct costs for materials and labor, commonly termed prime cost, but also indirect costs such as indirect labor, variable factory expenses, fixed expenses, the portion of general and administrative expense chargeable to manufacture, interest on investment, and transportation to market. For the foreign product the expenses incident to importation will also be of interest. Any information which may be available bearing on the general levels of domestic and foreign costs of production, the differential between specific domestic and foreign costs of production, and the extent to which invoice or wholesale prices are reliable evidence of foreign costs, will be pertinent.

The Commission also seeks information to determine—

Principal competing country.
Principal American market or markets.
Representative period of time for cost inquiry.
Other significant advantages or disadvantages in competition.

Finally, parties interested appearing at public hearings are expected to present definite and affirmative information rather than generalities and conjectures.

Briefs

Briefs of the evidence produced at the hearing and arguments thereon may be presented to the Commission by parties interested who have entered an appearance. Unless otherwise ordered, 10 clear copies typed, mimeographed, multigraphed, or printed shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission within 10 days after the close of the hearing.

Briefs not filed with the Commission on or before the date fixed therefor will not be accepted. (See also provisions for briefs under Depositions.)

RULES APPLYING SPECIFICALLY TO SECTION 337—UNFAIR PRACTICES IN IMPORT TRADE

The following rules are specifically applicable to investigations for the purposes of section 337 of title III, part II, of the Tariff Act of 1930, and apply in addition to the pertinent rules of general application set forth hereinbefore.

Complaints

Complaint and petition for investigation for the purposes of section 337 may be made by any person, partnership, association, or corporation.

Complaints must be made under oath but need not be drawn in any particular form. They must be signed by or on behalf of the complainant and must contain the name, address, and nature of business of the complainant and of the person or persons alleged to violate the law. The location of manufacturing plant or plants should also be stated. Complaints must contain a short and simple statement of the facts constituting the alleged unfair methods of competition or unfair acts. Specific instances of alleged unlawful importations or sales should be given.

To the extent possible, complaints must also contain economic data concerning domestic production and distribution, imports and their distribution, and other pertinent facts such as will indicate: (a) That the domestic industry concerned is efficiently and economically operated and that it is being or is likely to be destroyed or substantially injured by the importations or sales in question; (b) that the alleged unlawful acts are preventing the establishment of an efficiently and economically operated domestic industry; or (c) that the alleged unlawful acts are having the effect or tendency to restrain or monopolize trade and commerce in the United States.

NOTE.—See the rule dealing with confidential information.

The complaint may be amended or further evidence submitted, in the discretion of the Commission, for good cause shown.

Complainants must submit a clear copy of any complaint or amendment thereto for each person alleged to have violated the provisions of section 337, and the Commission may require the supplying of additional copies to be served on persons whose alleged violation of section 337 is called to its attention subsequent to the filing of the complaint. In addition, three copies must be submitted for the official use of the Commission.

Preliminary Inquiry

The Commission will make such preliminary inquiry as it shall deem necessary to determine (1) whether the institution of an investigation is warranted and (2) whether the issuance of a temporary order of exclusion from entry (if requested) under section 337 (f) is warranted.

Answers to Complaints

After an investigation shall have been ordered, and not before, a copy of the complaint shall be served by the Commission upon any owner, importer, consignee, or agent of either, alleged to violate the provisions of section 337, and such owner, importer, consignee, or agent of either, shall have 30 days, unless otherwise ordered, in which to make written answer under oath and to show cause, if any there be, why the provisions of section 337 should not be applied in respect of the alleged unfair methods of competition and unfair acts set forth in the complaint.

Copies of all answers shall be served by the Commission upon complainants or upon their attorneys.

The Commission reserves the right to determine whether to send copies of complaints to respondents in foreign countries.

Public Notice of Investigation

Public notice of the institution of an investigation and of the date set for a hearing shall be given in the same manner as in investigations for the purposes of section 336.

Briefs

The Commission will fix a date on or before which briefs may be submitted, which date will be announced at the close of the hearing. Unless otherwise ordered, 20 clear copies typed, mimeographed, multigraphed, or printed shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission.

Briefs not filed with the Commission on or before the date fixed therefor will not be accepted.

Application for extension of time for submitting briefs shall be filed in writing with the Secretary of the Commission at least 10 days before the date set for submitting briefs and shall set forth fully the reasons for such application.

Copies of all briefs shall be served by the Commission upon all interested parties who have entered appearances or upon their representatives of record.

Record

A transcript of the testimony in an investigation, together with the findings and recommendations of the Commission, shall be the official record of the proceedings and findings in the investigation.

Confidential material accompanying a complaint or an answer and exhibits presented at a hearing, but accepted by the Commission as confidential and so marked, will not be considered a part of the record sent to the court in the case of an appeal. (See also Confidential Information.)

Findings

Upon the conclusion of an investigation, the Commission shall formulate findings based thereon. When the findings show a violation of the statute, a copy of the findings certified by the Secretary under the seal of the Commission shall be delivered or sent by registered mail promptly to the owner, importer, consignee, or agent of either, found to be guilty of such violation.

Attention is directed to the provision of section 337 (c) authorizing rehearings by the Commission and appeals by the importer or consignee within 60 days to the United States Court of Customs and Patent Appeals upon a question or questions of law only. If no appeal is filed within the time prescribed and no rehearing granted, or if appeal is filed or rehearing granted and the Commission's findings are ultimately affirmed, the findings are then considered final.

Transmittal to the President

The final findings of the Commission shall be transmitted with the record to the President for consideration and for action under the statute.

Approved by the Commission and ordered to be printed in the FEDERAL REGISTER, effective as of the date of such publication.

By order of the United States Tariff Commission.

ORLAND IRRIGATION PROJECT, CALIFORNIA

PUBLIC NOTICE OF ANNUAL WATER CHARGES [1]

OCTOBER 29, 1937.

1. Annual operation and maintenance charges.—The annual operation and maintenance charge for the irrigation season of 1938, and thereafter until further notice, against all lands of the Orland project, California, under public notice, shall be a minimum charge of one dollar and eighty cents ($1.80) per irrigable acre whether water is used thereon or not, which charge will permit the delivery of not to exceed 3 acre-feet of water per acre; and additional water, up to the amount of the surplus natural flow water used prior to the time it becomes necessary to draw upon any storage water, will be furnished at the rate of ten (10) cents per acre-foot and further additional water at the rate of forty (40) cents per acre-foot.

[1] Act of June 17, 1902, 32 Stat., 388, as amended or supplemented.

2. Time of payment.—The minimum charge announced above will be due and payable on or before December 31, 1937, and no water will be delivered until it is paid. Charges for additional water will become due and payable on December 31 following the irrigation season. All charges are subject to the penalties prescribed by subsection H of section 4 of the act of December 5, 1924 (43 Stat. 701) if not paid on or before the due dates stated above. The same terms of payment will apply to further irrigation seasons unless subsequently modified.

3. Method of billing and payment.—All charges will be billed direct to the water users and will be payable by them to the Bureau of Reclamation, Orland, California.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 112]

AN ORDER DETERMINING AND ESTABLISHING INITIAL CLASSIFICATIONS OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER 15 AS PROVIDED BY COMMISSION'S ORDERS NO. 38 AND NO. 43, AND SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTION (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders No. 38 and No. 43 directed all District Boards to propose to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members within their respective districts in conformity with the standards, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure prescribed by the Commission in said orders; the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 15 having proposed to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members and a hearing having been held thereon; and Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 15 having submitted evidence at such hearing showing compliance with the standards of classifications of coals, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure, as prescribed by the Commission in its Orders No. 38 and No. 43; and, the Commission having given due consideration to the proposed initial classifications of coals by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 15 and to other evidence and pertinent data relating to the classifications of coals for District Number 15:

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the classifications of coals of code members for District Number 15, set out preceding the names of code members and their respective mines as the same appear in the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members within District Number 15, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the initial classifications of coals for code members within the said District Number 15 and such classifications shall be effective until further order of this Commission.

2. That all proceedings for reclassifications of coals shall be made and conducted in conformity with the provisions of Order No. 38, as amended by Order No. 43, and all proceedings for additional initial classifications shall be had in conformity with orders now in effect or hereafter issued.

3. That nothing herein contained shall affect any proceeding now pending before District Board Number 15 or the Commission involving a revision of the initial classifications of coals of any code member.

That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals for Code Members within District Number 15 to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretary of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 15 and to code members within said district, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 9th day of December, 1937.

[Order No. 113]

AN ORDER ESTABLISHING MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER FOURTEEN IN CONFORMITY WITH SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTIONS (A) AND (B) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having established in each of the districts under its jurisdiction, as an agency of the Commission, a Statistical Bureau, and having directed by its Order Number 15 producers of bituminous coal to file therewith cost data for the calendar year 1936; the District Boards having been organized pursuant to Section 4, Part I (a), of the Act, and such District Boards having, from cost data submitted by the Statistical Bureau for their respective districts, determined, pursuant to Order Number 56 of the Commission, the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in their respective districts in the calendar year 1936 and having adjusted the average costs so determined, as was necessary to give effect to any changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors substantially affecting costs, exclusive of seasonal changes, so as to reflect as accurately as possible any change or changes which had been established since January 1, 1936, and having submitted to the Commisison such determinations and the computations upon which they were based; the Commission having thereupon determined by its Order Number 66 the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for Minimum Price Area Four in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as aforesaid, and having transmitted the same to the several District Boards in such Minimum Price Area; each District Board in a Minimum Price Area having proposed minimum prices free on board transportation facilities at the mines for the kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced in their respective districts, and classifications of coals and price variations as to mines, consuming market areas, values as to uses and seasonal demand, said prices having been proposed so as to yield a return per net ton for each district, equal as nearly as may be to the weighted average of the total costs, per net ton, of the tonnage of such Minimum Price Area, such total costs computed as provided by subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, the minimum prices having been proposed on tentative weighted average costs, with later adjustments thereof to reflect the actual adjusted weighted average costs; the Commission having by its Order Number 102 determined and established the initial classifications of coals of code members within said District Number Fourteen; the District Board for District Number Fourteen having coordinated in common consuming market areas with other districts upon a fair competitive basis the said proposed minimum prices and having submitted to the Commission such coordinated prices and the data upon which they were predicated; the Commission having accepted the minimum prices as proposed and coordinated by said District Board and having in certain respects modified same, and having determined the common consuming market areas to be as set forth in the attached Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Fourteen, hereinafter referred to; the said District Board Number Fourteen in coordinating the said proposed minimum prices and the Commission in modifying the same, having taken into account, among other factors, the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal, and transportation charges upon coal, and the said District Board and the Commission having conformed to the standards that such prices (a) be just and equitable as between producers within each district, (b) do not permit dumping, (c) be just and equitable and not unduly prejudicial or preferential, as between and among districts, (d) reflect, as nearly as possible, the relative market values, at points of delivery in each common consuming market area, of the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coals produced in the various districts, taking into account values as to uses, seasonal demand, transportation methods and charges and their effect upon a reasonable opportunity to compete on a fair basis, and the competitive relationships between coal and other forms of fuel and energy, (e) preserve, as nearly as may be, existing fair competitive opportunities, and (f) have due regard for the interests of the consuming public; and

The Commission having determined that the minimum prices so coordinated do not, as to District Number Fourteen or any other district with which prices were so coordinated, reduce or increase the return per net ton upon all the coal produced within any of such districts below or above the minimum return as provided in subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, by an amount greater than necessary to accomplish such coordination, and that the return per net ton upon the entire tonnage of the Minimum Price Area in which any such district is located, at such prices as coordinated, will approximate the weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of such Minimum Price Area.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the minimum prices of coals of code members produced within District Number Fourteen, set opposite the names of code members and their respective mines, as the same appear in the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Fourteen, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Fourteen, and such minimum prices shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 27th day of December, 1937.

2. That any code member or District Board or member thereof, or any State or political subdivision of a State, or the Consumers' Counsel who shall be dissatisfied with the coordination of prices or by any minimum price established, may at any time after this date make complaint by petition to the Commission, pursuant to Section 4, Part II (d), and in conformity with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Commission shall after notice and hearing make such further order as may be required to effectuate the purpose of subsection (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act. Pending final disposition of such petition and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission may at any time make such preliminary or temporary order as in its judgment may be appropriate, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced Within District Number Fourteen to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers Boards for the districts within Minimum Price Area Four and to code members within District Number Fourteen, shall cause copies of this order and said Schedule and copies of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 9th day of December, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1—DISTRICT NO. 14

Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 14, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective: 12:01 a. m., December 27, 1937.

Issued December 10, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

1. The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

5. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 15 cents per net ton shall be made.

6. Crushed coal.—Where any coal is crushed the minimum price therefore shall be the minimum price established for the original size, before crushing, plus five cents per net ton.

7. Twenty-five cents per net ton extra shall be charged for all coal hand loaded into box cars.

SUBSTITUTION CLAUSE

The substitution on any order of a grade or size of coal taking a minimum price higher than the grade or size ordered is not authorized or permitted.

Size Groups—For Shipment Into All Market Areas

| Size group number | Designation | Sizes | |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | Through [1] | Over [1] |
| 1 | Lump | | 8" |
| 2 | Lump | | 2½". |
| 3 | Grate | 8½" | 4" |

[Order No. 114]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 101, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER 13 IN RESPECT TO RAILROAD LOCOMOTIVE FUEL

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 101 established the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number 13 incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission having upon its own motion reviewed the Railroad Locomotive fuel prices described on pages number 28 and 41 [1] of such Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number 13, and the Commission having determined that to more effectively carry out the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act, minimum prices for said Railroad Locomotive fuel should be revised as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number 13 be and the same hereby is revised and amended by striking therefrom at pages number 28 and 41 the following provisions as to minimum prices of Railroad Locomotive fuel (Alabama mines), at page number 28,[2] and identical provisions for the Minimum prices of Railroad Locomotive fuel (Tennessee-Georgia mines), at page number 41,[3] to-wit:

"All coal, except lump or double screened sizes, sold for Railroad Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.40 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines.

"Lump or any double screened coal ordered or sold for Locomotive fuel, shall take a minimum price of $2.55 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines."

and inserting in lieu thereof the following provisions, to-wit:

"All coal, except lump or double screened sizes, sold for on-line Railroad Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.35 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines, and such coal sold for off-line Railroad Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.15 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines.

"Lump or any double screened coal ordered or sold for on-line Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.50 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines, and such coal ordered or sold for off-line Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.30 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines."

2. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Areas Number One, Two and Three, and to all Code Members within District Number 13; shall cause copies of this order to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 9th day of December, 1937.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

[No. 3666]

IN THE MATTER OF REGULATIONS FOR TRANSPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

DECEMBER 4, 1937.

It appearing that by petitions received from interested parties certain new and amended regulations are proposed for our approval pursuant to section 233 of the Criminal Code (Transportation of Explosives Act), covering the packing, marking, loading, handling while in transit, and to determine whether the proposed changes are in accord with the best known means for securing safety in transit,—

The above entitled proceeding is assigned for hearing on January 6, 1938, at 10 o'clock a. m. (standard time), at the office of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., before Commissioner McManamy and Special Examiner King.

Under provision of the Explosives Act, the Commission may utilize the services of the Bureau of Explosives, Association of American Railroads. In the interest of expediency and in order that the time of the Commission may be reasonably conserved, the Bureau of Explosives will be prepared to confer with interested shippers and others at the office of the Commission, Washington, D. C., at 10:00 a. m. (standard time) on January 5, 1938, when opportunity will be afforded all interested parties to discuss, and if possible agree upon, the amendments proposed.

Attached is copy of proposed new and amended regulations.[1] Further copies may be secured upon application to the Commission or the Bureau of Explosives, 30 Vesey Street, New York City.

NOTICE REGARDING PULLMAN FARES AND CHARGES, 1937

DECEMBER 8, 1937.

The above-entitled proceeding is assigned for hearing on the dates and at the places hereinafter designated:

Washington, D. C., before Division 7, December 20, 1937, at the offices of the Commission.

NOTE.—It is expected that at this hearing only testimony in chief, on behalf of the applicant Pullman Company, will be received, without cross-examination at this time. Testimony in opposition should be reserved for later hearings; cross-examination of witnesses for the applicant Pullman Company will be held at Chicago, as hereinafter specified.

Los Angeles, Calif., before Commissioner Aitchison, January 11, 1938, at the offices of the Railway Commission of the State of California, State Building, North Broadway, near Front Street.

Portland, Oregon, before Commissioner Porter, January 15, 1938, at the Multnomah County Court House.

Salt Lake City, Utah, before Commissioners Aitchison and Porter, January 18, 1938, at Hotel Utah.

New Orleans, Louisiana, before Commissioner Caskie, January 21, 1938, at Hotel Jung.

Chicago, Illinois, before Division 7, January 24, 1938, at Hotel Morrison.

Washington, D. C., before Division 7, February 7, 1938, at the offices of the Commission.

All hearings scheduled to begin at 10:00 o'clock A. M. (Standard Time).

It is expected that oral argument before the Commission will follow the conclusion of testimony at once, or as soon as the oral argument in Docket Ex Parte No. 123, Fifteen Percent Case, 1937, is concluded; briefs (or memoranda) conforming to the rules of practice may be filed within ten days after oral argument.

Attention is directed to the appendix annexed, containing instructions to parties who may appear herein.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL, Secretary.

APPENDIX

Exhibits.—In the preparation of exhibits Rule XIII of the rules of practice should be followed. A copy of that rule is attached. If possible, all documents submitted by a witness should be embraced in a single exhibit, with pages consecutively numbered, suitably bound together. In order to supply the State Commissioners, members of this Commission, and counsel in the proceeding, at least 150 copies of each exhibit should be prepared. So far as possible exhibits should be made self-explanatory, in order to minimize the amount of time required for explanation by oral testimony.

Prepared statements.—Witnesses who expect in the course of their testimony to read a written statement should have sufficient copies thereof for the use of counsel, the Commissioners on the bench, and the official reporter.

Verified statements (affidavits).—Evidence in the form of verified statements (affidavits) without personal appearance of the affiant as a witness will also be received by consent of counsel. As soon as practicable parties desiring to offer such statements shall send 10 copies to the Commission and 75 copies to Mr. L. M. Greenlaw, counsel for the applicant, Pullman Bldg., Chicago, Ill. Within 10 days from receipt, Mr. Greenlaw will advise the party submitting the statement and the Commission whether there is objection to the receipt of such statement in evidence. Copies must also be furnished to other interested parties who request them. Such statements should conform to Rule XIII of the rules of practice in respect of style, mimeographing, printing, etc. They should be limited strictly to statements of fact and contain no argument, and if not so limited may be excluded.—The Commission on its own motion or on objection may exclude a verified statement or any portion thereof which is not material or relevant to the questions presented in this proceeding, is obviously incompetent, or is argumentative in character. The consent to introduction of such a verified statement will make it unnecessary for the affiant to appear personally at the hearing.

Notice of intention to produce testimony.—Persons who desire to be heard at any of these hearings will facilitate the arrangements necessary by sending notice of their intention, the number of witnesses, and the approximate amount of time necessary for presentation of direct testimony.

Correspondence.—Correspondence relative to this matter should be addressed to the Commission at Washington, D. C., with a reference to the docket number, Ex Parte No. 125.

RULE XIII, RULES OF PRACTICE (IN PART)

(c) 1. Tariffs; offer of matter contained in schedules.—In case any matter contained in a tariff schedule on file with the Commission is offered in evidence, such tariff schedule need not be produced or marked for identification, but the matter so offered shall be specified with particularity in such manner as to be readily identified and may be received in evidence subject to check by reference to the original tariff schedules so on file.

2. Reference in exhibits to tariff authority, routes, and distances.—All exhibits showing rates, fares, charges, or other tariff provisions must, by appropriate Interstate Commerce Commission number reference, indicate the tariff authority therefor, and if distances are shown must also show the authority therefor and, by lines and junction points, the routes over which the distances are computed; except that the routes over which the distances are computed need not be shown when such distances are specifically published in a tariff schedule lawfully on file with the Commission, or are definitely ascertainable from a tariff schedule on file with the Commission showing rates prescribed by the Commission and based on short line distances, provided the exhibit makes specific reference to such tariff schedules as provided by this rule.

(d) Copies of exhibits furnished opposing counsel.—When exhibits of a documentary character are to be offered in evidence copies must be furnished to opposing counsel, unless the presiding Commissioner or Examiner otherwise directs. Whenever practicable, the parties should interchange copies of exhibits before or at the commencement of the hearing.

(e) Size, form, and identification of exhibits; relevancy, materiality; not argumentative.—All exhibits of a documentary character received in evidence are bound with the rest of the record in covers of uniform size. Whenever practicable they should be on one side only of sheets not exceeding 12½ inches from top to bottom by 22 inches in width, and a sufficient margin for binding, preferably 1½ inches, must be left blank on the left side of each sheet. They must be on paper of good quality and so prepared as to be plainly legible and durable, whether printed or typewritten. If typewritten they must in other respects conform to the requirements of Rule XXI (b). Whenever practicable the sheets of each exhibit and the lines of each sheet should be numbered, and, if the exhibit consists of five or more sheets, the first sheet or title-page should be confined to a brief statement of what the exhibit purports to show, with reference by sheet and line to illustrative or typical examples contained in the exhibit and should bear an identifying number, letter, or short title which will readily distinguish the exhibit from the other exhibits of the same party. It is desirable that, whenever practicable, rate comparisons and other evidence should be condensed into tables. Exhibits should be limited to statements of fact relevant and material to the issue, which can be shown in that form better than by oral testimony. They should not be argumentative.

The Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 provides in part as follows:

JOINT AND SURVIVOR ANNUITY

SEC. 4. An individual whose annuity shall not have begun to accrue may elect prior to January 1, 1938, or at least five years before the date on which his annuity begins to accrue, or upon furnishing proof of health satisfactory to the Board, to have the value of his annuity apply to the payment of a reduced annuity to him during life and an annuity after his death to his spouse during life equal to, or 75 per centum of, or 50 per centum of such reduced annuity. The amounts of the two annuities shall be such that their combined actuarial value as determined by the Board shall be the same as the actuarial value of the single-life annuity to which the individual would otherwise be entitled. Such election shall be irrevocable, except that it shall become inoperative if the individual or the spouse dies before the annuity begins to accrue or if the individual's marriage is dissolved or if the individual shall be granted an annuity under subdivision 3 of section 2 (a); Provided, however, That the individual may, if his marriage is dissolved before the date his annuity begins to accrue, or if his annuity under subdivision 3 of section 2 (a) ceases because of failure to make the required proof of disability, make a new election under the conditions stated in the first sentence of this subsection. The annuity of a spouse under this subsection shall begin to accrue on the first day of the calendar month in which the death of the individual occurs.

Pursuant to the authority conferred by such Section 4 and by Section 10 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, the Railroad Retirement Board hereby prescribes the following rules and regulations to govern elections of joint and survivor annuities under the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937:

1. Definition of election.—An election of a joint and survivor annuity shall have been made when the individual entitled thereto (a) shall have made a choice to have the value of his annuity at accrual applied to the payment of a reduced annuity to him during life and an annuity after his death to his spouse during life; (b) shall have made a choice whether the value of his annuity at accrual shall be applied to the payment of an annuity to him during life so reduced as to provide for an annuity after his death to his spouse equal to such reduced annuity, or 75 per centum of such reduced annuity, or 50 per centum of such reduced annuity; (c) shall have made such choice with knowledge of the essence of the transaction; (d) and shall have communicated such choice in writing, clearly and unambiguously, to the Railroad Retirement Board; (e) all within the time provided in section 4 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937.

2. Communication to the Railroad Retirement Board.—Communication of the choice as hereinabove set forth may be made by signature in the appropriate space provided on Railroad Retirement Board Form AA–1 (as adopted February 4, 1936, or as thereafter from time to time revised), or by the due execution of Railroad Retirement Board Form AA–10, or by the execution of any legible writing clearly and unambiguously stating that the choice has been made; any such communication shall become effective as a communication upon its receipt by the Railroad Retirement Board. In the event that the communication takes a form other than the execution of the AA–1 or the AA–10 form referred to above, the individual will be required, where possible, to verify the communication by the execution of Railroad Retirement Board Form AA–10.

3. Prima facie evidence of further elements of election.—Receipt of a communication as set forth above shall constitute prima facie evidence of the existence of all the elements of an election as defined in paragraph 1 hereof. Whenever such prima facie evidence becomes conclusive or is confirmed as hereinafter provided, an election shall have been made on the date on which the communication containing such prima facie evidence is received by the Railroad Retirement Board.

4. Confirmation of prima facie evidence.—Upon receipt of a communication as hereinbefore described, the Railroad Retirement Board will advise the individual of the nature of the transaction and will solicit his confirmation of the existence of all the elements of an election. Upon receipt of such confirmation by the Railroad Retirement Board, an election shall be conclusively established to have been made on the date the original communication as hereinabove described was received by the Railroad Retirement Board.

5. Prima facie evidence to become conclusive under certain circumstances.—The prima facie evidence of the existence of the elements of an election contained in a communication as hereinabove set forth shall become conclusive without confirmation in any of the following circumstances:

(a) If the individual dies before confirmation or rebuttal is received by the Railroad Retirement Board.

(b) If an intervening right of the spouse to a survivor annuity is asserted on the basis of such prima facie evidence. In any case in which the individual seeks to rebut the prima facie evidence and to claim an annuity less favorable to the spouse, he shall be required to furnish evidence that no intervening right is asserted by obtaining the signature of the spouse upon Railroad Retirement Board Form LD–1 attached to these regulations; except that no such evidence shall be required in the event that any election which might be asserted to have been made becomes inoperative by law through the award of an annuity under subdivision 3 of section 2 (a) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937.

(c) If no confirmation or rebuttal is received by the Railroad Retirement Board within thirty days from the date on which a solicitation of confirmation is mailed to the individual at the address furnished by him, except upon a conclusive showing of special and unusual circumstances depriving the individual of an opportunity to indicate rebuttal within such thirty days.

6. Rebuttal of prima facie evidence.—In order to rebut the prima facie evidence of the existence of all the elements of an election contained in a communication as hereinabove described, the individual will be required to furnish evidence convincing to the Railroad Retirement Board that some element or elements of an election, as defined in paragraph 1 of these regulations, did not exist. If the elements of an election were present, a mere change of judgment upon reconsideration is not sufficient.

7. Further communication after rebuttal of prima facie evidence.—If prima facie evidence of the existence of all the elements of an election contained in a communication as hereinabove described is rebutted, any further communication in writing from the individual received by the Railroad Retirement Board expressing clearly and unambiguously a choice as set forth in paragraph 1 of these regulations shall constitute conclusive evidence of the existence of all the elements of an election, and such communication, in order to be effective, shall be received within the limitations of time set forth in section 4 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937.

8. Application of regulations to communications received prior to promulgation of regulations.—These regulations shall apply to all elections under the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, irrespective of whether communications with respect thereto are received by the Railroad Retirement Board before or after the promulgation of these regulations; except that in the case of any individual from whom such communication has been received before the date of promulgation of these regulations and who has not theretofore been advised of the nature of the transaction, and to whom no annuity has been awarded, advice of the nature of the transaction and solicitation of confirmation will be transmitted as promptly as possible after the promulgation of these regulations, and confirmation or rebuttal shall thereafter proceed as provided in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 of these regulations; and except that in the case of individuals who have theretofore been advised of the nature of the transaction and individuals to whom annuities have theretofore been awarded, the original communication shall be conclusive evidence of the existence of all the elements of an election unless rebuttal evidence is received within thirty days from the promulgation of these regulations.

By direction of the Board.

Re: Application of _____ RRB No. A _____

GENTLEMEN:

My husband (wife) has heretofore communicated to the Railroad Retirement Board an indication of the election of a joint and survivor annuity under Option _____, by which indication, if accepted as evidencing an election, my husband (wife) would receive (if and when certified) during life a reduced instead of a full annuity, and I would receive after his (her) death, during my life (if I survive), an annuity equal to _____

75% of _____
(strike out inapplicable lines)

50% of _____
(strike out inapplicable lines)

the annuity that (s)he would receive during life.

At the time such communication was made, my husband (wife) and I had no understanding of the foregoing, so that the election was never completed and was never made.

I therefore, request that the Railroad Retirement Board should not give any effect to the indication of an election of a joint and survivor annuity previously communicated. I fully understand that the effect of the execution of this instrument by me is such that I will not be entitled to receive, and that I will not receive, any annuity whatsoever after the death of my husband (wife) unless a different election is hereafter perfected, and I do so intend; and, as consideration of the Board's disregarding the communication previously received, I release and forever discharge the Railroad Retirement Board for any and all obligations to me arising therefrom.

INCOME TAX

REGULATIONS 94 AMENDED TO ACCORD WITH TITLE II OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1937, RELATING TO FOREIGN PERSONAL HOLDING COMPANIES

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the provisions of section 62 of the Revenue Act of 1936 and Supplement P, added to that Act by section 201 of Title II of the Revenue Act of 1937, approved August 26, 1937 (Public, No. 377, Seventy-fifth Congress, Chapter 815, first session), Regulations 94 are amended by adding a new chapter after Chapter XXXIII, designated Chapter XXXIV[1] and providing as follows:

[1] T. D. 4777 approved November 19, 1937 (2 F. R. 2535) amended Regulations 94 by renumbering existing Chapters XXXIV and XXXV as Chapters XXXV and XXXVI.

"CHAPTER XXXIV

"Foreign Personal Holding Companies

SUPPLEMENT P—FOREIGN PERSONAL HOLDING COMPANIES

SEC. 202 (Revenue Act of 1937). Effective date.—Supplement P of Title I of the Revenue Act of 1936, added to such Act by section 201 of this Act, shall not apply to a taxable year (either of a shareholder or of a foreign corporation) ending on or before the date of the enactment of this Act; and in no case shall the stock ownership requirement provided in section 331 (a) (2) of such Supplement be satisfied unless a United States group (as therein defined) existed with respect to the corporation after the date of the enactment of this Act. If under section 338 or 339 of such Supplement the date on which a return is required to be filed occurs prior to November 1, 1937, the return shall be considered as filed on time if filed prior to December 1, 1937.

SEC. 201 (Revenue Act of 1937). Inclusion in income of United States shareholders of income of foreign personal holding companies.—The Revenue Act of 1936 is amended by adding after Supplement O of Title I a new Supplement to read as follows:

SUPPLEMENT P—FOREIGN PERSONAL HOLDING COMPANIES

SEC. 331. Definition of foreign personal holding company.—(a) General Rule.—For the purposes of this title and of Title IA the term "foreign personal holding company" means any foreign corporation if—

(1) Gross income requirement.—At least 60 per centum of its gross income (as defined in section 334 (a)) for the taxable year is foreign personal holding company income as defined in section 332; but if the corporation is a foreign personal holding company with respect to any taxable year, then, for each subsequent taxable year, the minimum percentage shall be 50 per centum in lieu of 60 per centum, until a taxable year during the whole of which the stock ownership required by paragraph (2) does not exist, or until the expiration of three consecutive taxable years in each of which less than 50 per centum of the gross income is foreign personal holding company income. For the purposes of this paragraph there shall be included in the gross income the amount includible therein as a dividend by reason of the application of section 334 (c) (2); and

(2) Stock ownership requirement.—At any time during the taxable year more than 50 per centum in value of its outstanding stock is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for not more than five individuals who are citizens or residents of the United States, hereinafter called "United States group."

(b) Exceptions.—The term "foreign personal holding company" does not include a corporation exempt from taxation under section 101.

"ART. 331-1. Definition of foreign personal holding company.—A foreign personal holding company is any foreign corporation (other than a corporation exempt from taxation under section 101) which for the taxable year meets (a) the gross income requirement specified in article 331-2, and (b) the stock ownership requirement specified in article 331-3. Both requirements must be satisfied and both must be met with respect to each taxable year.

"A foreign corporation which comes within the classification of a foreign personal holding company for any taxable year ending after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1937, namely, August 26, 1937, is not subject to taxation for such taxable year either under section 102 or section 351 of Title IA, as amended, but may be subject to taxation under either of those sections for other taxable years. The fact that a foreign corporation is a foreign personal holding company does not relieve the corporation from liability for the taxes imposed generally under section 231 upon foreign corporations, since such taxes apply regardless of the classification of the foreign corporation as a foreign personal holding company.

"ART. 331-2. Gross income requirement.—To meet the gross income requirement, it is necessary that either of the following percentages of gross income of the corporation for the taxable year (including the additions to gross income provided in section 334 (b)) be foreign personal holding company income as defined in section 332:

"(a) 60 percent or more; or

"(b) 50 percent or more if the foreign corporation has been classified as a foreign personal holding company for any taxable year ending after August 26, 1937, unless—

"(1) a taxable year has intervened since the last taxable year for which it was so classified, during no part of which the stock ownership requirement specified in section 331 (a) (2) exists; or

"(2) three consecutive years have intervened since the last taxable year for which it was so classified, during each of which its foreign personal holding company income was less than 50 percent of its gross income.

"In determining whether the foreign personal holding company income is equal to the required percentage of the total gross income, the determination must not be made upon the basis of gross receipts, since gross income is not synonymous with gross receipts. For a further discussion of what constitutes 'gross income,' see section 22 (a) and the regulations prescribed under that section.

"ART. 331-3. Stock ownership requirement.—To meet the stock ownership requirement, it is necessary that at some time in the taxable year and after August 26, 1937 more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation be owned, directly or indirectly, by or for not more than five individuals who are citizens or residents of the United States, hereinafter referred to as 'United States group.' For such purpose, the ownership of the stock must be determined as provided in section 333 and articles 333 (a)-1 to 333 (a)-7 and article 333 (b)-1.

"In the event of any change in the stock outstanding during the taxable year, whether in the number of shares or classes of stock, or whether in the ownership thereof, the conditions existing immediately prior and subsequent to each change must be taken into consideration, since a corporation comes within the classification if the statutory conditions with respect to stock ownership are present at any time during the taxable year and after August 26, 1937.

"In determining whether the statutory conditions with respect to stock ownership are present at any time during the taxable year, the phrase 'in value' shall, in the light of all the circumstances, be deemed the value of the corporate stock outstanding at such time (not including treasury stock). This value may be determined upon the basis of the company's net worth, earning and dividend paying capacity, appreciation of assets, together with such other factors as have a bearing upon the value of the stock. If a value of stock is used which is greatly at variance with that reflected by the corporate books, the evidence upon which such valuation is based should be filed with the return. In any case where there are two or more classes of stock outstanding, the total value of all the stock should be allocated among the different classes according to the relative value of each class therein.

SEC. 332. Foreign personal holding company income.—For the purposes of this title the term "foreign personal holding company income" means the portion, of the gross income determined for the purposes of section 331 (a) (1), which consists of:

(a) Dividends, interest, royalties, annuities.

(b) Stock and Securities Transactions.—Except in the case of regular dealers in stock or securities, gains from the sale or exchange of stock or securities.

(c) Commodities transactions.—Gains from futures transactions in any commodity on or subject to the rules of a board of trade or commodity exchange. This subsection shall not apply to gains by a producer, processor, merchant, or handler of the commodity which arise out of bona fide hedging transactions reasonably necessary to the conduct of its business in the manner in which such business is customarily and usually conducted by others.

(d) Estates and trusts.—Amounts includible in computing the net income of the corporation under Supplement E; and gains from the sale or other disposition of any interest in an estate or trust.

(e) Personal service contracts.—(1) Amounts received under a contract under which the corporation is to furnish personal services; if some person other than the corporation has the right to designate (by name or by description) the individual who is to perform the services, or if the individual who is to perform the services is designated (by name or by description) in the contract; and (2) amounts received from the sale or other disposition of such a contract. This subsection shall apply with respect to amounts received for services under a particular contract only if at some time during the taxable year 25 per centum or more in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for an individual who has performed, is to perform, or may be designated (by name or by description) as the one to perform, such services.

(f) Use of corporation property by shareholder.—Amounts received as compensation (however designated and from whomsoever received) for the use of, or right to use, property of the corporation in any case where, at any time during the taxable year, 25 per centum or more in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for the individual entitled to the use of the property; whether such right is obtained directly from the corporation or by means of a sublease or other arrangement.

(g) Rents.—Rents, unless constituting 50 per centum or more of the gross income. For the purposes of this subsection the term "rents" means compensation, however designated, for the use of, or right to use, property; but does not include amounts constituting foreign personal holding company income under subsection (f).

"ART. 332-1. Foreign personal holding company income.—For the purposes of Supplement P and these regulations the term 'foreign personal holding company income' means the portion of the gross income determined for the purposes of section 331 (a) (1) and article 331-2 which consists of the following:

"(1) Dividends.—The term 'dividends' means dividends as defined in section 115 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1936 and includes amounts required to be included in gross income under section 334 (b). It does not include stock dividends (to the extent they do not constitute income to the shareholders within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution), liquidating dividends, or other capital distributions referred to in section 115 (c), as amended, and section 115 (d).

"(2) Interest.—The terms 'interest' means any amounts, includible in gross income, received for the use of money loaned.

"(3) Royalties.—The term 'royalties' includes amounts, received for the privilege of using patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, good will, trade marks, trade brands, franchises, and other like property. It does not include rents, nor overriding royalties received by an operating company. As used in this paragraph the term 'overriding royalties' means amounts received from the sublessee by the operating company which originally leased and developed the natural resource property in respect of which such overriding royalties are paid.

"(4) Annuities.—The term 'annuities' refers only to annuities to the extent includible in the computation of gross income. (See section 22 (b) (2).)

"(5) Gains from the sale or exchange of stock or securities.—The term 'gains from the sale or exchange of stock or securities' as used in section 332 (b) and these regulations applies to all gains (including gains from liquidating dividends and other distributions from capital) from the sale or exchange of stock or securities includible in gross income. The term 'stock or securities' includes shares or certificates of stock, or interest in any corporation (including any joint-stock company, insurance company, association, or other organization classified as a corporation by the Act), certificates of interest or participation in any profit-sharing agreement, or in any oil, gas, or other mineral royalty, or lease, collateral trust certificates, voting trust certificates, stock rights or warrants, bonds, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, notes, car trust certificates, bills of exchange, obligations issued by or on behalf of a Government, State, territory, or political subdivision thereof, etc. In the case of 'regular dealers in stock or securities' the term does not include gains derived from the sale or exchange of stock or securities made in the normal course of business. The term 'regular dealer in stock or securities' means corporations with an established place of business regularly engaged in the purchase of stock or securities and their resale to customers, but such corporations are not dealers with respect to stock or securities held for speculation or investment.

"(6) Gains from futures transactions in commodities.—Gains from futures transactions in commodities include gains from futures transactions in any commodity on or subject to the rules of a board of trade or commodity exchange, but do not include gains from cash transactions or gains by a producer, processor, merchant, or handler of the commodity, which arise out of bona fide hedging transactions reasonably necessary to the conduct of its business in the manner in which such business is customarily and usually conducted by others. In general, foreign personal holding company income includes gains on futures contracts which are speculative. Futures contracts representing true hedges against price fluctuations in spot goods are not speculative transactions, though not concurrent with spot transactions. Futures contracts which are not hedges against spot transactions are speculative unless they are hedges against concurrent futures or forward sales or purchases.

"(7) Income from estates and trusts.—The income from estates and trusts which is to be included in foreign personal holding company income consists of the income from estates and trusts which is required to be included in the gross income of a corporation under sections 161 to 169, together with the gains derived by the corporation from the sale or other disposition of any interest in an estate or trust.

"(8) Amounts received under personal service contracts.—Amounts includible in foreign personal holding company income as amounts received under personal service contracts consist of amounts received pursuant to a contract under which the corporation is to furnish personal services, and amounts received from a sale or other disposition of such a contract, if—

"(a) some person other than the corporation has the right to designate (by name or by description) the individual who is to perform the services, or if the individual who is to perform the services is designated (by name or by description in the contract); and

"(b) at some time during the taxable year 25 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for the individual who has performed, is to perform, or may be designated (by name or by description), as the one to perform such services. For this purpose the stock ownership must be determined as provided in section 333 and articles 333 (a)–1 to 333 (a)–7 and article 333 (b)–1.

The application of section 332 (e) may be illustrated by the following examples:

"Example (1).—A, whose profession is that of an actor, owns all of the outstanding capital stock of the M Corporation. The M Corporation entered into a contract with A under which A was to perform personal services for the person or persons which the M Corporation might designate, in consideration of which A was to receive $10,000 a year from the M Corporation. The M Corporation entered into a contract with the O Corporation in which A was designated to perform personal services for the O Corporation in consideration of which the O Corporation was to pay the M Corporation $500,000 a year. The $500,000 received by the M Corporation from the O Corporation constitutes foreign personal holding company income.

"Example (2).—The N Corporation, the entire outstanding capital stock of which is owned by four individuals, is engaged in engineering. The N Corporation entered into a contract with the O Corporation to perform engineering services for the O Corporation, in consideration of which the O Corporation was to pay the N Corporation $50,000. The individual who was to perform the services was not designated (by name or by description) in the contract and no one but the N Corporation had the right to designate (by name or by description) such individual. The $50,000 received by the N Corporation from the O Corporation does not constitute foreign personal holding company income.

"(9) Compensation for use of property.—The compensation for the use of, or the right to use, property of the corporation which is to be included in foreign personal holding company income consists of amounts received as compensation (however designated and from whomsoever received) for the use of, or the right to use, property of the corporation in any case in which, at any time during the taxable year, 25 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for the individual entitled to the use of the property, whether such right is obtained directly from the corporation or by means of a sublease or other arrangement. The property may consist of a yacht, a city residence, a country house, or any other kind of property. See sections 331 (a) (2) and 333 and articles 333 (a)–1 to 333 (a)–7 and article 333 (b)–1.

"(10) Rents.—The rents which are to be included in foreign personal holding company income consist of compensation, however designated, including charter fees, etc., for the use of, or the right to use, real property, or any other kind of property, but do not include amounts constituting foreign personal holding company income under section 332 (f) and paragraph (9) of this article. However, rents do not constitute foreign personal holding company income if constituting 50 percent or more of the gross income of the corporation.

SEC. 333. Stock ownership.—(a) Constructive Ownership—For the purpose of determining whether a foreign corporation is a foreign personal holding company, insofar as such determination is based on stock ownership under section 331 (a) (2), section 332 (e), or section 332 (f)—

(1) Stock not owned by individual.—Stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a corporation, partnership, estate, or trust shall be considered as being owned proportionately by its shareholders, partners, or beneficiaries.

(2) Family and partnership ownership.—An individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for his family or by or for his partner. For the purposes of this paragraph the family of an individual includes only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants.

(3) Options.—If any person has an option to acquire stock such stock shall be considered as owned by such person. For the purposes of this paragraph an option to acquire such an option, and each one of a series of such options, shall be considered as an option to acquire such stock.

(4) Application of family-partnership and option rules.—Paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be applied—

(A) For the purposes of the stock ownership requirement provided in section 331 (a) (2), if, but only if, the effect is to make the corporation a foreign personal holding company;

(B) For the purposes of section 332 (e) (relating to personal service contracts), or of section 332 (f) (relating to the use of property by shareholders), if, but only if, the effect is to make the amounts therein referred to includible under such subsection as foreign personal holding company income.

(5) Constructive ownership as actual ownership.—Stock constructively owned by a person by reason of the application of paragraph (1) or (3) shall, for the purpose of applying paragraph (1) or (2), be treated as actually owned by such person; but stock constructively owned by an individual by reason of the application of paragraph (2) shall not be treated as owned by him for the purpose of again applying such paragraph in order to make another the constructive owner of such stock.

(6) Option rule in lieu of family and partnership rule.—If stock may be considered as owned by an individual under either paragraph (2) or (3) it shall be considered as owned by him under paragraph (3).

"ART. 333 (a)–1. Stock ownership.—For the purpose of determining whether—

"(a) a foreign corporation is a foreign personal holding company, insofar as such determination is based on the stock ownership requirement specified in section 331 (a) (2) and article 331–3, or

"(b) amounts received under a personal service contract or from the sale of such a contract constitute foreign personal holding company income insofar as such determination is based on the stock ownership requirement specified in section 332 (e) and paragraph (8) of article 332–1, or

"(c) compensation for the use of property constitutes foreign personal holding company income insofar as such determination is based on the stock ownership requirement specified in section 332 (f) and paragraph (9) of article 332–1, stock owned by an individual includes stock constructively owned by him as provided in section 333. For such purpose constructive ownership of stock shall be determined and applied in accordance with the rules provided in section 333 and articles 333 (a)–2 to 333 (a)–7 and article 333 (b)–1. All forms and classes of stock, however denominated, which represent the interests of shareholders, members, or beneficiaries in the corporation shall be taken into consideration.

"ART. 333 (a)–2. Stock not owned by individual.—In determining the ownership of stock for any of the purposes set forth in article 333 (a)–1, stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a corporation, partnership, estate, or trust shall be considered as being owned proportionately by its shareholders, partners, or beneficiaries. For example, if A and B, two individuals, are the exclusive and equal beneficiaries of a trust or estate, and if such trust or estate owns the entire capital stock of the M Corporation, and if the M Corporation in turn owns the entire capital stock of the N Corporation, then the stock of both the M Corporation and the N Corporation shall be considered as being owned equally by A and B as the individuals owning the beneficial interest therein. See also article 333 (a)–6.

"ART. 333 (a)–3. Family and partnership ownership.—In determining the ownership of stock for any of the purposes set forth in article 333 (a)–1, an individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for his family or by or for his partner. For the purposes of such determination the family of an individual includes only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants.

"The application of the family and partnership rule in determining the ownership of stock for the purpose set forth in (a) of article 333 (a)–1 is illustrated by the following example:

"Example.—The M Corporation at some time during the taxable year had 1,800 shares of outstanding stock, 450 of which were held by various individuals having no relationship to one another and none of whom were partners, and the remaining 1,350 were held by 51 shareholders as follows:

| Relationships | Shares | Shares | Shares | Shares | Shares |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| An individual | A 100 | B 20 | C 20 | D 20 | E 20 |
| His father | AF 10 | BF 10 | CF 10 | DF 10 | EF 10 |
| His wife | AW 10 | BW 40 | CW 40 | DW 40 | EW 40 |
| His brother | AB 10 | BB 10 | CB 10 | DB 10 | EB 10 |
| His son | AS 10 | BS 40 | CS 40 | DS 40 | ES 40 |
| His daughter by former marriage (son's half-sister) | ASHS 10 | BSHS 40 | CSHS 40 | DSHS 40 | ESHS 40 |
| His brother's wife | ABW 10 | BBW 10 | CBW 10 | DBW 160 | EBW 10 |
| His wife's father | AWF 10 | BWF 10 | CWF 110 | DWF 10 | EWF 10 |
| His wife's brother | AWB 10 | BWB 10 | CWB 10 | DWB 10 | EWB 10 |
| His wife's brother's wife | AWBW 10 | BWBW 10 | CWBW 10 | DWBW 10 | EWBW 110 |
| Individual's partner | AP 10 | | | | |

By applying the statutory rule provided in section 333 (a) (2) five individuals own more than 50 percent of the outstanding stock as follows:

|---|---|
| A (including AF, AW, AB, AS, ASHS, AP) | 160 |
| B (including BF, BW, BB, BS, BSHS) | 160 |
| CW (including C, CS, CWF, CWB) | 220 |
| DB (including D, DF, DBW) | 200 |
| EWB (including EW, EWF, EWBW) | 170 |
| Total, or more than 50 percent | 910 |

Individual A represents the obvious case where the head of the family owns the bulk of the family stock and naturally is the head of the group. A's partner owns 10 shares of the stock. Individual B represents the case where he is still head of the group because of the ownership of stock by his immediate family. Individuals C and D represent cases where the individuals fall in groups headed in C's case by his wife and in D's case by his brother because of the preponderance of holdings on the part of relatives by marriage. Individual E represents the case where the preponderant holdings of others eliminate that individual from the group.

"The method of applying the family and partnership rule as illustrated in the foregoing example also applies in determining the ownership of stock for the purposes stated in (b) and (c) of article 333 (a)–1.

"ART. 333 (a)–4. Options.—In determining the ownership of stock for any of the purposes set forth in article 333 (a)–1, if any person has an option to acquire stock, such stock may be considered as owned by such person. The term 'option' as used in this article includes an option to acquire such an option and each one of a series of such options, so that the person who has an option on an option to acquire stock may be considered as the owner of the stock.

"ART. 333 (a)–5. Application of family-partnership and option rules.—The family and partnership rule provided in section 333 (a) (2) and article 333 (a)–3 and the option rule provided in section 333 (a) (3) and article 333 (a)–4 shall be applied—

"(a) for the purpose stated in (a) of article 333 (a)–1, if, but only if, the effect of such application is to make the foreign corporation a foreign personal holding company, or

"(b) for the purpose stated in (b) of article 333 (a)–1, if, but only if, the effect of such application is to make the amounts received under a personal service contract or from the sale of such a contract foreign personal holding company income, or

"(c) for the purpose stated in (c) of article 333 (a)–1, if, but only if, the effect of such application is to make the compensation for the use of property foreign personal holding company income.

The family and partnership rule and the option rule must be applied independently for each of the purposes stated in article 333 (a)–1.

"ART. 333 (a)–6. Constructive ownership as actual ownership.—In determining the ownership of stock for any of the purposes set forth in article 333 (a)–1—

"(a) stock constructively owned by a person by reason of the application of the rule provided in section 333 (a) (1) relating to stock not owned by an individual (see article 333 (a)–2) shall be considered as actually owned by such person for the purpose of again applying such rule or of applying the family and partnership rule provided in section 333 (a) (2) (see article 333 (a)–3) in order to make another person the constructive owner of such stock, and

"(b) stock constructively owned by a person by reason of the application of the option rule provided in section 333 (a) (3) (see article 333 (a)–4) shall be considered as actually owned by such person for the purpose of applying either the rule provided in section 333 (a) (1), relating to stock not owned by an individual, or the family and partnership rule provided in section 333 (a) (2) in order to make another person the constructive owner of such stock, but

"(c) stock constructively owned by an individual by reason of the application of the family and partnership rule provided in section 333 (a) (2) shall not be considered as actually owned by such individual for the purpose of again applying such rule in order to make another individual the constructive owner of such stock.

"The application of this article may be illustrated by the following examples:

"Example (1).—A is a United States citizen, whose wife, AW, owns all of the stock of the M Corporation, which in turn owns all the stock of the O Corporation. The O Corporation in turn owns all the stock in the P Corporation.

"Under the rule provided in section 333 (a) (1), relating to stock not owned by an individual, the stock in the P Corporation owned by the O Corporation is considered to be owned constructively by the M Corporation, the sole shareholder of the O Corporation. Such constructive ownership of the stock by the M Corporation is considered as actual ownership for the purpose of again applying such rule in order to make AW, the sole shareholder of the M Corporation, the constructive owner of the stock of the P Corporation. Similarly, the constructive ownership of the stock by AW is considered as actual ownership for the purpose of applying the family and partnership rule provided in section 333 (a) (2) in order to make A the constructive owner of the stock of the P Corporation, if such application is necessary for any of the purposes set forth in article 333 (a)–1. But the stock thus constructively owned by A may not be considered as actual ownership for the purpose of again applying the family and partnership rule in order to make another member of A's family, for example A's father, the constructive owner of the stock of the P Corporation.

"Example (2).—B is a United States citizen who owns all the stock of the R Corporation which has an option to acquire all the stock of the S Corporation, a foreign corporation, owned by C, an individual, who is not related to B.

"Under the option rule provided in section 333 (a) (3) the R Corporation may be considered as owning constructively the stock of the S Corporation owned by C. Such constructive ownership of the stock by the R Corporation is considered as actual ownership for the purpose of applying the rule provided in section 333 (a) (1), relating to stock not owned by an individual, in order to make B, the sole shareholder of the R Corporation, the constructive owner of the stock of the S Corporation. The stock thus constructively owned by B by reason of the application of the rule provided in section 333 (a) (1) likewise is considered as actual ownership for the purpose, if necessary, of applying the family and partnership rule provided in section 333 (a) (2), in order to make another member of B's family, for example, B's wife, BW, the constructive owner of the stock of the S Corporation. However, the family and partnership rule could not again be applied so as to make still another individual the constructive owner of the stock of the S Corporation, that is, the stock constructively owned by BW could not be considered as actually owned by her in order to make BW's father the constructive owner of such stock by a second application of the family and partnership rule.

"ART. 333 (a)–7. Option rule in lieu of family and partnership rule.—If, in determining the ownership of stock for any of the purposes set forth in article 333 (a)–1, stock may be considered as constructively owned by an individual by an application of both the family-partnership rule provided in section 333 (a) (2) (see article 333 (a)–3) and the option rule provided in section 333 (a) (3) (see article 333 (a)–4) such stock shall be considered as owned constructively by the individual by reason of the application of the option rule.

"The application of this article may be illustrated by the following example:

"Example.—Two brothers, A and B, each own 10 percent of the stock of the M Corporation, a foreign corporation, and A's wife, AW, also owns 10 percent of the stock of such corporation. AW's husband, A, has an option to acquire the stock owned by her at any time. It becomes necessary, for one of the purposes stated in article 333 (a)–1, to determine the stock ownership of B in the M Corporation.

"If the family and partnership rule were the only rule that applied in the case, B would be considered, under that rule, as owning 20 percent of the stock of the M Corporation namely, his own stock plus the stock owned by his brother. In that event, B could not be considered as owning the stock held by AW since (1) AW is not a member of B's family and (2) the constructive ownership of such stock by A through the application of the family and partnership rule in his case is not considered as actual ownership so as to make B the constructive owner by a second application of the same rule with respect to the ownership of the stock. (See article 333 (a)–6.)

"However, there is more than the family and partnership rule involved in this example. As the holder of an option upon the stock, A may be considered the constructive owner of his wife's stock by the application of the option rule and without reference to the family relationship between A and AW. If A is considered as owning the stock of his wife by application of the option rule, then under article 333 (a)–6, such constructive ownership by A is regarded as actual ownership for the purpose of applying the family and partnership rule so as to make another member of A's family, for example, B, the constructive owner of the stock. Hence, since A may be considered as owning his wife's stock by applying both the family-partnership rule and the option rule, the provisions of section 333 (a) (6) apply and accordingly A must be considered the constructive owner of his wife's stock under the option rule rather than the family-partnership rule. B thus becomes the constructive owner of 30 percent of the stock of the M Corporation, namely, his own 10 percent, A's 10 percent, and AW's 10 percent constructively owned by A as the holder of an option on the stock.

[SEC. 333. Stock ownership.]

(b) Convertible Securities.—Outstanding securities convertible into stock (whether or not convertible during the taxable year) shall be considered as outstanding stock—

(1) For the purpose of the stock ownership requirement provided in section 331 (a) (2), but only if the effect of the inclusion of all such securities is to make the corporation a foreign personal holding company;

(2) For the purpose of section 332 (c) (relating to personal service contracts), but only if the effect of the inclusion of all such securities is to make the amounts therein referred to includible under such subsection as foreign personal holding company income; and

(3) For the purpose of section 332 (f) (relating to the use of property by shareholders), but only if the effect of the inclusion of all such securities is to make the amounts therein referred to includible under such subsection as foreign personal holding company income.

The requirement in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) that all convertible securities must be included if any are to be included shall be subject to the exception that, where some of the outstanding securities are convertible only after a later date than in the case of others, the class having the earlier conversion date may be included although the others are not included, but no convertible securities shall be included unless all outstanding securities having a prior conversion date are also included.

"ART. 333 (b)–1. Convertible securities.—Under section 333 (b), outstanding securities of a foreign corporation, such as bonds, debentures or other corporate obligations, convertible into stock of the corporation (whether or not convertible during the taxable year) shall be considered as outstanding stock of the corporation for the purpose of the stock ownership requirement provided in section 331 (a) (2), but only if the effect of such consideration is to make the corporation a foreign personal holding company. Such convertible securities shall be considered as outstanding stock for the purpose of section 332 (e), relating to amounts received under personal service contracts, or of section 332 (f), relating to compensation for the use of property, but only if the effect of such consideration is to make the amounts therein referred to includible under such sections as foreign personal holding company income. The consideration of convertible securities as outstanding stock is subject to the exception that, if some of the outstanding securities are convertible only after a later date than in the case of others, the class having the earlier conversion date may be considered as outstanding stock although the others are not so considered, but no convertible securities shall be considered as outstanding stock unless all outstanding securities having a prior conversion date are also so considered. For example, if outstanding securities are convertible in 1937, 1938, and 1939, those convertible in 1937 can be properly considered as outstanding stock without so considering those convertible in 1938 or 1939, and those convertible in 1937 and 1938 can be properly considered as outstanding stock without so considering those convertible in 1939. However, the securities convertible in 1938 could not be properly considered as outstanding stock without so considering those convertible in 1937 and the securities convertible in 1939 could not be properly considered as outstanding stock without so considering those convertible in 1937 and 1938.

SEC. 334. Gross income of foreign personal holding companies.—(a) General rule.—As used in this Supplement with respect to a foreign corporation the term "gross income" means gross income computed (without regard to the provisions of Supplement I) as if the foreign corporation were a domestic corporation.

(b) Additions to gross income.—In the case of a foreign personal holding company (whether or not a United States group, as defined in section 331 (a) (2), existed with respect to such company on the last day of its taxable year) which was a shareholder in another foreign personal holding company on the day in the taxable year of the second company which was the last day on which a United States group existed with respect to the second company, there shall be included, as a dividend, in the gross income of the first company, for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the second company ends, the amount the first company would have received as a dividend if on such last day there had been distributed by the second company, and received by the shareholders, an amount which bears the same ratio to the undistributed Supplement P net income of the second company for its taxable year as the portion of such taxable year up to and including such last day bears to the entire taxable year.

(c) Application of subsection (b).—The rule provided in subsection (b)—

(1) shall be applied in the case of a foreign personal holding company for the purpose of determining its undistributed Supplement P net income which, or a part of which, is to be included in the gross income of its shareholders, whether United States shareholders or other foreign personal holding companies;

(2) shall be applied in the case of every foreign corporation with respect to which a United States group exists on some day of its taxable year, for the purpose of determining whether such corporation meets the gross income requirements of section 331 (a) (1).

"ART. 334–1. Gross income in general for purposes of Supplement P.—For all purposes of Supplement P and Chapter XXXIV of these regulations, the gross income of a foreign corporation shall be computed as if the corporation were a domestic corporation and without regard to the provisions of Supplement I and Chapter XXVII of these regulations, relating to the taxation of foreign corporations generally. Hence, for such purposes, the gross income includes income from all sources, whether within or without the United States, which is not excluded from gross income by section 22 (b) and the regulations pertaining to that section. The gross income thus includes the interest on bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the United States, even though owned beneficially by a foreign corporation not engaged in trade or business in the United States, and even though such interest otherwise would come within the exemption provided for in section 3 of the Fourth Liberty Bond Act of July 9, 1918, as amended by section 4 of the Victory Liberty Loan Act of March 3, 1919.

"ART. 334–2. Additions to gross income for purposes of Supplement P.—If, for any taxable year—

"(a) a foreign corporation meets the stock ownership requirement specified in article 331–3, regardless of whatever day in its taxable year is the last day on which the required United States group exists, and

"(b) such foreign corporation is a shareholder in a foreign personal holding company on any day of a taxable year of the second company which ends with or within the taxable year of the first company and such day is the last day in the taxable year of the second company on which the United States group exists with respect to the second company, then for the purpose of—

"(c) determining whether the first company meets the gross income requirement specified in article 331–2, so as to come within the classification of a foreign personal holding company, and

"(d) determining the undistributed Supplement P net income of the first company which (in the event the first company is a foreign personal holding company) is to be included, in whole or in part, in the gross income of its shareholders, whether United States shareholders or other foreign personal holding companies, there shall be included as a dividend in the gross income of the first company for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the second company ends, the amount the first company would have received as a dividend, if on the last day referred to in (b) there had been distributed by the second company, and received by the shareholders, an amount which bears the same ratio to the undistributed Supplement P net income of the second company for its taxable year as the portion of such taxable year up to and including such last day bears to the entire taxable year. The foregoing rules apply to any chain of foreign corporations regardless of the number of corporations included in the chain.

"The application of this article may be illustrated by the following examples:

"Example (1).—The X Corporation is a foreign corporation whose stock is owned by A, a United States citizen. The X Corporation owns the entire stock of the Y Corporation, another foreign corporation. The taxable year of the X Corporation is the calendar year and the taxable year of the Y Corporation is the fiscal year ending June 30. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, more than the required percentage of the Y Corporation's gross income consists of foreign personal holding company income and no part of the earnings for such year is distributed as dividends. On the basis of these facts the Y Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938. The X Corporation meets the stock ownership requirement and constitutes a foreign personal holding company for 1938, if it also meets the gross income requirement.

"For the purpose of determining whether the X Corporation meets the gross income requirement, the entire undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, must be included as a dividend in the gross income of the X Corporation for 1938, since—

"(a) the X Corporation is a shareholder in the Y Corporation on a day (June 30, 1938) in the taxable year of the Y Corporation ending with or within the taxable year of the X Corporation, which day is the last day in the taxable year of the Y Corporation on which the United States group required with respect to the Y Corporation exists,

"(b) such last day is also the end of the Y Corporation's taxable year so that the portion of the taxable year of the Y Corporation up to and including such last day is equal to 100 percent of the taxable year of the Y Corporation, and, therefore, the portion of the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation includible in the gross income of its shareholders is likewise equal to 100 percent, and

"(c) the X Corporation being the sole shareholder of the Y Corporation must include such portion in its gross income for 1938, the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the Y Corporation ends.

"If, after the inclusion of the presumptive dividend in its gross income, the X Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for 1938, then the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation must also be included as a dividend in the gross income of the X Corporation in determining its undistributed Supplement P net income which is to be included in the gross income of A, the sole shareholder in the X Corporation. On the other hand, if, after including such presumptive dividend, the X Corporation does not constitute a foreign personal holding company, the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation is not includible in the gross income of the X Corporation for any purpose other than determining whether the X Corporation is a foreign personal holding company.

"Example (2).—The X Corporation referred to in Example (1) sells the stock in the Y Corporation to other interests on September 30, 1938, so that after that date no United States group exists with respect to the Y Corporation. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939, more than the required percentage of the gross income of the Y Corporation consists of foreign personal holding company income. The net income of the Y Corporation for such fiscal year amounts to $1,000,000.00 of which $900,000.00 is distributed in dividends, after September 30, 1938. The undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation for such fiscal year amounts to $100,000.00. Upon the basis of these facts the Y Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939, since at one time in such fiscal year, or from July 1, to and including September 30, 1938, it meets the stock ownership requirement, and the gross income requirement is also satisfied.

"In determining whether the X Corporation constitutes a foreign personal holding company for 1939, a portion of the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939 (3/12 of $100,000.00, or $25,000.00), must be included as a dividend in the gross income of the X Corporation, since—

"(a) the X Corporation is a shareholder in the Y Corporation on September 30, 1938, or on a day in the taxable year of the Y Corporation ending with or within the taxable year of the X Corporation, which day is the last day in the Y Corporation's taxable year on which the United States group required with respect to the Y Corporation exists,

"(b) the portion of the taxable year of the Y Corporation up to and including such day is 3/12 of the entire taxable year of the Y Corporation and, therefore, the portion of the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation includible in the gross income of its shareholders also is equal to 3/12, and

"(c) the X Corporation, being the sole shareholder of the Y Corporation at the time the United States group with respect to the Y Corporation last exists, must include all of such portion in its gross income for 1939, the taxable year of the X Corporation in which or with which the taxable year of the Y Corporation ends.

"It is to be observed that 3/12 of the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation for the entire taxable year and not the earnings realized by the Y Corporation up to and including September 30, 1938, the last day on which the United States group with respect to the Y Corporation exists, must be included in the gross income of the X Corporation.

"Example (3).—The X Corporation referred to in Example (1) sells the stock in the Y Corporation to other interests on September 30, 1938, so that after that date a different United States group exists with respect to the Y Corporation. Assuming that the Y Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939, no part of the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation for such fiscal year would, in this instance, be includible in the gross income of the X Corporation for the year 1939, in determining whether the X Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for that year. In such case, the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation is includible in the gross income of the other foreign personal holding companies, if any, and of the United States shareholders who are shareholders in the Y Corporation the day after September 30, 1938, which is the last day in the taxable year of the Y Corporation on which the United States group with respect to the Y Corporation exists.

"If, however, the X Corporation sells 90 percent of its stock in the Y Corporation and thus is a minority shareholder in the Y Corporation on the last day of the taxable year of the Y Corporation on which the United States group with respect to the Y Corporation exists, the portion of the undistributed Supplement P net income allocable to the minority interest of the X Corporation would be includible in the gross income of the X Corporation, even though on such last day the United States group is not the same with respect to both corporations.

"Example (4).—If the Y Corporation in Example (1) owns all of the stock of the Z Corporation, another foreign corporation, there would be a chain of three foreign corporations. In such case, assuming that the Z Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for a taxable year ending with or within the taxable year of the Y Corporation, the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Z Corporation would be included in the gross income of the Y Corporation for the purpose of determining whether the Y Corporation comes within the classification of a foreign personal holding company. If, after the inclusion of such presumptive dividend, the Y Corporation is a foreign personal holding company, the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Z Corporation would be included in the gross income of the Y Corporation in determining the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Y Corporation which is includible in the gross income of its shareholder, the X Corporation. The same process would be repeated with respect to determining whether the X Corporation is a foreign personal holding company and in determining its undistributed Supplement P net income. If all three corporations are foreign personal holding companies, the undistributed Supplement P net income of each would, in this manner, be reflected as a dividend in the gross income of A, the ultimate beneficial shareholder of the chain.

"In the event that after the inclusion of the undistributed Supplement P net income of the Z Corporation in the gross income of the Y Corporation, the Y Corporation is not a foreign personal holding company, then no part of the income of either the Z Corporation or the Y Corporation would be includible in the gross income of the X Corporation. In that event, whether the X Corporation is a foreign personal holding company, and its undistributed Supplement P net income, would be determined independently of the income of the Y Corporation and the Z Corporation.

SEC. 335. Undistributed supplement P net income.—For the purposes of this title the term "undistributed Supplement P net income" means the Supplement P net income (as defined in section 336) minus the amount of the dividends paid credit provided in section 27, computed without the benefit of subsection (b) thereof (relating to the dividend carry-over).

SEC. 336. Supplement P net income.—For the purposes of this title the term "Supplement P net income" means the net income with the following adjustments:

(a) Additional Deductions.—There shall be allowed as deductions—

(1) Federal income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to the extent not allowed as a deduction under section 23; but not including the tax imposed by section 102, section 351 (either before or after its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1937), or a section of a prior income-tax law corresponding to either of such sections.

(2) In lieu of the deduction allowed by section 23 (q), contributions or gifts made within the taxable year to or for the use of donees described in section 23 (q) for the purposes therein specified, to an amount which does not exceed 15 per centum of the company's net income, computed without the benefit of this paragraph and section 23 (q), and without the deduction of the amount disallowed under subsection (b) of this section and without the inclusion in gross income of the amounts includible therein as dividends by reason of the application of the provisions of section 334 (b) (relating to the inclusion in the gross income of a foreign personal holding company of its distributive share of the undistributed Supplement P net income of another foreign personal holding company in which it is a shareholder).

(b) Deductions not allowed.—

(1) Taxes and pension trusts.—The deductions provided in section 23 (d), relating to taxes of a shareholder paid by the corporation, and in section 23 (p), relating to pension trusts shall not be allowed.

(2) Expenses and depreciation.—The aggregate of the deductions allowed under section 23 (a), relating to expenses, and section 23 (l), relating to depreciation, which are allocable to the operation and maintenance of property owned or operated by the company, shall be allowed only in an amount equal to the rent or other compensation received for the use or right to use the property, unless it is established (under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary) to the satisfaction of the Commissioner:

(A) That the rent or other compensation received was the highest obtainable, or, if none was received, that none was obtainable;

(B) That the property was held in the course of a business carried on bona fide for profit; and

(C) Either that there was reasonable expectation that the operation of the property would result in a profit, or that the property was necessary to the conduct of the business.

"ART. 336–1. Supplement P net income.—The term 'Supplement P net income' means the gross income as defined in section 334 less the deductions provided in section 23 of the Revenue Act of 1936 (computed without regard to the provisions of Supplement I of the Revenue Act of 1936), subject to the qualifications, limitations, and exceptions provided in section 336. In addition to the qualifications, limitations, and exceptions provided in section 336 (a) and section 336 (b) (1), under section 336 (b) (2) the aggregate of the deductions allowed under section 23 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1936, relating to expenses, and section 23 (l) of the Revenue Act of 1936, relating to depreciation, which are allocable to the operation and maintenance of property owned or operated by the company shall be allowed only in an amount equal to the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or right to use, the property, unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner:

"(1) That the rent or other compensation received was the highest obtainable, or if none was received, that none was obtainable;

"(2) That the property was held in the course of a business carried on bona fide for profit; and

"(3) Either that there was reasonable expectation that the operation of the property would result in a profit, or that the property was necessary to the conduct of the business.

"The burden of proof will rest upon the taxpayer to sustain the deduction claimed. If a United States shareholder, in computing his distributive share of the undistributed Supplement P net income of a foreign personal holding company to be included in gross income in his individual return (see section 337 and article 337–1), claims deductions for expenses and depreciation allocable to the operation and maintenance of property owned or operated by the company, in an aggregate amount in excess of the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property, he shall attach to his income tax return a statement setting forth his claim for allowance of the additional deductions together with a complete statement of the facts, circumstances and arguments on which he relies in support of his claim. Such statement shall set forth:

"(a) A description of the property;

"(b) The cost or other basis to the corporation and the nature and value of the consideration paid for the property;

"(c) The name and address of the person from whom acquired and the date thereof;

"(d) The name and address of the person to whom leased or rented, or the person permitted to use the property, and the number of shares of stock, if any, held by such person and the members of his family;

"(e) The nature and gross amount of the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property during the taxable year and for each of the five preceding years and the amount of the expenses incurred with respect to, and the depreciation sustained on, the property for such years;

"(f) Evidence that the rent or other compensation was the highest obtainable and, if none was received, a statement of the reasons therefor;

"(g) A copy of the contract, lease or rental agreement;

"(h) The purpose for which the property was used;

"(i) The business carried on by the corporation with respect to which the property was held and the gross income, expenses and net income derived from the conduct of such business for the taxable year and for each of the five preceding years;

"(j) A statement of any reasons which existed for expectation that the operation of the property would be profitable, or a statement of the necessity for the use of the property in the business of the corporation, and the reasons why the property was acquired; and

"(k) Any other information on which the taxpayer relies.

"ART. 336–2. Illustration of computation of Supplement P net income and undistributed Supplement P net income.—The method of computation of the Supplement P net income and undistributed Supplement P net income may be illustrated as follows:

"The following facts exist with respect to the M Corporation, a foreign personal holding company, for the calendar year 1937:

"The gross income of the corporation as defined in section 334 amounts to $300,000, of which $85,000 represents its distributive share of the undistributed Supplement P net income of another foreign personal holding company in which it is a shareholder, $200,000 consists of dividends, $10,000 consists of interest, and the remainder ($5,000) consists of rent received from the principal shareholder of the corporation for the use of property owned by the corporation.

"The expenses of the corporation amount to $83,000, of which $75,000 is allocable to the maintenance and operation of the property used by the principal shareholder, and $8,000 consists of ordinary and necessary office expenses allowable as a deduction. The claim for deduction for the expenses of, and depreciation on, the rented property in excess of the rent received for its use is not established as provided in section 336 (b) (2). The yearly depreciation on the rented property amounts to $30,000.

"Federal income tax withheld at the source on the income of the corporation from sources within the United States amounts to $30,000.

"No gain from the sale or exchange of stock or securities is realized during the taxable year, but losses in the amount of $10,000 are sustained from the sale of stock or securities which constitute capital assets.

"Contributions made to or for the use of donees described in section 23 (q) of the Revenue Act of 1936, for the purposes therein specified, amount to $15,000, of which $5,000 is deductible in computing net income under section 21.

"Dividends paid by the corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year amount to $50,000.

"The net income for the purposes of computing the Supplement P net income of the corporation (including the distributive share of the undistributed Supplement P net income of the other foreign personal holding company) is $180,000, computed as follows (assuming for the purposes of this example only that the expenses of, and depreciation on, the rented property are deductible under section 23):

Income (section 22)

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Dividends | | $200,000 |
| Interest | | 10,000 |
| Rent | | 5,000 |
| Gross income as defined in section 22 | | 215,000 |
| Add: Distributive share of undistributed Supplement P net income of the other foreign personal holding company (considered as a dividend) | | 85,000 |
| Gross income as defined in section 334 | | 300,000 |

Deductions (section 23)

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Expenses allocable to operation of the rented property | $75,000 | |
| Depreciation of the rented property | 30,000 | |
| Ordinary and necessary expenses (office) | 8,000 | |
| Losses (limited as provided in section 117) | 2,000 | |
| Contributions (within the 5 percent limitation specified in section 23 (q)) | 5,000 | |
| | | $120,000 |
| Net income for purposes of computing Supplement P net income | | 180,000 |

"The Supplement P net income and the undistributed Supplement P net income of the corporation are $240,000 and $190,000, respectively, computed as follows:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Net income for purposes of computing Supplement P net income | | $180,000 |
| Add: | | |
| Contributions deductible in computing net income under section 21 | $5,000 | |
| Excess property expenses and depreciation over amount of rent received for use of property ($105,000 — $5,000) | 100,000 | |
| | 105,000 | |
| Deduct: | | |
| Federal income taxes | $30,000 | |
| Contributions (within the 15 percent limitation specified in section 336 (a) (2)) | 15,000 | |
| | 45,000 | |
| Net additions under section 336 | | 60,000 |
| Supplement P net income | | 240,000 |
| Less: Dividends paid credit | | 50,000 |
| Undistributed Supplement P net income | | 190,000 |

SEC. 337. Corporation income taxed to United States shareholders.—(a) General rule.—The undistributed Supplement P net income of a foreign personal holding company shall be included in the gross income of the citizens or residents of the United States, domestic corporations, domestic partnerships, and estates or trusts (other than estates or trusts the gross income of which under this title includes only income from sources within the United States), who are shareholders in such foreign personal holding company (hereinafter called "United States shareholders") in the manner and to the extent set forth in this Supplement.

(b) Amount included in gross income.—Each United States shareholder, who was a shareholder on the day in the taxable year of the company which was the last day on which a United States group (as defined in section 331 (a) (2)) existed with respect to the company, shall include in his gross income, as a dividend, for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the company ends, the amount he would have received as a dividend if on such last day there had been distributed by the company, and received by the shareholders, an amount which bears the same ratio to the undistributed Supplement P net income of the company for the taxable year as the portion of such taxable year up to and including such last day bears to the entire taxable year.

(c) Credit for obligations of U. S. and its instrumentalities.—Each United States shareholder shall be allowed a credit against net income, for the purpose of the tax imposed by section 11, 13, 14, 201, or 204, of his proportionate share of the interest specified in section 25 (a) (1) or (2) which is included in the gross income of the company otherwise than by the application of the provisions of section 334 (b) (relating to the inclusion in the gross income of a foreign personal holding company of its distributive share of the undistributed Supplement P net income of another foreign personal holding company in which it is a shareholder).

(d) Information in return.—Every United States shareholder who is required under subsection (b) to include in his gross income any amount with respect to the undistributed Supplement P net income of a foreign personal holding company and who, on the last day on which a United States group existed with respect to the company, owned 5 per centum or more in value of the outstanding stock of such company, shall set forth in his return in complete detail the gross income, deductions and credits, net income, Supplement P net income, and undistributed Supplement P net income of such company.

(e) Effect on capital account of foreign personal holding company.—An amount which bears the same ratio to the undistributed Supplement P net income of the foreign personal holding company for its taxable year as the portion of such taxable year up to and including the last day on which a United States group existed with respect to the company bears to the entire taxable year, shall, for the purpose of determining the effect of distributions in subsequent taxable years by the corporation, be considered as a contribution to capital.

(f) Basis of stock in hands of shareholders.—The amount required to be included in the gross income of a United States shareholder under subsection (b) shall, for the purpose of adjusting the basis of his stock with respect to which the distribution would have been made (if it had been made), be treated as having been reinvested by the shareholder as a contribution to the capital of the corporation; but only to the extent to which such amount is included in his gross income in his return, increased or decreased by any adjustment of such amount in the last determination of the shareholder's tax liability, made before the expiration of seven years after the date prescribed by law for filing the return.

(g) Basis of stock in case of death.—For basis of stock or securities in a foreign personal holding company acquired from a decedent, see section 113 (a) (5).

(h) Liquidation.—For amount of gain taken into account on liquidation of foreign personal holding company, see section 115 (c).

(i) Period of limitation on assessment and collection.—For period of limitation on assessment and collection without assessment, in case of failure to include in gross income the amount properly includible therein under subsection (b), see section 275 (d).

"ART. 337–1. Income of foreign personal holding companies taxed to United States shareholders.—

"(a) General rule.—Supplement P does not impose a tax on foreign personal holding companies. The undistributed Supplement P net income of such companies, however, must be included in the manner and to the extent set forth in this article, in the gross income of their 'United States shareholders', that is, the shareholders who are individual citizens or residents of the United States, domestic corporations, domestic partnerships (see section 1001 (a)), and estates or trusts other than estates or trusts the gross income of which under Title I includes only income from sources within the United States.

"(b) Amount includible in gross income.—Each United States shareholder, who was a shareholder on the day in the taxable year of the foreign personal holding company which was the last day on which a United States group (see section 331 (a) (2) and article 331–3) existed with respect to the company, shall include in his gross income, as a dividend, for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the company ends, the amount he would have received as a dividend if on such last day there had been distributed by the company and received by the shareholders an amount which bears the same ratio to the undistributed Supplement P net income of the company for the taxable year as the portion of such taxable year up to and including such last day bears to the entire taxable year.

"The undistributed Supplement P net income of the foreign personal holding company is includible only in the gross income of the United States shareholders who were shareholders in the company on the last day of its taxable year on which the United States group existed with respect to the company. Such United States shareholders, accordingly, are determined by the stockholdings as of such specified time. This rule applies to every United States shareholder who was a shareholder in the company at the specified time regardless of whether the United States shareholder is included within the United States group. For example, a domestic corporation which is a United States shareholder at the specified time must return its distributive share in the undistributed Supplement P net income even though the domestic corporation cannot be included within the United States group since, under section 333 (a) (1) and article 333 (a)–2, the stock it owns in the foreign corporation is considered as being owned proportionately by its shareholders for the purpose of determining whether the foreign corporation is a foreign personal holding company.

The United States shareholders must include in their gross income their distributive shares of that proportion of the undistributed Supplement P net income for the taxable year of the company which is equal in ratio to that which the portion of the taxable year up to and including the last day on which the United States group with respect to the company existed bears to the entire taxable year. Thus, if the last day in the taxable year on which the required United States group existed was also the end of the taxable year, the portion of the taxable year up to and including such last day would be equal to 100 percent and in such case, the United States shareholders would be required to return their distributive shares in the entire undistributed Supplement P net income. But if the last day on which the required United States group existed was September 30, and the taxable year was a calendar year, the portion of the taxable year up to and including such last day would be equal to $^9/_{12}$ and in that case, the United States shareholders would be required to return their distributive shares in only $^9/_{12}$ of the undistributed Supplement P net income.

"The amount which each United States shareholder must return is that amount which he would have received as a dividend if the above specified portion of the undistributed Supplement P net income had in fact been distributed by the foreign personal holding company as a dividend on the last day of its taxable year on which the required United States group existed. Such amount is determined, therefore, by the interest of the United States shareholder in the foreign personal holding company, that is, by the number of shares of stock owned by the United States shareholder and the relative rights of his class of stock, if there are several classes of stock outstanding. Thus, if a foreign personal holding company has both common and preferred stock outstanding and the preferred shareholders are entitled to a specified dividend before any distribution may be made to the common shareholders, then the assumed distribution of the stated portion of the undistributed Supplement P net income must first be treated as a payment of the specified dividend on the preferred stock before any part may be allocated as a dividend on the common stock.

"The assumed distribution of the required portion of the undistributed Supplement P net income must be returned as dividend income by the United States shareholders for their respective taxable years in which or with which the taxable year of the foreign personal holding company ends. For example, if the M Corporation whose taxable year is the calendar year is a foreign personal holding company for 1937, and if A, one of its United States shareholders makes returns on a calendar year basis, while B, another United States shareholder, makes returns on the basis of a fiscal year ending November 30, A must return his assumed dividend as income for the taxable year 1937, and B must return his distributive share as income for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1938. In applying this rule, the date as of which the United States group last existed with respect to the company is immaterial. Thus, in the foregoing example, if September 30, 1937, was the last day on which the United States group with respect to the M Corporation existed, B would still be required to return his assumed dividend as income for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1938, even though September 30, 1937, the date as of which the distribution is assumed to have been made, does not fall within such fiscal year.

"ART. 337–2. Credit for obligations of the United States.—Each United States shareholder required to return his distributive share in the undistributed Supplement P net income of a foreign personal holding company for any taxable year is allowed, for purposes of the tax imposed by section 11, 13, 14, 201, or 204, a credit against his net income for his proportionate share of whatever interest on obligations of the United States or its instrumentalities (as specified in section 25 (a) (1) and (2)) may be included in the gross income of the company for such taxable year with the exception of any such interest as may be so included by reason of the application of the provisions of section 334 (b) and article 334–2.

"For example, the M Corporation is a foreign personal holding company which owns all the stock of the N Corporation, another foreign personal holding company. Both companies receive interest on obligations of the United States or its instrumentalities as specified in section 25 (a) (1) and (2). In applying the credit allowable under section 337 (c), the United States shareholders of the M Corporation would be entitled to a credit only for their proportionate shares of the interest received by that company and not for any part of the interest received by the N Corporation, regardless of whether the interest received by the N Corporation is included in the gross income of the M Corporation, as an actual dividend or as a constructive dividend under section 334 (b).

"ART. 337–3. Information in return.—The information required by section 337 (d) in the returns of certain United States shareholders relates only to the taxable year of a foreign personal holding company for which is computed such corporation's undistributed Supplement P net income, all or part of which must be included in gross income by the United States shareholder of whom the information is required. The information shall be submitted as a part of the income tax returns required by the Act of such persons, in the form of a statement attached to the return.

"ART. 337–4. Effect on capital account of foreign personal holding company and basis of stock in hands of shareholders.—Sections 337 (e) and 337 (f) are designed to prevent double taxation with respect to the undistributed Supplement P net income of foreign personal holding companies. The application of these sections may be illustrated by the following examples:

"Example 1.—The M Corporation is a foreign personal holding company. Seventy-five percent in value of its capital stock is owned by A, a citizen of the United States, and the remainder, or 25 percent, of its stock is owned by B, a nonresident alien individual. For the calendar year 1937 the M Corporation has an undistributed Supplement P net income of $100,000. A is required to include $75,000 of such income in gross income in his return for the calendar year 1937. The $100,000 is treated as a contribution to the capital of the M Corporation. If for the calendar year 1938, the M Corporation had no income and no accumulated earnings and profits, but distributed $100,000 as dividends, the dividends so distributed would be tax-free in the hands of both A and B. If, however, the M Corporation had accumulated earnings and profits of $100,000 at the beginning of 1937, the facts otherwise being the same, the distibutions in 1938 would be taxable to A, and the taxability of such distributions to B would depend upon the application of section 119 (a) (2) (B), relating to the treatment of dividends from a foreign corporation as income from sources within or without the United States.

"Example 2.—In Example 1 assume the basis of A's stock to be $300,000. If A includes in gross income in his return for the calendar year 1937, $75,000 of such income as a constructive dividend, the basis of his stock would be $375,000. When the $75,000 is distributed by the M Corporation tax-free the basis of A's stock, assuming no other changes, would again be $300,000. If A failed to include the $75,000 in gross income in his return as required by the Act and his failure was not discovered until after the seven-year period of limitations had expired, the application of the rule would not increase the basis of A's stock. The subsequent tax-free distribution of $75,000 would reduce his basis to $225,000, thus tending to compensate for his failure to include the amount of $75,000 in his gross income. If the undistributed Supplement P net income of the M Corporation is readjusted within the statutory period of limitations, thus increasing or decreasing the amount A would have to include in his gross income, proper adjustment is required to be made to the basis of A's stock on account of such readjustment.

SEC. 338. Information returns by officers and directors.—(a) Monthly returns.—On the fifteenth day of each month each individual who on such day is an officer or a director of a foreign corporation which, with respect to its taxable year (if not beginning more than twelve months before the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1937) preceding the taxable year in which such month occurs, was a foreign personal holding company, shall file with the Commissioner a return setting forth with respect to the preceding calendar month the name and address of each shareholder, the class and number of shares held by each, together with any changes in stockholdings during such period, the name and address of any holder of securities convertible into stock of such corporation, and such other information with respect to the stock and securities of the corporation as the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe as necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Act. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulations prescribe, as the period with respect to which returns shall be filed, a longer period than a month. In such case the return shall be due on the fifteenth day of the succeeding period, and shall be filed by the individuals who on such day are officers and directors of the corporation.

(b) Annual returns.—On the sixtieth day after the close of the taxable year of a foreign personal holding company each individual who on such sixtieth day is an officer or director of the corporation shall file with the Commissioner a return setting forth—

(1) In complete detail the gross income, deductions and credits, net income, Supplement P net income, and undistributed Supplement P net income of such foreign personal holding company for such taxable year; and

(2) The same information with respect to such preceding taxable year as is required in subsection (a); except that if all the required reports with respect to such year have been filed under subsection (a) no information under this paragraph need be set forth in the annual report.

"ART. 338–1. Information returns by officers and directors of certain foreign corporations.—(a) Requirement for filing returns.—

"(1) General.—Under section 338 (a), on the fifteenth day of each month each individual who on such day is an officer or a director of a foreign corporation which, with respect to its taxable year (if not beginning more than twelve months before August 26, 1937) preceding the taxable year in which such month occurs, was a foreign personal holding company, is required to file with the Commissioner a monthly information return as provided in that section and this article.

"(2) Returns for a period exceeding one month.—In the case of a foreign personal holding company which before the close of its taxable year specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this article, distributed to its shareholders 90 percent or more of its Supplement P net income, the following periods are prescribed with respect to which information returns on Form 957 shall be filed during the following year:

"The return required under section 338 (a) for the last month of the preceding taxable year shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the first month following the close of such taxable year. Subsequent returns shall be filed for each six-month period following the close of such taxable year and shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the first month following such period. If any change in the stockholdings or in the holdings of securities convertible into stock of the corporation occurs during such periods, a monthly information return must also be filed on the fifteenth day of the month following each month in which the change occurs. In any case under this paragraph where the date for filing a monthly return coincides with the date for filing the return for a six-month period only the return for the six-month period need be filed.

"(3) Returns jointly made.—If two or more officers or directors of a foreign corporation are required to file information returns for any period under section 338 (a) and this article, any two or more of such officers or directors may, in lieu of filing separate returns for such period, jointly execute and file one return.

"(b) Form of return.—The returns under section 338 (a) and this article shall be made on Form 957. Such forms may, upon request, be procured from any collector. Each officer or director should carefully prepare his return so as to set forth fully and clearly the information called for therein and by the applicable regulations. Returns which have not been so prepared will not be considered as meeting the requirements of the Act.

"(c) Contents of return.—The return on Form 957 shall, in accordance with the provisions of this article and the instructions on the form, set forth with respect to the preceding period the following information:

"(1) Name and address of corporation;

"(2) Kind of business in which the corporation is engaged;

"(3) Date of incorporation;

"(4) The country under the laws of which the corporation is incorporated;

"(5) Number of shares and par value of common stock of the corporation outstanding as of the beginning and end of the period;

"(6) Number of shares and par value of preferred stock of the corporation outstanding as of the beginning and end of the period, the rate of dividend on such stock and whether such dividend is cumulative or noncumulative;

"(7) A description of the convertible securities issued by the corporation, including a statement of the face value of, and rate of interest on, such securities;

"(8) The name and address of each shareholder, the class and number of shares held by each, together with any changes in sockholdings during such period;

"(9) The name and address of each holder of securities convertible into stock of the corporation, the class, number and face value of the securities held by each, together with any changes in the holdings of such securities during the period; and

"(10) Such other information as may be required by the return form.

"If a person is required to file a return under section 338 (a) and this article with respect to more than one foreign corporation, a separate return must be filed with respect to each foreign corporation.

"(d) Verification of returns.—All returns required by section 338 (a) and this article shall be verified under oath or affirmation in the same manner as prescribed in article 51–4.

"(e) Penalties.—For criminal penalties for failure to file the returns required by section 338 (a) and this article, see section 341.

"ART. 338–2. Annual information returns by officers and directors of certain foreign corporations.—(a) Requirement for filing returns.—

"(1) General.—Under section 338 (b), on the sixtieth day after the close of the taxable year of a foreign personal holding company each individual who on such sixtieth day is an officer or director of the corporation shall file with the Commissioner an annual information return as provided in that section and this article.

"(2) Returns jointly made.—If two or more officers or directors of a foreign corporation are required to file annual information returns under section 338 (b) and this article for any taxable year of the corporation, any two or more of such officers or directors may in lieu of filing separate annual returns for such taxable year, jointly execute and file one annual return.

"(b) Form of return.—The returns under section 338 (b) and this article shall be made on Form 958 and should be carefully prepared by each officer or director so as to set forth fully and clearly the information called for therein and by the applicable regulations. Returns which have not been so prepared will not be considered as meeting the requirements of the Act. Copies of Form 958 may, upon request, be procured from any collector.

"(c) Contents of return.—The return on Form 958 shall, in accordance with the provisions of this article and the instructions on the form, set forth with respect to the taxable year of the foreign personal holding company the following information:

"(1) In complete detail the gross income, deductions and credits, net income, Supplement P net income, and undistributed Supplement P net income of the foreign personal holding company for such taxable year;

"(2) The same information with respect to such taxable year which is required by section 338 (a) and paragraph (c) of article 338–1, except that if all the required returns with respect to such year have been filed under section 338 (a) and article 338–1, no information under section 338 (b) (2) and this paragraph need be set forth in such annual return; and

"(3) Such other information as may be required by the return form.

"(d) Verification of returns.—All returns required by section 338 (b) and this article shall be verified under oath or affirmation as prescribed in article 51–4.

"(e) Penalties.—For criminal penalties for failure to file the returns required by section 338 (b) and this article, see section 341.

"ART. 338–3. Time and place of filing returns.—Returns required by section 338 and the regulations thereunder shall be filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., attention Records Division, and will be considered filed within the time or times required by law if, within such time or times, such returns are made and placed in the mails in due course, properly addressed and postage paid, provided they are actually received in the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., even though received after such time or times.

SEC. 339. Information returns by shareholders.—(a) Monthly returns.—On the fifteenth day of each month each United States shareholder, by or for whom 50 per centum or more in value of the outstanding stock of a foreign corporation is owned directly or indirectly (including in the case of an individual, stock owned by the members of his family as defined in section 333 (a) (2)), if such foreign corporation with respect to its taxable year (if not beginning more than twelve months before the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1937) preceding the taxable year in which such month occurs was a foreign personal holding company, shall file with the Commissioner a return setting forth with respect to the preceding calendar month the name and address of each shareholder, the class and number of shares held by each, together with any changes in stockholdings during such period, the name and address of any holder of securities convertible into stock of such corporation, and such other information with respect to the stock and securities of the corporation as the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe as necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Act. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulations prescribe, as the period with respect to which returns shall be filed, a longer period than a month. In such case the return shall be due on the fifteenth day of the succeeding period, and shall be filed by the persons who on such day are United States shareholders.

(b) Annual returns.—On the sixtieth day after the close of the taxable year of a foreign personal holding company each United States shareholder by or for whom on such sixtieth day more than 50 per centum of the outstanding stock of such company is owned directly or indirectly (including in the case of an individual, stock owned by members of his family as defined in section 333 (a) (2)), shall file with the Commissioner a return setting forth the same information with respect to such preceding taxable year as is required in subsection (a); except that if all the required reports with respect to such year have been filed under subsection (a) no information under this subsection need be set forth in the annual report.

"ART. 339–1. Information returns by shareholders of certain foreign corporations.—(a) Requirement for filing returns.—

"(1) General.—On the fifteenth day of each month each United States shareholder, by or for whom 50 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of a foreign corporation is owned, directly or indirectly (including in the case of an individual, stock owned by members of his family as defined in section 333 (a) (2)), if such foreign corporation with respect to its taxable year (if not beginning more than twelve months before August 26, 1937) preceding the taxable year in which such month occurs was a foreign personal holding company, shall file with the Commissioner an information return as provided in section 339 (a) and this article.

"(2) Returns for a period exceeding one month.—In the case of a foreign personal holding company which before the close of its taxable year specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this article, distributed to its shareholders 90 percent or more of its Supplement P net income, the periods with respect to which information returns under section 339 (a) shall be filed shall be the same as the periods prescribed in paragraph (a) (2) of article 338–1.

"(3) Duplicate returns.—If a shareholder in a foreign corporation files, as an officer or director in such corporation, the returns required by section 338 (a) and article 338–1 such returns shall be considered as returns filed under section 339 (a).

"(b) Form of return.—The return under section 339 (a) and this article shall be on Form 957, copies of which, upon request, may be secured from any collector. Each shareholder should carefully prepare his return so as to set forth fully and clearly the information called for therein and by the applicable regulations. Returns which have not been so prepared will not be considered as meeting the requirements of the Act.

"(c) Contents of return.—The return on Form 957 shall, in accordance with the provisions of this article and the instructions on the form, set forth with respect to the preceding period the same information as required to be shown on that form by section 338 (a) and paragraph (c) of article 338–1.

"If a person is required to file a return under section 339 (a) and this article with respect to more than one foreign corporation, a separate return must be filed with respect to each foreign corporation.

"(d) Verification of returns.—All returns required by section 339 (a) and this article shall be verified under oath or affirmation as prescribed in article 51–4.

"(e) Penalties.—For criminal penalties for failure to file the returns required by section 339 (a) and this article, see section 341.

"ART. 339–2. Annual information returns by shareholders of certain foreign corporations.—(a) Requirement for filing returns.—

"(1) General.—Under section 339 (b), on the sixtieth day after the close of the taxable year of a foreign personal holding company, each United States shareholder, by or for whom on such sixtieth day more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of the company is owned directly or indirectly (including in the case of an individual stock owned by members of his family as defined in section 333 (a) (2)), shall file with the Commissioner an information return as provided in that section and this article.

"(2) Duplicate returns.—If a shareholder in a foreign corporation files, as an officer or director in such corporation, the returns required by section 338 (b) and article 338–2 such returns shall be considered as returns filed under section 339 (b).

"(b) Form of return.—The returns under section 339 (b) and this article shall be made on Form 957 and should be carefully prepared by each shareholder so as to set forth fully and clearly the information called for therein and by the applicable regulations. Returns which have not been so prepared will not be considered as meeting the requirements of the Act. Copies of Form 957 may, upon request, be procured from any collector.

"(c) Contents of return.—The return on Form 957 shall, in accordance with the provisions of this article and the instructions on the form, set forth with respect to the taxable year of the foreign personal holding company the same information which is required under section 339 (a), paragraph (c) of article 338–1 and paragraph (c) of article 339–1, except that if all the required returns with respect to such year have been filed under section 339 (a) and article 339–1, no information under section 339 (b) and this article need be set forth in such annual return.

"If a person is required to file an annual return under section 339 (b) and this article with respect to more than one foreign personal holding company, a separate return must be filed with respect to each foreign personal holding company.

"(d) Verification of returns.—All returns required by section 339 (b) and this article shall be verified under oath or affirmation as prescribed in article 51–4.

"(e) Penalties.—For criminal penalties for failure to file the returns required by section 339 (b) and this article see section 341.

"ART. 339–3. Time and place of filing returns.—Returns required by section 339 and the regulations thereunder shall be filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., attention Records Division, and will be considered filed within the time or times required by law if, within such time or times, such returns are made and placed in the mails in due course, properly addressed and postage paid, provided they are actually received in the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., even though received after such time or times.

SEC. 340. Returns as to formation, etc., of foreign corporations.—(a) Requirement.—Under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, any attorney, accountant, fiduciary, bank, trust company, financial institution, or other person—

(1) Who, on or after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1937, aids, assists, counsels, or advises in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of any foreign corporation, shall, within 30 days thereafter, file with the Commissioner a return; or

(2) Who, since December 31, 1933, and prior to 90 days after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1937, has aided, assisted, counseled, or advised in the formation, organization, or reorganization of any foreign corporation shall, within 90 days after the date of the enactment of such Act, file with the Commissioner a return.

(b) Form and contents of return.—Such return shall be in such form, and shall set forth, under oath, in respect of each such corporation, to the full extent of the information within the possession or knowledge or under the control of the person required to file the return, such information as the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary prescribes by regulations as necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Act. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the divulging of privileged communications between attorney and client.

"ART. 340–1. Returns of information with respect to foreign corporations by attorneys, accountants, or other persons.—(a) Return under section 340 (a) (1).—Any attorney, accountant, fiduciary, bank, trust company, financial institution, or other person, who, on or after August 26, 1937, aids, assists, counsels, or advises in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of any foreign corporation shall file with the Commissioner, within 30 days after giving such aid, assistance, counsel, or advice, an information return as provided in section 340 (a) (1) and this article. The return must be filed in every such case (1) regardless of the nature of the counsel or advice given, whether for or against the formation, organization, or reorganization of the foreign corporation, or the nature of the aid or assistance rendered and (2) regardless of the action taken upon the advice or counsel, that is, whether the foreign corporation is actually formed, organized, or reorganized.

"If, in a particular case, the aid, assistance, counsel or advice given by any person extends over a period of more than one day and not for more than 30 days, such person, to avoid the multiple filing of returns, may file a single return for the entire period. In such case, the return shall be filed within 30 days from the first day of such period. If, in a particular case, the aid, assistance, counsel or advice given by any person extends over a period of more than 30 days, such person may file a return at the end of each 30 days included within such period and at the end of the fractional part of a 30 day period, if any, extending beyond the last full 30 days. In each such case, the return must disclose all the required information which was not reported on a prior return.

"(b) Return under section 340 (a) (2).—Any attorney, accountant, fiduciary, bank, trust company, financial institution, or other person, who, since December 31, 1933, and prior to November 24, 1937 (the ninetieth day after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1937), has aided, assisted, counseled, or advised in the formation, organization, or reorganization of any foreign corporation, shall file with the Commissioner, on or before November 24, 1937, an information return as provided in section 340 (a) (2) and this article. The return must be filed in every such case regardless of the nature of the counsel or advice given, whether for or against the formation, organization, or reorganization of the foreign corporation, or of the nature of the aid or assistance rendered, if such formation, organization, or reorganization occurs subsequent to the giving of such aid, assistance, counsel, or advice and prior to the expiration of ninety days after the date of enactment of the Act.

"(c) Requirements common to returns under section 340 (a) (1) and section 340 (a) (2).—

"(1) Employers.—In the case of aid, assistance, counsel, or advice, in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a foreign corporation given by a person in whole or in part through the medium of subordinates or employees (including in the case of a corporation the officers thereof) the return of the employer must set forth to the full extent all information prescribed by this article including that which, as an incident to such employment, is within the possession or knowledge or under the control of such subordinates or employees.

"(2) Employees.—The obligation of a subordinate or employee (including in the case of a corporation the officers thereof) to file a return with respect to any aid, assistance, counsel, or advice in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a foreign corporation, given as an incident to his employment, will be satisfied if a complete and accurate return as prescribed by section 340 and this article is duly filed by the employer setting forth all of the information within the possession or knowledge or under the control of such subordinate or employee.

"Clerks, stenographers, and other subordinates or employees, rendering aid or assistance solely of a clerical or mechanical character in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a foreign corporation are not required to file returns by reason of such services.

"(3) Partners.—In the case of aid, assistance, counsel, or advice in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a foreign corporation given by one or more members of a partnership in the course of its business, the obligation of each such individual member to file a return will be satisfied if a complete and accurate return, as prescribed by this article, is duly filed by the partnership, executed by all the members of the firm who gave any such aid, assistance, counsel, or advice. If, however, the partnership has been dissolved at the time the return is due, individual returns must be filed by each member of the former partnership who gave any such aid, assistance, counsel or advice.

"(4) Returns jointly made.—If two or more persons aid, assist, counsel or advise in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a particular foreign corporation, any two or more of such persons may, in lieu of filing several returns, jointly execute and file one return.

"(d) Form of return.—The returns under this article shall be made on Form 959. Such forms may, upon request, be procured from any collector. Each person should carefully prepare the return so as to set forth fully and clearly the information called for therein and by the applicable regulations. Returns which have not been so prepared will not be considered as meeting the requirements of the Act.

"(e) Contents of return.—The return on Form 959 shall, in accordance with the provisions of this article and the instructions on the form, set forth the following information to the full extent such information is within the knowledge or possession or under the control of the person required to file the return:

"(1) The name and address of the person (or persons) to whom and the person (or persons) for whom or on whose behalf the aid, assistance, counsel or advice was given;

"(2) A complete statement of the aid, assistance, counsel or advice given;

"(3) Name and address of the foreign corporation and the country under the laws of which it was formed, organized, or reorganized;

"(4) The month and year when the foreign corporation was formed, organized, or reorganized;

"(5) A statement of how the formation, organization, or reorganization of the foreign corporation was effected;

"(6) A complete statement of the reasons for, and the purposes sought to be accomplished by, the formation, organization, or reorganization of the foreign corporation;

"(7) A statement showing the classes and kinds of assets, transferred to the foreign corporation in connection with its formation, organization, or reorganization, including a detailed list of any stock or securities included in such assets, and a statement showing the names and addresses of the persons who were the owners of such assets immediately prior to the transfer;

"(8) The names and addresses of the shareholders of the foreign corporation at the time of the completion of its formation, organization, or reorganization, showing the classes of stock and number of shares held by each;

"(9) The name and address of the person (or persons) having custody of the books of account and records of the foreign corporation;

"(10) Such other information as may be required by the return form; and

"(11) Where any of the information required to be furnished is withheld because its character is claimed to be privileged as a communication between attorney and client within the meaning of section 340 (b), the return must so state and must contain a complete statement of the nature and the circumstances of the communication on which a decision as to the propriety of the claim of privilege may be reached.

"If a person aids, assists, counsels or advises in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of more than one foreign corporation, a separate return must be filed with respect to each foreign corporation.

"(f) Verification of returns.—All returns required by section 340 and this article shall be verified under oath or affirmation as prescribed in article 51–4.

"(g) Penalties.—For criminal penalties for failure to file the returns required by section 340 and this article, see section 341.

"ART. 340–2. Place of filing returns.—Returns required by section 340 and the regulations thereunder shall be filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., attention Records Division.

SEC. 341. Penalties.—Any person required under sections 338, 339, or 340 to file a return, or to supply any information, who willfully fails to file such return, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in lieu of the penalties provided in section 145 (a) for such offense, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $2,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

Treasury Decision 4773, approved November 9, 1937 (Int. Rev. Bull. XVI–46, 4 (1937)), relating to returns of information with respect to foreign corporations, is hereby superseded.

Federal Alcohol Administration Division.

ADVERTISING ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES AS APPETIZERS AND APERITIFS

DECEMBER 10, 1937.

To All Permittees:

The industry is familiar with the Administration's often expressed opinion that any advertisement which creates the impression that the consumption of alcoholic beverages will contribute to the mental or physical well-being of the consumer, or that such beverages can be consumed without detrimental effects, is prohibited under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act. Consistent with this opinion objection has been voiced to advertisements referring to the absence of "hangovers" on mornings following drinking, to the relaxing or soothing effects of alcoholic beverages on tired nerves, to improvements in appetite or digestion, to unaffected efficiency, and to many other similar effects.

In this connection representations have recently been made to the Administration by producers of distilled spirits, wines and malt beverages to the effect that the words "aperitif" and "appetizer" might properly be employed in the labeling and advertising of alcoholic beverages, without such use constituting a curative or therapeutic claim likely to mislead the consumer. Such representations have been predicated upon the fact that an "appetizer" is regarded by the average person as a small portion of food or drink taken before a meal, or as the first course of a meal, and that the word in its commonly accepted sense, as applied to the advertising of alcoholic beverages, would not be regarded as a representation with respect to the therapeutic benefits or the physiological effects of the product.

With these representations, the Administration is inclined to agree and takes this occasion to advise the industry that objection will not be voiced to the use, under the following conditions, of the words "aperitif" and "appetizer" in the advertising of alcoholic beverages:

(1) The words "aperitif" and "appetizer", when used in an advertisement, should be relatively inconspicuous in relation to the advertisement as a whole and should be incorporated as a part of an explanatory statement which makes it perfectly clear that such words refer solely to the time and method of consumption of the advertised product, as a beverage, and not to any possible therapeutic benefits or physiological effects

(2) The words "aperitif" and "appetizer" should not be used as a part of the class, type or other designation of any alcoholic beverage, other than medicated wines marketed under an approved label which describes the product as an "aperitif wine".

In line with the views above expressed it would be regarded as permissible under the regulations to state in respect to dry sherry, cocktails, vermouth, etc, that "it may be used at any time of day but is particularly appropriate as an appetizer before meals or at the cocktail hour", or that "it is especially suitable as an aperitif before dinner."

On the other hand, any statement which would tend to give the words "aperitif" and "appetizer" a meaning broader than that which indicates merely the appropriate time or method of consumption, would be prohibited. For example, it would be improper to state that any particular brand of distilled spirits, wine or malt beverages, or mixtures of the same, will "stimulate the appetite", or "promote the flow of gastric juices", or to make any other similar statement which tends to give the impression that the product has medicinal value, or that its consumption will have a beneficial effect upon the human system.

ELIMINATION FROM WINE LABELS OF SUPERVISORY DISTRICT NUMBER AND TAX PAYMENT REFERENCES

DECEMBER 10, 1937.

To All Bottlers and Packers of Wine:

The Administration has heretofore issued the bottlers and packers of wine numerous certificates of label approval covering labels which bear the phrase "Tax Paid by Stamps Affixed to Case" and which bear a statement of the Internal Revenue supervisory district number.

In view of Article XXIII of Regulations No. 7 of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, approved October 6, 1937, it is no longer required that the supervisory district number or the phrase "Tax Paid by Stamps Affixed to Case" appear on containers or labels of wine.

Accordingly, all bottlers and packers of wine having in their possession certificates of label approval issued by this Administration, covering labels which bear a statement of supervisory district number or the phrase "Tax Paid by Stamps Affixed to Case", are hereby authorized to revise such labels by eliminating therefrom the statement of supervisory district number and the phrase "Tax Paid by Stamps Affixed to Case". This circular letter will constitute a certificate of label approval for all labels so revised, provided such labels in all other respects are identical with labels heretofore covered by individual certificates of label approval on Form L–14.

[Order No. 115]

AN ORDER DECLARING THAT BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCERS BOARD FOR DISTRICT NUMBER 15 HAS FAILED TO TAKE ACTION REQUIRED BY THE COMMISSION'S ORDER NUMBER 42 AND THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937; PROVIDING FOR COMMISSION ACTION PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY OF SECTION 6 (A) OF SAID ACT, AND DIRECTING THAT SAID DISTRICT BOARD FILE WITH THE COMMISSION CERTAIN DATA

The Commission having by its Order No. 42 directed all District Boards within Minimum Price Areas Numbers 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9 and 10 to propose minimum prices for all kinds, qualities and sizes of coal produced by code members in their respective districts, in conformity with the provisions of Section 4, Part II—Marketing, subsection (a) of the Act, and having further provided for the coordination of such proposed minimum prices as required under subsection (b) of Section 4, Part II of the Act, and having provided for the completion of such coordination and the submission of such coordinated minimum prices to the Commission not later than the 2nd day of October, 1937; and

It appearing that minimum prices were proposed in conformity with such order by the several District Boards, and it further appearing that District Board Number 15 failed to complete coordination with other Districts on or before the date prescribed by the Commission; and

It now appearing that after continued efforts by District Board Number 15, such Board has not at this time completed a voluntary coordination of proposed minimum prices as required under said Act and order of the Commission, and the Commission having concluded that voluntary coordination will not be accomplished within any reasonable period of time.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby declares, directs and orders:

1. That District Board Number 15 has failed to complete coordination with other Districts in accordance with the provisions of subsection (b), Part II, Section 4 of the Act and as directed by the Commission's Order Number 42.

2. That the Commission, pursuant to the authority of Section 6 (a) of said Act, will now proceed in lieu of said District Board Number 15 to coordinate in conformity with the provisions of Section 4, Part II, of said Act, the proposed minimum prices in such markets as are determined to be common consuming market areas and in such coordination to make such modifications of proposed minimum prices as may be required to give full effect to the differences, if any, between the tentative and actual weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of Minimum Price Area Number 5 as previously required in Order No. 42 of the Commission.

3. That District Board Number 15, shall, on or before the 14th day of December, 1937, at twelve o'clock noon, transmit to and place in the hands of the Commission, all statistical data secured by it from code members within such District, together with all compilations made therefrom relative to the distribution and use of coals produced within said District, and all data upon which the minimum prices proposed by said District Board were computed, as well as all data utilized by said Board in proceeding with the work of coordination, all of which data and reports shall be available to the Commission for its use in proposing coordinated minimum prices.

4. That the Commission may from time to time require the appearance, formally or informally, of any District Board member, officer, or employee thereof, for the purpose of further informing the Commission as to facts concerning the production and distribution of coals produced in District Number 15.

The Secretary shall give notice of this order by mailing a copy thereof to the Secretary of District Board Number 15 and by mailing a copy to each member of said Board.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 10th day of December, 1937.

[Order No. 116]

AN ORDER DECLARING THAT BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCERS' BOARD FOR DISTRICT NUMBER SIXTEEN HAS FAILED TO TAKE ACTION REQUIRED BY THE COMMISSION'S ORDER NUMBER FORTY-TWO AND THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937; PROVIDING FOR COMMISSION ACTION PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY OF SECTION 6 (A) OF SAID ACT, AND DIRECTING THAT SAID DISTRICT BOARD FILE WITH THE COMMISSION CERTAIN DATA

The Commission having by its Order No. 42 directed all District Boards within Minimum Price Areas Numbers 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9 and 10 to propose minimum prices for all kinds, qualities and sizes of coal produced by code members in their respective districts, in conformity with the provisions of Section 4, Part II—Marketing, subsection (a) of the Act, and having further provided for the coordination of such proposed minimum prices as required under subsection (b) of Section 4, Part II of the Act, and having provided for the completion of such coordination and the submission of such coordinated minimum prices to the Commission not later than the 2nd day of October, 1937; and

It appearing that minimum prices were proposed in conformity with such order by the several District Boards, and it further appearing that District Board Number Sixteen failed to complete coordination with other Districts on or before the date prescribed by the Commission; and

It now appearing that after continued efforts by District Board Number Sixteen, such Board has not at this time completed a voluntary coordination of proposed minimum prices as required under said Act and order of the Commission, and the Commission having concluded that voluntary coordination will not be accomplished within any reasonable period of time.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby declares, directs and orders:

1. That District Board Number Sixteen has failed to complete coordination with other Districts in accordance with the provisions of subsection (b), Part II, Section 4 of the Act and as directed by the Commission's Order Number Forty-two.

2. That the Commission, pursuant to the authority of Section 6 (a) of said Act, will now proceed in lieu of said District Board Number Sixteen to coordinate in conformity with the provisions of Section 4, Part II, of said Act, the proposed minimum prices in such markets as are determined to be common consuming market areas and in such coordination to make such modifications of proposed minimum prices as may be required to give full effect to the differences, if any, between the tentative and actual weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of Minimum Price Area Number 6 as previously required in Order No. 42 of the Commission.

3. That District Board Number Sixteen shall, on or before the 14th day of December, 1937, at twelve o'clock noon, transmit to and place in the hands of the Commission, all statistical data secured by it from code members within such District, together with all compilations made therefrom relative to the distribution and use of coals produced within said District, and all data upon which the minimum prices proposed by said District Board were computed, as well as all data utilized by said Board in proceeding with the work of coordination, all of which data and reports shall be available to the Commission for its use in proposing coordinated minimum prices.

4. That the Commission may from time to time require the appearance, formally or informally, of any District Board member, officer, or employee thereof, for the purpose of further informing the Commission as to facts concerning the production and distribution of coals produced in District Number Sixteen.

The Secretary shall give notice of this order by mailing a copy thereof to the Secretary of District Board Number Sixteen and by mailing a copy to each member of said Board.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 10th day of December, 1937.

AN ORDER DECLARING THAT BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCERS BOARD FOR DISTRICT NUMBER SEVENTEEN HAS FAILED TO TAKE ACTION REQUIRED BY THE COMMISSION'S ORDER NUMBER 42 AND THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937; PROVIDING FOR COMMISSION ACTION PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY OF SECTION 6 (A) OF SAID ACT, AND DIRECTING THAT SAID DISTRICT BOARD FILE WITH THE COMMISSION CERTAIN DATA

The Commission having by its Order No. 42 directed all District Boards within Minimum Price Areas Numbers 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9 and 10 to propose minimum prices for all kinds, qualities and sizes of coal produced by code members in their respective districts, in conformity with the provisions of Section 4, Part II—Marketing, subsection (a) of the Act, and having further provided for the coordination of such proposed minimum prices as required under subsection (b) of Section 4, Part II of the Act, and having provided for the completion of such coordination and the submission of such coordinated minimum prices to the Commission not later than the 2nd day of October, 1937; and

It appearing that minimum prices were proposed in conformity with such order by the several District Boards, and it further appearing that District Board Number Seventeen failed to complete coordination with other Districts on or before the date prescribed by the Commission; and

It now appearing that after continued efforts by District Board Number Seventeen, such Board has not at this time completed a voluntary coordination of proposed minimum prices as required under said Act and order of the Commission, and the Commission having concluded that voluntary coordination will not be accomplished within any reasonable period of time.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby declares, directs and orders:

1. That District Board Number Seventeen has failed to complete coordination with other Districts in accordance with the provisions of subsection (b), Part II, Section 4 of the Act and as directed by the Commission's Order Number 42.

2. That the Commission, pursuant to the authority of Section 6 (a) of said Act, will now proceed in lieu of said District Board Number Seventeen to coordinate in conformity with the provisions of Section 4, Part II, of said Act, the proposed minimum prices in such markets as are determined to be common consuming market areas and in such coordination to make such modifications of proposed minimum prices as may be required to give full effect to the differences, if any, between the tentative and actual weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of Minimum Price Area Number 6 as previously required in Order No. 42 of the Commission.

3. That District Board Number Seventeen shall, on or before the 14th day of December, 1937, at twelve o'clock noon, transmit to and place in the hands of the Commission, all statistical data secured by it from code members within such District, together with all compilations made therefrom relative to the distribution and use of coals produced within said District, and all data upon which the minimum prices proposed by said District Board were computed, as well as all data utilized by said Board in proceeding with the work of coordination, all of which data and reports shall be available to the Commission for its use in proposing coordinated minimum prices.

4. That the Commission may from time to time require the appearance, formally or informally, of any District Board member, officer, or employee thereof, for the purpose of further informing the Commission as to facts concerning the production and distribution of coals produced in District Number Seventeen.

The Secretary shall give notice of this order by mailing a copy thereof to the Secretary of District Board Number Seventeen and by mailing a copy to each member of said Board.

By order of the Commission.

[Order No. 119]

AN ORDER PRESCRIBING AND ESTABLISHING MARKETING RULES AND REGULATIONS INCIDENTAL TO THE SALE AND DISTRIBUTION OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER FOURTEEN, PURSUANT TO SECTION 4, PART II, OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders No. 9 and 25 directed all District Boards to propose reasonable rules and regulations incidental to the sale and distribution of coals of code members produced within their respective districts, and to coordinate such marketing rules and regulations in the manner therein provided, and submit same to the Commission; and the said District Boards having proposed such rules and regulations, as directed, and the District Boards having coordinated the rules and regulations as proposed by them with certain exceptions, which exceptions were submitted to the Commission, together with coordination agreements, and statements of the reasons therefor having been submitted to the Commission at a hearing; the Commission having given due consideration to the marketing rules and regulations as proposed and coordinated by the District Boards, as well as to the exceptions made thereto, and all, other evidence and pertinent data submitted to it, and having conformed said marketing rules and regulations to the standards as set forth in Section 4, Part II of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937,

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Marketing Rules and Regulations, incidental to the sale and distribution of coals of Code Members within District Number Fourteen as set forth in the document so captioned, and filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are established and prescribed as the Marketing Rules and Regulations incidental to the sale and distribution of coals of Code Members in said District Number Fourteen, and said Marketing Rules and Regulations shall be and become effective at 12:01 A. M. on the 27th day of December, 1937.

2. That any Code Member or the District Board or member thereof, or any State or political subdivision of a State, or the Consumers' Counsel who shall be dissatisfied with the Marketing Rules and Regulations may at any time after this date make complaint by petition to the Commission, pursuant to Section 4, Part II, (d), and in conformity with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Commission shall after notice and hearing make such further order as may be required to effectuate the purpose of subsection (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act. Pending final disposition of such petition and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission may at any time make such preliminary or temporary order as in its judgment may be appropriate, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and the Marketing Rules and Regulations incidental to the sale and distribution of coals of Code Members of District Number Fourteen, to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretary of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number Fourteen, and to all Code Members within said District, shall cause copies of this order and said Marketing Rules and Regulations and copies of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all statistical bureaus of the Commission, and shall cause a copy of this order to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 10th day of December, 1937.

MARKETING RULES AND REGULATIONS, INCIDENTAL TO THE SALE AND DISTRIBUTION OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER 14

Marketing Rules and Regulations, Incidental to the Sale and Distribution of Coals of Code Members within District Number 14, as set forth herein have been prescribed and established by Order of the Commission, subject to such modification and revision as the Commission may establish by further Orders.

F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

Dated, December 10, 1937.

SECTION I—DEFINITIONS

1. The term "person" as used herein, includes individuals, firms, associations, partnerships, corporations, trusts, trustees, co-operatives, receivers and trustees in bankruptcy and in other legal proceedings, and any other recognized forms of business organizations.

2. A "Sales Agent" is a person who as agent, in law or in fact, sells coal for or on behalf of a code member.

3. A "commission" is the total of all compensations and allowances for services received by a sales agent from a code member for the sale of coal.

4. A "Wholesaler" is a person who purchases coal for resale and who resells such coal in lots of not less than a cargo or railroad carload, without physically handling such coal.

5. A "Farmers' Cooperative Organization" is a bona fide and legitimate cooperative organization duly organized under the laws of any State, Territory, the District of Columbia, or the United States, and composed of local farmers' cooperative organizations, and which purchases coal for resale and resells it in lots of not less than a cargo or railroad carload to its member farmers' organizations, without physically handling such coal.

6. A "wholesale discount" is the total of all allowances or reductions from minimum or other prices allowed to a wholesaler or farmers' cooperative organization by a code member or his sales agent.

7. "Retailing" is the selling of coal in lots of less than a cargo or railroad carload.

8. A "spot order" is a legal obligation for the sale and purchase of coal, the delivery of which is stipulated to be made within not more than thirty (30) days from the date upon which the order was accepted.

9. A "contract" is a legal obligation for the sale and purchase of coal, the deliveries of which are stipulated to be made during a period longer than that specified for a spot order.

10. A "commitment" is a contract or spot order after a quotation is accepted or an option is exercised and not reduced to writing.

11. A "quotation" is an offer for the sale of coal at a price which the offeror may withdraw prior to its being acted upon by the offeree.

12. An "option" is an offer for the sale of coal at a price to be accepted within a time certain, during which time the offeror may not withdraw the offer without consent of the offeree.

13. "Coal Commission" as used herein, shall mean the National Bituminous Coal Commission established under the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

14. "Act" as used herein, shall mean the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

15. "District Board" as used herein, shall mean any District Board established under the provisions of Section 4, Part I (a) of the Act.

16. "Statistical Bureau" shall mean, unless otherwise specifically stated, the statistical bureau of the Commission for the district in which the coal involved in any transaction is produced, or the district in which is located a mine of a code member affected by any order or regulation.

17. "Minimum Price" shall mean a minimum price established and made effective by the Coal Commission.

18. "Maximum Price" shall mean a maximum price established and made effective by the Coal Commission.

19. Registration and Register" as used herein, shall refer to registration with the Coal Commission pursuant to rules and regulations prescribed by the Commission for the administration of Section 4 of the Act.

SECTION II.—SALES AGENTS

1. All appointments of sales agents by code members or their agents or authorized representatives, and the terms and conditions of such appointments shall be subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations from time to time established by the Coal Commission.

2. Each code member shall be responsible for the compliance by all his sales agents and agents and employees of sales agents with the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code and of all rules and regulations, promulgations and determinations of the Coal Commission.

3. All contracts for the appointment of sales agents by code members or by agents or authorized representatives of code members shall be in writing. Certified copies of all such agency contracts entered into and in effect prior to the effective date of these rules and regulations shall be filed by the code member with the statistical bureau or bureaus for the district in which the code member produces coal, on or before January 31, 1938.

Certified copies of all contracts appointing sales agents made subsequent to the effective date of these rules and regulations, shall be similarly filed by the code member within ten (10) days after the date upon which such contracts have been entered into.

4. As to all coal sold by a code member otherwise than through a sales agent or through sales representatives regularly employed as salesmen by the code member, such code member shall, not later than the tenth day of each calendar month, file with the statistical bureau, a list of all his sales representatives and all wholesalers through whom, directly or indirectly, any such coal was sold, with a statement (as to sales representatives) of the duration and character of their employment, the tonnage sold by each such sales representative and wholesaler, and the amount of compensation or discounts paid to and allowed by them.

Each code member shall file monthly similar information obtained from his sales agents with the statistical bureau, concerning sales of coal made by the sales agents' representatives other than salesmen regularly employed.

5. A list showing the names and addresses of sales agents and the code members for whom such agents act shall be published by the Coal Commission from time to time.

6. All agency contracts and other information filed by code members in conformity with the foregoing regulations, other than the names and addresses of sales agents, shall be held by the Coal Commission as the confidential records of said parties and shall not be made public without the consent of the code member from whom the same shall have been obtained, except where such disclosure is required in any proceeding before the Coal Commission by way of enforcement of the Act or upon the order of any court of competent jurisdiction.

7. On and after February 1, 1938, no code member shall pay any commission or make any allowance to any sales agent unless the contract of agency shall have been filed with the Coal Commission as hereinbefore required and unless the sales agent shall have agreed in writing with the code member to conform to and observe the minimum prices and Marketing Rules and Regulations established by the Coal Commission and shall have conformed to the Fair Trade Practice provisions of the Code, as well as to these Marketing Rules and Regulations and all other proper orders of the Coal Commission.

SECTION III—REGISTRATION OF WHOLESALERS

I. From and after the date hereinafter provided no code member or sales agent of a code member shall pay or allow any discount from minimum or other prices to any wholesaler as herein defined unless such wholesaler shall be registered with the Coal Commission at the time of the sale.

II. Wholesalers of coal desiring to qualify themselves so as to be entitled to receive from code members or their sales agents discounts from minimum prices established by the Coal Commission shall make application to be designated as Registered Wholesalers.

III. The form of application to be filed for approval as a Registered Wholesaler shall among other things set forth:

(a) The name of the applicant.

(b) The address of his principal place of business together with the address of each branch office maintained.

(c) The form of organization of applicant's business, whether corporate, partnership, individual or any other form.

(d) The names and addresses of all officers, directors, managers and other parties in interest, including in the case of a corporation, the names of all stockholders, bondholders and other persons having a substantial interest.

(e) The total tonnage of bituminous coal handled by the applicant in the years 1934; 1935; 1936 and the first six (6) months of 1937, together with a schedule of tonnage handled in 1936 and in the first six (6) months of 1937 for each code member.

Also a list showing the names and addresses of any person to whom the wholesaler sold more than ten percent of the coal of any code member handled by applicant in the year 1936.

(f) A statement of the applicant's affiliation, if any, with any coal producer, whether or not a code member, or any transporter, processor, distributor or consumer of coal.

(g) Each application must be accompanied by duplicate copies of the "Terms of Registration" hereinafter set forth, each properly signed and acknowledged.

A. On behalf of corporations, by a principal officer or officers of the corporation duly authorized to act.

B. On behalf of a partnership, by one or more of the partners duly authorized for that purpose.

C. On behalf of an individual, by the applicant or his attorney duly empowered for that purpose.

D. In the case of any other form of business organization, by a person or persons legally authorized to execute an application on behalf of the applicant."

IV. Each such application shall be accompanied by the following agreement, executed in duplicate and properly signed and acknowledged on behalf of applicant.

Terms of Registration

The undersigned wholesaler agrees upon being registered as a "Registered Wholesaler" by the Coal Commission and thereby becoming entitled to discounts authorized by the Coal Commission:

(1) Not to sell, deliver, resell or offer for sale any coal at a price less than the minimum price nor greater than the maximum price established by the Coal Commission for such coal and in effect on the date of delivery, and to sell coal produced only by code members.

(2) To comply with the provisions of Section 4, Part II (1) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 relating to unfair methods of competition.

(3) To accept no discount on coal unless such coal is purchased for bona fide resale in conformity with these rules and regulations and the orders of the Coal Commission.

(4) To abide by the Marketing Rules and Regulations from time to time established by the Coal Commission governing the sale and distribution of coal.

(5) To furnish or cause to be furnished to the Coal Commission at any time upon its direction, a copy of every resale contract or order; a copy of each invoice to wholesaler's vendee, together with copies of each credit memorandum and such other information concerning the sale and distribution of coal as the Coal Commission may require.

(6) To include in every spot order and contract made or entered into by the Registered Wholesaler, the following provision:

This contract (or order) is made and accepted subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations established by the National Bituminous Coal Commission and now in effect, and particularly to the terms of registration of wholesalers as set forth herein.

V. After receipt of any such application, the Coal Commission upon a determination that the applicant is a bona fide wholesaler agreeing to conform to its Marketing Rules and Regulations, shall register such person as a Registered Wholesaler and shall issue to the applicant a certificate of registration accordingly. The Coal Commission shall promptly notify each District Board of such registration and shall publish from time to time for the information of code members, a list of Registered Wholesalers, which list shall be amended from time to time as the Coal Commission may direct, to show additions, withdrawals or removals.

VI. At any time upon complaint or upon its own motion, the Coal Commission may investigate and determine whether a Registered Wholesaler has violated the rules and regulations prescribed by the Coal Commission governing the resale of coal by such Registered Wholesaler.

The registration of any such wholesaler, may be suspended by the Coal Commission after hearing, held upon twenty (20) days' written notice by mail to the wholesaler, and upon proof of failure or refusal to comply with any duty or requirement imposed upon the wholesaler by reason of his registration with the Coal Commission, the registration of the offending wholesaler may be suspended for such period of time as the Coal Commission in its discretion may deem proper. Each District Board and all code members in the districts in which the Registered Wholesaler has been purchasing coal for resale shall be duly notified by the Coal Commission of any suspension, including the effective date and the period thereof.

SECTION IV—FARMERS' COOPERATIVE ORGANIZATIONS

I. Farmers' Cooperative Organizations as hereinbefore defined shall, in order to obtain the privileges granted by the second paragraph of Number 13, subsection (i) of Part II—Marketing—of Section 4 of the Act, be registered with the Coal Commission as herein required and no code member or his sales agent shall pay or allow any discount from minimum prices to any farmers' cooperative organization on or after the first day of February 1938, unless such farmers' cooperative organization shall be so registered at the time of the sale.

II. Each such farmers' cooperative organization desiring to obtain such privileges and discounts shall make application to the Coal Commission for registration as bona fide and legitimate farmers' cooperative organization. Such application shall among other things set forth:

(1) The name and Post Office address of the applicant, date of organization and the names and addresses of the officers and directors, if any.

(2) The names of the local farmers' cooperatives which are members of applicant organization.

(3) The form of organization of applicant's business, with a reference to the law or laws under which such organization was formed.

(4) A statement of the purpose for which such organization is formed, as set forth in its Charter or Articles of Association.

(5) A statement of the qualifications for membership in such organization, as set forth in its Charter or Articles of Association, together with a specific statement as to whether membership is actually limited to bona fide local farmers' cooperatives.

(6) A statement of the terms and conditions under such organization grants rebates, discounts, patronage dividends or other similar benefits to its members and the amount of rate thereof.

(7) A statement setting forth the territories in which applicant operates or proposes to operate.

(8) A statement showing the tonnages of bituminous coal purchased and resold by applicant in the calendar years 1934; 1935; 1936 and the first six (6) months of 1937.

III. Each such application shall have attached thereto duplicate copies of the following agreement, duly authorized, executed and acknowledged on behalf of applicant:

The undersigned Farmers' Cooperative Organization agrees, upon being registered as a Farmers' Cooperative Organization by the Coal Commission and thereby becoming entitled to discounts authorized by the Commission:

(1) Not to sell, deliver, resell or offer for sale any coal at a price less than the minimum price nor greater than the maximum price established by the Coal Commission for such coal and in effect on the date of delivery.

(2) To comply with the provisions of Section 4, Part II (i) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 relating to Unfair Methods of Competition.

(3) To accept no discount on coal from a code member unless such coal is purchased for bona fide resale in conformity with the rules and regulations and orders of the Coal Commission.

(4) To abide by the Marketing Rules and Regulations from time to time established by the Coal Commission governing the sale and distribution of coal.

(5) To furnish or cause to be furnished to the Coal Commission at any time upon its direction, such information as to sales of coal made by applicant as the Coal Commission may require.

IV. After receipt of any such application the Coal Commission, upon a determination that the applicant is a bona fide and legitimate farmers' cooperative organization as defined in said Act and in these regulations, shall register such applicant as a Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization and shall issue to the applicant a certificate of Registration accordingly. The Commission shall promptly notify each District Board of such registration and shall publish from time to time for the information of code members, a list of Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organizations, which list shall be amended from time to time as the Coal Commission may direct in order to show additions, withdrawals or removals.

V. At any time upon complaint or upon its own motion, the Coal Commission may investigate and determine whether a Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization has violated the rules and regulations prescribed by the Coal Commission governing the resale of coal by such Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization.

The registration of any such Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization may be revoked by the Coal Commission after hearing, held upon twenty (20) days written notice by mail, upon proof that such Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization no longer complies with the requirements of the Act and of the Coal Commission, and in case of failure or refusal to comply with any duty or requirement imposed upon the Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization by reason of its Registration with the Coal Commission having been established, the Coal Commission may suspend the Registration for such period of time as the Coal Commission in its discretion may deem proper. Each District Board and all code members in which the Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization has been purchasing coal for resale shall be notified by the Coal Commission of any revocation or suspension, including the effective date and the period of any suspension.

SECTION V—DISCOUNTS AND ALLOWANCES

Section 4, Part II, subsection (i) of the Act provides:

(i) The following practices with respect to coal shall be unfair methods of competition and shall constitute violations of the code:

1. The consignment of unordered coal, or the forwarding of coal which has not actually been sold, consigned to the producer or his agent: Provided, however, That coal which has not actually been sold may be forwarded, consigned to the producer or his agent at rail or track yards, tidewater ports, river ports, or lake ports, or docks beyond such ports, when for application to any of the following classes: Bunker coal, coal applicable against existing contracts, coal for storage (other than in railroad cars) by the producer or his agent in rail or track yards or on docks, wharves, or other yards for resale by the producer or his agent.

2. The adjustment of claims with purchasers of coal in such manner as to grant secret allowances, secret rebates, or secret concessions, or other price discrimination.

3. The prepayment of freight charges with intent to or having the effect of granting a discriminatory credit allowance.

4. The granting in any form of adjustments, allowances, discounts, credits, or refunds to purchasers or sellers of coal, for the purposes or with the effect of altering retroactively a price previously agreed upon, in such manner as to create price discrimination.

5. The predating or postdating of any invoice or contract for the purchase or sale of coal, except to conform to a bona-fide agreement for the purchase or sale entered into on the predate.

6. The payment or allowance in any form or by any device of rebates, refunds, credits, or unearned discounts, or the extension to certain purchasers of services or privileges not extended to all purchasers under like terms and conditions, or under similar circumstances.

7. The attempt to purchase business, or to obtain information concerning a competitor's business by concession, gifts, or bribes.

8. The intentional misrepresentation of any analysis or of analyses, or of sizes, or the intentional making, causing, or permitting to be made, or publishing, of any false, untrue, misleading, or deceptive statement by way of advertising, invoicing, or otherwise concerning the size, quality, character, nature, preparation, or origin of any coal bought, sold, or consigned.

9. The unauthorized use, whether in written or oral form, of trade-marks, trade names, slogans, or advertising matter already adopted by a competitor, or any deceptive approximation thereof.

10. Inducing or attempting to induce, by any means or device whatsoever, a breach of contract between a competitor and his customer during the term of such contract.

11. Splitting or dividing commissions, brokers' fees, or brokerage discounts, or otherwise in any manner directly or indirectly using brokerage commissions or jobbers' arrangements or sales agencies for making discounts, allowances, or rebates, or prices other than those determined under this Act, to any industrial consumer or to any retailers, or to others, whether of a like or different class.

12. Selling to, or through, any broker, jobber, commission account, or sales agency, which is in fact or in effect an agency or an instrumentality of a retailer or an industrial consumer or of any organization of retailers or industrial consumers, whereby they or any of them secure either directly or indirectly a discount, dividend, allowance, or rebates, or a price other than that determined in the manner prescribed by this Act.

13. Employing any person or appointing any sales agent, at a compensation obviously disproportionate to the ordinary value of the service or services rendered, and whose employment or appointment is made with the primary intention and purpose of securing preferment with a purchaser or purchasers of coal.

1. Effective February 1, 1938, no code member or sales agent of a code member shall allow or pay, directly or indirectly, any compensation for the selling of coal, whether by way of commission or allowance, to any sales agent whose contract of agency shall not have been filed with the Coal Commission.

2. Effective January 15, 1938, no code member or sales agent of a code member shall pay or allow any discount to any wholesaler or farmers' cooperative organization who shall not have filed an application for registration with the Coal Commission in the manner provided in Sections III and IV of these Marketing Rules and Regulations.

3. Effective February 1, 1938, no code member or sales agent of a code member shall pay or allow any discount to any wholesaler or farmers' cooperative organization which shall not be registered with the Coal Commission in the manner provided in Sections III and IV of these Marketing Rules and Regulations.

4. No commission shall be paid or discount allowed by a code member on any coal sold for locomotive fuel purposes.

5. No discount from minimum on other prices shall be paid or allowed on coal sold to any person for retailing by him.

6. Subject to further order of the Coal Commission, the amount of commission to be paid by the code member to his sales agent and the amount of the discount to be allowed to a Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization by a code member or his sales agent shall be fixed by agreement of the parties subject, however, to review as to the reasonableness of such commission or discount by the Coal Commission upon complaint or upon its own motion. In every case reviewed by the Coal Commission, the code member, sales agent or Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization shall have the burden of establishing that the commission paid or discount allowed was a reasonable charge commensurate with the service actually rendered and did not exceed the fair cost of the service plus a reasonable profit on the transaction involved, and that the commission or discount so allowed was in conformity with the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code and the Marketing Rules and Regulations of the Coal Commission.

7. No commission shall be paid to a sales agent or discount allowed to a wholesaler by a code member, where the coal is delivered or resold to any person who controls in whole or in part the sales agent or wholesaler.

SECTION VI—LIMITATIONS OF ORDERS, AGREEMENTS, AND QUOTATIONS

1. Until further order of the Coal Commission no code member or sales agent of a code member and no wholesaler or farmers' cooperative organization, registered or proposing to register shall enter into any agreement or order for the sale or delivery of coal for a period in excess of thirty (30) days from the date of such agreement or order, and no prices shall be less than the minimum prices in effect at the time of delivery; Provided, however; that contracts for periods not exceeding one (1) year at prices not less than the minimum prices established by the Coal Commission, in effect at the time of delivery, may be made with agencies of the Federal Government or with such agencies of State or local governments as are required by law to purchase coal for periods in excess of thirty (30) days. In the case of governmental agencies options may be given for a period not exceeding forty-five (45) days. No option for the sale of coal may be given, except as herein specifically provided.

2. All quotations shall be made or confirmed in writing, and shall, without notice, become null and void immediately upon the establishment by the Coal Commission of a revised minimum price for the coal covered by the quotation.

SECTION VII—SPOT ORDERS

1. Spot orders shall be acknowledged or accepted in writing within five (5) business days from the date of their receipt.

2. Every acceptance of a spot order shall contain the following clauses:

(a) "If the price herein named is f. o. b. any point other than the originating mine, such price shall be increased or decreased by the amount and at the time of any change in the published freight rate included in such price and becoming effective during the period of the order.

(b) "No shipment consigned to any destination point may be reconsigned en route or otherwise without the consent of the seller. In case of any reconsignment the seller shall charge and the buyer shall pay not less than the minimum price prescribed for such coal for delivery to the destination to which such shipment is actually delivered.

(c) "The coal shipped pursuant to this order is sold and purchased upon the condition that it shall be used in the plant or plants and at the destination named herein and for the use stated herein and is not to be sold or diverted by the buyer to other destinations or uses without the consent of the seller. In case of diversion the seller shall charge and the buyer shall pay not less than the minimum price prescribed for such coal for delivery at such other destinations and for the use to which actually applied.

(d) "If shipments called for by this order are not completed within thirty (30) days from the date of this order, the unfilled portion of the order shall be cancelled and no delivery of such tonnage shall be made."

3. In any case where a sale is made by a sales agent of a code member or by a Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization, such sales agent or Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization shall not exercise the rights of the seller as defined in items 2 (b) and 2 (c) of this section without first securing the consent in writing of the code member producing such coal.

4. All terms and conditions of a sale of coal must be fully and expressly set forth either in the order or in the acceptance. Any modification must be made in writing and filed in the same manner as an order.

SECTION VIII—USE OF COAL ANALYSES

1. No analysis of coal shall be utilized by a code member, sales agent, sales representative of wholesaler, or farmers' cooperative organization making a resale, in selling or offering for sale any coal produced by the code member, unless such code member shall have previously filed with the Statistical Bureau of the Coal Commission and the District

Board for the district in which the coal is produced, copies of such analysis, together with a certificate setting forth the time and manner of obtaining the sample analyzed, the name and address of the person or firm making the analysis and stating that such analysis is truly representative of the grade and size of coal as regularly produced by the code member. Each such analysis shall be not less than a proximate analysis showing ash, volatile matter, fixed carbon, sulphur and British Thermal Units and ash softening temperature. Each analysis shall further show whether made on an "as received" or moisture "free" basis and if on an "as received" basis, the analysis shall include moisture content.

2. All analyses so filed shall be subject to inspection at the office of the Statistical Bureau at any time during office hours by any interested person, and may be used by the District Board and the Coal Commission in determining from time to time proper classifications of the coals produced by the code member.

3. Any analysis of the coal of a code member made by or on behalf of a consumer and accepted by the code member as the basis for an adjustment of price under any contract or order shall be filed by the code member with the proper Statistical Bureau and District Board, within ten (10) days after such adjustment is made and shall be subject to the provisions of Rule No. 2 herein.

4. No agreement or order for the sale of coal produced by a code member, made upon a premium and penalty basis, shall be entered into or accepted by a code member or wholesaler unless the analysis upon which the premium and penalty clause is based has been previously filed as required in Rule No. 1. Such analysis shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth in full the terms of the premium and penalty provisions of the proposed contract or order.

5. In the case of premium and penalty agreements entered into prior to the effective date of these regulations, and claimed to be continuing in effect, the code member, sales agent or wholesaler, party to the agreement, shall file a statement containing the information required under Rule No. 4, within fifteen (15) days from such effective date.

SECTION IX—TERMS OF PAYMENT

The price and fair trade practice provisions of the Act shall not be evaded or violated by a code member, his sales agent or any Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization through the use of terms of payment, and in no instance shall terms of payment be more favorable than the following:

1. On rail shipments the date of payment of invoices for coal sold shall be on or before the 20th day of the month following shipment.

2. On railroad locomotive fuel, the date of payment shall be on or before the 25th of the month following the date of shipment.

3. Payment shall be made in full and on a net cash basis. No portion of the invoice price may be withheld by agreement by reason of any unadjusted claim of the buyer nor shall any portion be withheld or deposited in escrow by reason of any alleged agreement relating to the constitutionality of any provision of the Act or the validity of any order of the Coal Commission.

4. Where payment is made by note, trade acceptance or other form of indebtedness, the seller shall charge and the buyer shall pay interest at the current market rate.

5. Freight on rail shipments shall not be paid by a code member, his sales agent or a Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization, except to prepay stations as published in current railway tariffs or to the United States Government, States or political subdivisions thereof. Where freight is thus prepaid, the amount thereof shall immediately upon receipt of freight bill or notice of sight draft payment, be invoiced to the buyer for immediate payment.

SECTION X—CRUSHING AND PULVERIZING COAL

1. Each code member who maintains and operates at his mine or at any facility used in preparing coals for market, any crushing or pulverizing device, shall register such device with the Statistical Bureau of the Coal Commission, on or before the Twentieth (20th) day of January, 1938, on forms submitted by the Coal Commission.

2. Such forms shall include the following:

1. Name and address of code member.
2. Name of mine or facility at which device is located.
3. Name and style or type of crushing or pulverizing device.
4. Hourly capacity of device.
5. Sizes of coal which device can crush or pulverize.
6. Sizes of coal resulting from crushing or pulverizing.
7. Number of tons crushed in 1936 and in each month of 1937.
8. Cost per ton of crushing or pulverizing in 1936.

3. Beginning with the month of January 1938, each code member shall on or before the tenth (10th) day of each succeeding month, file with the Statistical Bureau on forms to be provided by the Coal Commission, a statement verified by affidavit, setting forth the following information for the preceding calendar month:

(a) Number of tons of each size crushed or pulverized.
(b) Number of tons of each size resulting from crushing or pulverizing.

4. No code member shall sell any coal crushed or pulverized at a price less than the minimum price established for the grade and size of coal before the crushing or pulverizing process plus five cents (5¢) per net ton.

SECTION XI—MISCELLANEOUS

1. No deduction or allowance shall be granted from invoice prices by any code member or sales agent, wholesaler or farmers' cooperative organization to any purchaser for advertising.

2. The price and fair trade practice provisions of the Act shall not be evaded by any payment or allowance by a code member to any purchaser or purchaser's representative covering advertising and the amount of expenditures for advertising shall be subject to review by the Coal Commission as to the good faith of the transaction.

3. Where coal is refused by a consignee in transit or at destination, the code member may, and in the case where the coal was sold by a Sales Agent or Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization of the code member, such Sales Agent or Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization with the approval of the code member may sell the same at the best obtainable price; provided, that in each case the code member, the Sales Agent, the Registered Wholesaler or the Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization shall before making such resale first notify the statistical bureau and afford a reasonable opportunity to make inspection of such coal before the resale; and provided further, that in each case the code member shall file with the statistical bureau, within five (5) days from the date of such resale a statement giving the name and address of the consignee and the reasons for the refusal, the name and address of the purchaser upon resale and the price received by the seller upon resale, a copy of the carrier's notice of refusal or notice of reconsignment and such other pertinent facts as may be offered in proof of the necessity of such resale and that in making such resale, the provisions of the Code and the Marketing Rules and Regulations of the Coal Commission other than as to price have not been violated or evaded.

4. All code members and all Registered Wholesalers and Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organizations shall promptly furnish to the statistical bureau of the Coal Commission for the District in which the coal originated, full reports of all reconsignments and shall authorize the carrier making such reconsignments to furnish complete information thereon to such statistical bureau.

5. No allowance shall be made for any shipment of coal of substandard preparation or quality unless formal claim duly executed by or on behalf of the buyer and verified by affidavit, setting forth the amount claimed by way of allowance and reasons for the claim is filed with the code member or Sales Agent or Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization within five (5) days after the receipt of the coal and unless, before the coal on which such allowance is claimed is used or disposed of, reasonable opportunity is afforded the Coal Commission through its duly designated representative to make inspection of such coal.

The code member, Sales Agent, Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization with whom such claim for allowance is filed shall immediately notify the statistical bureau and the District Board, furnishing an authentic copy of the buyer's claim together with a statement of the producers views as to the validity of the claim.

No allowance or adjustment for such inferior coal shall be made or deducted from the sales price by the code member, Sales Agent, Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization without first receiving authorization therefor from the duly designated representative of the Coal Commission.

Within five (5) days from the date of granting any such allowance as approved by the representative of the Commission the code member, Sales Agent, Registered Wholesaler or Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization shall file formal report with the statistical bureau setting forth:

A. The name and address of the consignee and the reason for the allowance.
B. The amount of allowance or adjustment made.
C. A statement that the adjustment has not been made with the purpose or intent of evading the price or fair trade practice provisions of the Act.

6. The screening of mine run or re-screening of other grades of coal sold and billed as such for the buyer's account for the purpose of keeping the resultant products separate in the shipment thereof is prohibited. All coal must be sold and invoiced under the designation shown therefor in the price schedule published by the Coal Commission.

7. All coal confiscated or lost in transit shall be invoiced to the carrier at the market value of the coal but in no event at less than the minimum price therefor, established by the Coal Commission.

8. Failure to file information required by the within Marketing Rules and Regulations or the filing of false information, wilfully made, will subject the party failing to file the information required or the party so filing, to the penalties of the Act and other penalties imposed by law.

9. These Marketing Rules and Regulations are subject to revision and amendment by further order of the Coal Commission.

[Order No. 120]

AN ORDER DETERMINING AND ESTABLISHING INITIAL CLASSIFICATIONS OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER 22 AS PROVIDED BY COMMISSION'S ORDERS NO. 38 AND NO. 43, AND SECTION 4, PART II, SUBSECTION (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders No. 38 and No. 43 directed all District Boards to propose to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members within their respective districts in conformity with the standards, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure prescribed by the Commission in said orders; the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 22 having proposed to the Commission initial classifications of coals of code members and a hearing having been held thereon; and Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 22 having submitted evidence at such hearing showing compliance with the standards of classifications of coals, methods of applying such standards, and rules of procedure, as prescribed by the Commission in its Orders No. 38 and No. 43; and, the Commission having given due consideration to the proposed initial classifications of coals by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 22 and to other evidence and pertinent data relating to the classifications of coals for District Number 22:

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress, entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the classifications of coals of code members for District Number 22, set out preceding the names of code members and their respective mines as the same appear in the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members within District Number 22, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the initial classifications of coals for code members within the said District Number 22 and such classifications shall be effective until further order of this Commission.

2. That all proceedings for reclassifications of coals shall be made and conducted in conformity with the provisions of Order No. 38, as amended by Order No. 43, and all proceedings for additional initial classifications shall be had in conformity with orders now in effect or hereafter issued.

3. That nothing herein contained shall affect any proceeding now pending before District Board Number 22 or the Commission involving a revision of the initial classifications of coals of any code member.

That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals for Code Members within District Number 22 to the Consumers' Council, the Secretary of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Number 22 and to code members within said district, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 11th day of December, 1937.

[Order No. 121]

AN ORDER SUSPENDING, UNTIL FURTHER ORDER OF THE COMMISSION, THE OPERATION OF RULE 4 OF SECTION TEN OF MARKETING RULES AND REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE SALE OF CRUSHED AND PULVERIZED COAL BY CODE MEMBERS WITHIN DISTRICTS NUMBERS ONE TO FOURTEEN INCLUSIVE, AND PROVIDING FOR A HEARING BY THE COMMISSION FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECEIVING FURTHER EVIDENCE TO ASSIST THE COMMISSION IN DETERMINING WHETHER OR NOT SAID RULES SHOULD BE MODIFIED OR ABROGATED

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders Nos. 88 and 119, established marketing Rules and Regulations, incidental to the sale and distribution of coals of Code Members within Districts Nos. 1 to 14, inclusive, and the Commission having determined that Rule 4 of Section Ten, relating to the sale of crushed and pulverized coal by Code Members within Districts Numbers 1 to 14, inclusive, should be suspended until further order of the Commission,

Now therefore, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, pursuant to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, hereby orders:

1. That Rule 4 of Section Ten of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, incidental to the sale and distribution of coals of Code Members within Districts Nos. 1 to 14, inclusive, relating to the crushing and pulverizing of coal, be and the same is hereby suspended and declared to be inoperative until further order of the Commission.

2. That a hearing shall be held by the Commission on the 17th day of January, 1938, commencing at 10:00 o'clock A. M., in the Hearing Room of the Commission in Washington, D. C., for the purpose of receiving further evidence to assist the Commission in determining whether or not Rule 4 of Section Ten of Marketing Rules and Regulations relating to the sale and distribution of crushed and pulverized coal by code members within Districts Nos. 1 to 14, inclusive, should be modified or abrogated.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for Districts Nos. 1 to 14, inclusive, and to all Code Members within said Districts ,and shall cause a copy to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Order No. 122]

AN ORDER SUSPENDING UNTIL FURTHER ORDER OF THE COMMISSION THE OPERATION OF RULE 4 OF SECTION FIVE PERTAINING TO COMMISSIONS OR DISCOUNTS ON LOCOMOTIVE FUEL AND PROVIDING FOR A HEARING FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECEIVING FURTHER EVIDENCE TO ASSIST THE COMMISSION IN DETERMINING WHETHER SAID RULE SHOULD BE MODIFIED OR ABROGATED

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Orders Nos. 88 and 119 established Marketing Rules and Regulations, incidental to the sale and distribution of coals of Code Members within Districts Nos. 1 to 14, inclusive, and the Commission having determined that Rule 4 of Section Five should be suspended until further order of the Commission,

Now, therefore, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, pursuant to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, hereby orders:

1. That Rule 4 of Section Five of Marketing Rules and Regulations incidental to the sale and distribution of coals of Code Members within Districts Nos. 1 to 14, inclusive, and reading as follows:

> "No commission shall be paid or discount allowed by a Code Member on any coal sold for locomotive fuel purposes," be and the same is hereby suspended and declared to be inoperative until further order of the Commission.

2. That a hearing shall be held by the Commission on the 20th day of January, 1938, commencing at 10:00 o'clock A. M., in the Hearing Room of the Commission in Washington, D. C., for the purpose of receiving further evidence to assist the Commission in determining whether or not Rule 4 of Section Five of Marketing Rules and Regulations relating to discounts to be allowed on coal sold for locomotive fuel purposes by code members within Districts Nos. 1 to 14, inclusive, should be modified or abrogated.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for Districts Nos. 1 to 14, inclusive, and to all Code Members within said Districts, and shall cause a copy to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Order No. 123]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE TO ASSIST THE COMMISSION IN ESTABLISHING REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS OF MARKETING AGENCIES AND PRESENTING TERMS FOR THE APPROVAL OF SUCH AGENCIES BY THE COMMISSION PURSUANT TO THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

The National Bituminous Coal Commission, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, hereby orders and directs:

1. That on January 17, 1938, commencing at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., in the Hearing Room of the Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., a hearing will be held for the purpose of receiving evidence to assist the Commission in prescribing reasonable regulations for the protection of the public interest governing the business and operations of marketing agencies and prescribing the terms and conditions upon which the Commission will thereafter grant its approval of such agencies, as authorized and provided in Section 12 of said Act.

2. The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to each marketing agency which the Commission has heretofore provisionally approved, and to the Secretary of each District Board, and shall likewise cause to be published a copy of this order in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the Districts Numbers One to Twenty-three, both inclusive, publication to be for one day in said newspapers and at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of said hearing; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Order No. 124]

AN ORDER RELATING TO PURCHASES OF COAL FOR HOUSEHOLD CONSUMPTION BY MINE EMPLOYEES

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having ascertained, after investigation, that the mine workers employed by coal companies under collective bargaining contracts covering wages, hours of labor and working conditions have agreements with employers as to the price they shall pay for household coal used in their homes; and that such agreements are in fact a part of their working agreements and the price so agreed upon a part of the consideration going to the employee for his labor;

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby declares, directs and orders:

1. That the minimum prices of coals established by the Commission shall not be applicable to sales of coal made by a coal producer employer to his or its mine worker employees for household consumption, where such sale is made pursuant to any arrangement by which the reduction to such employee in the prices of coal below the minimum prices, constitutes part of the employees compensation for his labor.

2. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Secretary of all the Bituminous Coal Producers Boards and to all code members, and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 11th day of December, 1937.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

Revision of Regulation 2. Effective December 11, 1937.

MODIFICATION OF COTTON REGULATIONS

AMENDMENT NO. 3 OF RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE IMPORTATION OF COTTON AND COTTON WRAPPINGS INTO THE UNITED STATES

Under authority conferred by the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315), as amended, it is ordered that regulation 2 of the Rules and Regulations Governing the Importation of Cotton and Cotton Wrappings into the United States, as revised February 24, 1923, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Regulation 2. Applications for Permits

Persons contemplating the importation of cotton into the United States shall make application for a permit to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., in advance of shipment, on forms provided for that purpose.

Permits will authorize the entry of cotton at the ports of Boston, Providence, New York, Seattle, Portland, Oreg., San Francisco, and Los Angeles, and at such other ports of entry as may be approved by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine: [1] Provided, That for cotton of the types not requiring disinfection as a condition of entry under the proviso to Regulation 6, as modified effective May 1, 1924, and under the two provisos to Regulation 9, and for second-hand burlap and other fabric of the kinds ordinarily used for wrapping cotton for which disinfection or approved equivalent treatment is not required under the second proviso to Regulation 11, permits will be issued for entry at the following additional ports: Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, Charleston, Savannah, Mobile, Gulfport, Miss., New Orleans, Houston, Galveston, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Port Huron, Detroit, Chicago, and Sumas, Blaine, and Bellingham, Wash.: Provided further, That for second-hand burlap or other fabric of the kinds ordinarily used for wrapping cotton which is to be treated under conditions prescribed by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine in a manner equivalent to disinfection under the first proviso to Regulation 11, permits will be issued for entry at the additional ports of Philadelphia, Baltimore, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Port Huron, Detroit, and Chicago.

Permits to authorize the entry of cotton via the United States for shipment to a foreign country will be issued under the provisions of the Plant Safeguard Regulations for immediate exportation or for immediate transportation and exportation in bond as prescribed in the permit: Provided, That cotton which has been entered in bond for subsequent disinfection may be exported from the United States upon prior approval of, and under conditions to be prescribed by, the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

(a) If cotton falling under these regulations is offered for entry at a port where the entry requirements cannot be met, provision must be made either for its prompt transfer to a port where the requirements of entry can be met, or for its removal forthwith from the port and the territorial waters of the United States. Transfers to other ports for compliance with the regulations, and the routing thereto, must be authorized by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

(b) Under postal restrictions, the importation is authorized by samples, small packets, and parcel post of samples of raw or unmanufactured ginned cotton, including all forms of cotton-mill waste, when the parcels are securely wrapped to prevent leakage, and are conspicuously addressed to the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, at Washington, D. C., San Francisco, Calif., or Seattle, Wash., and, if from Mexico, at Nogales, Ariz., El Paso, Laredo, or Brownsville, Tex., with the name and address of the ultimate addressee indicated in the lower left-hand corner of the wrapper of the parcel. Upon receipt of the parcels at the designated inspection offices of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, they will be examined and disinfected, and forwarded to the ultimate addressee.

This amendment shall be effective on and after December 11, 1937.

Done at the city of Washington this 11th day of December 1937.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

EXEMPTION FROM RADIO REQUIREMENT FOR SMALL PASSENGER VESSELS ENGAGED IN FISHING IN THE VICINITY OF MIAMI, FLORIDA

The Commission en banc, at a meeting held on November 27, 1937, adopted the following Order:

Whereas there are pending before the Commission certain applications for exemption from the provisions of Title III, Part II, of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended by Public No. 97, which applications were filed on behalf of various passenger vessels of less than 100 gross tons operating in the vicinity of Miami, Florida; and

Whereas the Commission on September 28, 1937, granted temporary exemption from the said requirements to this class of vessels for a period ending November 28, 1937, pending further determination in the matter; and

Whereas, after further investigation, it now appears that the route and conditions of the voyages and other circumstances are such as to render a radio installation unreasonable or unnecessary for the purpose of Part II, Title III of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That the passenger vessels Camrade II, Edith, Alice B, Seven Seas, Beatrice and Captain Bill; when navigated not more than five miles from the Florida seacoast in waters lying between Hillsboro Light and Triumph Reef Beacon are exempt from compliance with Title III, Part II of the Communications Act, as amended, for a period of one year from the date of this Order; and

It is further ordered, That any other passenger vessels of less than 100 gross tons, when navigated not more than five miles from the Florida seacoast in waters lying between Hillsboro Light and Triumph Reef Beacon, shall be exempt from compliance with Title III, Part II of the Communications Act for a period ending one year from the date of this Order, the said period to begin with the date of filing of a written request for said exemption, under oath and in triplicate, with the Inspector in Charge, Room 312, New Federal Building, (Post Office Box 150) Miami, Florida, which request shall include the following information:

Name of owner or applicant.
Name of vessel.
Official number.
Gross tonnage.
Required crew.
Permitted number of passengers.
Trade.
Maximum distance navigated from land.
Route the vessel normally follows and the number of passengers normally carried on this (these) route(s).
Period of day in which vessel is operated.
Reason in detail for requesting exemption.

Provided, however, That the foregoing exemptions shall be specifically subject to such rules and regulations as the Commission may hereafter adopt with regard to the granting of applications without hearing and, with respect to any ship or ships not specifically named herein, shall furthermore be subject to suspension or cancellation without notice or hearing within sixty days from the date of filing request for exemption as specified above.

By the Commission.

All hearings scheduled to begin at 10:00 o'clock A. M. (Standard Time).

It is expected that oral argument before the Commission will follow the conclusion of testimony, at once; briefs (or memoranda) conforming to the rules of practice may be filed within 10 days after oral argument.

Attention is directed to the appendix annexed, containing instructions to parties who may appear herein.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL, Secretary.

APPENDIX

Exhibits.—In the preparation of exhibits Rule XIII of the rules of practice should be followed. A copy of that rule is attached. If possible, all documents submitted by a witness should be embraced in a single exhibit, with pages consecutively numbered, suitably bound together. In order to supply the State Commissioners, members of this Commission, and counsel in the proceeding, at least 150 copies of each exhibit should be prepared. So far as possible exhibits should be made self-explanatory in order to minimize the amount of time required for explanation by oral testimony.

Prepared statements.—Witnesses who expect in the course of their testimony to read a written statement should have sufficient copies thereof for the use of counsel, the Commissioners on the bench, and the official reporter.

Verified statements (affidavits).—Evidence in the form of verified statements (affidavits) without personal appearance of the affiant as a witness will also be received by consent of counsel. As soon as practicable parties desiring to offer such statements shall send 10 copies to the Commission and 75 copies to Mr. R. V. Fletcher, counsel for the applicants, Transportation Bldg., Washington, D. C. Within 10 days from receipt, Mr. Fletcher will advise the party submitting the statement and the Commission whether there is objection to the receipt of such statement in evidence. Copies must also be furnished to other interested parties who request them. Such statements should conform to Rule XIII of the rules of practice in respect of style, mimeographing, printing, etc. They should be limited strictly to statements of fact and contain no argument, and if not so limited may be excluded. The Commission on its own motion or on objection may exclude a verified statement or any portion thereof which is not material or relevant to the questions presented in this proceeding, is obviously incompetent, or is argumentative in character. The consent to introduction of such a verified statement will make it unnecessary for the affiant to appear personally at the hearing.

Notice of intention to produce testimony.—Persons who desire to be heard at any of these hearings will facilitate the arrangements necessary by sending notice of their intention, the number of witnesses, and the approximate amount of time necessary for presentation of direct testimony.

Correspondence.—Correspondence relative to this matter should be addressed to the Commission at Washington, D. C., with a reference to the docket number, Ex Parte No. 123.

RULE XIII, RULES OF PRACTICE (IN PART)

(c) 1. [Tariffs; offer of matter contained in schedules.]—In case any matter contained in a tariff schedule on file with the Commission is offered in evidence, such tariff schedule need not be produced or marked for identification, but the matter so offered shall be specified with particularity in such manner as to be readily identified and may be received in evidence subject to check by reference to the original tariff schedules so on file.

2. [Reference in exhibits to tariff authority, routes, and distances.]—All exhibits showing rates, fares, charges, or other tariff provisions must, by appropriate Interstate Commerce Commission number reference, indicate the tariff authority therefor, and if distances are shown must also show the authority therefor and, by lines and junction points, the routes over which the distances are computed; except that the routes over which the distances are computed need not be shown when such distances are specifically published in a tariff schedule lawfully on file with the Commission, or are definitely ascertainable from a tariff schedule on file with the Commission showing rates prescribed by the Commission and based on short line distances, provided the exhibit makes specific reference to such tariff schedules as provided by this rule.

(d) [Copies of exhibits furnished opposing counsel.]—When exhibits of a documentary character are to be offered in evidence copies must be furnished to opposing counsel, unless the presiding Commissioner or Examiner otherwise directs. Whenever practicable, the parties should interchange copies of exhibits before or at the commencement of the hearing.

(e) [Size, form, and identification of exhibits; relevancy, materiality; not argumentative.]—All exhibits of a documentary character received in evidence are bound with the rest of the record in covers of uniform size. Whenever practicable they should be on one side only of sheets not exceeding 12½ inches from top to bottom by 22 inches in width, and a sufficient margin for binding, preferably 1½ inches, must be left blank on the left side of each sheet. They must be on paper of good quality and so prepared as to be plainly legible and durable, whether printed or typewritten. If typewritten they must in other respects conform to the requirements of Rule XXI (b). Whenever practicable the sheets of each exhibit and the lines of each sheet should be numbered, and, if the exhibit consists of five or more sheets, the first sheet or title-page should be confined to a brief statement of what the exhibit purports to show, with reference by sheet and line to illustrative or typical examples contained in the exhibit and should bear an identifying number, letter, or short title which will readily distinguish the exhibit from the other exhibits of the same party. It is desirable that, whenever practicable, rate comparisons and other evidence should be condensed into tables. Exhibits should be limited to statements of fact relevant and material to the issue, which can be shown in that form better than by oral testimony. They should not be argumentative.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on December 30, 1937, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer. Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the presiding officer is directed to make his report to the Commission.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before December 27, 1937.

By the Commission.

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

APPORTIONMENT OF DEATH PENSION OR COMPENSATION

Prior Apportionment Not To Be Disturbed

R-2591. (A) When apportioning death pension or death compensation the provisions of R. & P. R-2592 will be applicable to all cases coming within its purview in which payments of pension or compensation have not been made to dependents, for all periods affected both prior and subsequent to its effective date. If payments have been made pursuant to a prior apportionment regulation, such payments will not be disturbed retroactively, except as provided in subparagraph (B) hereof, but any adjustment made necessary by reason of R. & P. R-2592 will be made effective as of the first day of the month next succeeding that in which the changed award is approved. In those instances where apportioned awards have been made, but no payment to the dependents has been issued thereunder, pension or compensation will be apportioned under R. & P. R-2592 for all periods affected.

(B) If by reason of a retroactive increase in the total amount of pension or compensation payable, no overpayment would result from a retroactive apportionment under R. & P. R-2592, such apportionment will be made effective as of the commencement date of the prior apportionment or the date of the increase in the total amount payable, whichever is the later. (August 16, 1937.) (V. R. No. 6 (c)).

Widow and Children

R-2592. For the purposes of Public No. 2, 73d Congress (Act of March 20, 1933), Public No. 141, 73d Congress (Act of March 28, 1934), and Public No. 484, 73d Congress (Act of June 28, 1934) as amended, and Public No. 304, 75th Congress (Act of August 16, 1937), where the child or children of a deceased veteran are not in custody of the widow, apportionment of pension or death compensation will be as follows:

(A) (1) Where benefits are payable at the war-time rates under Veterans' Regulation No. 1 (g).

| Amount payable to widow when— | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Age of widow is— | Age of oldest child is— | | Amount for oldest child—When child is— | | Amount for each additional child—When child is— | |
| | Under 10 | 10 or over | Under 10 | 10 or over | Under 10 | 10 or over |
| Under 50 | $22.50 | $25.00 | $17.50 | $20.00 | $8.00 | $13.00 |
| 50 but not 65 | 27.50 | 30.00 | 17.50 | 20.00 | 8.00 | 13.00 |
| 65 or over | 32.50 | 35.00 | 17.50 | 20.00 | 8.00 | 13.00 |

(2) Where the full amount payable under Section 3 of Public No. 304, 75th Congress (Act of August 16, 1937) is awarded:

| Amount payable to widow when— | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Age of widow is— | Age of oldest child is— | | Amount for oldest child—When child is— | | Amount for each additional child—When child is— | |
| | Under 10 | 10 or over | Under 10 | 10 or over | Under 10 | 10 or over |
| Under 50 | $22.50 | $25.00 | $17.50 | $20.00 | $8.00 | $13.00 |
| 50 but not 65 | 30.00 | 32.50 | 17.50 | 20.00 | 8.00 | 13.00 |
| 65 or over | 37.50 | 40.00 | 17.50 | 20.00 | 8.00 | 13.00 |

(3) Where compensation is payable at the variable rates provided under R. & P. R-2582 (C) (2), the difference between the total amount of compensation payable thereunder and the total amount otherwise payable at war-time rates under Veterans Regulation No. 1 (g) will be added to the amount payable to the widow under the table prescribed in subparagraph (A) (1) of this paragraph with no change in the amounts provided in such table for the child or children.

(4) The maximum amount payable to the widow and children in a war-time case is $75 of which not more than $52.50 may be paid to the children; and in a peace-time case $56 of which not more than $39.50 may be paid to the children. The total amount for all children will be equally divided when all are under 10 or all are over 10. When there are children under 10 and over 10, apportionment will be made in conformity with the following tables:

War-time Rates—Veterans' Regulation No. 1 (g), Paragraph 1, and Section 3, Public No. 304, 75th Congress

| | | | | | | | | | | | 4.05 | [1]6.40 |
| | | | | | | | | | | | | 5.81 |

[1] Amount for oldest child.

(C) The additional amounts payable to a war-time or peace-time widow at ages 50 and 65, under Veterans Regulation No. 1 (g) or Section 3, Public No. 304, 75th Congress, will be added to the amount apportioned to a widow under age 50.

(D) In those cases where there are no dependent parents and the amount payable by reason of the widow and children exceeds the maximum of $75 or $56, respectively, under subparagraphs (A) or (B), deductions necessary to bring the amount payable within the limitation of the regulation involved will be made first by reducing the amount to be paid to the widow to the rate shown where the oldest child is under ten, and then by reductions pro rata from the amount payable to the children.

(E) In apportioning pension or compensation for any period under Veterans Regulation No. 1 (g) where a widow and child or children and dependent parents, or children and dependent parents are involved, where the aggregate amount payable exceeds $75 or $56 under subparagraphs (A) (1) or (B), reduction necessary to bring the amount within the limitation will be made pro rata from the amount otherwise payable to the parents; provided, however, that the reduction in the award to each parent shall be effected only as of the last day of the month in which the reduction or discontinuance is approved; provided, further, that the limitations of $75 or $56 may be exceeded in any case where protection in the rate payable is afforded by Section 20, Public No. 78, or Section 28, Public No. 141, 73d Congress (A. D. 243).

(F) When compensation is awarded to any person at the full rates provided in Section 3, Public No. 304, 75th Congress, or a portion thereof pursuant to R. & P. R–2582 (C) (2), and another person in the case is entitled to compensation at the rates provided in Veterans Regulation No. 1 (g), the amount of compensation awarded under Veterans Regulation No. 1 (g) will be that which would be authorized if the compensation paid to all persons in the case were awarded at the rates and under the limitations provided in Veterans Regulation No. 1 (g).

(G) Where benefits are payable under V. R. No. 1 (a), Part III, because of death not the result of service.

|---|---|
| Widow | $11.00 |
| Child | 9.00 |
| Each additional child | [1] 3.00 |

(H) Where benefits are payable under Public No. 484, 73d Congress (Act of June 28, 1934) as amended.

|---|---|
| Widow | $17.00 |
| Child | 13.00 |
| Each additional child | [1] 4.00 |

(I) Where benefits are payable under the Act of May 1, 1926, as reenacted by Section 30, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress (Act of March 28, 1934).

|---|---|
| Widow | $15.50 |
| Child under 16 | 11.50 |
| Each additional child | [1] 4.50 |

(J) Where benefits are payable under the General Law as reenacted by Section 30, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress (Act of March 28, 1934), to the widow of a lieutenant colonel or officer of higher rank in the Army, or a captain or officer of higher rank in the Navy.

|---|---|
| Widow | $14.00 |
| Child under 16 | 10.00 |
| Each additional child | [1] 1.50 |

(K) Where benefits are payable under the General Law as amended by Section 314 of the Act of October 6, 1917, reenacted by Section 30, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress (Act of March 28, 1934), to the widows of officers of lesser rank, and of noncommissioned or warrant officers and enlisted men.

|---|---|
| Widow | $11.75 |
| Child under 16 | 8.50 |
| Each additional child | [1] 1.50 |

(L) The apportionment provided for in subparagraphs (I), (J) and (K) will not be applicable in any case in which the widow's title is shown to be forfeited to the veteran's child or children by reason of their abandonment by her or because of her having been shown to be an unsuitable person to have them in her custody. Section 4706, Revised Statutes.

(M) Effective dates of apportionment.—The effective date of the apportionment will be the first day of the month next succeeding that in which notice is received in the Veterans Administration that the child or children are not in the care and custody of the widow, provided that where prior to the initial award to the widow the lack of custody in the widow is shown, the compensation or pension will be apportioned in accordance with the facts found for all periods affected.

(N) Special apportionments.—In any case wherein it is clearly shown by competent evidence that the application of the foregoing provisions of these regulations or the fact that no apportionment is authorized under the provisions thereof will result in undue hardship upon the widow, children or dependent parents, and relief can be afforded without undue hardship to the other persons at interest, the complete case file will be forwarded through the director, dependents claims service, to the assistant administrator in charge of compensation and pensions, who will determine without regard to the foregoing provisions of these regulations the death pension or compensation which will be apportioned and the exact amount to be apportioned to each individual in interest. (V. R. No. 6 (c)). (September 16, 1936.)

(O) There can be no apportionment of a widow's pension under the laws reenacted by Public No. 269, 74th Congress (Act of August 13, 1935), except that the additional allowance for a child by a former marriage not in care and custody of the widow may be paid to the fiduciary of the child.

(P) Discontinuance of apportionments, effective dates.—In those cases where death pension or compensation is apportioned between the widow and child or children and payments have been or are being made to such dependents subsequent to the date of cessation of the condition on which it is predicated, the effective date of discontinuance of the apportioned benefit to the child or children shall be the date of last payment, and the award to the widow will be adjusted accordingly; except that in the event of death, the date of death; or the date preceding the sixteenth, eighteenth, or twenty-first birthday; or the date preceding the date of marriage; or in case of a child who discontinues a course of instruction, the last day of attendance; will be the effective date. (V. R. No. 6 (c)). (August 16, 1937.)

AIRCRAFT INSPECTION CHARGES

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS OF 1937 AMENDED TO ELIMINATE REQUIREMENT FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF CUSTOMS CHARGES IN CERTAIN CASES

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the authority conferred in section 251 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 66), sections 624 and 644 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, secs. 1624 and 1644), article 247 of the Customs Regulations of 1937 is hereby amended to read as follows:

"ART. 247. Landing at airports of entry—Requirements.—All civil aircraft arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall make the first landing at an airport of entry, except in the case of forced landings or unless permission to land elsewhere is obtained in advance from the Commissioner of Customs, Washington, D. C. When such permission is granted, the owner or person in charge of the aircraft shall pay the additional expenses, if any, incurred in inspecting the aircraft and the merchandise, passengers, and baggage carried thereon, plus the usual overtime compensation payable to customs officers if the inspection is performed at night or on Sunday or a holiday, unless the permission is granted to a commercial airline to land its aircraft regularly elsewhere than at an airport of entry, in which case no inspection charge shall be made except for overtime service."

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—EAST CENTRAL REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101—KENT COUNTY, MARYLAND, SUPPLEMENT (B)

(a) Rate per Acre for Calculating Payment, and (b) Specified Acreage of Soil-Building Practices

Section 1 of part I of East Central Region Bulletin 101, Kent County, Maryland, is amended by striking out the last sentence in the first paragraph of said section 1 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"The weighted average rate per acre for all farms which participate in the program shall not exceed the county average rate unless it is determined by the East Central Division that the farms which participate in the program are not representative of all farms in the county."

Section 2 of part I of East Central Region Bulletin 101, Kent County, Maryland, is amended by striking out the last paragraph therein and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"The soil-building practices specified for each farm shall consist of a total acreage of the practices named in section 4 of part II below which will tend to meet the needs of the farm for soil restoration and conservation and result in economic use of the land in such farm; provided that at least one-third of the acreage of such practices shall consist of practices other than the seeding of red clover."

PLATS AND PLANS OF INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL PLANTS, BONDED WAREHOUSES AND DENATURING PLANTS; DISTILLERIES OTHER THAN FRUIT; DISTILLERY DENATURING BONDED WAREHOUSES; FRUIT DISTILLERIES; INTERNAL REVENUE BONDED WAREHOUSES; RECTIFYING PLANTS AND BREWERIES

To District Supervisors and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to authority conferred by Section 3263 Revised Statutes (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1167); Section 13, Title III of the National Prohibition Act (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 27, sec. 83); Section 1309 of the Act of February 24, 1919 (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1350); and Section 405 of the Act of June 26, 1936 (U. S. C., 1934 ed., Supp. II, title 26, sec. 1265), the following regulations are prescribed:

SIZE AND MATERIALS

PAR. 1. Plats and plans of the premises of industrial alcohol plants, bonded warehouses and denaturing plants; distilleries other than fruit; distillery denaturing bonded warehouses; fruit distilleries; internal revenue bonded warehouses; rectifying plants and breweries, hereafter filed, shall be in triplicate, on sheets of tracing cloth or sensitized linen, 15 x 20 inches outside measurement, with a clear margin of at least one inch on each side of the drawing, lettering and writing. Plats and plans may be original drawings or reproductions made by the ditto process, or blue line lithoprint, or brown line lithoprint, if clear and distinct.

DESCRIPTION OF PREMISES ON PLAT

PAR. 2. Plats must show the outer boundaries of the premises by courses and distances in feet and inches, and the point of beginning with respect to its distance and bearings, from some near and well known land mark, and contain an accurate description of the building or buildings comprising the premises. Provided, that plats or rectifying plants need show only the distances in feet and inches. If two or more buildings are to be used, they must be shown in their relative positions and the designation by name of each such building must be shown. Where two or more buildings are used for the same purpose, each building will be designated consecutively by letter, beginning with "A", and shall be so shown on the plat. The surrounding buildings, driveways, streets and railroad sidings, and the purposes for which such buildings are used, will be indicated on the plat. All first floor openings of each building will be shown on the plat.

PROCESS FLOW SHEET

PAR. 3. Proprietors of industrial alcohol plants, distilleries other than fruit and fruit distilleries must file a diagrammatic or isometric process flow sheet showing the receipt of fermenting or distilling material on the premises, and the flow thereof through the mash tubs, fermenters, beer wells, stills, doublers, try boxes, high and low wine tanks, receiving cisterns, etc., and deposit of the finished spirits in the warehouse.

VERTICAL, SECTIONAL, ELEVATIONAL AND FLOOR PLANS

PAR. 4. Vertical, sectional or elevational plans, as well as floor plans of apparatus and equipment, must be filed. Vertical, sectional or elevational plans of the distilling apparatus must be so drawn that all fixed pipelines may be traced from beginning to end. Rectifiers will not be required to file elevational plans of apparatus and equipment with the exception of stills, bottling tanks and storage tanks. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to breweries.

LOCATION OF VALVES, FLANGES, ETC.

PAR. 5. All valves and connections in pipelines must be properly indicated on the plans. The location of all Government locks used to secure the apparatus or equipment, or on doors, must be indicated on the plans at the points where the locks are attached, by the symbols "G. L." If flanges, unions, or other connections in pipelines are brazed, welded or otherwise permanently secured in such a manner as to constitute a continuous single pipeline, the location of such flanges, unions, etc., which are welded or brazed, and the manner of securing same, need not be indicated on the plans.

SUFFICIENT SHEETS REQUIRED

PAR. 6. Sufficient sheets of plans will in every case be prepared so that the Bureau will be able to ascertain accurately whether the establishment is constructed in conformity with the requirements of the law and regulations.

COLORS PRESCRIBED FOR PIPELINES

PAR. 7. The following colors are prescribed for the painting of pipelines in industrial alcohol plants, bonded warehouses and denaturing plants; distilleries other than fruit; distillery denaturing bonded warehouses; fruit distilleries and internal revenue bonded warehouses located on distillery premises, and must be so painted and shall be shown on the plans by their respective designated colors:

|---|---|
| Black | Brandy, whiskey, gin, rum, alcohol, or other finished spirits. |
| Blue | Vapor, singlings, high wines and low wines, or other unfinished spirits. |
| Red | Mash, beer, or other distilling material. |
| Gray | Molasses, or other fermenting material. |
| Brown | Spent beer or slop. |
| Dark Green | Denatured alcohol and denatured rum. |
| Light Green | Denaturants. |
| Yellow | Fusel oil. |
| White | Water. |
| Aluminum | Steam. |
| Orange | Air. |

These colors are intended for such pipelines only, and are for the purpose of distinguishing such pipelines from each other and from other lines for which colors are not prescribed. The painting of other pipelines in one of the prescribed colors, or colors similar thereto, is prohibited.

PIPELINES EXEMPTED

PAR. 8. City or public utility service lines, such as sewers, electric or gas conduits or pipes, need not be shown on the plans. Sprinkler, refrigeration or heating systems which have no connection with the distilling equipment or any apparatus or pipeline connected therewith, need not be shown on the plans, provided that where such apparatus originates outside of the bonded premises the point of entry to the bonded premises shall be indicated on the plans.

CERTIFICATE OF ACCURACY

PAR. 9. Every plat and plan shall be drawn by a competent draftsman. Each sheet of every plat and plan, both original, supplemental or superseding, shall bear a certificate of accuracy, dated and signed by the draftsman, proprietor and District Supervisor. The certificate shall be placed in the lower right corner of each sheet and shall be in the following form:

[Order No. 125]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 73, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF INITIAL CLASSIFICATIONS OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER ONE

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 73 established the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number One, incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission having upon its own motion reviewed said Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number One, and the Commission having determined that to more effectively carry out the provisions of the Act, the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members produced in District Number One should be revised as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Schedule of Initial Classifications of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number One be and the same hereby is revised and amended as set forth in the "Revised Classification Schedule One—District Number One", filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and the classifications in said "Revised Classification Schedule One—District Number One" shall be and are determined and established as the classifications of coals of code members produced within the said District Number One.

2. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and "Revised Classification Schedule One—District Number One" to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the districts within Minimum Price Area One; and to code members within District Number One; shall cause copies of this order and said Schedule to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

[Order No. 127]

AN ORDER TEMPORARILY AMENDING THE RULE RELATING TO SUBSTITUTION AND PROVIDING FOR GIVING NOTICE OF A HEARING BY THE COMMISSION FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE TO ENABLE THE COMMISSION TO APPROVE, DISAPPROVE OR MODIFY THE RULE RELATING TO SUBSTITUTION

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, pending final disposition of the matters hereinafter set forth and until further order of the Commission, hereby orders and directs:

That no substitution may be made upon any spot order or contract, of any grade or size of coal taking a minimum price higher than the price specified in such order or contract, except upon the following conditions:

1. The proposed substitution shall not be an express or implied condition of the order or contract.

2. The coal substituted must be coal which the code member has already produced and loaded into transportation facilities and which cannot be sold promptly by the exercise of the usual sales effort, such substitution to be limited to a specific tonnage for shipment on a specific order and from a specific mine.

3. The substitution must be reasonably necessary as an emergency measure in order to continue operation of the mine of the code member.

4. The substitution shall be acceptable to the purchaser of the coal, and shall not be made with the purpose or effect of conferring any advantage on the purchaser or securing any preference or advantage for the code member over his competitors.

5. Such substitution may be made only with the approval of a duly designated representative of the Commission and in each instance formal application therefor shall be made upon forms provided by the Commission and permits shall be issued prescribing the conditions of substitution in each case approved.

The producer may make request and receive approval for substitution by telephone or telegraph from the duly designated representative of the statistical bureau of the Coal Commission for the district in which coal originates, provided the representative of the Coal Commission is satisfied that an immediate emergency exists. In such a case, the producer shall immediately confirm the request in writing on the prescribed form, and the designated agent of the Commission shall immediately upon receipt of such written request confirm his approval by issuing the permit prescribed by the Commission.

6. Substitution will be allowed by producers on orders for railroad locomotive fuel without prior approval of the Commission; provided, however, the producer immediately shall file the form prescribed by the Commission with the statistical bureau of the district in which the coal originates. No substitution for lump or double screen coal ordered by the railroads for locomotive fuel shall be made without the prior approval in the manner heretofore provided, from the duly designated representatives of the Commission.

7. Copies of substitution permits shall be mailed daily to the office of the District Board and weekly summaries of substitution permits shall be mailed to all District Boards within the Price Area. The Commission may from time to time publish the essential facts as to all substitution permits granted.

8. In each case of coal shipped under a substitution permit each invoice shall specifically show the permit number and the size and grade of coal substituted.

9. A hearing shall be held by the Commission on the 14th day of February, 1938, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. in the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Walker Building, 734 15th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., for the purpose of receiving evidence to assist the Commission in determining a proper rule to be adopted relating to substitution.

10. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for Districts One to Fourteen, inclusive, and to all Code Members within said Districts, and shall cause a copy to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[Order No. 129]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 92, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER FOUR

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 92 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Four as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Four, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Four, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Four, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Four, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Four, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Four, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement No. 1, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Four, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 92, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Four to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area One; to code members within District Number Four; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement No. 1 to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[Order No. 134]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 100, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER TWELVE

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 100 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Twelve as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Twelve, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Twelve, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section Four of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Twelve, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Twelve, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Twelve, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Twelve, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement No. 1, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within said District Number Twelve, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 100, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Twelve to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area Two; to code members within District Number Twelve; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement No. 1 to be made available for inspection to all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[Order No. 135]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 101, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER THIRTEEN

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 101 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Thirteen as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Thirteen, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Thirteen, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Thirteen, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Thirteen, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Thirteen, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Thirteen, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement No. 1, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Thirteen, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 101, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Thirteen to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area Three; to code members within District Number Thirteen; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement No. 1 to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

SUPPLEMENT No. 1 TO PRICE SCHEDULE No. 1 FOR DISTRICT No. 13

Supplemental Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 13, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937".

Effective 12:01 A. M. December 16, 1937.

Issued December 14, 1937.

F. W. McCULLOUGH, Secretary.

ALABAMA MINES

Price Instructions and Exceptions—General

1. Schedule of prices shown herein, applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the district shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the uniform marketing rules and regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screen. When other types of screens are used, the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10¢ per net ton shall be made.

7. Mines having published freight rate differentials applying against them in connection with other Alabama mines may absorb from minimum prices such differentials not in excess of 25¢ per net ton, except that this permission to absorb differentials does not apply to References 201 to 249, inclusive.

8. Coking coal, freight exceptions.—Prices are based on lowest line haul coking-in-transit or lowest line haul furnace raw material rates, whichever properly applies. Mines having lower respective transportation charges, either line haul or switching, must plus their mine prices the amount of their transportation advantage. Mines having higher than such base rates may absorb up to 25 cents per ton of such disadvantage. This applies to Alabama destinations only. There shall be no adjustment of furnace material transportation charges to equalize with coking-in-transit transportation charges.

9. When top sizes of Egg does not exceed 5", the schedule prices for same may be reduced 5¢ per net ton, Reference 250 to 266, inclusive.

10. Reference 255, 4" x 1½", is classified as Nut coal and takes Nut coal prices shown on schedules.

RAILROAD LOCOMOTIVE FUEL (ON AND OFF LINE)

All coal, except lump or double screened sizes, sold for on-line Railroad Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.35 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines, and such coal sold for off-line Railroad Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.15 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines.

Lump or any double screened coal ordered or sold for on-line Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.50 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines, and such coal ordered or sold for off-line Locomotive fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.30 per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. mines.

When coal, other than Locomotive fuel, is sold to a railroad the price shall be not less than the minimum established for the grade and size sold, applicable to the Market Area in which the mine is located.

TENNESSEE, GEORGIA MINES

Price Instructions and Exceptions

1. Schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the district shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the uniform marketing rules and regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used, the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge not less than 10¢ per net ton shall be made.

7. Washed coal shall be ten cents per ton higher than unwashed coal.

8. Prices shown in size group 7 cover regular 2" x 0 and 1½" x 0 Nut and Slack. Where mines make a specially prepared 2" Nut and Slack coal with part of the fines removed, each car of such specially prepared 2" Nut and Slack coal must contain not less than 40% of Slack coal including intermediate coal from washer which will pass through a ¾" screen. This coal shall take the washed coal price of 2" x 0".

9. Mines having published freight rate differential applying against them in connection with other Southern Tennessee Railroad mines may absorb such differentials provided the maximum absorption does not exceed 35¢ per ton, subject to exception below.

10. Market Area 83.—Where the applying freight rate is less than the $1.30 base rate, the minimum f. o. b. mines price shall be increased by an amount in cents per net ton sufficient to equalize the actual freight rate with such base rate: provided, that the amount of such increase may be limited to a maximum of 35¢ per net ton.

Prices in Cents per Net Ton of 2,000 Pounds for Shipment Into Market Areas Nos. 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 76, 78, 81, 82, 91, 92

[Order No. 136]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 97, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER NINE

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 97 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Nine as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Nine, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Nine, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Nine, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Nine, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Nine, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Nine, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement No. 1, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Nine, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 97, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Nine to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area Two; to code members within District Number Nine; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement No. 1 to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

[Order No. 138]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 90, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER TWO

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 90 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Two as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Two, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Two, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Two, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Two, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Two, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Two, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement No. 1, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Two, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 90, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Two to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area One; to code members within District Number Two; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement No. 1 to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

SUPPLEMENT NO. 1 TO PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1 FOR DISTRICT NO. 2

Supplemental Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 2, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective 12:01 a. m. December 16, 1937.

Issued December 14, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

1. The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.[1]

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10 cents per net ton shall be made.

7. Straight mine run coal containing more than 45% of minus ¾" Slack may be modified by removing that portion of ¾" Slack in excess of 45%.[1]

BASIS FOR FREIGHT RATE ADJUSTMENT

Market Area No. 2

Designated base rate.—Clearfield.[1]

Rates higher than base.—On shipments destined within the above named Market Areas the minimum f. o. b. mine price may be reduced by an amount in cents per net ton (not in excess of 35¢) sufficient to equalize the actual freight rate with the Clearfield [1] base rate indicated above.

Rates lower than base.—Where the applying freight rate is less than the Clearfield [1] base rate designated above, the minimum f. o. b. mine price shall be increased by an amount in cent. per net ton sufficient to equalize the actual freight rate with such base rates: Provided, That the amount of such increase may be limited to a maximum of 35¢.

Prices in Cents per Net Ton of 2,000 Pounds for Shipment Into Market Areas Nos. 1 and 1A

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

RULES UNDER PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

Acting pursuant to the authority granted by the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 3 (a) (5) thereof, and finding such action not detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby amends rule 3A5–1, adopted November 25, 1935, to read as follows:

RULE 3A5–1. Exemption of certain extra-territorial holding companies.—(a) As used in this rule, "domestic utility assets" means any utility assets located within a State of the United States or the District of Columbia; "domestic utility company" means any company which owns or operates any domestic utility assets; "domestic holding company" means any holding company which is itself, or has any subsidiary which is, a domestic utility company; "extra-territorial holding company" means any holding company which is not organized under the laws of any State of the United States or of the District of Columbia and is not itself, and has no subsidiary which is, a domestic utility company.

(b) Every extra-territorial holding company shall be exempt from any obligation, duty, or liability imposed upon such company as a holding company: Provided, That such exemption shall not be applicable to any transaction by which such extra-territorial holding company shall, directly or indirectly, by use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, (1) acquire or negotiate for the acquisition of any domestic utility assets, or (2) acquire or negotiate for the acquisition of any security of any domestic public utility company or domestic holding company, if the acquiring company is, or by virtue of such acquisition will become, an affiliate of the issuer of the security so acquired, except any acquisition which is exempt from the provisions of section 9 (a) (2) by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (b) of Rule 9A2–3.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to the authority granted by the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 3 (d) thereof, and, finding such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers and not contrary to the purposes of said Act, hereby amends Rule 9A2–3, as amended April 28, 1936, to read as follows:

RULE 9A2–3. Exemptions from section 9 (a) (2).—(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) of this rule, any company shall be exempt from any obligation, duty, or liability imposed on such company as an affiliate by section 9 (a) (2) with respect to the acquisition of any security of a public-utility company: Provided, That the acquiring company and the company which is the issuer of the security acquired are organized under the laws of the same State and that the following conditions are satisfied with respect to the acquiring company and the issuing company:

(1) Of the aggregate utility assets owned, controlled or operated by such company and by all subsidiary companies thereof, not more than 5 percent in value are located outside the State under the laws of which such company is organized, and not more than 5 percent in value are owned, controlled, or operated by any subsidiary company or companies organized under the laws of any other State; and

(2) The total revenues from sales of electric energy by such company and its subsidiary public-utility companies, if any, to purchasers outside of such State of organization or sold at the State line (exclusive of intercompany sales) together with the total cost of electric energy bought by such company and such subsidiaries from sellers outside of such State or bought at the State line for transmission into the State (exclusive of intercompany purchases) have not, during any one of the last 3 fiscal years, exceeded 5 percent of the total revenues of such company and such subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, from sales of electric energy during such fiscal year.

(b) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this rule, any person, including a company not exempt under paragraph (a) of this rule, shall be exempt from any obligation, duty or liability imposed on such person as an affiliate by section 9 (a) (2) with respect to the acquisition of any security of any public utility company, either directly, or indirectly through the acquisition of securities of any holding company, or otherwise, if the conditions of any one of the following subparagraphs is satisfied:

(1) The issuer of the security so acquired does not own or operate, and has no subsidiary which owns or operates, any utility assets located in the United States;

(2) The issuer of the security so acquired is a holding company which has been exempted from the registration requirements of the Act by rule or order pursuant to clause (3), (4), or (5) of section 3 (a), or as to which there is pending an application for such exemption pursuant to such provisions of the Act which has not been acted upon by the Commission and the person making such acquisition has reasonable cause to believe that such application was made in good faith;

(3) The issuer of the security is a majority-owned subsidiary (as defined in paragraph (a) of rule 9C–2) of the person acquiring the same;

(4) Such security is not a voting security and, upon the completion of such acquisition, neither the person acquiring the same nor any company of which such person is a subsidiary will, directly or indirectly, own or have an interest in, 5 percent or more of the class of securities so acquired: Provided, That, in the case of a security by its terms convertible into, or exchangeable for, a voting security, the provisions of this subparagraph shall not extend to the conversion of such security into, or exchange thereof for, a voting security;

(5) The security and the conditions under which it is required are such that if the acquiring person were a registered holding company or a subsidiary of such a company, it would be permitted to acquire such security under the provisions of clause (3), (4), (5), (7), or (12) of rule 9C–3.

(c) This rule shall not be construed as providing any exemption from section 4, section 9 (a) (1), or any provision of the Act other than section 9 (a) (2). The exemption provided by this rule shall not be applicable to any unregistered holding company other than a company which has been declared not to be a holding company or is exempted as such by order or rule under section 2 (a) (7) or section 3 (a) or by virtue of the filing in good faith of an application for such order; and shall not be applicable to any subsidiary company thereof other than a company which has applied in good faith for an order declaring it not to be subsidiary thereof.

(d) Within 30 days after any acquisition with respect to which the acquiring person is exempt under paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this rule, such person shall file with the Commission a statement identifying the security or securities acquired and the person from whom they have been acquired, stating the amount acquired and the amount of all securities of the issuer which the acquiring person, directly or indirectly, owned, controlled, or held with power to vote, upon completion of the acquisition, and briefly explaining the facts relied upon to bring the acquisition within the exemption provided by this rule. Such report need not be filed with respect to any acquisition with respect to which the acquiring person is exempt under subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of this rule. No form is prescribed for such statement. One original only need be filed. If acknowledgment is desired, a duplicate should also be filed.

Acting pursuant to the authority conferred upon it by the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 3 (d) thereof, and finding such action necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers and not contrary to the purposes of said Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby adopts the following rules:

RULE 3D–9. Exempting certain securities issued in connection with installment sales.—(a) For the purposes of this rule, "installment paper" shall mean any note, contract or other evidence of indebtedness which a public utility company or a subsidiary thereof shall have received to evidence an obligation to pay part or all of the purchase price not to exceed $1,000 of standard electrical or gas appliances sold by such public utility company or subsidiary or by any other company or dealer to a person to whom such public utility sells or distributes gas or electricity.

(b) Every public utility company or any subsidiary thereof shall be exempt from every obligation, duty, and liability that would otherwise be imposed on it as a subsidiary of a registered holding company by the provisions of section 6 (a), with respect to the issue or sale by such public utility company or subsidiary thereof of any note or draft: Provided, That the conditions set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph are satisfied:

(1) At the time of its issue, such note or draft is secured, and at all times thereafter is to continue to be secured, by a pledge of installment paper owned by such public utility company or subsidiary having a principal amount still unpaid that equals or exceeds the principal amount of such note or draft then remaining unpaid; and

(2) Such note or draft is issued to a bank, insurance company or other lender commonly recognized as a financial institution, or to a company that is regularly engaged in the business of refinancing installment paper, and is not issued to any associate company or affiliate of such public utility company except an associate company which renders it such financial service on a cost or non-profit basis.

(c) Every public utility company or subsidiary thereof shall also be exempt from every obligation, duty, and liability that would otherwise be imposed on it as a subsidiary of a registered holding company by the provisions of section 6 (a) with respect to any endorsement or guarantee by it of any installment paper held by such public utility company or subsidiary, which endorsement or guarantee is made in connection with selling, discounting, pledging or otherwise disposing of such paper to a bank, insurance company or other lender commonly recognized as a financial institution, or to a company that is regularly engaged in the business of refinancing installment paper but not to any associate company or affiliate of such public utility company except an associate company which renders it such financial service on a cost or non-profit basis.

RULE 3D–10. Issue of note for purchase price of equipment.—Any public utility company which is a subsidiary of a registered holding company shall be exempt from the provisions of section 6 (a) of the Act with respect to the issue of renewal of any note or draft which is issued to the vendor of equipment or materials purchased by such company for use in its business: Provided, That such vendor is not an associate or an affiliate of such public utility company and that such note aggregates (together with all other then outstanding notes and drafts issued pursuant to the provisions of this rule) not more than $50,000.

By direction of the Commission.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Bureau of Internal Revenue.

[T. D. 4784]

INCOME TAX—LIQUIDATION OF FOREIGN PERSONAL HOLDING COMPANIES

REGULATIONS 94 AMENDED TO ACCORD WITH SECTION 205 OF TITLE II OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1937

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the provisions of section 62 of the Revenue Act of 1936 and section 205 of Title II of the Revenue Act of 1937, approved August 26, 1937 (Public, No. 377, Seventy-fifth Congress, Chapter 815, first session), Regulations 94 are amended as follows:

The following is inserted immediately before article 115–1, relating to dividends:

"Section 205 of Title II of the Revenue Act of 1937, relating to foreign personal holding companies, provides:

SEC. 205. Liquidation of foreign personal holding companies.—Section 115 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1936 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new sentence to read as follows:

"If any distribution in complete liquidation (including any one of a series of distributions made by the corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all its stock) is made by a foreign corporation which with respect to any taxable year beginning on or before, and ending after, the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1937, was a foreign personal holding company, and with respect to which a United States group (as defined in section 331 (a) (2)) existed after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1937 and before January 1, 1938, then, despite the foregoing provisions of this subsection, 100 per centum of the gain recognized resulting from such distribution shall be taken into account in computing net income—

"(1) Unless such liquidation is completed before January 1, 1938; or

"(2) Unless (if it is established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner by evidence submitted before January 1, 1938, that due to the laws of the foreign country in which such corporation is incorporated, or for other reason, it is or will be impossible to complete the liquidation of such company before such date) the liquidation is completed on or before such date as the Commissioner may find reasonable, but not later than June 30, 1938."

The following sentence is substituted for the first sentence of the second paragraph of article 115–5, relating to distributions in liquidation:

"In the case of amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation, the amount of gain or loss so recognized is subject in general to the limitations contained in section 117."

Article 115–5 is further amended by inserting after the second paragraph thereof the two following paragraphs:

"In any case coming within the purview of section 115 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1936, as amended by section 205 of the Revenue Act of 1937, in which it is or will be impossible to complete the liquidation of the corporation before January 1, 1938, and in which it is desired that the shareholders obtain the benefit of section 117 (a) with respect to the amount of gain from the distribution in liquidation to be taken into account in computing net income, the corporation shall submit to the Commissioner before January 1, 1938, a complete statement of the facts, circumstances, and reasons why it is impossible to complete the liquidation before January 1, 1938, and the earliest reasonable date after January 1, 1938, on which such liquidation will be completed.

"For the purposes of section 115 (c), as amended, a liquidation may be completed prior to the actual dissolution of the liquidating corporation but no liquidation is completed until the liquidating corporation and the receiver or trustees in liquidation are finally divested of all the property (both tangible and intangible)."

The first sentence of the third paragraph of article 115–5, as that article existed prior to its amendment by this Treasury Decision, is amended by striking therefrom the word "so" wherever appearing therein.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Docket No. 93–FD]

IN THE MATTER OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 11, ENOS COAL MINING COMPANY AND THE BINKLEY MINING COMPANY

TEMPORARY ORDER

The petitioners above named having filed with the Commission on the 13th day of December, 1937, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 2 of Order No. 99 and Section 4, Part II, (d), of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, a petition alleging dissatisfaction with the minimum prices applicable to the sale of coal to trunk line railroads by Code Members in District No. 11, operating mines on short line connections of such trunk line railroads and established by the Commission by its Order No. 99 and praying for a temporary order pending final disposition of such petition; and the Commission having noticed an ex parte hearing upon such petition for the 14th day of December, 1937, at the Hearing Room of the Commission at Washington, D. C.; and pursuant to said notice an ex parte hearing having been held thereon; and it appearing to the Commission that the petitioners have made a reasonable showing of the necessity for a temporary order pending final disposition of the petition; the Commission, pursuant to the provisions of Section 4, Part II, (d), of the Act, orders as follows:

1. That pending final disposition of the aforesaid petition and until further order of the Commission, that the Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number 11, filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commission on the 30th day of November, 1937, is hereby modified by adding to such price schedule the following proviso:

"That Code Members in District No. 11 whose mines are located on the A. W. & W. Railroad may absorb, on sales of coal from such mines to the C. C. C. & St. L. Railroad, an amount not exceeding twenty (20) cents per net ton from the minimum price now established for railroad locomotive fuel, and that Code Members whose mines are located on the Indiana Railroad may absorb on sales of coal from such mines to the C. M. St. P. & P. Railway, an amount not exceeding ten (10) cents per net ton from the minimum price now established for railroad locomotive fuel."

2. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the districts within Minimum Price Area Two; and to the petitioners; shall cause copies of this order to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[Order No. 132]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 96, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER EIGHT

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 96 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Eight as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eight, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eight, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eight, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Eight, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eight, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eight, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement No. 1, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Eight, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 96, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eight to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area One; to code members within District Number Eight; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement No. 1 to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

SUPPLEMENT NO. 1 TO PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1 FOR DISTRICT NO. 8

Supplemental Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 8, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective 12:01 A. M. December 16, 1937.

Issued December 14, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

SUPPLEMENTAL SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR BUCHANAN COUNTY LOW VOLATILE MINES AND RED ASH MINES IN VIRGINIA AND WILLIAMSON DISTRICTS

Price Instructions and Exceptions

1. The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is submitted to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10 cents per net ton shall be made.

8. Modified 2" Nut and Slack.—2" Nut and Slack from which a portion of the 3/8", or smaller, top size by 0" has been removed, shall be sold at the following prices:

(a) When removing a portion of 3/8 to 1/8 (inclusive) by 0" slack, not exceeding 40%, the price of the modified nut and slack shall be not less than 5¢ per net ton higher than the 2" nut and slack price.

(b) When removing a portion of 3/8 to 1/8 (inclusive) by 0" slack, exceeding 40 percent and not exceeding 80 percent, the price of the modified nut and slack shall be not less than 10¢ per net ton higher than the 2" nut and slack price.

(c) When intermediate sizes, double screened, exceeding 30% and not exceeding 40%, are removed from 2" Nut and Slack, the remaining product, when re-assembled shall take Group 13 price.

(d) When intermediate sizes, double screened, exceeding 40% and not exceeding 80%, are removed from 2" Nut and Slack, the remaining product, when re-assembled, shall take a price 10 cents below Group 12 price.

(e) When intermediate sizes, double screened, exceeding 80%, are removed from 2" Nut and Slack, the remaining product, when re-assembled, shall take Group 14 price.

The above price basis for modified 2" Nut and Slack will remain in effect for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, after their effective date, subject to the District Board substantiating the necessity for such modification and prices.

9. Cannel coal prices.—

SHENANDOAH NATIONAL PARK, VIRGINIA

POLICE JURISDICTION

DECEMBER 2, 1937.

Hon. GEORGE C. PEERY,
Governor of Virginia, Richmond, Virginia.

MY DEAR GOVERNOR PEERY: Pursuant to the authority conferred by the act of Congress approved May 22, 1926 (44 Stat. 616), as amended by the acts of February 16, 1928 (45 Stat. 109), and February 4, 1932 (47 Stat. 37), this Department accepted the following deeds tendered by the State of Virginia, conveying to the United States certain lands for the Shenandoah National Park, Virginia, which was established on December 26, 1935:

| Nos.: | Accepted |
|---|---|
| 1, 2, 3 | December 26, 1935 |
| 4 | January 12, 1937 |
| 5, 6, 7 | January 13, 1937 |
| 8 | January 27, 1937 |

The aforesaid deeds were executed in the names of the State of Virginia and of the State Commission on Conservation and Development, by the Governor of Virginia and the Chairman of the said Commission, under and pursuant to the authority of the act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved March 22, 1928 (Title 10 A, Chapter 31 F, Code of Virginia, 1936). Subject to certain reservations, section 7 of this act ceded to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over and within all the territory in the State of Virginia included within the Shenandoah National Park conveyed to the United States pursuant to the said act, and provided that such jurisdiction shall not vest in the United States of America unless and until it, through the proper officer or officers, notifies the Governor and through him the State of Virginia, that the United States assumes police jurisdiction over the lands thus conveyed.

The act of Congress approved August 19, 1937 (Public No. 322—75th Congress), directs me to give notice to the State of Virginia through its Governor, as contemplated by the act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved March 28, 1928, supra, that the United States assumes police jurisdiction over lands lying in the State of Virginia and included within the Shenandoah National Park, which have been conveyed and ceded under and by authority of the said act of March 28, 1928, supra. Accordingly, notice is hereby given to the State of Virginia, through you, that, effective as of the date of the receipt hereof, the United States assumes police jurisdiction over the lands herctofore conveyed to the United States by the State of Virginia for the Shenandoah National Park, which lands are described in the eight deeds hereinabove mentioned.

It is requested that you acknowledge receipt hereof, advising the date on which received, whereupon the effective date of the assumption of police jurisdiction by the United States over the park lands in question will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Sincerely yours,

CHARLES WEST,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION.

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

PENSIONABLE AND COMPENSABLE SERVICE FOR DEATH PENSION AND COMPENSATION PURPOSES

Death of Veteran Due to Peace-time Service: Public No. 2, 73d Congress

R–2532. For the purposes of Public No. 2 (Act of March 20, 1933), the surviving widow, child or children and/or dependent mother or father of any deceased person who died as a result of injury or disease incurred in or aggravated by active military or naval service subsequent to April 20, 1898, other than in a period of war service, as provided for in Veterans Regulation No. 1 (a), Part II, Paragraph I, as amended by Public No. 159, 75th Congress (Act of June 23, 1937) shall be entitled to receive pension at the monthly rates specified in R. & P. R–2622 (C) and/or (D).

(A) If death resulted from an injury received in line of duty in actual combat in a military expedition or military occupation, the dependents shall be entitled to the war time rates specified in R. & P. R–2622 (A) and/or ( B). (V. R. 1 (a), Part II, Paragraph 1 (c)). See also R. & P. R–1067.

(B) Pension may not be allowed by virtue of death resulting from Coast Guard service during peace time unless death or the disability causing such death occurred subsequent to July 2, 1930. (A. D. 200). (December 15, 1937.)

Concurrent Payment of Two Benefits to the Same Person

R–2551 Under the provisions of Public No. 2, 73d Congress (Act of March 20, 1933) not more than one pension or award of compensation shall be payable to any one individual, except the receipt of pension or compensation by a widow, child, or parent on account of the death of any person shall not bar the payment of pension or compensation on account of the death of any other person. (V. R. No. 10, Paragraph XIII).

(A) For the purposes of Veterans Regulation No. 1 (a), Part II, paragraph I as amended by Public No. 159, 75th Congress (Act of June 23, 1937) pension shall not be paid concurrently with active duty pay or United States Employees' Compensation. Where a person who is eligible for pension is also eligible for the benefits of United States Employees' Compensation Act, he shall elect which benefit he shall receive.

(B) Pension and/or compensation benefits shall not be paid concurrently to a claimant as widow of one veteran and as the remarried widow of another veteran. (A. D. 361 and 381).

(C) As to circumstances under which both disability and death pension or compensation may be paid to the same person, see R. & P. R–1296 to 1302, R–2170, 2171, 2175, 2176 and 2177. (December 15, 1937.)

COMMENCEMENT OF ORIGINAL AWARDS OF DEATH PENSION OR COMPENSATION

Public No. 2 and Sections 28 and 31, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress

R–2574. Original awards of death pension or compensation under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, (Act of March 20, 1933), and Sections 28 and 31, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, (Act of March 28, 1934), shall commence as follows:

(A) (1) For the purposes of Public No. 2, 73d Congress, and Sections 28 and 31, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, the effective date of an award of death pension or compensation shall be fixed in accordance with the facts found, except that no award of death pension or compensation shall be effective prior to the date of the veteran's death, date of the happening of the contingency upon which death pension or compensation is allowed, or the date of receipt of application therefor, whichever is the later date; provided that in World War cases, if application is filed on or after August 16, 1937, and within one year from the date of death, the effective date shall be August 16, 1937, or the day following the date of death, whichever is the later, except that the increased rates of death compensation authorized solely under Public No. 304, 75th Congress, shall not be awarded from a date earlier than September 1, 1937. (See R. & P. R–2576)

(2) For the purposes of Sections 4 and 5 of Public No. 304, 75th Congress (Act of August 16, 1937) any claim filed, subsequent to March 19, 1933, and prior to August 16, 1937, under any law granting pension or compensation to dependents of World War veterans disallowed or abandoned prior to August 16, 1937, may, upon written notice from the claimant or his representative to the Veterans Administration be revived at any time prior to August 16, 1938, and when title is otherwise established, payments under Public No. 304, 75th Congress (Act of August 16, 1937) shall commence August 16, 1937, provided that any claim filed subsequent to March 19, 1933, and prior to August 16, 1937, in which the claimant or his representative has not been notified of the disallowance thereof or if a claim was pending on August 16, 1937, it shall be considered an application under Public No. 304, 75th Congress, without the written notice required herein and if allowable only under that Act payments shall commence August 16, 1937, except that the increased rates of death compensation authorized solely under Section 3 of Public No. 304, 75th Congress, shall not be awarded from a date earlier than September 1, 1937. (See also R. & P. R–2582 (E).)

(B) For the purposes of Veterans Regulation No. 1 (a), Part II, Paragraph 1, as amended by Public No. 159, 75th Congress (Act of June 23, 1937) granting pension to the surviving dependents of reserve officers and members of the enlisted reserves of the United States Army, Navy and Marine Corps, pension payments shall commence:

(1) Dependents of reservists whose deaths resulted from injury or disease incurred in or aggravated while in service other than for training purposes: the date of filing application or the date following the date of last payment of United States Employees' Compensation, whichever is the later, where such benefits have been awarded and the claimant has elected to receive pension.

(2) Dependents of reservists whose deaths resulted from injury or disease incurred in or aggravated while in service for training purposes:

(a) If the Army reservist (Naval reservists not entitled from July 1, 1925 to June 15, 1933) died as a result of injury or disease acquired in service prior to June 15, 1933, from the date of filing claim.

(b) If the reservist (Army or Navy) died as a result of injury or disease acquired on or after June 15, 1933, from the date of filing claim, the date following the date of last payment of United States Employees' Compensation where such benefits have been awarded and the claimant has elected to receive pension under Public No. 159, 75th Congress, or June 23, 1937, whichever is the later.

(C) Awards pursuant to claims allowed upon new and material evidence relating to the same factual basis as that of a finally disallowed claim shall commence from the date of receipt of such evidence or accompanying communication when such evidence or accompanying communication meets the requirements as to what constitutes an informal claim under current precedents and instructions. (V. R. No. 2 (d)). See also R. & P. R–1201 and 1205.

(D) Awards to children for whom a widow is in receipt of pension or compensation, when her pension or compensation is terminated upon the happening of the contingency upon which it is limited, shall commence from the date following the termination of the widow's award, without the necessity of filing an application. (13 Sol. 689.)

(E) Any claim filed prior to March 19, 1935, by a dependent mother and/or father which was pending on that date and which would have been disallowed for the reason that dependency did not exist within ten years subsequent to the death of the veteran, shall be allowed effective March 19, 1935, provided entitlement is otherwise established. Any claim filed subsequent to March 19, 1933, under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, and disallowed for the reason that dependency was not established within the required period of time, may, upon written notice from the claimant or his representative to the Veterans Administration, be revived at any time prior to March 19, 1936, and when entitlement is otherwise established payments shall commence March 19, 1935. (V. R. 2 (d).) (December 15, 1937.)

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AMENDED—MANIPULATION OF IMPORTED MERCHANDISE

APPLICATION TO MANIPULATE SHALL CONTAIN DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF CONTEMPLATED MANIPULATION; WHEN MANIPULATION PRODUCES TWO OR MORE PARTS OF AN ARTICLE CONSTITUTING AN ENTIRETY, DUTY SHALL BE ASSESSED ON THE ENTIRETY AS SUCH

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 562 and 624 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, secs. 1562 and 1624) paragraph (a) of article 944 of the Customs Regulations of 1937 is hereby amended to read as follows:

"(a) The application to manipulate, which shall be filed in duplicate on customs Form 3499 with the collector having jurisdiction of the warehouse, shall describe the contemplated manipulation in sufficient detail to enable the collector to determine whether the imported merchandise is to be cleaned, sorted, repacked, or otherwise changed in condition, but not manufactured, within the meaning of section 562. If the collector is satisfied that the merchandise is to be so manipulated, he may issue a permit on customs Form 3499, making any necessary modification in such form. Manipulation resulting in a change in condition of the merchandise which will make it subject to a lower rate of duty or free of duty upon withdrawal for consumption is not precluded by the provisions of section 562; but if the manipulation produces two or more parts of an article constituting an entirety, the parts shall not be classified separately and duty shall be assessed on the entirety as such."

SALE OF ETHYL ACETATE AND LACQUER THINNERS

To District Supervisors and Others Concerned:

Treasury Decision 4745, approved June 24, 1937, is hereby modified to read as follows:

Paragraph (6), of Section 2, Title I, of the "Liquor Law Repeal and Enforcement Act," reads as follows:

(6) The term "regulation" shall mean any regulation prescribed by The Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury for carrying out the provisions of this title or of Title III of the National Prohibition Act, and the Commissioner is authorized to make such regulations.

Pursuant to authority conferred by the statute above quoted, the last paragraph of Article 136, Regulations 3, is hereby revoked and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

"Ethyl acetate and lacquer thinners may be sold by producers thereof to (1) legitimate users for solvent or other manufacturing purposes and (2) reputable wholesale and retail dealers engaged in a bona fide paint or chemical trade for resale to legitimate users either in manufacturers' original packages or in smaller containers not exceeding five gallons in capacity filled by such dealers.

"Sales by producers to wholesale and retail dealers shall be in containers of a capacity of not more than 55 gallons, and shall not exceed a total of 550 gallons to any wholesale or retail dealer during any calendar month. Sales by any wholesale or retail dealer shall not exceed 550 gallons during a calendar month, and not more than 55 gallons shall be sold by them to a customer at any one time: Provided, that such sales to wholesale and retail dealers and by such dealers may exceed the above maximum sales limitations of 550 gallons, and 550 gallons and 55 gallons, respectively, upon the production of evidence satisfactory to the District Supervisor that there is a need for ethyl acetate and lacquer thinners by such dealers and their customers in greater quantities to supply their legitimate needs.

"Tank car shipments of ethyl acetate and lacquer thinners may be made by the producer direct to a legitimate user, provided authorization therefor is obtained by the user from the District Supervisor in whose district he is located.

"Producers and wholesale dealers will be responsible for delivery of the product direct to their customers and must satisfy themselves that the purchaser is engaged in a lawful business, and that the quantity purchased is intended for legitimate purposes. Retail dealers must not sell ethyl acetate and lacquer thinners under circumstances from which they might reasonably deduce that it is the intention of the purchaser to procure the same for diversion to illegal purposes.

"Containers of ethyl acetate and lacquer thinners, irrespective of size, must have marked thereon the name of the product, the quantity, and the name and address of the producer, or, in lieu thereof, the name and address of the wholesale or retail dealer and the permit number and state of the producer.

"Producers of ethyl acetate shall continue to file daily reports of shipments of ethyl acetate."

REVOCATION OF RULES AND REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE FLOATING OF LOOSE LOGS AND OTHER METHODS OF NAVIGATION ON LITTLE RIVER, ARKANSAS AND MISSOURI

DECEMBER 8, 1937.

To the SECRETARY OF WAR.

1. In pursuance of the authority conferred by Act of Congress approved May 9, 1900, entitled "An Act authorizing the Secretary of War to make regulations governing the running of loose logs, steamboats, and rafts on certain rivers and streams", the Acting Secretary of War on June 27, 1905, approved regulations governing the floating of loose timber on Little River, Arkansas and Missouri, between its confluence with the Saint Francis River near Marked Tree, Arkansas, and the town of Hornersville, Missouri.

2. Since Congress by Act approved March 2, 1919, declared the Little River from Marked Tree to Big Lake in Mississippi County, Arkansas, to be not a navigable waterway of the United States within the meaning of the laws enacted by Congress for the protection of such waterways, the regulations are virtually of no force and effect, and I recommend that they be revoked.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 126]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 89, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER ONE

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 89 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number One as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number One, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number One, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number One, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number One, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number One, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement Number One to Price Schedule Number One—District Number One, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement Number One, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number One, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 89, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement Number One to Price Schedule Number One—District Number One to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area One; to code members within District Number One; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement Number One to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

SUPPLEMENT NO. 1 TO PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1 FOR DISTRICT NO. 1

Supplemental Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 1 Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective 12:01 A. M. December 16, 1937.

Issued December 14, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

1. The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10 cents per net ton shall be made.

7.[1] Straight mine run coal containing more than 45% of minus ¾" Slack may be modified by removing that portion of ¾" Slack in excess of 45%.

SUBSTITUTION CLAUSE

The substitution on any order of a grade or size of coal taking a minimum price higher than the grade or size ordered is not authorized or permitted.

Size Groups for Market Areas Nos. 1, 1A, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, (13), 7, 8, 9, 10 and 12. For All Other Market Areas Base Size Groups Shown on Page 4 May Be Used

RAILROAD LOCOMOTIVE FUEL PRICES (ON AND OFF LINE)

All coal, except lump or double screened sizes, sold for Railroad Locomotive Fuel shall take a minimum price of $2.15 per net ton of 2,000 pounds f. o. b. mines.

Lump or any double screened coal ordered or sold for Locomotive Fuel, shall take a minimum price of $2.30 per net ton of 2,000 pounds f. o. b. mines.

When coal, other than Locomotive Fuel, is sold to a railroad the price shall be not less than the minimum established for the grade and size sold, applicable to the market area in which the mine is located.

Above prices are not subject to freight rate adjustment.[1]

STEAMSHIP BUNKER COAL PRICES

1. Steamship Bunker Coal shall be defined as coal that is furnished for a vessel's own consumption, to steamers ordinarily carrying cargo or passengers and engaged in foreign or coastwise trade.

2. Minimum prices for such bunker coal for the ports of New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore shall be as follows:

| Bunker classification | Price index | Price port of New York (per gross ton) | Price port of Philadelphia (per gross ton) | Price port of Baltimore (per gross ton) |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| A* | Mine Run Index A, B, C, C1* and C2*. | $5.37 FAS (Note 1). | $5.22 F. O. B. cars at piers. | $5.15 F. O. B. cars at piers. |
| B | Mine Run Index D, and E. | $5.77 FAS (Note 1). | $5.12 F. O. B. cars at piers. | $5.05 F. O. B. cars at piers. |
| C | Mine Run Index F, and G. | $5.67 FAS (Note 1). | $5.02 F. O. B. cars at piers. | $4.95 F. O. B. cars at piers. |

*Correction.

3. The mine index letters shown are those for mine run coal. Sizes other than mine run may be supplied at the same prices from the mines included in the mine run index shown.

4. "Steamship Bunker" coal furnished ex lighter at Port of New York to vessels requiring 249 gross tons or less, prices f. o. b. piers plus all charges for delivery shall apply.

5. The above prices are not subject to any freight rate adjustments.

NOTE 1.—Price includes 30¢ per ton for towing or lightering.

[Order No. 128]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 91, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER THREE

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 91 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Three as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Three, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Three, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Three, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Three, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Three, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Three, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement No. 1, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Three, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 91, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Three to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area One; to code members within District Number Three; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement No. 1 to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

SUPPLEMENT NO. 1 TO PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1 FOR DISTRICT NO. 3

Supplemental Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 3 Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective 12:01 A. M. December 16, 1937.
Issued December 14, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

1. The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. Funds.

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 pounds f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil, or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10 cents per net ton shall be made.

7.[1] The following mines, which are classified and priced herein as producers of the Pittsburgh Seam Low Sulphur (under 1.35 Sulphur) Coal, also produce what is recognized as Pittsburgh Seam High Sulphur Coal. BASIS FOR FREIGHT RATE ADJUSTMENT

Market Areas Nos. 1, 1A, 3 [1]

Designated base rate.—Fairmont District Rate.

Rates higher than base.—On shipments destined within the above named Market Areas the minimum f. o. b. mine price may be reduced by an amount in cents per net ton (not in excess of 35¢) sufficient to equalize the actual freight rate with the Fairmont District base rate indicated above.

Rates lower than base.—Where the applying freight rate is less than the Fairmont District base rate designated above the minimum f. o. b. mine price shall be increased by an amount in cents per net ton sufficient to equalize the actual freight rate with such base rate: Provided, That the amount of such increase may be limited to a maximum of 35¢.

(Area No. 12 Eliminated.)

Market Area No. 2

[Order No. 131]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 95, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER SEVEN

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 95 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Seven as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Seven, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Seven, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Seven, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Seven, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Seven, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Seven, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement No. 1, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Seven, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 95, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Seven to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area One, to code members within District Number Seven; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement No. 1 to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH Secretary.

SUPPLEMENT No. 1 TO PRICE SCHEDULE No. 1 FOR DISTRICT No. 7

Supplemental Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 7, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective 12:01 A. M. December 16, 1937.

Issued December 14, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

PRICE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

1. The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

2. All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10 cents per net ton shall be made.

7. Limitations of Coarse Coal content applicable to Domestic and Standard Mine Run, Low Volatile Coals:

For Shipment to All Market Areas

| | A | B | C | D |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Domestic Mine Run: Coarse Coal Content | 60% | 75% | 60% | 60% |
| Standard Mine Run: Coarse Coal Content | 40% | 45% | 40% | 40% |

DEFINITION OF "COARSE COAL CONTENT"

Coarse coal content is defined as such sizes of coal as would pass over a ¾" round hole screen at the time it leaves the loading boom or chute at the tipple to enter the railroad car or truck.

Low Volatile Coals—Size Specifications and Base Size Groups

| Base size group number | |
|---|---|
| No. 1, Lump | Includes all lump coal having a minimum bottom size of ¾" or more. |
| No. 2, Egg | Includes all sizes of coal having a maximum top size of 8" or less, but more than 3", and a minimum bottom size of ¾" or more. |
| No. 3, Stove | Includes all sizes of coal having a maximum top size of 3" or less, but more than 1¼", and a minimum bottom size of ¼" or more. |
| No. 4, Nut | Includes all sizes of coal having a maximum top size of 1¼" or less, but more than ¼", and a minimum bottom size of ¼" or more. |
| No. 5, Pea | Includes all sizes of pea coal having a maximum top size of ¾" and a minimum bottom size of ¼" or more. Includes all sizes of screenings from 1¼" x 0" to ¾" x 0" from which any size less than ¼" has been eliminated. |
| No. 6, Domestic Mine Run [1] | Includes all mine run coal, either straight or modified, that has a maximum coarse coal content for base ("A") coals (except where otherwise stated) of 60% or less and that has a minimum coarse coal content of more than 40%. |
| No. 7, Standard Mine Run [1] | Includes all mine run coal, either straight or modified, that has a maximum coarse coal content for base ("A") coals of 40% or less and a minimum coarse coal content that exceeds the size tolerance of 3% on 2¼" screenings.[1] |
| No. 8, 1¼" Screenings | Includes all sizes of screenings with a maximum top size of 1¼" and a minimum top size of ⅞" from which no elimination of any intermediate size from ¼" to 0" has been made. |
| No. 9, ¾" Screenings | Includes all sizes of screenings with a maximum top size of ¾" or less from which no elimination of any intermediate size from ¼" to 0" has been made. |
| Coarse Coal Content | Coarse coal content is defined as such sizes of coal as would pass over a ¾" round-hole screen at the time it leaves the loading boom or chute at the tipple to enter the railroad car or truck. |

The definition of Domestic and Standard Run of Mine Coal and Prices thereon as designated herein, will remain in effect for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, after their effective date, subject to the District Board substantiating the necessity for such designation for these grades.[1]

Any size larger than the maximum top and/or bottom size shown in a group shall be included in the next higher price group.

[Order No. 137]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 99, AND REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CODE MEMBERS PRODUCED WITHIN DISTRICT NUMBER ELEVEN

The National Bituminous Coal Commission having by its Order No. 99 determined and established the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Eleven as set forth in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eleven, which together with an appendage entitled, "Description of Market Areas" was incorporated therein by reference, and the Commission upon its own motion having reviewed said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eleven, and determined that the provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act and the purposes thereof, will be carried out more effectively by revising said Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eleven, as hereinafter provided.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the Minimum Prices of Coals of Code Members Produced within District Number Eleven, established in Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eleven, are hereby corrected and revised as set forth in Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eleven, filed this day in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and made a part hereof by reference as though fully set forth herein, and such minimum prices as shown in said Supplement No. 1, shall be and hereby are determined and established as the minimum prices of coals of code members within the said District Number Eleven, shall be and become effective at 12:01 o'clock A. M. on the 16th day of December, 1937.

2. That said Order No. 99, as modified herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order and Supplement No. 1 to Price Schedule Number One—District Number Eleven to the Consumers' Counsel; the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the Districts within Minimum Price Area Two; to code members within District Number Eleven; shall cause copies of this order and said Supplement No. 1 to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission; and shall cause to be published a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1937.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

SUPPLEMENT NO. 1 TO PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 1 FOR DISTRICT NO. 11

Supplemental Schedule of Minimum Prices for Coals of Code Members Produced within District No. 11, Established Pursuant to the Provisions of the "Bituminous Coal Act of 1937."

Effective 12:01 A. M., December 16, 1937.

Issued December 14, 1937.

F. W. MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

Price Instructions and Exceptions

Item No. 1. The schedule of prices shown herein applies f. o. b. transportation facilities at mines on all coal produced by Code Members in the District shown on the title page hereof.

Item No. 2. All prices are subject to the Marketing Rules and Regulations issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

Item No. 3. All size designations herein are for round hole screens. When other types of screens are used the round hole equivalent shall control the size.

Item No. 4. In the sale of coal to destined points outside the boundary of the United States, prices stipulated herein are for payment in U. S. funds.

Item No. 5. All prices herein are per net ton of 2,000 lbs. f. o. b. transportation facilities at the mines unless otherwise designated.

Item No. 6. When coal is subjected to any chemical, oil or waxing process, an additional charge of not less than 10 cents per net ton shall be made.

Item No. 7. Picking-table reject coal.—The price of unwashed picking-table reject coal, 1¾"[1] top sizes or less, commonly known as breaker screenings, for delivery in all market areas, shall be 25¢ per ton less than the price of 1½" or 1¼" screenings of the same classification, except that the price of such coal produced at Class F mines shall be the same as the price of such coal produced at Class E mines.

Picking-table reject coal crushed 1¾"[1] or smaller, and washed or air-cleaned, containing an ash content of not less than raw screenings from the same mine, may be sold at not less than the minimum price established for raw screenings of similar top size.

Item No. 9. Mechanical cleaned and/or washed nut and stoker coals.—All mechanically cleaned and/or washed nut and stoker coals in size groups 6, 7 and 8[1] shall be priced a minimum of ten cents (10¢) per net ton higher than raw coal of the same size.

Raw screenings.—Raw screenings is coal which has passed through round hole screens 2 inch, 1½ inch, 1¼ inch, 1 inch, or ¾ inch in diameter, or the equivalent thereof, to which nothing has been added and from which nothing has been removed.

Washed screenings.—Washed screenings as referred to in this schedule of minimum prices shall consist of 2 inch, 1½ inch, 1¼ inch, 1 inch, and ¾ inch screenings from which no fines greater than ½ millimeter have been removed before or after washing.

Modified screenings.—Modified screenings are screenings from which a portion of the fines have been removed through screens with openings smaller than No. 6 mesh; or, screenings from which sufficient 3/8" x 0" fines have been removed to leave not less than 23.5 percent of 3/8" x 0" fines in the modified screenings.

Picking-table reject coal.—Picking-table reject coal, commonly known as breaker screenings, are screenings made by crushing or breaking, in a Bradford or similar type of breaker, reject coal from picking tables which contains an excessive amount of impurities.

Item No. 10. 3/8" minus coals.—For application in all Market Areas, the prices of the sizes of coal indicated below will be determined by deducting from the prices of 1¼" raw screenings (Size Group No. 11), the amounts per ton shown opposite each size.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 3/8" Minus (washed) | 15 | cents per ton. |
| 3/8" Minus (air-cleaned) | 15 | cents per ton. |
| 3/8" x 10 Mesh (raw) | 15 | cents per ton. |
| 3/8" x 10 Mesh (water dedusted) | 20 | cents per ton. |
| 3/8" x 28 Mesh (water dedusted) | 25 | cents per ton. |
| 10 Mesh x 28 Mesh (water dedusted) | 80[1] | cents per ton. |

11. Brazil Block 2" and 2½" Lump.—The prices of 2 inch and 2½ inch Brazil Block lump coal, for delivery in all Market Areas, will be 10 cents per ton less than the prices published for those sizes of coal in Size Group No. 1.

12. Two inch screenings.—The prices in all Market Areas of 2" screenings of their respective preparation (raw, washed, dedusted and modified) shall be ten (10) cents per ton higher than the prices of the corresponding preparation of 1½" and 1¼" screenings.

13. Over-size block screenings.—The price of 2½ inch Brazil Block raw screenings for delivery in all Market Areas, will be the same as the price of 2 inch Brazil Block modified screenings.

BASIS FOR FREIGHT RATE ADJUSTMENT

Absorption of freight differentials.—The prices published in this schedule are based upon: (a)[a] the freight rates in effect from the Brazil-Clinton District (base group) to destinations where the freight rates from the other origin groups are related by fixed differentials, or (b) the lowest freight rate from any group to destinations where the freight rates from the various Indiana origin groups are not related by fixed differentials.

For the purpose of effecting the same delivered price, in the same market area, of all Indiana coals of the same classification, the f. o. b. mine prices published in this schedule may be reduced by the amounts in cents per net ton indicated for each producing district in connection with each of the market areas shown below:

Market Area No. 29

Coals produced in—
Linton-Sullivan Group---------- 10 cents per ton.
Princeton-Ayrshire Group------- 22 cents per ton.
Boonville Group ---------- 25 cents per ton.
Evansville Group ---------- 30 cents per ton.

Market Areas Nos. 27, 28, 30, 31, 33, 34, 99, 100, 101,[1] 102, 104, to 112, inclusive; 136 to 147, inclusive; and that part of the State of Kansas in Market Area No. 118

Coals produced in—
Linton-Sullivan Group---------- 10 cents per ton.
Princeton-Ayrshire Group ------- 17 cents per ton.
Boonville Group ---------- 20 cents per ton.
Evansville Group ---------- 30 cents per ton.

Market Areas Nos. 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, and 36

Any producer may shrink the f. o. b. mine prices published for his or its coal for delivery in the above market areas sufficiently to absorb the difference between the published freight rate from his or its mine and the lowest published freight rate from any Indiana mine to the same destination; Provided, That in no instance shall the absorption of freight differences exceed 35 cents per net ton.

Exception.—The absorption of freight rate differences between Indiana mines shall not be predicated on the obsolete rates published from Cates and Cayuga on the N. Y. C. & St. L., and Owensburg on the C. I. & L., to points on those roads and connecting lines.

Market Area No. 22

Any producer may shrink the f. o. b. mine prices published for his or its coal for delivery in the above Market Area sufficiently to absorb the difference between the published rate from his or its mine and a rate of 50 cents per ton.

Market Areas Nos. 24, 25, 26, 32; 113 to 117, Inclusive; and That Part of Missouri in Market Area No. 118

The prices published in this schedule for application to coal for delivery in the above market areas, shall not be reduced to equalize any differences in the freight rates from the producing districts in Indiana to points in the aforesaid Market Areas.
